

Out of Context: Dreamlander Supplement

V1 By FutureMobile4, Original Template by DeverosSphere

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have the Kirby franchise within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be a denizen of Dreamland on the star shaped planet Popstar and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In awakening in a star shaped pod after crashing into the planet.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin:

As a native of the planet Popstar, Dreamlanders come in all shapes and sizes and many possess incredible abilities. Not all beings who call Dreamland home originated there yet they've managed to find a place for themselves.

Puffball

You are similar to Kirby in appearance, although you can change that if you wish. While you may not possess his immense power you can inhale objects and puff up like a balloon just like him. Although you may be cute and cuddly within you is the potential to achieve great things.

Dreamlander

The natural inhabitants of the Land of Dreams come in all shapes and sizes, along with varying abilities. From the loyal and hardworking Waddle Dees and Doos, to the adorable yet terrifying Scarfies, to the combatant Sir Kibbles the options are nearly limitless.

Outsider

You're one of the many outsiders that have found Dreamland and chosen to make this place your home, after you probably tried to take it over. Maybe you're a denizen of the Mirror World like Shadow Kirby, from another dimension like Magolor, a cyborg from the Haltmann Works Company, a dreadful Dark Matter, or a human who appeared outta nowhere the possibilities are endless.

Perks:

General Perks:

Gluttonous Gourmand - Free

One interesting aspect of Dreamlanders is their ability to scarf down massive amounts of food with no ill effects. In addition, consuming food also heals them, with tomatoes restoring them to full health, for some strange reason. Now you too possess this ability and while you may never beat Kirby in an eating contest you can give him a decent challenge. Can be toggled.

Magical Music - Free

If there is one thing that everyone can agree about when it comes to the Kirby Series, is that the music will always be awesome. As such, you get the ENTIRE soundtrack of the Kirby franchise for you to enjoy those amazing tunes whenever you choose. The music can be made to match your current situation, whether you're in a deadly battle, adventuring throughout the lands, or just relaxing with your friends. If allowed to be heard by others they'll find nothing wrong or weird about it. Can be toggled.

Delightful Dreams - Free

Can't be a dreamlander if you don't have this. Whenever you sleep you'll experience incredibly pleasant lucid dreams. What's more you are protected against any type of sleeping/dream curse, illness, or attack. Can be toggled.

Winning Waltz - Free

You've successfully defeated the Big Bad and saved the world, now there is only one thing left to do: DANCE! Whenever you've defeated a major threat you can temporarily pause reality to engage in a victory dance with you and any allies. You also gain incredible dancing skills. Can be toggled.

Poyo! - Free

Despite most of the beings in the Kirby series having no mouths and coming from various locations across the galaxy they can all understand each other with no issues. Even Kirby, who only says Poyo, can easily convey his thoughts and feelings to others. Now you too can understand anyone you communicate with, even beings unable to talk or speak. Can be toggled.

Power Type Origin - Free (Cannot be taken with "Not Drop In")

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting as if you were using this Supplement.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 "Out of Context Origin Perks" from other Supplements)

Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

Friend Shaped - 100 CP

One thing nearly all denizens of Dreamland have in common is that they all appear cute and cuddly despite their abilities. Now you too share this trait as you can make both yourself and your alt-forms incredibly adorable. In addition, you are very good at making friends.

Dream Team - 200 CP

In Dreamland, teamwork and camaraderie are very present in the people with very few exceptions. Being able to work efficiently with others is important when fighting to protect your home. As such when working in a team you'll find your skills and powers, as well as your team's, greatly enhanced.

Copy Ability - 400 CP

This power usually only used by Kirby is now yours to use, the ability to copy the abilities of those you come in contact with. A major downside to this power is that your copied abilities are not as powerful as the original and often follow a theme. For example, copying someone like Meta Knight would give you a Sword copy ability rather than his powers. These new powers last until you either discard it or sustain too much damage to maintain it. How you copy their abilities is up to you.

Blessed By The Stars - 600 CP

It would seem that you've been born under a very lucky star, possessing within you incredible power just waiting to be awakened. As you journey across the lands you'll find yourself acquiring and mastering new powers and abilities. Learning and mastering in months what would take others years. Using magic as an example, with a few months of training you could become one of the greatest magic users. In addition, it would seem that you are protected by fate and destiny, ensuring that you'll never suffer some random death or harm while ensuring that you will discover many wondrous things on your journey.

Copy Ability Booster: Super Star Ultra

Rather than being born under one star you seem to be born under all of them. This grants you a powerful connection to stars allowing you to accomplish many wondrous feats. From drawing on them to increase your power, reading them to guide you and predict the future, firing star-shaped energy blasts, purifying dark and corruptive energies, and granting minor wishes. Once per jump, or every 10 years, you can grant incredibly powerful wishes for either yourself or others. See Notes for further details.

Copy Ability Booster: Child of the Cosmos (Requires Super Tuff Pink Puff, Big Boss, and Ancient's Legacy)

You're not just connected to the stars but rather the universe in its entirety, granting you not just a major power boost but many new abilities to use. One such ability is cosmic awareness, increasing the range of your senses to a universal level while allowing you to focus them on specific locations. Next up is the ability to draw on the very energy of the universe to use in a variety of ways, ranging from healing to telepathy to energy attacks to protective barriers and many more applications. Once per jump, or every 10 years, you can take on an immensely powerful form that enhances all of your powers and abilities by a factor of 100. See Notes for further details.

Dream Team Booster: Star Allies

So strong is the bond between you and your allies that you can perfectly coordinate and execute incredible teamwork with little to no effort. Your abilities perfectly synergize and combine well with others to create incredibly powerful abilities. You and your allies will be able to communicate mentally with each other from great distances and sense when the others are in danger.

Puffball Perk Tree:

Incorruptible - 100 CP (Free for Puffball)

Within you is a boundless inner strength, one that lets you endure any trauma and hardship no matter how severe and withstand even the most powerful of corruptions. Mind control, possession, curses, and more all have no hold over you. Your mind, body, and soul are safe from any form of corruption.

Healing Kiss - 200 CP (Discounted for Puffball)

Whenever you heal from damage you can share that same healing ability with others through physical contact. The rate in which the target is healed is half the rate of your healing. Despite the name of this perk you don't need to kiss them in order to share the healing, just any form of physical contact.

Knightmare - 400 CP (Discounted for Puffball)

You are a peerless warrior, a master of combat with little to no equal. Even without a weapon you could tear through groups of heavily armed and trained warriors with no issue and with a weapon you are nigh-unstoppable. From swinging swords fast enough to send out sharp gusts of air, stabbing multiple targets in quick succession with spears there is nearly nothing you can't do with a weapon in your hand. And should you desire to get stronger you'll find your training greatly increases your growth, allowing you to achieve in months what would take others years.

Copy Ability Boost: Galactic

You were a peerless warrior before, now it would seem fit to call you a god of war with this level of power. Able to decimate legions of legendary warriors with little effort and master any weapon or technique within minutes it is safe to say that those who've heard of you dread seeing you, even more so facing you. Although redundant since you're already the strongest, should you desire even more power, attaining it will be as easy as breathing, growing stronger from even minor training.

Super Tuff Pink Puff - 600 CP (Discounted for Puffball)

Just like the famous pink puffball himself you possess limitless potential, ensuring that your growth is endless. Cooking, cleaning, dancing, singing, fighting, and even more, when you focus on improving yourself and learning new skills you'll find your growth rate skyrocketing. In time you'll be able to achieve incredible things with the skills you've acquired. Cook food so delicious that it can heal people, sing songs that can provide buffs and boost your allies, and many, many more amazing things. In time you'll become a king of all trades.

Blessed By The Stars Booster: Hypernova

Rather than using your now limitless potential to learn a multitude of skills you can instead focus all your efforts toward one, which will allow it to reach levels never seen before. As an example, improving your skill with a sword to eventually cut through dimensions, learning to cook food that give status buffs when eaten, using bubbles to clean away the corruption and darkness within someone's mind, and so many more.

Healing Kiss Booster: Power Kiss

Rather than just sharing healing, you can also share any power-ups and boosts you receive with your allies. In addition, rather than having to touch your allies to share these gifts they only need to be within a 5-meter radius to gain them. This range increases by 5-meters every year.

Dreamlander Perk Tree:

Indigestible - 100 CP (Free for Dreamlander)

Considering that most of the beings here have the ability to swallow people whole, this perk is a perfect boon. You are now unable to be consumed, absorbed, or assimilated by anything. This includes your mind, body, and soul.

Royal Payback - 200 CP (Discounted for Dreamlander)

You may be down but you're certainly not out Jumper, thanks to this perk. Should you be defeated in battle you'll gain a second wind that heals all your wounds and restores your stamina and energy, allowing you to continue the fight fresh against a tired opponent.

Super Dream - 400 CP (Discounted for Dreamlander)

Unlike other members of your kind you possess incredible power within you, which puts you leagues above them in terms of power and ability. This results in you being larger and stronger than your fellow Dreamlanders, allowing you to dish out and endure far more punishment. Any special abilities you possess are greatly amplified in power and versatility. For example, as a Waddle Doo you could manifest and control your beam ability in ways similar to how Kirby does it.

Copy Ability Boost: Ultra Dream

You're far more powerful than before, to the point that you could give Kirby and his friends a decent fight. Your powers have been increased even further, to the level that you could do things with your abilities that shouldn't be capable. Using Waddle Doo as an example again you could perform the same feats Kirby did with the Flare Beam super ability.

Big Boss - 600 CP (Discounted for Dreamlander)

You are not a normal denizen of Dreamland, instead you're one of the many bosses that can be found scattered across the land. Possessing power and skill to challenge the likes of Kirby and his allies you are a force to be reckoned with. Should you take sufficient enough damage you'll gain a major boost in power as well as new abilities to use against your opponent.

Blessed By The Stars Booster: Final Boss

You're not some run of the mill boss but a being capable of threatening the galaxy with your power. With your power you can casually destroy planets and withstand blows from the likes of Kirby himself, possess nearly limitless stamina, move fast enough to dodge light and more.

Royal Payback Booster: Revenge of the King

Rather than simply restoring you to your prime when defeated, this perk now triples your power level, including the capabilities of any abilities you possess.

Outsider Perk Tree:

Trustworthy? - 100 CP (Free for Outsider)

There's something about you that makes you seem trustworthy in the eyes of others. Maybe it's your cute appearance, the way you talk, or something else but people seem to trust you far more than they should. What you choose to do with this trust is up to you but do be careful you don't betray the wrong person.

Trickster - 200 CP (Discounted for Outsider)

You're a master of trickery and deception, able to fool the most perceptive of people and manipulate others into doing your bidding. Any lies you tell will be seen as truthful to others without concrete evidence saying otherwise. You are also a master of disguise, allowing you to adopt any guise with ease and fool even the smartest of people.

EX Mode - 400 CP (Discounted for Outsider)

It seems that in your quest for power you've unlocked an incredible new transformation, one that boosts your power and capabilities a dozen fold. This form, called EX Mode, greatly enhances you and grants your new abilities. This form is exhausting to use for more than 10 mins, but with enough training you'll see that weakness disappear.

Copy Ability Boost: Jumper Soul

It would appear that you've died, Jumper. Normally this would mean the end of your jump, but it seems you have the unique ability to survive without a body. You can now continue living on as a soul, allowing you to do all the things you could normally do without the need for a physical body. Most importantly, without the limitations of a physical form your power and abilities have been boosted a hundred-fold with little to no strain. See Notes for further details.

Ancient's Legacy - 600 CP (Discounted for Outsider)

The Ancients were a group of powerful beings wielding advanced magitech capable of incredible feats. Reality altering supercomputers, dimension hopping spaceships, wish-granting clockwork stars, weapons of incredible cosmic might, and more are well within their capabilities and now yours.

Blessed By The Stars Booster: Void

You've managed to achieve something that even the Ancients failed to do: harness the endless, destructive power of the Void. You can now channel the Void into powerful energy blasts, nigh-unbreakable constructs, use it to teleport across the galaxy, open portals to the Void, and so much more. You can also transform into a colossal mass of Void energy, the shape and form of which is yours to choose. This form is difficult and exhausting to maintain at first and will require intense training to master.

Trickster Booster: Cosmic Manipulator

Your skills in deception and trickery extend far beyond the physical realm. Now your tricks can work on things like the wind, the sea, the stars, and even the sun and moon. Manipulating the wind to cool you down or knock down your enemies or causing the sun and moon to fight are just a few of the many things you can do. Once per jump should you die you can trick Death into believing you didn't die. Don't expect that to work twice.

Items:

Any lost or stolen items will return to you after a week in the same condition as when you had it. Any damaged items could potentially be repaired and have the broken condition removed if worked on by a capable engineer.

Creative Clothing - Free

You have access to an entire store's worth of colorful and festive clothing, all tailor made to fit whatever body type you possess. These clothing come in a variety of colors and styles, for many occasions.

Festive Food - Free

One thing that Dreamlanders love to do most is eat and now you have access to a veritable feast in the form of a bottomless picnic basket, giving you access to any type of food you desire. All food created this way will always be healthy, nutritious, delicious, and at the perfect temperature.

Maxim Tomatoes - 100 CP

These large tomatoes with a bold M on them are the ultimate healing item, able to restore someone on the brink of death to full health in an instant. As such you now have a box filled with 10 of these tomatoes that will replenish in a day after usage.

Warp Star - 200 CP

The personal vehicle of Kirby, this yellow cartoonish looking star is able to traverse the cosmos at unimaginable speeds, allowing you to travel nearly anywhere in the universe quickly. This star can be called upon and sent away with a thought and can hold up to four people.

Invincible Candy - 300 CP

These delectable candies possess an incredible amount of energy, causing consumers to become invincible to harm for 15 seconds. You now have a small pack of 5 of these candies, which will replenish in a day.

Halberd - 400 CP

The flagship of Meta Knight and his crew, this colossal ship comes with a large assortment of weapons powerful enough to threaten a major country, defenses to withstand a global assault, and able to travel through space at FTL speeds. Most importantly is the ship's ability to incorporate new technology into its hardware and systems with ease. It's large enough to hold a small army's worth of people.

Lor Starcutter - 500 CP

This incredible ship, created by the Ancients, is capable of opening portals to Another Dimension, allowing it to travel to other realities. Possesses a supercomputer with an advanced A.I. along with powerful defenses to protect it from attacks. It's large enough to hold a large group of people with many amenities along with a variety of rooms. These rooms consist of a library, a game room, training room, automated kitchen, medical room with automated systems, and many more.

Robobot - 600 CP

This armor, created and used by the Haltmann Works Company, is an advanced piece of technology capable of incredible feats. With jets for flight, screwdriver and wrench tools, along with two vehicle modes for traversing the land and sky. Its best feature however is the ability to copy the attributes/abilities of the pilot.

Legendary Weapon - 700 CP

You now have access to an immensely powerful weapon, one equal in power to Galaxia itself. This weapon greatly enhances and abilities you have while also having its own unique power, which you can choose. This weapon is indestructible and can only be wielded by you and those you choose.

Popstar - 800 CP

The planet Popstar, a strange star shaped planet that is the home of Kirby and his many friends, as well as the primary target for many invasions, is now yours to own. Roughly the same size as Planet Earth, this planet is a veritable paradise, one full of bright, helpful denizens ready to welcome newcomers with open arms.

Notes

Super Star Ultra

The wishes are at a level of the Dragon Balls after Dende upgraded them.

Jumper's Soul

Being reduced to nothing but your soul will not lead to you failing the jumpchain. However, should you die again without some other form of 1-up it's over for you. If you do have more 1-ups then you can resurrect yourself in your full form or just your soul.

Child of the Cosmos

The effects of this perk stay with you in future jumps, automatically giving you a connection to the universe of said jump.
