Out of Context RESIDENT EVIL Tyrant Supplement finished version

Finished By clown-kills-you

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have Resident Evil Tyrants within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be a Tyrant and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In awakening in a drop pod from the umbrella corporation.

As a Tyrant you are visibly similar to a Human, unless you choose not to be.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin

Nemesis-T type

Ah. So you've chosen to be the Nemesis-T type. Standing at 7 feet 3 inches (2.21 m) tall and weighing about 1,192 kg you are a nightmare to fight with your regeneration and various forms and weapons. Tonight is a good night for S.T.A.R gazing

Ustanak

Ustanak is the true pinnacle of the J'avo In every way. From his incredible strength to his nearly indestructible body. Add in his deadly prosthetic arm and you have yourself one scary son of a bitch. Good thing you're him huh?

Thanatos Tyrant

The Thanatos Tyrant is on the scarier side because it's fast. Scary fast. And has high amounts of agility.

Perks:

Note:

To get a Booster: Perk you will need to purchase the complimentary Perks as an example:

Almost Unique -??? CP

Something Rare Booster: Something Unique

In order to get the Perk Something Unique, you need to take both the Almost Unique Perk that it follows and the Something Rare Perk that is commented before the boosted Perk.

General Perks:

Tyrant Physiology- Free

All Tyrants have superhuman strength and durability. Strong enough to casually punch through concrete walls with ease as well as crush human skulls with one hand and a single punch can kill a man nearly instantly. A Tyrant's durability is good enough to ignore small arms fire, though more powerful weapons can stun them. Compared to "G", the Tyrant possesses an inferior regenerative healing factor. It can easily heal from the damage done by small knives or a bullet to the head. However, sustaining catastrophic damage like having its entire torso ripped out would kill it.

Adaptive Regeneration- Free

If its power-limiting coat is lost and has suffered significant damage, a Tyrant will mutate into different forms that depend on the Tyrant. However, a lot have a similar theme of having claws.

Out of Context: Resident Evil Tyrant Supplement V5

Power Type Origin - Free (Cannot be taken with “Not Drop In”)

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting as if you were using this Supplement.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 “Out of Context Origin Perks” from other Supplements)

Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

Unflinching -100 CP

Tyrants seem to know somehow when they're damaged yet feel no pain. Now you're the same as your brethren. You instantly know when you're damaged but feel no pain. And you know what type of damage it is. Burning cutting blunt. Enjoy the look on your target's face when they stab you in the hand while you're holding them only to simply pull the knife out without flinching.

Jumper -200 CP

No, not the coat or movie. You can jump great Distances. This perk would let a normal human jump onto the balcony of a second floor from the ground. They think they're safe up there? Guess again.

Combat Tendrils -400 CP

Like the Nemesis-T type you have combat tendrils that extend from your hands and back. They're powerful enough to punch through a human skull with ease and come out the back. And are dexterous enough to use guns and keypads. When cut off they grow back extremely quickly

Ever Growing -600 CP

Oh...oh dear...there was only one other like you before. A.K.A. the Hypnos Tyrant. If that doesn't make sense then this will. You now have the Hypnos gene, which results in your cells constantly fighting and trying to kill each other. Normally, this would be bad but for you it's good. The weak cells are killed off leaving only the strong cells. Thus your body is constantly refining itself to greater and greater heights. And you become more and more resistant to things that hurt you. Burned by fire? Get burnt enough and you'll be resistant to burns. Of course it never evolves into outright immunity but with how high the resistance can get it might as well be. Like if you were exposed to fire for 3 years. Then nothing short of the temperature of the sun could burn you. And if you're exposed to that enough you'll grow resistant to that heat. But you know what they say. There's always a bigger fish. Though depending on where you are you may be that bigger fish. Give it time though and you'll become a leviathan eventually.

Combat Tendrils Booster: Multi-Tasker

Well well. Your tendrils are no longer like Nemesis. They surpass them, and they will always scale to be several times stronger than your arms. Additionally they can now carry you and are much longer. You can basically be a biological horror version of Doctor Octopus. You also get multi-tasking that lets you fight with every individual tendril. Just keep the uses of those tendrils PG will ya?

Ultra Tyrant (Requires Ever Changing Retribution, and W Tyrant)

This...you've gone beyond being just a Tyrant. You're now THE Tyrant. You have enough strength to drag Ustanak Nemesis and the Thanatos Tyrant by casually walking while they try to pull you backward with all their might in their most powerful forms. You're durable enough to tank several shots from a rail gun, which would only take a golf ball-sized chunk of flesh out of you. You have every ability ever shown by any kind of Tyrant amped up to your level. The arm stretching of the Bandersnatch. The electrical shocks of that one Tyrant. For all intents and purposes you are the endpoint of Tyrant evolution. The king of all Tyrants so to speak. This also gives an order of magnitude greater power boost to all perks in this document

Replacement-100 CP

With this perk, if you use this Supplement to go to a setting that has Tyrants or use this Supplement on a jump that has Tyrants then you can choose to replace a Tyrant you know of at the start of the Jump. Use this in the Resident Evil 3 remake? You can replace Nemesis if you want. And this doesn't mean you have to do what the Tyrant you're replacing does. So yes you can be Nemesis and instead of hunting Jill you can help her. Or you can be Mr. X and help Leon. If you want you can take on their appearance and it doesn't affect your power, perks, or abilities. So if you replace Mr. X then you'll still have combat tendrils if you bought that. Additionally, this lets you take out-of-context supplements when the thing the supplement is about is already in the continuity. Such as using this Supplement in Resident Evil. It also lets you replace Characters and creatures whose species or powers you share due to a supplement. If you insert into something or someone that is bound or enslaved then the enslavement and binding is broken and you are free along with getting the powers, abilities and skills of the being you've replaced. You don't keep any powers or skills or abilities you don't normally have post-jump.

Brutality-100 CP

When you're a killing machine like a Tyrant you can't afford to stop and come to terms with what you do. You now have the willpower and mentality to crush a grown man's skull, then idly wipe the skull, brain, and blood on your coat and continue on as if nothing happened. There is no end to your brutality. You'll, without hesitation, jam your fingers into a foe's eyeballs and hang on until they stop moving. It doesn't make you a different person. It just increases your ability to deal with blood, gore, and brutality massively. You're still you after all.

X gonna give it to ya!- Free

Have you ever wanted a cool theme song like Mr.X or Nemesis? Well now you can! At any time you can make any music you know about or have heard or thought of in your head play out loud. You can choose if only you can hear it or if others can hear it. Or if only one certain person can hear it. Now...go have fun (:

Controlled Mutations-100 CP

Do you like The idea of mutating in response to damage and trauma to be more powerful? What's that? You don't like the unpredictability of the mutations? Don't worry I got you covered. With this perk you can perfectly control your mutations and how they manifest. Got the G virus but don't want large eyes all over you? Well you can choose to simply not manifest them. Or make them smaller and appear in more convenient places. Want claws but don't want them permanently? Well when you mutated the claws they became retractable as well. Want increased strength but don't want to be a mass of muscle?. Your muscles get an increase in density to match a you that did take the increase in muscle mass. Want longer reach but don't want your arms to constantly drag on the floor? Your arms are now stretchy. Want combat tendrils? You can retract them and when they're retracted, it's like you never had them until you bring them out again.

Mask of Humanity-100 CP

This perk does its namesake. It makes you look human. Your face looks human. You sound human. It depends to what extent you want it to apply. You can disguise yourself as a human. Any human really. If you know their face and voice then you can take on their appearance and voice. It also lets you take on voices and appearances as long as they're humanly possible. And you keep your powers and abilities and skills. Want to look like a three month old infant but in reality have speed that surpasses Weskers and strength that overpowers Nemesis? Go ahead. And you can mix and match. Want the appearance of a cute girl but have the voice of the guy that voiced kratos in God of war? Go ahead

Sneaky Beaky -200 CP

You know, for a large titan of a man or woman, you are surprisingly sneaky. You are very very good at sneaking up on people. And it's guaranteed that this will catch people off guard the same amount of times Nemesis caught Jill off-guard. Beyond that it will function as normal stealth.

G-spliced Tyrant-200 CP

It appears you have been spliced with the GOLGOTHA virus. This massively increases your regeneration rate. You can regrow limbs in minutes

T-abyss spliced Tyrant-200 CP

It appears you have been spliced with the T-abyss virus. You now have gills and can swim at 317.59 miles per hour (511.11 kilometers per hour) and have pressure resistance that lets you casually walk on the bottom of the ocean. Your gills let you breath both salt and fresh water by the way

TG-virus spliced Tyrant-200

It appears you've been spliced with the TG-virus. This gives you the ability to generate bio-electricity powerful enough to fry a grown man in an instant and can even project beams of it similar to the ones used to take down HAOS. You can also tone the power up and down at will from full power to that of a joy buzzer. It also provides an utterly massive resistance to electricity to the point it would take an entire power plants worth of power to shock you to actually deal damage.

Plaga Tyrent-200

Out of Context: Resident Evil Tyrant Supplement V5

It seems you've had a dominant plaga implanted into you. This lets you implant submissive Plaga into people and other living things on contact. If you want your capable of putting semi Dominant Plaga into people and other living beings that can control the Ganados and other Plaga infected you make. Though your orders supersedes theirs. I wonder what you'll do with all your new Ganado friends. Play bingo perhaps?

The one who knocks-400

Just like Heisenberg you've developed bio-electric organs that let you manipulate metal. It has a greater amount of power and Precision then Heisenberg in his mutated form. You can lift multiple shipping containers with ease. The power caps out at being able to shift an aircraft carrier a bit. The sheer level of control you have over it is to the point that if you had a metal puppet the size of an elephant then you could control it so well that you can casually make it move like an actual elephant. It also boosts your multitasking so you can manipulate many many things at once. In terms of the radius of control it's strongest in a football fields area around you and gets steadily weaker the further it gets from there

Nemesis Perk Tree:

Tracker -100 CP (Free for Nemesis)

As a Tyrant usually deployed to hunt down troublesome targets you'll have to be good at tracking. Good thing you have this perk then. You are an unnaturally good tracker. If someone or something is within an area the size of, say, Raccoon City then you're guaranteed to find them.

Infection Mutation-200 CP (Discounted for Nemesis)

You can infect others with the T-virus on contact. You're able to control the infection and infected you create. And you can implant a Nemesis  $\alpha$  parasite in zombies and other infected to give them a strength boost and give them tendrils sprouting out of their head where the parasite is

Higher Quality Unit-400 CP (Discounted for Nemesis)

You are now as strong and durable as the Nemesis itself if not more. A rocket launcher is only able to stun you temporarily and you can walk through concrete walls like they're nothing but air. A hail of machine gun bullets does nothing to you. A grenade launcher shot at you point blank would only send you flying back and that's if you weren't expecting it because if you had time to properly dig yourself in it wouldn't move you an inch. Nemesis is also quicker than he looks. And now so are you. If you know it's coming you can catch a rocket fired from a rocket launcher.

Combat Tendrils Booster: Superior Unit

Now this is getting interesting. You've gained more strength and durability. You can treat Mac trucks like shopping carts. And things that would have killed you before barely scratch you now. Your tendrils also benefit from this increase as well. And keep in mind that they're always several times stronger than your arms. Your tendrils are fast and precise enough to catch several rockets at once and you can outpace a high-quality car with ease. In terms of speed you're equal to Nemesis in his second form. The fast quadruped one

Ever Changing -600 CP (Discounted for Nemesis)

Like Nemesis you now mutate into different forms when near death or severely injured. If you die before you can mutate then the mutations will bring you back. You can only mutate three times. And with each mutation you get stronger and stronger. Reaching the zenith of power at the third. The way you mutate and the mutations are random but are guaranteed to be useful for your current situation. Your survivability has also sky-rocketed. If they didn't make sure you were dead and or didn't see you die. Then you didn't die The stages of mutation can only happen once per ten years or once per jump. Whatever comes sooner

Ever Growing Booster: Apex Mutation

Instead of 3 mutations after severe injury or death. you now have five. With the fifth mutation making you at your third mutation seem like a Muppet. Also, your mutated forms are now more powerful. The once per jump or ten years rule still applies.

Infection Mutation Booster: Mini Tyrants

When you implant a Nemesis  $\alpha$  parasite in an infected it turns them into what is essentially a mini Tyrant with all that entails. With strength speed and durability just short of that of a T-103 Tyrant. While it takes a bit of effort for them to do a casual feat that a Tyrant can do like breaking concrete walls and one punch from them won't kill someone near instantly it will certainly do severe damage to even those in body armour

Ustanak Perk Tree:

Mechanical Adjustment -100 CP (Free for Ustanak)

When it comes to cybernetics and prosthetics they usually take time to get used to. But you don't experience that. For you it's like you've had it your whole life and like it was a natural part of you. There's no adjustment time or anything. No worries.

Teamwork -200 CP (Discounted for Ustanak)

You are a walking beacon of moral support. When your allies and comrades see you they don't see a monster...ok maybe they do but you're the monster on their side. You are an inspiration for your fellows. They don't lose hope. They fight as hard as they can and they never become overconfident. After all while it's good to be on edge...how could they lose with a titan like you on their side?

Persistence -400 CP (Discounted for Ustanak)

Everyone has goals. But your dedication to yours is stronger than most. When you dedicate yourself to a goal like serving a particular individual. Hunting an individual down. And things such as that then you will get a Boost in power. This would let a normal human tear a hunter beta apart with their bare hands and tank hits from them. Of course the boost goes away if you abandon your goal. But that doesn't stop you from devoting yourself again

Combat Tendrils Booster: Alternative Purpose

Skills and abilities can be used in different ways. Your tendrils take this to heart as whatever goal you devote yourself to your tendrils are better at than they should be. If you devote yourself to being a healer then your tendrils can apply medicine and bandage wounds and staunch bleeding better than a highly trained professional with elite tools. Devoting yourself to being an assassin will make your tendrils able to kill more quickly and quietly than any human with high-quality gear could hope to accomplish

Retribution -600 CP (Discounted for Ustanak)

Sometimes the thing or person you care for or serve is destroyed or killed. So you have to make the killer or destroyer pay. When you're out for the blood of the one who took your goal or loved one you're stronger. Faster. More durable. More skilled. This would let a normal human throw down with a T-103 Tyrant and win. All of your perks powers and abilities get a similar boost under the effects of this perk

Ever Growing Booster: Progress of Revenge

Sometimes your quest for retribution just isn't fast enough. So you try harder. As your quest to make those who destroyed your goal or harmed or killed your loved ones your boost from retribution grows. A regular human with this would go from being able to fight a T-103 Tyrant and winning to tearing through them like a Tyrant tears through regular humans. And it keeps going and going until you gain revenge for your loved one or goal. You also get the base effects of 'Retribution when going after people or things that hurt your loved one, or killed them

Teamwork Booster: Something To Protect

Whether you've lost someone or something before. Your resolve to protect your goal and or loved one enhances you to the same extent as the retribution perk. But that's not all. If you have allies who are on your side and are fighting with you to protect your goal and or loved one they get the boost of retribution as well

Thanatos Tyrant Perk Tree:

Ballerina Wrecking Ball-100 CP (Free for Thanatos Tyrant)

For something so big and bulky one wouldn't expect you to go fast or be agile for that matter. Now when you fight someone or something for the first time they'll assume you're slow due to your bulk. Imagine the look on their faces when you sprint at them like Usain Bolt on crack

Loyalty -200 CP (Discounted for Thanatos Tyrant)

It wouldn't do to have you not be trusted among your peers, correct? As long as you do the work of your "handlers" or "masters" you'll quickly gain their trust. Letting you get away with more and more as time goes on and you become the favorite. Of course it does have limitations. Intentionally injuring your "handlers" will snap them out of it if you lashing out wasn't warranted. But if that handler was beating you with a stick then it's their own fault in everyone else's eyes. After all...if you hit a dog enough it'll bite back eventually.

Agile and Precise-400 CP (Discounted for Thanatos Tyrant)

You're Agile and precise. Your agility and precision surpass that of any gymnast or parkour expert. In the eyes of trained humans you seem to almost blur with how fast you go. Additionally when you jump you can land as precisely as you want and exactly where you want so long as you could jump that distance

Combat Tendrils Booster: *Grappling Tendrils

Well. Using your tendrils you can do a pretty good impression of Spiderman now. Your tendrils are far far longer able to reach the top of that clock tower thing in Nemesis boss fight where he takes on that quadruped form. While standing on the ground. And they're much faster now too. Able to block bullets before the gunmen fully squeezes the trigger to fire the gun.

W Tyrant -600 CP (Discounted for Thanatos Tyrant)

Well. This is horrifying. You are now as fast as Albert Wesker and can move in short bursts of great speed that rival his short bursts of great speed. To others it'll look like you're teleporting. To add on you've gained a massive upgrade to your sight and reaction time to be able to properly use your newfound speed. You also get a two times multiplier to your strength and durability

Ever Growing Booster: *www.speed.com

This is something else entirely. Your base speed is now on par with Wesker's great short bursts of speed. And your short bursts of great speed make him seem like he's moving at a snail's pace. And instead of a two times multiplier. It's a five times multiplier now. Now go terrorise Wesker by running literal circles around him. If he's still around and hasn't decided to get the fuck out of dodge after seeing your speed and strength

Loyalty Booster: *Fear and Respect

With how great your might is, is it any surprise that the higher-ups try their best to keep you happy? You can now get away with far more than before. Kill your handler for no reason? Eh they can get another one. Destroy an expensive vehicle? You're more expensive. Break both the arms and legs of the leader of the organization? Okay, that's too far, but anything below that is fine. They'll relent to your demands too. Want a swimming pool filled with boiling cheese?...strange but sure. A Ferrari? Don't think you're gonna fit but sure. A month off? Eh. Troublesome but they don't want to piss you off so sure.

Out of Context: Resident Evil Tyrant Supplement V5

Items:

Any lost or stolen items will be returned to you after a week in the same condition as when you had it. Any damaged items could potentially be repaired if worked on by a capable engineer.

Tyrant Clothing - Free

This is a closet containing every outfit any Tyrant has ever worn. From limiter jackets to remake Nemeses outfit to Ustanaks duds. Have fun pal

Damaged Drop Pod - Free

It's the drop pod you arrived in. It's damaged but maybe a skilled researcher or engineer could fix or reverse-engineer it?

Tyrant Weaponry-100 CP

Here we have a collection of the weapons Nemesis uses in Raccoon City.

Minigun: it's a minigun. It has infinite ammo and is guaranteed to rip through most unarmoured targets and shred through armored ones if it isn't thick enough. It also never needs to reload.

Flamethrower: it's a Flamethrower. It has infinite fuel and burns hot enough to easily scorch flesh to the bone. And armor won't help as their armor will probably cook them alive because of the heat seeping in. The tank that the fuel is in on your back is durable to the point where one would need an anti-material rifle to damage it. Wouldn't want a cop to pop your tank would ya?

Rocket Launcher: It's a rocket launcher. It has a laser-guided aiming system and fires rockets that can easily destroy armored vehicles and you never need to reload.

Any time you want these weapons an umbrella drop pod will land near you containing the weapon you wanted

Cybernetic Arm-100 CP

This is a cybernetic arm. At will it can replace one of your arms though it defaults to the right arm. You swap it from and back to your organic arm thus you do not need to be missing an arm. The cybernetic arm is modular and can be used to attach a variety of mechanical arms, such as a chain gun, a hydraulic-powered claw-like arm with needles for blood collection, a shotgun-like attachment, a drill and a flail. It comes with all of those attachments and they all have infinite fuel and or ammo.

Horde of Zombies -200 CP

Have you ever seen a Horde of zombies and gone "I want that" well now you can have it. By purchasing this item you gain 1000 standard zombies. 300 pale heads. 300 crimson heads. And 300 poison zombies. They are loyal unto death and beyond. They obey your commands and the commands of those you designate without hesitation even if it ends in their certain death. They will never attack or infect your followers, you or anyone you wouldn't want them to infect. Additionally any infected zombies you create will have the same loyalty towards you as the zombies you buy here. Additionally you can halt and purge the infection and if you don't want any infection whatsoever then you can at will make your zombies and infected non-infectious. If any of the ones you bought die or are lost they are replenished every twenty four hours

Licker Pack-200 CP

With this item you gain a pack of 50 to 60 lickers. They can be of any type you want and they act towards you and those you designate and your followers and companions like how a licker b acts towards someone with a dominant plauga. Aka docile and playful creatures. They hold the same levels of loyalty and obedience towards you and your followers and companions that the zombies in the above item do. If any of the ones you bought die or are lost they are replenished every twenty four hours.

Pair of T-103 Tyrants -300 CP

You gain a pair of T-103 Tyrants as bodyguards labourers and whatever else you wanna use them for. They are each on the level of Mr.X and obey you and any companions you have. If killed or damaged they will be good as new in twenty four hours. They hold the same amount of loyalty and obedience that the zombies and lickers do. They also get 900 CP to spend on peeks on this document

HOT DOGGER-200 CP

This weapon is a combat knife that looks large even in the hands of a Tyrant. It is incredibly sharp, able to part flesh like a hot knife through butter. Speaking of hot knife's the blade is able to superheat itself to the point it burns right through flesh and sets those hit with it ablaze. So in other words it's a tyrant sized HOT DOGGER.

Tyrant sized melee weapon-200/400 CP

This is a melee weapon that is Tyrant sized. If its bladed it can cut through armoured vehicles with ease. If it's a blunt weapon then it can smash an armoured vehicle like a bug. If you pay an extra 200 then you can add an element to the weapon. Electricity that can fry a human in an instant. Flames that scorch flesh and blacken bone. Poison that attacks internal organs and blood cells. Acid that melts flesh. Almost anything you can think of as long as it makes sense. The weapon looks how you want

Tyrant Sized Shotgun-400 CP

This is a Tyrant sized shotgun. One shot from it can red mist the top half of a hunter beta and turn the two behind it into a red mush. It has infinite ammo and can be any type of shotgun you want and each type has its own advantages. A double barrellled shotgun is more powerful then normal and firing both barrels at once is most likely going to kill almost anything you point it at. But can only hold two shells at once. A spas-12 can be semi-automatic but isn't as powerful as the double barrel and so on and so forth

Tyrant armour-400 CP

If a normal tyrant weren't scary enough now they have armour. This armour doesn't slow you down in the slightest and is durable to the point it would take several artillery strikes to damage it. It looks however you want and has great temperature regulation as well as an inbuilt gas mask that can filter out almost any gas and virus and or irritant. It also gives infra-red vision

Generic Drawbacks:

Extended Stay +100 CP

You can Increase the duration of this jump by 10 years.

You can take this a maximum of 10 times increasing it up to 110 years total.

Stalker +100 CP

A random ordinary human knows everything about you and is obsessed with you, they are also protected from any perks or powers that would help you quickly find them.

How do I keep falling into these situations +100 CP

Every plot seems to revolve around you and no matter what you do you will always be dragged into the story.

Bounty +100 CP

It seems you pissed off the wrong guys as you have a notable bounty on your head. Not enough to get the big guys interested but enough to get the attention of random thugs.

Wanted +100 CP

Somewhere out there you have a criminal record as a surprisingly high bounty but not so much that you will be sorted out, so long as you are not within the area that your wanted poster is placed in no one will probably go after you.

X-rated +100 CP

This jump is a little more explicit than normal; sex, drugs, murder and a lot more are out there and it's almost like this world is desperate to show it off.

Double Trouble +100 CP

You will always encounter twice as many enemies in the world. Every foe you face will have an identical copy who only you can see, the worst part is that this seems to be a Schrödinger situation as the real one is the one who you don't go after.

Low Budget +100 CP

Something about this world just seems... cheap, flying wires, plastic shields, old school lights and tatty looking monsters.

Thugs for days +100 CP

At least 10 random thugs will randomly show up every day and target you.
