

Mage the Awakening: Archmage Jumpchain

By /u/therainbowsquid

Most awakened never reach this point. Most awakened assume that the legends are fake. You, against all odds, managed to awaken a second time, and become a seeker. Be warned jumper, this is where shit gets real, so to speak.

Origins/Ententes:

Archmages generally assign themselves into factions called ententes soon after their second awakening. Pick one and only one:

The Alienated (free): Archmages who wish to restore the gods the exarchs kicked out to the supernal realms

The Aswadim (free): Archmages who reject both the fallen and supernal, instead favoring the abyss. Are you really sure you want this?

The Bodhisattvas (free): Archmages who seek the Ascension of every single sleeper/awakened in the fallen world.
