

Lewd School

By Zenaku82

Welcome to Lewd School. Where the morals are loose and the clothes are tight. It's about what you'd expect from school. Only lewder. But some of you might be asking 'what can we expect?' Well, let me give you a run down.

There's the Drop-in's. You know, the new kid. Center of attention as everyone wonders what to expect to them. You'll be popular, that's for sure. Might have a few quirks here and there, but what can people expect from someone who just came in?

Watch out for that one. They're a Club President. They run one of the many clubs around here. There's likely one for every fetish you can think of. And if there isn't, well. Feel free to start one!

Course, what school doesn't have their troublemakers? The Delinquents fill that role here. Down with the rules! Sex, drugs, and rock & roll! Wait... what era is this? Never mind. Just be careful around them. Show any weakness, and they'll likely have you under their thumb.

Then we have the faculty. The teachers are pretty cool. Though a little different. They prefer to take a more 'hands on' approach to teaching and discipline. Expect plenty of demonstrations.

Last but not least, is the Principal. The one who rules the school. They tend to come up with some weird policies. I think last month's school uniform was underwear. Anyways, if you are unlucky (or lucky depending on how you look at it) enough to draw their attention, expect to be called to their office for a good pounding.

By the way, there's been some strange rumors lately. About weird apps showing up on people's phones. Giving them some weird powers. I'm not saying the rumors are true. But I'd keep an eye out for them.

Anyways, that's it for your orientation. Here's a little care package for you. Don't have too much fun now.

Origin perks

All origins receive their 100 cp perk for free. The rest of the perks of an origin are discounted

Drop-in

100 cp New Kid On The Block: Being the new kid means you're the center of attention. Everybody is focused on you. Now, it doesn't matter how long you've been around. You are still the focus of attention.

200 cp Harem Days: Carrying on multiple relationships can lead to complications once those relationships become public. But not for you. Now, no one will judge you for having multiple significant others. And said significant others are alright with it as well, as long as they can get some of that sweet time with you.

400 cp Strange Customs: Things are done differently where you're from. You're used to greeting people with a tongue in their mouth. And saying goodbye with a friendly grope. Create your own unique customs and people will find it easier to accept your inappropriate behavior. Just don't be surprised if it catches on and other people start doing it.

600 cp Protag Pheromones: There's something about you that draws them in like flies. And with minimum effort, you'll hook them. Give that girl a smile? She'll be your willing love slave. Give that guy the time of day? He'll love you till the end of days.

Club President

100 cp Welcome to the <blank> Club!: Pick a fetish, any fetish. You now have an official school club, dedicated to that subject. Blowjob club? Members will be interested in either giving, or receiving blowjobs. Oppai Club? All the members will either have big breasts, or be interested in them. Get the picture?

Post-jump, this will allow you to create an organization devoted to your fetish

200 cp Infectious ideas: Part of the duties of Club President is making sure that your club members are enjoying themselves. Now, that becomes easier. As they see you enjoying the lewd activities the club has going on, their own enjoyment will increase.

400 cp: <Blank> on the Mind: What's the fun of having a club for your fetish, but only a few members? Now it seems that people, who both share and greatly enjoy the fetish, are drawn to your club, as if by fate,. With this your club members will quickly shoot up from a handful to enough to fill a large classroom, with even more on the way if your club exists for long enough.

Post Jump this will allow you to easily draw in like minded individuals to whatever cause you follow.

600 cp Nefarious scheme!: What nefarious scheme, might you ask? Why, to spread the word and love of <blank> to the masses! The more members your club or organization has, the easier it is to convince someone how awesome your fetish is. Heck, you might even be able to start an annual city wide orgy of people indulging in it if your club grows enough.

Delinquent

100 cp: Intimidating: Maybe it's the look in your eye. Maybe it's that wicked scar. But you are one intimidating person. You'll find it easier to cow others with your presence. There will still be those with guts who'll stand up to you. You'll need something else to bring them to heel.

200 cp Predator Sense: You know, they say wild animals can smell fear. Well now, you can too. You've got a sixth sense, that lets you know who is an easy victim and who'll give in without much of a fight.

400 cp Bully me instead: Aw. Look at that. Your favourite target has a cute friend. And what's this? They're offering themselves in place of their poor friend. Now, if your victim's friends or loved ones find out about the bullying, they'll try to stop you by offering to take their place. Say yes, and you just might get an upgraded plaything. Course, doesn't mean you have to stay true to your word. Not if you are real sneaky about it. Thing is, this doesn't work 100% of the time. You might just end up with a fight on your hand instead of a new plaything.

600 cp Impotent Authority Figures: Someone reported you. The student council president. The leader of the disciplinary committee. The teacher. Someone tried to take you down. And failed. Oh, this isn't what the perk is about. No. It's what comes next. It's up to you to prevent them from succeeding in proving their case against you. But once you do, they are all yours. Filled with shame for their action, you can make them do whatever you want . Make them your new victims as they regret ever challenging you.

Teacher

100 cp: Popular Educator You have found that the key to good teaching is to have your student's attention. People learning from you, and especially your students, find you inexplicably more attractive. Conversely the more attractive you are the better others learn from you regardless of your teaching style. This augments, or can substitute for, actual skill in teaching.

200 cp: Confession: Sometimes, people need someone they can talk to. Someone they can come to for help. Now, they'll have an easier time opening up to you about problems they have outside of schoolwork. Help them with this, and their devotion towards you will grow. Betray this confidence, and watch them withdraw.

400 cp: Can't Argue With Results: All that people care about is results. As long as the people learning from you are getting good grades and behaving in the public eye, no one will care what your teaching style is. Trade correct answers for orgasms, as long as those test results are high. Punish the girl always talking in class by making her give you a blowjob. No one will bat an eye as long as her behaviour gets better.

600 cp: Fuck Their Brains In: You are dedicated to making sure your students learn. And now, you can do that through the power of sex! By having sex with someone, you can teach them a subject. The time they spend learning the subject, is equivalent to the time spent fucking them. Even better, this method bypasses any learning barrier. Any skill that can be learned, can be taught this way. Example: If they have a magical ability, you can teach them to use it through sex. However, you can't teach a person to do magic if they can't do it.

Principal

100 cp Eyes Everywhere: Whether its hidden cameras, or actual magical eyes, you see everything that happens at school. Everything. As long as you are the undisputed owner of a property and you are on the grounds, nothing goes beneath your notice.

200 cp Inner Sanctum: Your office is the seat of your power. While you may rule the school, in this room, your will is absolute. Get a student or staff member - anyone 'below' you on the hierarchy - into your office or personal workspace , and they will do whatever you like. Outside, however, is a different matter. If your orders involve doing something outside the office or workspace, you'll find your power greatly weakened.

400 cp What happens at school: Certain rumors could damage your reputation. Like your private ‘discussions’. Or the sex club in the basement of the school. No need for people to know about those. What happens at school, stays at school. This applies to any property you are in charge of.

600 cp Make the rules: Once per month, you can change a policy however you want. Make swimsuits the school dress code. Mandatory cavity checks for female students. Live demonstrations in sex ed class. You can use this power to add or alter a rule of any business or organisation that you are in charge of.

Items:

Origins receive their 100 cp items for free. All other items in an origin are discounted.

Drop-in

100 cp The Right Moves: A book series that’ll teach you the ins and outs of any social circles you might find yourself a part of. A new book is delivered soon after joining any new group or organization, detailing the ins and outs, as well as what to avoid doing in order to remain in said group.

200 cp The Right Tunes: A collection of music for any time and place. Organised by genre and mood. You’ll never be without the right background music

400 cp The Right Clothes: A wardrobe full of the most popular fashions. Perfect for whatever event or outing your lifestyle demands. Nobody will be able to make fun of your fashion sense with these. Becomes part of the Warehouse and updates with each jump

600 cp The Right Car: A sweet piece of automotive tech that’ll get you where you need to go, and get you laid. With seats that can handle any mess and a radio that is always on the right station to set the mood. May import another vehicle you own.

Club President:

100 cp Club Funds: Activities, field trips, summer camp. All these things cost money. Which you now have. Each month you will receive the equivalent of $750

200 cp Props: What’s the fun in playing out your fetishes, without the proper toys? You’ve now got enough fetish gear for a whole classroom to indulge in.

400 cp: Club Room: An abandoned classroom, in an out of the way part of the school. Deep enough that nobody will accidentally stumble upon your dirty deeds.

After the jump, this room becomes attached to your warehouse and can be materialized anywhere for some quick fun.

600 cp: Membership Forms: A form that all members of your club must fill out. It's already got your club's name printed right at the top. Don't worry. No one will be concerned about why it's called that. Wait. They aren't interested in joining your club? Then just forge away and watch their surprised face when they come to the next meeting. And once they're in, watch them change to become a perfect fit for your club

Delinquent:

100 cp Slugger: A finely crafted piece of wood. For when actions are needed rather than words. Doesn't do anymore damage than a normal bat, but this trusty weapon will never break on you.

200 cp Info-Chan's Number: You need something to help you get that pesky person under your thumb? Info-chan can hook you up. At a price. See, Info-chan has a thing for undergarments. And they're willing to help you in exchange for filling their fetish. Just need some info? A few pictures of the local ladies in their silkies will do the trick. But you need some actual, physical blackmail? Well, for that you had better be ready to give up some freshly worn stolen lace. You'll never meet them. And they'll only talk to you through text messages. All your exchanges will happen through pre-determined drop zones.

400 cp Best Place: Maybe it's a karaoke club. Maybe its a video game arcade. What matters is, this is YOUR place. You and your buddies can hang out here and just be yourselves. Have fun, screw around, do drugs. Bring your little toy here, and there'll be no one to stop you from doing what you want to them.

600 cp Drugs: An interesting concoction that is highly addictive. It can be swallowed, chewed, mixed with a drink, injected or snorted. Side effects include but are not limited to increased arousal, lowered inhibitions, corruption, growth of the primary and secondary sex organs, increase sensitivity and darkening of the skin. The drug takes a week of usage to build up in the system before side effects slowly start to happen. Any changes caused by the drug are permanent. If the person stops taking the drug for two weeks, they must take it for another week before the side effects starting happening again.

If someone takes a week's worth all at once, this will cause an overdose. This will cause the side effects to suddenly happen, and rather explosively as well. Example: instead of their sex organs slowly growing while on the drug, they will rapidly grow in the matter of moments, and to a rather large size. However, the overdose also fries their brain, leaving them thinking of literally nothing but sex.

You get one month's worth every three weeks.

Teacher

100 cp Teaching Certificate: This little document proves that you are a teacher. It's got an official seal and everything and was definitely NOT purchased from the internet and printed off at home. Simply take it into any school, and you'll be given a job there.

200 cp Teaching Supplies: A box with everything you'll need for the day to day tasks ahead of you. Pencils, papers, erasers, staples. Pre-written tests and study sheets. Complete lesson plans and syllabuses. Restocks itself at the beginning of the day for what you'll need that day.

400 cp Teacher's Desk: A finely crafted desk is something that every teacher needs to go through their day. With plenty of room under it for someone to crouch. Depending on how you sit at it, the impressions of those around you will change. Stand behind it, and you'll have everyone's attention, as they listen to every word you say. Sit behind it, and they'll see you as a professional person who deserves their admiration and respect. Sit on a corner, and you're suddenly their best friend, someone who can be talked to without any worries.

600 cp Class Roster: A list of everyone in your class. With pictures that, when selected, display a full body 3d image that can be rotated 360 degrees and stripped. Updates automatically each jump. Also, if you write the name of a person who is in your current jump-verse in a blank space, their picture will appear, and they will start showing up for class.

Principle

100 cp Voice From On High: A special microphone that will broadcast your voice throughout the property it is placed in. No one will be able to claim they didn't hear you with this. By speaking a person's name first, you can set it so only they hear you. Only works if they are on the property.

200 cp Corporal Punishment: A riding crop for administering punishment to misbehaving students - or staff. Using it will cause the subject of the punishment to become more submissive, as well as raise their lust.

400 cp Fudged Records: Some slightly adjusted records of your tenure. Designed to make you, and the organization, look the best that it can. Good for boosting reputation and drawing attention away from your acts. Best part is, those under you will corroborate what is written in this.

600 cp School: Your own private school. This will follow you into whatever jump you go to. Upon entering, you can designate what grade, or kind of school it is. In a fantasy world? Become a school of magic! Or, if you choose, this will materialize as a name plate. Simply place it on the desk in an existing school's main office, and you will become the principal/headmaster of that school.

Apps

What's this? It looks like a mysterious app just found its way onto your smartphone! What does it do? How does it work? Only one way to find out...

Wait... you don't have a smartphone? What rock have you been living under? It's okay. It's okay. I got one here for you. Unlimited talk, text, data. No roaming charges and it'll work in any multiverse you travel in. No roaming charges (and believe me, those can be killer when you're outside your home universe).. Even better, it has unlimited battery. All for a measly 100 cp. Or you can take this cheapo that needs to be charged after using an app for 4 hours for 50 cp. It only takes an hour to charge. But the app stops working for that hour.

300 cp Voyeur: Oh. You're somebody who likes to watch, huh? Well, this app is for you. Simply scan a person's face, and the app will allow you to watch videos of their life. Every event, from any angle. It even has a filter if you want to only see nsfw moments. Like them showering, or doing the horizontal mambo. Free for streaming or downloading. And while you can show these videos to others, there's no guarantee how they'll react. A blackmail attempt could go off without a hitch, or blow up in your face.

600 cp Clone App: What's this? The person of your dreams is already dating someone and cheating isn't your fetish? Then you need the handy, dandy Clone App. Simply snap their picture. Then, when you are alone, hit clone. Their clone will appear, completely naked, a foot in front of you. This clone will have all of the person's memories at the time you took their picture, and will act like they would. However, it will not have any supernatural or superhuman abilities and will only last four hours. If you clone them again, they will have reset to when you took the picture, your previous encounter having no effect on them

Not enough for you? Well, that's where the slide bars come in. With these, you can adjust the clones arousal, sensitivity, submissiveness and willingness. As well, you may spend an additional 100 cp in this jump or future jumps for a use of the Permanent button. This special button removes the time limit, making the clone a permanent companion. They gain no cp or origin for the jump you create them in, but can be imported into future jumps.

600 cp Director: Wish life was more like a porno? Well now it is and YOU are the director! A simple activation of this app causes all those around you to freeze. You can then walk up to a person and order them to act and behave in a certain way. Give them lines, tell them how to pose and move. Do this to as many people around you as you like. Then, activate the app and watch your porno come to life. You cannot order someone to do something they cannot do. Any impossible order will cause the Director app to malfunction and stop working for 24 hours. Violent and self-mutilating orders will also cause the app to malfunction and stop working for 24 hours.

600 cp Waifu the Video Game: Perfect waifus aren't born! They are made! Welcome to Waifu the video game. A fun little platform/puzzle game that lets you import your friends! Simply snap their picture, and the ingame sprite will be replaced by one that looks just like them! At the end of each set of levels, you are asked a question on what makes a perfect waifu. Do they have to be able to cook a perfect three course dinner? Or maybe you prefer them to be able to fix any household appliance? What are their perfect measurements? The ingame sprite will change based on these answers, slowly becoming the waifu of your dreams.

A special prize is waiting at the end for those lucky enough to beat the game. Watch as your drab old friend is replaced with the one true waifu for you! The one you built in the game!

Disclaimer: Waifu the Video Game cannot grant supernatural powers. Waifu the Video Game cannot be held responsible for any nightmares your friends may have of being transformed into your waifu.

600 cp Normality: Tired of people looking at you like you're a freak? Well now you too can be normal! Activating this app creates an area of 'normality' around you. Everything you do, everything you say, people will simply shrug off as being normal. Grope the milf in front of you. Tell the cashier you'd like a complimentary blowjob. Frisk that sexy police officer right back. Nobody will find anything suspicious about it at all. The effects linger after you leave, making sure that no one questions what you did. Violent actions will cause the app to malfunction and stop working for 24 hours.

Companions:

Companions are discounted for their origin. No freebies. You can purchase all three companions in an origin for 150 cp. If you purchase all three companions for your origin, it will only cost 100 cp

50 cp Old Classmate: Import or create a new companion with this option. They gain an origin as well as 400 cp to spend on perks and items.

Drop-in

100 cp Kohai: A young student who has their sights set on you. In their eyes, you can do no wrong.

100 cp Senpai: This is the cooler, beautiful older student. They've been where you've been. Well, not exactly in your case. But something about you has caught their eye, and they are willing to help you out through the school year.

100 cp : Ojou-san: One of the great beauties of the school. She is considered a school treasure. Everything she does is seemingly perfect, without a single flaw. Did I mention she's rich? And for some reason that all your fellow classmates find unfathomable, she's turned her attention to you. Are you a project for her? Or a romantic interest?

Club President:

100 cp Mascot: Wow. Someone is really enthusiastic about your club, huh? They even brought a suit they made, just to be the mascot for it. With holes in all the proper places... Nope, that's not creepy at all!

100 cp Faculty Advisor: A member of the school staff, assigned to advise the club. Their duties? To make sure the club stays within school guidelines. Too bad they don't give a damn about that. They're all for the club.

100 cp Vice-President: A trusted friend. Someone who shares your love and commitment to the club. Who'll do anything to make sure it succeeds. Anything.

Delinquent:

100 cp Gal-friend: A fellow delinquent, this gyaru only cares about having fun. Whether that's bullying someone, karaoke, sex or drugs. She's always up for a good time.

100 cp Broken toy: Woops. You pushed this one too hard. They snapped and... are now your loyal pet? That's right. This toy is now deeply in love with you. They'll do whatever you say. Gladly take your abuse. Heck, they get aroused by it. Unfortunately, the mind break does cause stress to build up, which they'll relieve by bullying someone themselves.

100 cp The Muscle: What every delinquent needs. A walking wall of muscle to back you up. They aren't too smart, but that's not why you keep them around, is it? It's because they're good at being a bruiser.

Teacher

100 cp Teacher's Pet: There's one of these in every class. The student who absolutely adores the teacher, and will do anything they say. Anything.

100 cp: Class President: The student responsible for the actions of the class. They seek to keep the others in line, making your job easier. Course, you can always rewards said behavior to encourage them.

100 cp: Colleague: A fellow teacher. Single. Cute. Available. And understands what your days are like. Perfect for one night stands or a more serious relationship.

Principal:

100 cp Problem Student: This student is always getting into trouble. As a result, their always getting sent to your office. Their attitude is only matched by their looks.

100 cp Concerned Parent: A single parent, working two jobs, and struggling to provide for their kid. Who wants only what is best for their child and is willing to do anything to make sure they get it. Ripe for taking advantage of.

100 cp PTA Member: Whether through blackmail, or being fucked senseless, you've managed to get a member of the PTA in your pocket. While being fairly attractive and good in bed, they'll also help push your agenda at the meetings.

Drawbacks:

Too many perks and not enough CP? Well, I suppose your out of luck. Then again... say you took some of these drawbacks off my hands. I suppose a little extra cp could accidently be slipped into your pocket and no one would be the wiser.

Limit of an additional 1000 cp in drawbacks.

+100 cp They just don't get it: Back in your parents day, things were different. Girls didn't dress like sluts and sex was something kept in the bedroom. Expect to get lectured by any old person that crosses your path on morality and how terrible young people are these days.

+100 That tease!: The people around you will dress more provocative. They'll act like they'll want it. But most of the time, they'll back away before it gets to the good stuff. Prepare for a lot of looking, but not as much touching.

+100 One pump chump: Sex with you is over before it begins. Mere seconds into the act, you're finished and your partner is left unsatisfied. Don't try to draw it out with foreplay. That'll only get you so far.

+100 Damn! You ugly!: Wow. Just... wow. Forget the ugly stick. You got hit by the whole tree. No one will have sex with you of their own free will. Heck, they'll find it hard to even look at you.

+200 cp That's Disgusting!: Whatever your fetish, whatever you're into, nobody else is. Hand holding is about as lewd as it gets. The only sex you'll be getting is behind closed doors, in the missionary position, with the lights off.

+200 Ultra-Fertile: Condoms will break. Birth control pills will fail. The girl will end up pregnant. You're lesbian? One of you will still end up pregnant. You're a gay guy? Congratulations, it's a miracle baby.

+200 SFW: Whenever someone is wearing anything less than a bikini, you'll find your eyes unable to leave their face. You will be unable to see below their shoulders until they cover up again.

+200 Irresponsible Authority Figures: Those above you are looking down at you with lust. Planning on filling your holes. And there is always someone above you.

+200 Under the bed sheets: Sex never happens. Just when you are about to get it on, everything fades to black. You'll regain your senses after the act is over, with no memories of what had happened

+300 Netorare is a shit fetish: You just cannot hold down a relationship. Everytime you start to form a relationship with someone, they'll be stolen away by someone else. Every relationship you are in is at risk. Except for the ones from Notice Me, Senpai and SadoDere.

+300 Netori on the other hand...: Everyone you have sex with is already in a committed relationship. Not that they care. Or will tell you. You're likely only to find out when the angry cuck is at your door.

+300 Notice Me, Senpai: You've got a stalker. They'll start out innocently enough. Sighing wistfully as they stare at you from a distance. A love letter slipped into your desk. But then... they start getting creepy. Giving you gifts and food made with certain... organic components. Stealing your clothing to smell and possibly worship. And eventually, they'll get downright scary. I wish you the best of luck in dealing with them. You'll need it. If you manage to get rid of the stalker, a new one will appear in a week, starting the cycle over again

+300 SadoDere: Love hurts. In this case, literally. The first person you have sex with will become a sadist. They will love you with all their heart. But they will hurt you. Go to the beach? They'll jab you in the eyes so that you can't look at other people. Going on a date? They'll sneak into your room, taze you and kidnap you, to make sure you aren't late. But they only do it because they love you. And because its their fetish. Nobody will stop them. People who witness these acts will only sigh and talk about how it must be true love. If you manage to get rid of them, another person you've had sex with will become a sadist.

+300 Damn! They Ugly!: They're horny and willing! Problem is... they look like something a dog threw up. Yeah. Everybody is ugly as hell. They make Deadpool look like a model.

+300 This IS a school after all: You now have to worry about being responsible for your actions. You'll need to get good grades. Get reported for your actions too much, and you'll likely be expelled. A teacher? You'll have to worry about your class's performance. The Principal? How the PTA views you.

+400 The Gang Rape Club: Oh dear. It appears that one of the... darker clubs at school have set their sights on you. Don't worry. You'll only have to worry about trying to dodge them once every week.

+400 PTA Crackdown: Woops. Looks like the PTA caught wind of everything going on at school. They are putting their foot down, refusing to let a single indecency slip by. Moral guidelines and stricter dress codes are in effect. It's not impossible to get your lewd on, but its going to be a lot more difficult.

+600 Well, this is boring: Congratulations Jumper. You broke it. You broke the universe. I hope you're happy. Now everything is like a normal school. There will be no lewds. There will be no sex. There will be no special powers or strange events. You have no access to any of your perks, items or your warehouse, whether from this jump or any other. Enjoy spending 10 years here in absolute mental drudgery.

If used in supplement mode, will only give +400 cp, and only school itself will be affected. And school is mandatory. The Powers that Be will force you to go.

Generic Supplement:

This jump can be used to supplement an existing jump, or take place in a world that doesn't have a jump
Rules are as follows:

- This jump can only be used to supplement a non-generic jump.
- All cp from either jump is kept separate. All Cp gained from drawbacks remain in the jump that the drawback is taken from.
- For story purposes, background/ages/origins are mixed between the two jumps. Fanwank appropriately
- As this is a school setting, it is pretty much thematically compatible with any jump
- If you use Return on this Jump, you forfeit any free cp, and can only gain CP from drawbacks you have not taken before
