

Out of Context: Avatar Element Benders Supplement

V1.01 By DeverosSphere

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have an Element Benders within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to become an Element Bender which has awoken in a spiritual nexus or that Jumps equivalent and then be sent through a tear to the main setting.

You will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In.

+1000 CP

If this is used as a supplement for another Jump you do not get a stipend meaning you will need to gain CP from the Jump Document or Drawbacks.

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin:

Bending is the ability to manipulate an element, there are four elements that each relate to a physical element. The only case of any one person being able to bend multiple elements is the Avatar, who has the ability to practice all bending arts.

Air Bender:

Airbending concentrates on speed and evasion, forgoing a strong offense for a greater defense. Airbenders use their capability to bend unencumbered by the ground or any other environmental factors and use their own momentum as a weapon, evading attacks with astounding agility to tire their opponents out or building up massive inertia for explosive gusts of wind to make their counterattacks finishing moves.

Water Bender:

Waterbending concentrates on the flow of energy, focusing less on strength and more on turning the opponent's own energy against them. Waterbenders gain a serious advantage or disadvantage depending on the amount of water around them, although highly skilled waterbenders can draw water from anywhere, such as draw humidity from the air and bend the water in living things, especially plants.

Earth Bender:

Earthbending concentrates on standing their ground, absorbing or intercepting attacks until they completely overwhelm their opponents with an emphasis on fortitude and strength. Earthbenders gain an advantage or disadvantage in battle based on the amount of earth around them, though the conditions are not extreme.

Fire Bender:

Firebending concentrates on offensive combat to create widespread barrages of fire that overwhelm opponents before striking a focused blow.

Firebenders have to be able to maintain a constant source of energy and balance in battle, allowing them to generate fire using their internal heat source to unleash a volley of direct, successive attacks.

You have permanently fused with a fragment of Vaatu the spirit of chaos and darkness making you into what would be considered a Dark Avatar.

Though this may be seen as ominous in truth this spirit is an embodiment of instincts and progression, its nature is to prevent stagnation by causing instabilities that require change to overcome destroying order to allow freedom.

With this purchase you are able to purchase all exclusive perks.

Energy Bending -600 CP

Energy Bending is the ability to bend another person's life energy. By bending a person's life energy can instantly grant them with any knowledge you have, block off any of their spiritual abilities such as bending or remove any spiritual blockages.

Chi-Blocking Booster: Chi-Bending

You are now able to grant or remove any one of the four basic element perks so long as you have purchased them. The target will be unable to hold multiple elements at once without a method of storage such as a fused spirit however you will be able to switch them at will.

Vaatu Booster: Controlled Bending

Each bending art has its own method of controlling others, you are able to wield your element's own version of this technique.

This form of bending focuses on manipulating the spirit allowing the user to project their own or other people's spirit out of their body allowing them to empty the body and let the spirit travel to another location.

- Fire Bending Boost: Heat Bending

This form of bending is very hard to control in others as it consists of controlling the internal body heat of a target, this can be used to allow a person to survive in extreme temperatures or to control their movements by controlling the contractions of muscles though this method causes a great deal of pain.

Flight on the Wind -600 CP (Discounted for Air Bender)

You have learned your bending arts method of flight allowing you to move through the air.

- Air Bending Boost: Weightlessness on the Wind
The principle behind this is to become one with the wind, mimicking its freedom from limitations and inhibitions, in both the physical and mental sense. Once an airbender has embraced these principles, they can fly and hover.
- Water Bending Boost: Stream on the Wind
This method of water bending has the bender condense water around themselves in a band like stream and project it downwards from a singular point to blast upwards on a stream of pressurized water and hover in place using smaller streams from multiple points. This band can be refilled by bending other sources of water into it or connecting it to an active water source via a water cord.

While this technique is effective on external, physical wounds, its ability to repair internal injuries and cure illnesses is more limited.

- Earth Bending Boost: Shell Bending

This method of earth Bending is used to suppress the feelings of pain and fear in its target allowing them to bypass the limitations of their body while forcibly reinforcing broken bones, torn tissue and other severe injuries as a method of patchwork repair that can reattach limbs but would take time to heal or adapt to.

- Fire Bending Boost: Spiritual Bending

Using a special form of fire bending you are able to produce an orange flame that can be used to sense chi paths and detect spiritual energy within an individual.
