Being so young, you only hired her to sleep and cuddle with you at night, which then kept her out of the whorehouse and out of the hands of other people. Eventually, you both became of a certain age, where you two gave in to lust and became each other's first. But then the war came, and you enlisted. So what you did was leave her everything you saved up, which was not a tiny sum, before you left, sure in the belief that the next time you saw her, she would be a well used whore and not the beautiful girl you grew up loving. Much to your surprise, not only had she managed to stay out of any prostitution business, she had also waited for you to come back, having kept herself away from any man. Catching her interest, you brought a spark of excitement back to her life, slowly worming your way into her heart until one day, she woke up and found herself alone in her huge mansion, and all she could think about was you. The next time you met, she asked you to marry her. Realizing your shock, she said she didn't want an answer right away (a lie, her left eyebrow lifting showing her tell), but that you should think about it. So now you have a marriage proposal from an incredibly rich, young widow who loves and cares for you dearly, and who is willing to share her well trained maids with you.
