

DC Aliens Out of Context Supplement

V1.0 By LJGV/Sin-God

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have DC Alien races within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to become a DC Alien of some sort and you will enter into a continuity that lacks such alien species as a Drop-In opening your eyes somewhere in a downed spaceship with a kindly couple looking at you, curious and eager to help you.

As a DC Alien gaining this new physiology through this Out Of Context Supplement you are, for the duration of this jump, a DC Alien of some sort. You can still utilize your alt-forms freely, barring something like an OOC perk or drawback that prevents that. Take these points, they'll help you adjust to your new reality. In future jumps your chosen origin form in this jump follows you as an alt-form you can don at will (barring drawbacks).

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten-year-long Jump.

Author's Note: This jump takes inspiration from many different bits of DC media, not just the comics though those do serve as the primary bits of inspiration for perks and takes on powers here. Additionally, perks here are not origin exclusive though for some of them to work if you are not a member of the chosen perk's origin will require fanwanking and flexibility on your part. That's part of why there is a semi-meta perk here to facilitate a logical acquisition of a hybridized form for the duration of this jump, which itself helps smooth over questions about how perks might interact with other physiologies, but even without it if you are creative and focus on your narrative you can find ways for these perks to work for you. Additionally there will always be some sort of benefit to a given perk beyond it activating some sort of origin exclusive power that will always be active and helpful regardless of your origin or even active, equipped form.

Origin:

Each of these origins confers to you an alien physiology with distinctive powers and strengths, as well as weaknesses. An origin, by itself, only gives you the baseline physiology of the given species, it doesn't guarantee you are a match for a given hero or villain who is a member of that species.

Tamaraneans (Free)

In the distant past the beings now known as Tamaraneans were actually the inhabitants of the planet Okaara, and one such being; X'Hal, is worshipped by Tamaraneans after she was experimented upon by the mighty alien race known as the Psions (who are the same race as those who experimented on both Starfire and Blackfire). In the modern era, Tamaraneans are a peaceful race of powerful aliens (relative to Earth), capable of absorbing and processing stellar radiation which powers their complex physiology. Their base powers are surprisingly simple; they can fly, have superhuman durability (and stamina), speed, and strength, and have a curious power to absorb linguistic knowledge through touching someone who knows a language or, more effectively, through a kiss (or some other lip to lip contact). Some Tamaraneans have access to more advanced powers, such as the ability to focus solar energy and emit it as concussive energy blasts carrying tremendous power though this usually requires painful and unethical experimentation to unlock. By default, you only have the base suite of powers, not the more advanced things like Starbolts. Your appearance is up to you, but it is quite possible to mistake you for a human, especially from a distance or with some minor accessories to hide your more exotic features, such as the mighty crimson mane many Tamaraneans have or their oddly colored eyes.

Ma'aleca'andrans (200 CP)

The name of the origin is their formal name (and also a reference to the name Martians have for Mars; Ma'aleca'andra), but these are martians; a species of intelligent humanoids living on Mars. The inhabitants of Mars have a variety of colors for their skin, with the two most famous/infamous kinds of Martians being green and white (but other kinds such as yellow also exist) For a time the martian known as Martian Manhunter/J'onn J'onzz, believed he was the last of the Green martians and that his people had been nearly completely wiped out by the White martians. Martian powers are impressively varied and include the following abilities; shape-shifting (including size alteration to gigantic extremes), invisibility, phasing, superhuman attributes such as strength (to the extent of being able to match Kryptonians), stamina, durability, speed, agility, and reflexes, regeneration, flight, martian vision, and both telepathy and telekinesis. You are a Green Martian, though you can opt to be a White Martian for free. Additionally, Martians have a weakness to fire which you also have. Of the three origins available in this jump this is the one with the oddest or at least the least human appearance. Thankfully you can shapeshift and effortlessly look like a human.

Kryptonians (200 CP)

Inhabitants of the planet Krypton, Kryptonians are an extraterrestrial superficially human-like species with advanced scientific knowledge and a significant civilization. Kryptonians are also, in their native solar system, bathed in the light of a red star. When Kryptonians leave their native solar system and bathe in the light of a star of a different color their cells are supercharged in ways congruent with the color of the star. Yellow and blue stars hit them with wavelengths that push their physiologies in enhanced directions, giving them a litany of abilities past what they experienced on Krypton. In the light of a red star, their bodies function on an identical level to that of healthy humans. Their enhanced powers in the light of a yellow star include superhuman strength, invulnerability to a multitude of things (including many different types of weapons, many (though not all) diseases, blunt force trauma, energy attacks, the void of space, and toxins), a tremendously enhanced lifespan compared to humans, superhuman stamina, flight, super speed (to the extent that the fastest Kryptonians can phase through matter), superhuman senses, self-sustenance, enhanced healing, super-breath, heat vision, and the passive power to absorb and store conducive solar energy to allow them to use their powers away from a yellow star. In other kinds of starlight, they can exhibit a range of powers in addition to or instead of the ones listed above. Kryptonians are weak to Kryptonite. Kryptonians are superficially identical to humans, needing no additional powers or cosmetics to look human. The baseline physiology you get from this only gives you the basic powers of a Kryptonian, ones like solar energy absorption, superhuman strength, speed, durability, stamina, heat vision, frost breath, and enhanced longevity. It does not give you the wackier outlier abilities some Kryptonians have exhibited such as the multitude of powers Superman has possessed over the years like memory erasing kisses or super ventriloquism.

Perks:

Note:

To get a Booster: Perk you will need to purchase the complimentary Perks as an example:

Almost Unique -??? CP

Something Rare Booster: Something Unique

In order to get the Perk Something Unique, you need to take both the Almost Unique Perk that it follows and the Something Rare Perk that is commented before the boosted Perk.

General Perks:

Fortuitous Meeting - Free

You have a special propensity for having beneficial and positive meetings with new people. You are curiously lucky, meeting people after they had a bad day and need someone to talk to or after someone had a lucky break of their own and are in a good mood.

Kindly Couple Origin Perk - Free (Cannot be taken with “Not Drop In”)

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting by crashing a spaceship, harmlessly (to you), into a farm owned by a kindly couple.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 “Out of Context Origin Perks” from other Supplements)

Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

Most Common Superpower - 100 CP

You possess some variant of the Most Common Superpower. You are remarkably attractive, the sort of good looking that actually turns heads and gets people talking. This trait is universal across all of your alt-forms, though obviously what some find attractive others might not. This focuses on making you look good relative to a given alt-form, so you'll be naturally attractive, even among the most attractive individuals, members of whatever species you are embodying, though you'll also be quite attractive to other humanoids whenever possible.

Perfect Hybrid -200 CP

This is a special meta perk for this jump, but also has an active, normal effect you can always rely on. Its normal function is as something of an alt-form fuser, allowing you to temporarily hybridize your alt-forms, letting you take on the best traits of two different species you have within you, fusing their powers and abilities and also giving you a higher baseline made of the best of the competing stats (letting you, for example, be a Tamaranean with the raw strength of a Kryptonian in the light of a yellow or even blue star). In time, with training, this ability grows and you can stay in a fused alt-form state for longer. When you master being a hybrid such that you can always be a hybrid you become able to be a tribrid with these same conditions and the same trainability, and this cycle continues until you can always be a maximally fused individual capable of tapping into all of your alt-forms at the same time. This also allows you to have children that are perfect hybrids of the genetic material and potential of you and anyone else involved in their conception as well. In this jump, for this jump only, this lets you pick two or even all three origins and get a fused build that gives you discounts on every selected origin and the combined abilities (and weaknesses) of both or all three species. You still have to pay for any of this jump's non-free origin(s) as normal.

12th Level Intellect -400 CP

Well this is a bit of an exaggeration. Still, you are a true comic book super scientist, able to invent amazing devices that can do all sorts of incredible feats such as a device capable of controlling a planet's weather or a robot with powers that fights entire groups of superheroes or supervillains by itself. This science perk also gives you skill at reverse engineering technology you come across, letting you figure out their underlying mechanics. With time and a dedication to studying, you may become a greater Level intellect than you are right now, becoming better able to invent some of the super technologies of the D.C. comics multiverse, and maybe, someday, reaching the vaunted height of a 12th-level intellect. This is also an intelligence uncapper.

Latent -600 CP

Very strangely for a Drop-In, you seem to have a background, of sorts. You have the latent potential of your entire species, or species; plural, deep within your genes. And this is true for all of your alt-forms. With this perk this potential, particularly as it relates to powers, lays untapped within you and if you purposefully undergo strange training, intensive experimentation, and scientific therapies you can easily develop new powers, particularly ones thought lost to time or believed to be deeply dormant within the recesses of your genome. Even without training you innately understand the potential stored within you, and can vaguely sense what directions your powers might move and flow in if you are given a chance to try and awaken the dormant abilities and genes within you.

12th Level Intellect Booster: True Alien Tech

Your amplified intelligence is directly practical for you, allowing you to easily access latent abilities buried deep within your genome and even figure out how to coax out such dormant abilities in others. This understanding of both other fields of science and genetics has allowed you to delve deep into biochemistry and allows you to create potent technology that replicates and leverages the powers of lifeforms (and this is especially amplified for species that you can become through alt-forms) you know and understand, as well as empower technology with things derived from lifeforms you understand with some simple examples being spaceships that are supercharged by exposure to yellow sunlight or ray guys that hit as hard as a Kryptonian's heat vision. You can even, eventually at least, create serums and chemical cocktails that give people synthetic versions of your own physiologies, potentially even hybridizing them to give your loved ones versions of your powers and the ability to more easily understand your experiences as a jumper. You can do this for all of your alt-forms, as well as predict what sort of traits any child of yours would have, thanks to your advanced understanding of your genetic makeup.

Tamaranean Perk Tree:

Tactile Learning -100 CP (Free for Tamaraneans)

Tamaraneans have a very unique ability in their tactile linguistic absorption power, but for some reason you've taken this further than they have. You have the ability to learn a lot more than just language through touch. This power has a curious activation mechanism, with you innately learning things based on where you touch someone until you've learned all you can in a given area and it begins to broaden what you learn. This means that if you touch someone's chest you learn about their emotions and what evokes strong emotions in them. If you touch their hands you begin to learn what skills and knowledge they possess that involves their hands. If you touch their head you begin to learn their knowledge. Eventually, you'll have learned everything someone knows, and can even rudimentarily replicate their skills, though the extent to which you can replicate their skills depends more on you and the skill in question than on anything else. But purely theoretical knowledge you absorb through this will be every bit as precise within you as it is within the original person you learned it from.

Emotional Activation -200 CP (Discounted for Tamaraneans)

Tamaraneans are innately keyed to their emotions. They draw power from their hearts and passions, and their feelings are a source of strength. Now you can take this facet and apply it to yourself, discovering how to apply emotions to your powers in ways that amplify them and make them easier for you to use. You are also more empathetic and capable of understanding both your own emotions and those of others, even others vastly unlike you (though this is still challenging).

Cat-Like -400 CP (Discounted for Tamaraneans)

Tamaraneans are believed to be descended from a feline species. That certainly explains some of their tendencies. You have taken this and embodied it to a rare degree, being an able, agile figure with the courage and ferocity of many different types of felines. You also have the independence of many types of cats and can get along well with almost any feline, even sophont ones, as such highly intelligent felines seem to naturally like you. With this even without other powers, you'd be a fierce foe for many human and human-like foes, and since you do have powers of some sort... You'll be a right menace. This comes complete with the older powers Tamaraneans have, such as claws (which you can retract), optional exaggerated feline-features, and enhanced kinesthetic senses.

12th Level Intellect Booster: Psion Protege

The Psions are a race of genetically minded aliens with advanced scientific understandings of a multitude of alien races. They, or at least their current state, are the products of advanced scientific experiments by another species. Replicating their creators Psions have taken to scientifically experimenting on many other races and are the figures who enhanced the Tamaranean heroine known as Starfire and her older sister the occasional villainess Blackfire. You have both been enhanced by them, allowing you to generate Starbolts (though how precisely this is an exact replica of a Starbolt depends on whether or not you are a Tamaranean) and have gained an exacting understanding of their sciences allowing you to discover how to awaken these kinds of powers in others, particularly those with genetics similar to a Tamaranean. In the cases of those with genetics not like tamaraneans you're likely to discover new, probably stranger, powers laying dormant within them.

Heart Of The Matter -600 CP (Discounted for Tamaraneans)

You are an intensely empathetic being, understanding emotions and knowing how to evoke them in other people. Your heart is a powerful guiding light and a potent beacon you can use to stay true to yourself, and you possess a strange ability to encourage others to follow theirs, allowing people to end fights they don't want to be in, and to find courage when they believe in something but aren't sure how to pursue it. You draw power not only from your own heart but from the hearts of those you touch empathetically and can become stronger when you encourage people to be true to themselves. You are also likely to feel jealousy, and somehow people are less capable of being jealous when it comes to you, with people accepting your relationships, regardless of the genders, sexes, species, and other such factors with remarkable ease and openness so long as everyone knows about everyone and all parties are both capable of consent and actively consent to what is going on. Unsurprisingly this also makes you more capable when it comes to romance and pleasure.

Latent Booster: Trained Combatant

Much like Starfire you are an able student of warfare and have a flexible mind that takes to battle with impressive ease. You are both skilled at mundane combat such as martial arts, and at leveraging your powers in creative, if sometimes draining ways. You intuitively understand how to supercharge your powers and unleash them in devastating ways, such as utilizing the stored energy within you in an incredibly powerful omnidirectional attack that can damage incredibly durable and powerful lifeforms. You are also a fiercely adept tactician, capable of fully utilizing your powers and the powers of those fighting alongside you to impressive ends, able to reliably overcome larger forces and greater, but untrained, foes.

Emotional Activation Booster: What Doesn't Kill You

Much like both of the sisters of the Tamaranean royal family, your emotions coupled with pressing and dire external conditions can allow you to overcome considerable weaknesses and even things that cripple your health. When you overcome something significant that has caused you great emotional turmoil you can exhibit new abilities and more well-known powers of yours grow much stronger as a result of the dangers and pain you've overcome. Character growth equals power growth for you.

Ma'aleca'andrans Perk Tree:

Malleable Form -100 CP (Free for Ma'aleca'andrans)

You have taken to the Ma'aleca'andran shapeshifting ability with remarkable ease. You can utilize any shapeshifting powers you possess as an unconscious reflex, allowing you to both do things like shapeshift without conscious awareness of what you're doing, and shapeshift in response to harm. This also improves your ability to give yourself new abilities through shapeshifting, doing things like making your shapeshifting more effective when it comes to being a handy QOL ability like giving yourself wings, gills, or even disguising yourself with your shapeshifting.

You are perfectly comfortable in any form you take, never experiencing any sort of dysmorphia in this or any other form. This also enhances your ability to utilize your powers instinctually and without conscious thought or direction, particularly your abilities that only affect you.

Non-Verbal -200 CP (Discounted for Ma'aleca'andrans)

You are remarkably, eerily impressive at both telepathic communication and at simply reading minds, able to effortlessly pierce the mental walls people erect around themselves. Like many Martians, you are hilariously at ease communicating telepathically, to the extent that with other telepaths you and your friends can find yourself eschewing words completely.

Survivor -400 CP (Discounted for Ma'aleca'andrans)

You are stunningly resilient, even and especially to what should be some sort of critical weakness of yours. You can withstand the sun as a vampire (though the experience will likely be quite painful), and can even resist the calamitous effects of fire on your physiology if you are a Martian. You can also build up greater resistance to things you are supposedly vulnerable to through painful exposure to them, and incredible dedication, though it's unlikely that you'll ever truly overcome these weaknesses. Still you'll be able to surprise and terrify your foes with your resilience, able to turn your endurance into a bludgeon to beat them with.

12th Level Intellect Booster: *Biotech

Your advanced intellect, coupled with your nature as a Martian (and the sacrifice of valuable CP), has afforded you intimate knowledge of the strange Bioships that are one of the species living on Mars. You understand their biotechnical nature and have figured out how to take from them and transpose those principles elsewhere. This not only lets you create Bioships of your own (and other living biotech), it also allows you to create technology meant to mesh with biology such as Transciousness Articulators and Kuru Pendants.

Martian Mimic -600 CP (Discounted for Ma'aleca'andrans)

You are a jumper, a perennial immigrant. This is a difficult reality for many people to get used to. Thankfully you are quite adept at adjusting to new circumstances, taking after one J'onnn J'onzz in that respect. You adapt to new cultures with breathtaking ease. In minutes you can pick up broad understandings of a culture's norms and values even with just the ability to pick up non-verbal cues, and if you can read the passive thoughts of those around you in hours you'll be able to pass for a member of a species from a specific town or settlement. This is, in many ways, a boost to your passive perception, charisma, and wisdom, but also to your ability to acclimate to new circumstances and places, an invaluable skill for a jumper.

Latent Booster: Natural State

The natural state of the Ma'aleca'andrans is vastly different from their current form. Originally known as "Burning Martians", the Martians of the distant past were a radically different race than their descendants.

The Burning Martians had an ability to feed on suffering and despair and could reproduce asexually once they'd fed on enough of it, leading to them being incredibly belligerent and dangerous, but an alien race learned of them before they developed the technological capabilities required to facilitate interstellar travel and intervened to stop them from taking to the stars and waging war on other living beings. They did this by reaching into them and programming a genetic fear of fire into them, erasing their memories of their past, as well as stripping them of a fierce power they once had; a perpetual aura of wicked fire which surrounded each of them. This mysterious race, the beings who are now known as the Guardians of the Universe, are also the race whose experiments are responsible for the current state of the Psions; the creatures who experimented on Starfire and Blackfire.

Some martians have discovered this strange history, and on at least one occasion a martian who discovered these long forgotten events has been overwhelmed by the knowledge and regained his people's long lost ferocity and ancient power (Martian Manhunter becoming the Burning Martian Fernus). You are immune to that dark possibility, and also immune to unnatural tampering by outside forces that is meant to restrain, weaken, or erase some part of you, unless you'd consent to it, and if such things have been done to your people you'll be born rid of that artificial taint. Unsurprisingly this also completely rids you of your weakness to fire, even more completely than J'onn has rid himself of it (since he is still vulnerable to psychically significant fires such as fires of passion).

You are also capable of, at will, becoming a Burning Martian (without losing yourself in the process!). This grants you numerous additional powers, including the eerie method of asexual reproduction they employ, the mighty telepathic powers, and the deadly pyrokinesis they can utilize. Even if you are not a Martian, you can now exhibit similar though slightly weaker powers over fire (and can train them to match the terrifying heights of a Burning Martian with enough dedication), and can give your own non-Martian abilities a bit of a Burning Martian twist, infusing them with malice, antipathy, and loathing (which can make them more deadly, harder to heal from, and also make them more painful).

Non-Verbal Booster: Miss Mentalist

It seems that you are an eerily mighty telepath and telekinetic. You have taken to the psionic side of martian powers with frightening ease, and can easily replicate incredible feats of psionic powers such as scanning the minds of entire countries or linking dozens of minds using yourself as the center of a psychic hive that can connect people separated by planetary distances. You can remain in touch with people across interstellar distances once you connect with them, and with time and training these powers will only grow even mightier. Your telekinesis is smaller scaled, but every bit as capable of growth with you able to easily suspend or even telekinetically puppet several foes around you, allowing you to perform a staggering number of feats with your foes.

Kryptonian Perk Tree:

Control -100 CP (Free for Kryptonians)

You are like the most famous Kryptonian of them all; Kal-El, in your incredible control and precision with your powers. You never have to worry about accidentally using your powers, or losing control of your abilities in the heat of the moment and unintentionally turning someone into gooey red paste. Your powers are under your control and that will never change.

Conservation -200 CP (Discounted for Kryptonians)

Some say that Kryptonian cells are among the greatest organic power storage units in the galaxy. You exemplify this property rather extensively, even beyond what the average Kryptonian can do, possessing a stunning level of skill at conserving the supernatural resources that power your abilities. This is especially valuable for Kryptonians, as it makes your cells well and truly super batteries able to absorb tons of solar energy and allows you to use even seconds of exposure to appropriate sunlight as fuel for hours of reckless power. This property is now universal for you, allowing you as a vampire to use even drops of blood as fuel for dozens of powers or allowing even scant bits of chakra to fuel massive and costly jutsu.

Guild -400 CP (Discounted for Kryptonians)

In some continuities, every Kryptonian on Krypton participated in the rigid social system in play. This primarily involved being put into one of five guilds; the Military Guild, the Science Guild, the Artists Guild, the Religious Guild, and the Labor Guild. You can now passively benefit from this social structure by, once a year, selecting one of the five guilds to mentally place yourself in. This process enhances your talents related to the guild in question, such that if you place yourself in your mental military guild you're a stronger and more skilled warrior, or if you place yourself in the science guild you're a much better scientist better able to create technology and conduct scientific and/or academic research.

12th Level Intellect Booster: Kryptonian Tech

Your enhanced intellect and affinity for Kryptonian culture have resulted in you becoming aware of many examples of Kryptonian technology and how to create them yourself. This allows you to do feats like create your own small Fortress of Solitude, create Superman robots, and even invaluable devices like sunsuits, super-serums, Kryptonian birthing and regeneration matrixes.

Rainbow Hero -600 CP (Discounted for Kryptonians)

As is invariably the case with older superheroes, Kryptonian powers have had a multitude of explanations. The current explanation, a long-running one, is that Kryptonians have some sort of ability that allows them to be powered by the starlight of different types of stars which gives them many, though not necessarily all, of their powers. You benefit from this as well, as a Kryptonian, but now this is enhanced further. You benefit from the ability to access a variety of powers based on the light of any given star closest to you, even if not a Kryptonian though if not a Kryptonian than this power may well be odder to you than it is to one of them. How you react to the strange starlight that may suffuse you is fairly freeform, with some examples of different canon powers for the man of steel himself including Superman Vision (the power to bestow people with base-line yellow sun Superman powers) while powered by a blue star's starlight and a purple star giving you some degree of mind over matter powers. This also greatly enhances your resilience to having your powers taken from you, allowing you to more easily resist things like a red star's starlight or the effects of power drainers who try to sap your energy.

Latent Booster: Flexible Man

Having the full power of your species' genome deep within you truly means something for a Kryptonian. Even having JUST every Superman power means you have things like Omnilingualism, a memory erasing kiss, hypnotic suggestions, and various other powers. This isn't even diving into things like the Super Flare attack, or the fairly new Bio-Electric aura from My Adventures with Superman. Beyond that there are other Kryptonians with remarkably odd powers. This perk doesn't focus on that, though, seeing as Latent already allows you to use those powers so long as you are a Kryptonian and take time to unlock them. This perk grants you awareness of the total library of your powers and allows you to use them more effectively, instinctually, and creatively, and can cause you to, in moments of great tragedy or need, awaken opposites of your powers, such as Bizarro's opposite Superman powers like his Arctic Vision and his Vacuum Breath.

Conservation Booster: Conversion

Your mastery over conservation has mutated into a new and altogether stranger ability. You know how to convert energy within you from one form to another, and this is true even of energy like sunlight that you absorb, allowing you to transform the wavelengths of the radiation you have absorbed. This incredible power means that you can control the sort of energy that suffuses your cells, allowing you to always run at maximal power so long as you have some sort of roughly equivalent energy to turn into fuel for your powers. As you train this you can learn how to turn even wildly different energy into the sort of energy you need, allowing you to turn the energy you gain from eating into energy keyed for your most costly abilities.

Items:

Any lost or stolen items will return to you after a week in the same condition as when you had it unless otherwise stated.

A Humble Farm -Free

Circumstances will invariably, and quickly, arise that culminate in you becoming the owner of this humble farm. This is a simple place, but one that will always feel like home for you and will always produce enough for you to eat (if you need to do that) and make a decent living. It can also grow any kind of plants you find seeds for with some TLC. This farm follows you along your chain, retains changes, and can be imported into places of appropriate size and environmental makeup with ease.

Downed Ship -100 CP

You have a ship corresponding to your origin that arrived when you did. It's the ship you crashed in! This ship corresponds to the basic tech of your people, and can be repaired with appropriate knowledge and scientific skill. It also comes with a small cache of your people's science and technology, which replenishes between jumps, but is primarily small, personal scale things.

Companions

Companion Import [50-200]

Standard companion section; 50 CP to import or create a custom companion with a stipend of 600 CP and the ability to select their own origin, perks, and items. If you pay 200 CP you can import or create 8 companions and they all get the same benefits.

Canon Companion [50]

This option is what allows you to bring canon characters from this setting with you as new companions. You get a token you can give to anyone you can persuade to join you on your chain, and at the end of this jump they'll be able to join you as you select your next jump as your newest companion.

Drawbacks:

Alien Mind +100 CP

You are no longer a Drop-In or from an alternate Reality.

You are instead Local who somehow is an alien that has arrived in this world.

You will need to work out your Background with your Jump Chan.

Alien Heritage (Origin Exclusive) +200/300 CP

Whichever origin you select, you can only select perks pertaining to your origin and undiscounted perks. For 200 CP you can buy perks from other origins, but cannot use them for the duration of this jump. For 300 CP you flat out cannot purchase perks from other origins aside from your origin. If you select the hybrid perk then you can only select one origin's form and perks to be active for this jump, with you gaining your whole build at the end of this jump.

Alien Adventurers (Varies)

This is a tiered drawback, one that costs 200 CP per tier. For each installment of this you take, a pair of other DC aliens, 2 per origin appears. With this drawback the aliens do not have perks and instead have the base physiology of the type of alien they are. You select the type of alien each time you take this drawback, such that you can be a Kryptonian and have to face off against Martians.

Epic Aliens +200 CP/+400 CP/+600 CP/+800/

Sans drawbacks there are no other Aliens when you first appear here. This changes that. This drawback causes there to be uniquely powerful Aliens who appear at the same time as you. Each of these enemies has access to the full perk list of their origin. Each tier of this corresponds to a different origin, which you select when you take that tier. The final tier of this grants all of the summoned foes access to the general perks as well as the perks for their origin.

True Alien +500/800 CP

Oh... Oh no. Now you think like a stereotypical member of your alien race. This makes you an alien's alien even if you can at times power through such sentiments. For the duration of this jump expect to be stuck acting like an alien would. If you take the second, +800 CP tier of this, you cannot shapeshift out of your alien form (this includes using a Martian's actual shapeshifting power) by using alt-forms. Alternatively, you can take the second part of this without the first, but for only +300 CP.

Weaknesses Abound +300/500 CP

Whatever weaknesses your chosen origin has are now decently common. In the case of Tamaraneans it is much more difficult for you to absorb the needed energy for you to use your powers, or that you are more vulnerable to solar energy depletion (making your powers far less efficient than they should be). In other cases, fires are commonplace and Kryptonite can be found somewhat reliably by those with wealth who are fascinated by the material. The first iteration of this makes it so that anyone can find your weaknesses if they look hard enough. The second iteration makes your enemies in particular annoyingly adept at finding and exploiting your weaknesses. If you wish you can amp up the values of these drawbacks by 200 CP, either by making all of your alt-forms weaknesses be commonplace or by making it so that you are vulnerable to the same things in all of your forms for the duration of this jump.

Generic Drawbacks:

Extended Stay +100 CP

You can Increase the duration of this jump by 10 years.

Stalker +100 CP

A random ordinary human knows everything about you and is obsessed with you, they are also protected from any perks or powers that would help you quickly find them.

How do I keep falling into these situations +100 CP

Every plot seems to revolve around you and no matter what you do you will always be dragged into the story.
