

Out of Context: Fallout Supplement

V1.04 By DeverosSphere

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have Vault-Tec within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be a vault dweller and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In awakening in a Vault-Tec Vault.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin:

None of these origins determine your background, only your play style, your discounts and the number on your Vault Tec property.

In what way are you S.P.E.C.I.A.L.

The Vault Dweller

The Vault Dweller was one of hundreds of inhabitants of Vault 13. Born in 2141, they were raised by the community and robotic caretakers, leading an unremarkable life in the Vault. Their journey began when the water-purification chip the Vault relied on to create fresh water broke down.

The Lone Wanderer

The Lone Wanderer was born on July 13, 2258, to James and Catherine at the Jefferson Memorial, Catherine died shortly after giving birth due to cardiac arrest.

James traveled to Vault 101 where the Lone Wanderer lived until 2277, when they were forced to leave the safety of the vault because James disappeared without any explanation.

The Sole Survivor

The Sole Survivor was raised around the Pre-War Boston area, but on October 23, 2077, the day of the Great War, the Sole Survivor rushed their family to Vault 111 where they were sealed in cryogenic stasis under the pretense of being "decontaminated" by Vault-Tec scientists. The Sole Survivor was kept almost undisturbed in this state until the Sole Survivor and their spouse were reawakened by three unknown individuals, who opened the spouse's cryogenic tube killing them and kidnapping their baby Shaun. The Sole Survivor was refrozen, awakening on October 10, 2287, escaping the cryogenic tube to avenge their spouse's death and locate Shaun.

G.O.A.T. Result:

The Generalized Occupational Aptitude Test is a Vault-Tec occupational assessment test that every resident of a vault is required to take at the age of 16.

This helps to determine job placement and in this instance your starting S.P.E.C.I.A.L. score.

Drop Out +1000 CP

Come on. I don't really have to take this stupid test, do I?

It seems you skipped the G.O.A.T. and don't get any S.P.E.C.I.A.L. stat's at least you get some CP for your trouble.

When active the V.A.T.S will display a percentage of how likely an attack you intend to use will be to hit the targeted area based on distance from the target, visibility of the targeted body part, and combat skill. When actions have been selected and confirmed your body will automate the actions for optimal success.

There is also a glitch common on the west coast that causes the V.A.T.S to restart after each selected action, while action points recharge causing the system to imitate turn-based combat. Without specific drawbacks it will be assumed you have maximum compatibility and do not have the turn-based Glitch.
