The Story Thus Far

Once upon a time, there was a girl by the name of Tatsuki Arisawa. She was a fighter, a tomboy, protective of her friends, and the second strongest girl in all of Japan. One day she noticed that a friend of hers, Orihime Inoue, was drifting away from her, speaking to her less and less, not showing up to school, and not even at home when Tatsuki went to check.

A mysterious woman appeared to her a few days later, claiming to have knowledge on Orihime's whereabouts. The woman took Tatsuki to a strange building, and showed her the truth. That Orihime had somehow managed to acquire a futanari dick, and was slowly going crazy with lust.

Lust, I might add, that was aimed solely at Tatsuki herself, leaving Orihime unable to identify the mysterious woman as anyone but Tatsuki. With that shocking revelation out of the way, Tatsuki demanded a dick of her own and began to care for Orihime's lusts.

Origin

The origins are named thematically based on the roles of the story. Pick one.

Patient

You may not actually be ill, but by all accounts you do actually need some sort of help. Maybe you suffer from horrible nightmares, or maybe your magic powers are slowly killing you. It could be neither of those, but.... Well, you have at least one thing you need help with, else you wouldn't be in need of assistance right now.

Doctor

And you are absolutely not an actual doctor! Don't bother pointing at your credentials, those are fake! Anyways, while you aren't an actual doctor, you might be halfway decent at playing therapist. Or maybe you live with a mad scientist and are the one handing out 'cures' that he made. Just, do no harm, alright? Can you manage that?

Visitor

Neither injured nor the healer, I guess that means you must be a visitor! How kind of you to come and visit your injured friend, to take the time out of your day to try and make her smile. Given the world we live in, and what she's been up to recently, it's really all you have to offer her - friendship and a kind word or two.

Bar one or two scenes, all characters in this work are female, so you have a free swap to that if you want it.

Perks

Patient

100 cp - Leaky Faucet

Specifically, you. I'd say your dick, but you might not have one. Yet. Anyways, when it comes to getting laid, you're a veritable fountain of sexual fluids. Your panties get soaked in a heartbeat, your breasts squirt milk when you cum, and yes, your dick shoots out way more than the average guy. All three of these things at the same time makes a bit of a mess, so good luck with that!

100 cp - Wet Dream or Nightmare?

You have got a real pair of lungs on you, you know the kind that opera singers use to crack glass. I'd say that you could scream loud enough to wake the dead, but half the people this jump is based on are dead, so that's not actually a great deal of effort - or volume. More importantly, when going down on someone you can stay down there for half an hour without any oxygen with no issue.

200 cp - Breath Of Fresh Air

Love is in the air! Or maybe that's you sniffing armpits and assholes. Look, I may not like them myself but I'm not going to judge you. Anyways, you've got a special someone. You know who they are. And when they're nearby, the whole world just seems a little brighter. Your hysterics dwindle down, your wounds hurt less, and you sleep better, so long as they're next to you.

200 cp - Golden Shower

Right, I did say I wasn't going to judge. And now, neither will anyone else! Mostly. Orihime developed a bit of an asshole fixation, and went a bit farther than most people were comfortable with into scat. Tatsuki loved her so much that she tried it out anyways and apparently it was okay. Long story short, when you show off your fetish people's first reaction isn't 'ew, gross, I'm gonna vomit', it's 'huh, I didn't realize that was hot'.

400 cp - We Have The Same Look

Turns out that Orihime getting horny turns Tatsuki on, and Tatsuki's nice hard cock gets Orihime's engine roaring. Some sort of feedback loop based on how much they love each other. One that you can now cause, mostly. When people see you and how turned on you are, it turns them on as well. If you get wet, they get wet, if you get hard, your girlfriend probably jumps you.

400 cp - Emergency Exit

While the crazy cat lady may have helped Orihime in the short term, it wasn't exactly an effective treatment, and she had to drag Tatsuki into it in order to keep up with Orihime's libido. Then the crazy cat lady went crazier and made some changes that left both of them even hornier. Thankfully, you have a sixth sense for how to escape from crazy scientists, when the getting's good and whatnot.

600 cp - It's Like Some Sort Of Contagious Disease

Being a futanari, specifically. Yoruichi gave Orihime one to help her vent, then gave herself one because it looked hot. Then Tatsuki wanted one so she could keep up with Orihime, then Soi Fon wanted one because she's obsessed with Yoruichi. Your fetishes - and to a certain extent, body modifications - are practically contagious. When people see how much you're enjoying them, they can't help but want to join in and get a futa dick of their own.

600 cp - A Bunch Of Moans Between Tatsuki And Orihime

So, I'm not sure what you did or why it works, but your lovemaking now screws with sensory techniques. Someone trying to observe you through anything but the five basic senses attached to their bodies now gets... Interference. Specifically, the sounds of you and your lover rutting furiously screaming all sorts of dirty words at each other. You don't actually have to actually be in the act either, though if you are that only makes it worse for them.

Doctor

100 cp - Unusual Methods

Maybe it's your cutting wit, maybe it's your huge tits. Either way, it seems that people have a tendency to ask you for advice on topic you are in no way qualified to advise on. Like seriously, you are - at best - a mad scientist, why would they go to you over any sort of legitimate professional? It probably has something to do with you being a friend of theirs instead of a stranger.

100 cp - Photogenic

I mean, yes, you're hot, but that's not where I was going for this. Instead, you now have a level of skill with a camera. It makes you good at acquiring blackmail... or shooting pornos out of the strange things you do to people who ask you for help, or the things you make them do. I can't imagine they would ask if they knew this beforehand, but what do I know!

200 cp - Placebo Effect

You aren't their lover, but you are a damn good one. Specifically, you're so good at sex that you can fool a person into thinking that you actually are their lover. The illusion spell you've learned to replicate sight, scent, and touch also helps. This actually does allow you to be comforting and even therapeutic, though not to the extent of talking/sleeping with the real deal.

200 cp - Unreasonable Requests

Look, Yoruichi went way past the line when she was 'helping' Orihime. She helped, yes, but she also used it as an excuse to test a few toys of hers, such as whatever method she used to turn Orihime into a futanari. That said, Orihime got the wonderful experience of fucking 'Tatsuki' until she was out of it, which she loved so she didn't complain about it. Similarly, if they enjoy the fallout people tend to let you off on your crazy experiments.

400 cp - Night Shift Nurse

Or you could completely abandon any pretence of helping and just go straight to getting laid. See, somehow the universe has figured out that any time you have an excuse to be in a naughty nurse outfit, you're going to fuck your patients. So much so that any 'healing' you do now practically comes with the expectation of sleeping with you. If you like, you can control how noticeable this is, from basically blackmail to them just rolling with it.

400 cp - Here Kitty Kitty

And also you can turn into a cat. I called Yoruichi the crazy cat lady for a reason after all, she's a lady who's crazy and has the ability to become a cat. No I don't know why she can do that. Anyways, it's an ability that you seem to share. Optionally, this comes with a catgirl form with your preferred level of furry, but it's real purpose is something else. When you are a cat, it's impossible to perceive you as anything else. No method of detection can catch you, only someone who already knows can see through this disguise.

600 cp - Second Speciality

Okay, here we go, as it turns out you're not actually a doctor after all. You are, in fact, a ninja. Probably at least, and I'll be very disappointed if you're lying to me. Your primary areas of speciality are stealth, assassination, and apparently psychological warfare. Amusingly enough, you also have a ridiculously easy time inverting your skills, turning said skill's destructive psychology into the skills an actual therapist would need. That explains so much about you.

600 cp - Unforeseen Side Effects

That you could not have predicted, no sir, there's no way you could possibly have known which potential side effect would be the one to come true... Which is to say of course, that you've figured out some method of screwing with the various drugs and 'medicines' that you somehow got your hands on and managed to alter them to that their side effects only include sexy things. Don't ask me what it is, just know that you can take some pills with a potential side effects of 'mild headache or nausea' and turn that into 'mild boner and arousal'. Or 'grow a futa dick and go up two cup sizes'.

Visitor

100 cp - Sweet Scent

Normally I'd think it was your girlfriend trying to sweet talk you or just making pillow talk, but it seems that's not quite true. Your scent, your sweat, actually smells pretty good. Not exactly like something nice, like flowers or something, but some sort of primal musk that screams SEXY to the world once you've got a good workout in.

100 cp - Don't Touch That

While Orihime might be crazed with lust half the time, she still comes to a dead halt when confronted with the real Tatsuki, unwilling to touch her in that way without permission. Unwilling to stain the wonderful image of her friend she's built up. Thankfully, Tatsuki gave her permission. But, I digress. When you want to go no further and declare your pussy off limits, people will honor that. Or a different hole, depending on your tastes. This is mostly sexual, so don't expect your teachers to stop beating you into the ground in the name of training.

200 cp - Loosen Up A Bit

As it turns out, relaxing somewhat and embracing her sexuality as a woman - and partially not being a tomboy anymore - caused damn near everyone to turn heads at this beautiful woman they'd never noticed before. So, this is twofold. One, you can call down sexy accidents on yourself, and those accidents will attract attention from both men and women alike. And secondly? The more sex you have, the prettier you appear to be. Call an extra one out of ten for every eight times you do it over the course of a week?

200 cp - Combatant

Funnily enough, of the Karakura gang, Tatsuki is the only trained fighter of the lot. Ichigo and Chad learned to brawl in back alleys, Uryu is an archer and not a close up kind of guy, and Orihime? A fraction of Tatsuki's skill. Like her, you might be weak, but the two of you actually have a solid education on tactics and strategy. Enough to set up traps for invisible beings you can't actually see and have them work. Though, the materials to build them are another matter.

400 cp - Drown in Pleasure

Tatsuki's relative uselessness in a fight left her in a scenario where she was utterly desperate to do something, anything, to help Orihime, including all manner of sexual acts. Building off that, when you take the submissive role in a sexual situation - or rather, submissive to their will/fetishes, which could still leave you on top - then afterwards you'll find your partner on the top of their game, just a tad faster, stronger, even luckier for a short time.

400 cp - Kurosaki Mornings

Fun fact, Ichigo's dad wakes him up with a flying kick in order to ingrain combat instincts into him. If Tatsuki's reaction to Orihime waking her up is any indication, she also has those instincts. And now so do you, able to practically fight in your sleep. Maybe not at full capacity, but you can pull it off. More importantly, you have a level of superstrength that surpasses most olympic athletes... which barely makes you relevant to hollows.

600 cp - A Place To Come Back To

More than anything, Tatsuki didn't want Orihime to fall into the world of ghosts in such a manner that she could never return - in other words, die. As such, you strive to create the one thing that will keep your lover alive more than anything else, a reason to fight and a place to come back to. With that in mind, you're apparently the perfect housewife, cooking and cleaning better than basically anyone. Beyond that? The more someone loves you, the harder they can fight. The more they want to come home to you, the more wounds they'll simply shrug off. All because they love you.

600 cp - Just A Little Bit

Before the revelation of fullbringers, it was thought that Ichigo's immense spiritual power had leaked over into Chad and Orihime, granting them powers. In turn Orihime's close contact with Tatsuki cause her to develop a tiny amount of power. Enough strength to lay low a full grown man with a half hearted blow, but barely anything to a hollow. When sleeping with those with power, you will very very slowly gain powers of your own. Not quickly, perhaps a week of sex for a single hour of training, but power nonetheless. Faster if they're vastly more powerful. Also, this goes two ways, allowing you to empower those weaker than you.

General

50 cp - Quincy Eyesight

I won't say that Quincy are particularly famous for much of anything given how few of them are still alive, but the vast majority of them can take a bow and arrow and outdo a modern military sniper. One of the many talents that they might brag about is their eyesight, able to shoot the fly off a wing blah blah blah blah blah. What actually matters is that you have the amazing ability to always get the best view when something 'unfortunate' happens to a young woman and leaves her in an embarrassing position.

100 cp - Actual Quincy Eyesight

Okay, here we go, actual Quincy eyesight. Probably. You now have eyeballs that were basically designed for long range combat, hit the wings off a fly, yada yada. In short, you now have 20/20 vision and an immunity to any sort of eye based disease, injury, or defect. Your vision is the best, and will be staying the best.

Items

Patient

100 cp - A Lonely Apartment

If I'm remembering correctly, Orihime and her brother Sora ran away from home at a young age on account of their abusive parent. A distant aunt of their gave them this apartment. Large enough for two, maybe three people to live here without being cramped. Inside the apartment is a small shrine depicting a dead loved one of yours - so long as the shrine is cared for, the picture acts as armor against any unwanted visitors. Your aunt never checks in on you, the truant officer never thinks to look in your home if you skip a few days of school, and nosy neighbors in general will stay away.

200 cp - Safe Sex Phamplets

I'll be honest, Orihime kind of went past talking sexy and straight up found the nastiest 'shit' she could demand from her partners. These pamphlets are an instruction manual for that sort of 'shit'. Or, more accurately, how to do it safely, without the potential for injury, disease, or actually ruining your asshole. There are also a few menus with suggestions on how to change the taste of semen, though there isn't much to work with for the other fluids. Or the solid.

400 cp - Idol Job

Unlike Orihime's daydreams about super sexy Tatsuki, this Idol position is actually a legitimate position. It's not a porno filming company hidden behind the thin veneer of cute girls. Or, well, it's an interview with one such company, if you decide to try your talents in that direction. And no, 'interview' is not a code word for 'live stream gangbang'. Just, keep in mind that nothing in this jump actually prepares you for such a thing, so you're going to have to put the work in if you want to make this work.

600 cp - Soten Kisshun

Strictly speaking this is more of a technique than an item, but it seems you've managed to acquire one of Orihime's hairpins. Yes, one of them. Or maybe it's a copy? Not quite sure. Either way, you have access to Orihime's utterly broken healing technique that has more in common with time travel than actual healing. This is also the technique that Orihime uses to clean up the pools of cum and poop that she and Tatsuki make whenever they get going in a public location. By rejecting the event - sex - the effect - the horrible mess - is erased! Easy, right?

Doctor

100 cp - Visiting Hours Leash

When it comes to explaining all this spirit stuff to people who don't know anything about it, it's quite troublesome. Shut up and come with me just doesn't seem to cut it anymore. That's where this handy dandy magic leash and collar comes from! Simply latch it on and get moving, the person attached to it will be fine as you outrun cars and drag them behind you. No, really, they'll be fine. It's magic, remember?

200 cp - Waiting Room Wards

When Yoruichi was first 'helping' Orihime, she had her placed inside an isolated room. Partially so that others wouldn't notice, and partially so they wouldn't think to question Yoruichi's ideas of treatment. Anyways, this simple ward scheme has the effect of soundproofing a room and creating an odd blur effect such that only someone literally inches away from the doorway can see through it. A few other variations on it got used for more serious business, but this one is all you get.

400 cp - Urahara's Shady Drugs

And here we go, whatever method Yoruichi used to grant Orihime, Tatsuki, Soi Fon, and herself dicks is buried in this pile of drugs. Also the one that gave them balls, which doubles as a sensitivity enhancer. Also a number of actual medicines, albeit ones a normal doctor would never prescribe. Lucky you, having a mad scientist for a roommate. Most of this will resupply itself after a few days, but the more wacky stuff could take weeks or months to get more of.

600 cp - Shattered Shaft

You may remember this odd little device from some point in the past. It's the odd location that was used to give Ichigo back his powers as a Shinigami - but also that woke up his inner hollow. Long story short, this place vastly accelerates a soul's descent into madness in exchange for providing clarity and insight that helps with the process of finding your Zanpakuto's name. This version... has been modified so that no matter what goes in, a futa comes out. That sounds ridiculous, but given that Yoruichi seems to be running rampant all over the gear stored away in the Urahara Shoten, it should also be expected.

Visitor

100 cp - Gym Membership

I do believe I mentioned that Tatsuki was actually an amazing martial artist? Well, since you seem to be following in her footsteps, go ahead and take this. It's a key to an old ratty beat up gym slash generic martial arts studio. There's plenty of gear here, but not much in the way of people to train with. Well, bar the owner, who somehow manages to always be just a tad bit stronger than you. A living, breathing, retired badass trope if you will. Unfortunately, he can't teach you anything about magic or ghosts or whatnot. Only how to punch good.

200 cp - "Idol Job"

This item is nothing more than a simple business card that was shoved into your hand one day by a rather... flamboyant man. It advertises an idol group with a rather suggestive name, and a poor reputation. Look, it's one step short of being a hooker service. If you're into that sort of thing then you can go for it, otherwise I suggest throwing it away. They will actually teach you the basics of being an Idol, for the record, it's just that you probably won't ever get a chance to use them.

400 cp - Fortified Locations

Hey, remember those materials that you needed in order to build traps for hollows? Here ya go. Anyone else would think that this is just a bunch of random stuff, from fresh lumber and oddly braided rope to ten kinds of paint and an exorcism for dummies book. But for you, it's a way to strike way above your weight class. Mind you, thanks to the hollows cheating, very little of what you make here is going to be lethal to them, but holding them in place? Binding them down and leaving them open for someone to finish them off? Easy.

600 cp - Last Will And Testament

You wanna know the best thing about being friends with a ghost ninja samurai? Their ability to search the afterlife for your not so recently deceased loved ones so that you can have one last conversation with them. And possibly ask their blessing to get married. Or maybe have a threesome with them. There's lots of uses for this. Anyways, once per jump a ninja will hunt down the soul of someone you desire to speak with, and you'll have 24 hours with which to do whatever you want with them.

Companions

50/300 - Companion Import

Hey, you know what you need? Some people to visit you in the hospital when you get sick. You know, friends. That's why you can now import some of them into the jump. It'll be 50 cp a pop, or a slight discount of 300 cp for eight of them. No more than that though. Each of them gets 500 cp to buy perks and items with, and cannot take drawbacks or buy more companions.

50/200 - Canon Companion

Or maybe you'd rather meet someone new by happenstance? Well, I'll see what I can do. One guaranteed good first impression on a character of your choice, and the ability to companion them if they agree to come with you at the end of the jump. However, there is a limitation. You can only companion the Human characters, such as Tatsuki and Orihime - or Xcution if you want them, alongside any character actually shown in the source material, which only really accounts for a small handful of Shinigami and Hollows. Additionally, as power isn't relevant in this sexy-fied world, their powers are nerfed so that they're about equal to preseries Rukia. On the other hand, if you want them at their full power, then you can pay a total of 200 cp instead of 50 cp and get them without any nerfs.

Drawbacks

Endure Misery to Increase Power

+0 cp - Hospital Food Sucks

To which end you may not want to be stuck in a hospital for very long. Thus, if you so desire you can drop the duration of the jump from ten years to merely one. However, this will come at a cost. In exchange for only staying one tenth of the time, drawbacks are also only worth one tenth the amount. In short, if you choose this, you'd have to take every drawback on offer to earn a measly 100 cp.

+100 cp - Nightmares

I would ask you if you like violence, but it seems the answer is fairly clear. You don't. You really, really, don't. In fact, you have horrible nightmares about any form of violence, and they just get worse and worse if you actually partake in any of it. Thankfully, there is a solution! No, not drugs. Cuddling! Specifically, cuddling with a lover - and not a one night stand kind either. Unless you can find someone like that to hold you while you snooze, you'll be stuck with those horrible nightmares.

+100 cp - That's Disgusting!

Um. So, I do believe I said that I would try not to judge you for your fetishes. However, it seems that you've taken that to heart and dived right into some of the worst ones you could find. For the sake of simplicity, you now share Orihime's Scat and Watersports fetishes, and everybody you try to share that with will immediately blow up in your face about how horrible a thing that is. You also have an urge to share, because it's not as easy to get off when you aren't indulging in your favorites. If you know of something even worse you can use that instead, as long as you don't tell me about it.

+100 cp - Technically A Virgin

So, given Orihime's anal fixation, it should come as no surprise that Tatsuki's pussy basically never got used. At least, not until Yoruichi intervened. But I digress, Yoruichi won't be interfering with you in that way. For the duration of the jump, you can only get dicks up your ass - or your dick up their ass, depending on your gender. Doesn't matter what your actual fetish is, doesn't matter what theirs is. It goes up the ass and that's final.

+100 cp - Restless And Rigid

Hey, it's a porn jump. It wouldn't be complete without this, not that it's much of an issue. Anyways, you now have a hair trigger boner. Or a leaky faucet down below and up above. Or both, because that's a thing that can happen. While this can lead to some decent sexyfuntime, it also manages to be a massive pain in the but at all other hours of the day. It's not easy to hide something like that, and opportunities to sneak away and relieve yourself aren't as common as you'd like.

+200 cp - Misconduct

So, I hope you weren't planning on placing any sort of faith or trust in authority figures. Not like your parents, but teachers, doctors, police, former shinigami captains... You know, those sorts of people. As for why, well it's because they seem to think that you exist for them to screw around with. I'd call your life their personal soap opera as they screw around with you, but it's probably closer to a porno as they literally screw you. And if it wasn't obvious, going to the police about these less than professional behavior is doomed to failure... and probably rape.

+200 cp - A Cat's Respect For Boundaries

And this would be the inverse of the above drawback. Instead of people having no respect for your boundaries, you have none for those of others. With the right partner this isn't actually that much an issue in the long run, but eventually they'll hit the point where they want to actually sleep at night, or maybe eat some food instead of having sex, and that's the point where they probably break up with you because you kept going. I suppose it would be fairly accurate to say that you have little to no self control when it comes to sudden impulses - like trying to fuck someone's ass in public because you liked the way it bounced.

+200 cp - Voluntold for Testing

So uh. While Yoruichi may have been the main instigator of this universe's "Plot", the fact of the matter is that she borrowed almost everything from Urahara. And I can't tell if he's mad at her for taking his things, or pleased at finally figuring out if they work or not. See, he's ""asked"" you to help him test some more shady drugs. And he's even decided to share this wonderful gem of a test subject with his teacher, Shutara, and former subordinate, Mayuri. If you need an explanation for what this means, take a look at everything Yoruichi did to Orihime and Tatsuki for her own amusement... and dial it up to a hundred. Don't bother running, there's sexy SCIENCE to be done.
