Origins

Drop in (Wonderland) [Free]

You appeared from nowhere, with no past and no ties, as if you'd just fallen down a rabbit hole or through a mirror.

Little Red Riding Hood [Free]

You'll be roaming the forest, perhaps to take a basket to your grandmother, or to eat the delicious little girl in red, or to save her from the big bad wolf.

Snow White [Free]

Do you have problems with your mother-in-law, or perhaps you're a miner and an experienced dwarf craftsman?

Goldilocks and the Three Bears [Free]

Perhaps you like to eat people's desserts and sleep in their beds like a creature of rare dissent. If yes, this for you!

Race

Jumper isn't reduced to the lifespan of a normal thing

A little animal from a tale [+200 CP]

You're a little creature like a baby wolf. If you couldn't talk, it would be hard to tell you apart from a normal little wolf. If you want to take a bigger like a wolf or something similar you can but you don't get the +200 CP

Anthropomorphic object/animals [free]

You may stand on your claws, you may look like an anthropomorphic rabbit or maybe it's just your head with a human body the size of an adult human... What is a human? Maybe it is a cryptid.

Human or similar [free]

Your current race or a human or equivalent that might be appropriate, such as a dwarf for example, or someone with ears and a wolf's tail, it's up to you.

Perks

Origins get their 100cp perks for free and the rest are discounted to 50%.

Drop in (Wonderland)

Everyone's crazy here [100 CP | Free for Drop in (Wonderland)]

But come on Jumper, everyone's crazy here, there's nothing strange about a bit more madness from a supposedly other world! You can use things that are astonishing, to say the least, and shapes that clearly don't belong in the decor, no one's going to say anything, it's probably a costume after all!

Whether pawn or queen, Alice is Alice [100 CP | Free for Drop in (Wonderland)]

Origins are as strange as Wonderland itself, why can't this strange creature named Jumper fit in wherever he wants and must always go into Drop in to keep his quirks intact? Whether you're a queen or a pawn, you're still Alice after all! With this all Origin can be taken as if it's Drop in, you won't have any past or annoying new memories!

Dormouse [200 CP | Discounted for Drop in (Wonderland)]

Aww, what an adorable sleepy rodent you are! Just like the dormouse from Alice in Wonderland, you can do whatever you do awake while you sleep whether it's moving around holding conversations, plus you're incredibly comfortable to cuddle making you the best plushy ever!

Wonderland's pastry chef [200 CP | Discounted for Drop in (Wonderland)]

You're probably wondering where the delicious cakes that make you grow and the drinks that make you shrink came from? Well, it's probably from you, as you excel in the arts of pastry-making and magic tea.

Cheshire cat [400 CP | Discounted for Drop in (Wonderland)]

I've often seen a cat without a grin, but never a grin without a cat! You can appear and disappear at will and make yourself invisible

Card [400 CP | Discounted for Drop in (Wonderland)]

Jumper you are a card, able to take on a hybrid humanoid card form to draw the full potential of a power linked to the symbol of your card, be it the spade, the club, the heart or the diamond, but also the old version of this game with the coin, the scepter, the cup and the sword. This power also works without taking the form, but will be slightly weakened. You can change your symbol for another at any time to benefit from its version of the perk.

Alice [600 CP | Discounted for Drop in (Wonderland)]

You can travel in your dreams as well as in books and mirrors to live adventures and although the environment may seem strange to the point that everyone will get lost for you who had walked so many strange lands. Dreams and non-Euclidean environments could well be a straight line with no detours. What's more, you're supernaturally adept at using all the strange objects you find there, whether it's measuring out the right amount of eat me cake or making that strange object found in one of your most nebulous dreams work!

Rabbit hole [800 CP| Discounted for Drop in (Wonderland)]

You can create burrows that lead to other dimensions or worlds that you've already visited, but be careful not to fall down or let someone else accidentally fall inside.

Little Red Riding Hood

Disguise master [100 CP | Free for Little Red Riding Hood]

Just like the big bad wolf, you're really good at dressing up. Just don't show off your big teeth!

Therianthropy [100 CP | free for Little Red Riding Hood]

You can transform yourself into a wolf or, if you are a wolf, into a wolf girl or an anthropomorphic wolf.

Alliance improbable [200 CP | Discounted for Little Red Riding Hood]

You're really good at making friends, even when they're destined to destroy you! The prophecies will find a cuter and friendlier way to be interpreted, and this works even more so for the wolves.

Big Bad Wolf [200 CP | Discounted for Little Red Riding Hood]

You are the Big Bad Wolf, a celebrity for sure, you appear in many tales, making you the Boogeyman, and you inspire the terror that you would expect from such a prestigious position. Despite your reputation, if you disguise yourself or try to deceive them, people will lower their guard, even if your disguise is ridiculous.

Ranger [400 CP | Discounted for Little Red Riding Hood]

The forests are your domain and you can walk through them with ease, knowing the best crossing points, as well as the tracks of dangers and edible plants if you encounter them. You'll also notice that you have a few druidic abilities at first, simply creating delicious Good berries, but who knows in time you might be able to hunt the Wolf with the help of nature.

The hunter [600 CP | Discounted for Little Red Riding Hood]

It seems that what happens at the end of Red Riding Hood is considered too much even for the children of the time and well when you are finished or had just died and that once per jump. A hunter appears and tries to kill your assassin. Although this hunter is not supernatural, he makes his target just as non-supernatural as he is, turning the battle into one of experience and skill. If he succeeds in killing his target, you will be resurrected as if you had never died in the first place. What's more, you yourself can save (resurrect) the last victim killed by someone else by killing their assassin and are able to sense when someone you want to save is in danger.

Red Riding Hood [600 CP | Discounted for Little Red Riding Hood]

Sometimes Little Red Riding Hood doesn't wait for the hunter... because she's the hunter and the wolf too! You're exceptional when it comes to hunting and the use of weapons linked to the hunter, the lumberjack and the Snow White Little Red Riding Hood, such as shears, axes and rifles... Baskets and galettes! You're the terror of the woods because your attacks are now wolf slayers, inflicting enormous damage on wolves and other doggo.

Snow White

White as snow [100 CP | Free for Snow White]

You're so beautiful that the magic mirrors could say you're the most beautiful in the kingdom.

Maid [100 CP | Free for Snow White]

Your maid skills are truly impressive; it would only take you a day to transform the dirtiest and most untidy of slums into a perfectly clean and dust-free home.

Dwarf [200 CP | Discounted for Snow White]

You're an excellent miner and craftsman who knows how to get the maximum amount of ore/crystal without damaging the merchandise and create magnificent works of art such as glass coffins. What's more, you'll find that you always manage to extract a little more ore and precious stone than is actually in the vein.

Singer [200 CP | Discounted for Snow White]

You have a beautiful voice and can spontaneously create new songs. What's more, your voice is so beautiful that animals other than humans and the equivalent will come and help you with your task when you're singing. Besides, singing makes all tasks much less tedious!

Return with her lungs and liver... No? [400 CP | Discounted for Snow White]

Maybe because you're far too adorable or because the local big bad treats his henchman badly, but the latter are far more likely to decide to spare you and make it look like they really did manage to kill you.

The Evil Queen [600 CP | Discounted for Snow White]

Why do you need his heart and liver?! Chomp... To eat them of course! When you eat these organs you gain some of their owner's properties, although in the vast majority of cases it's their beauty. In addition to this, you are well versed in the art of sorcery, being able to create poisoned, enchanted and other objects. As well as changing your appearance and other sinister tricks.

Snow white [600 CP | Discounted for Snow White]

The most beautiful in the kingdom, I said? Well, the kingdom in question must really be huge! You're really lucky when it comes to love, because even if you do absolutely nothing, your soulmate(s) will usually appear to save you from a desperate situation. Your singing is even better than before if you have the Singer perk, this will even apply to humans to a certain extent.

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Nasty thief [100 CP | Free for Goldilocks and the Three Bears]

What a nasty thief you are, it really isn't done... at least steal their food! You'll notice that good people have too much faith in others, wrongly thinking that nothing can happen to them, and make big mistakes like leaving their door or window open.

Porridge [100 CP | Free for Goldilocks and the Three Bears]

Just as porridge has an important place in this tale, your skills in preparing it are incredible, as are other dishes to a very lesser extent.

Walked out into the wood [200 CP | Discounted for Goldilocks and the Three Bears]

Waiting for things to be ready is boring now instead you can go for a walk which will greatly increase the speed at which things get ready like porridge reaching the perfect temperature for example. You'll always arrive at the right moment if you're running over time because of that perk, so there's no chance of missing what you've paused for.

Thieves are dumb! [400 CP | Discounted for Goldilocks and the Three Bears]

With this you will notice that thieves are people who take far too much confidence when they try to steal from you. Instead of escaping they do silly things like sleeping in your bed! Well at least it's easier to catch them and get your stuff back!

Goldilocks [600 CP | Discounted for Goldilocks and the Three Bears]

There are people who hesitate and then there are you! Not only can you not be embarrassed by a sudden panic when your back is against the wall because your victim has just found you, but you can momentarily deactivate your sense of embarrassment to completely wallow in impudence like eating their dessert and sleeping in their bed. What's more, you'll notice that whenever you steal something, it's more likely to be perfectly adapted to you, as if it had been made to measure, and if you find three copies of a similar object, one will automatically find it. What's more you'll find it easier to find an escape route.

A pickaxe [100 CP | Free for Snow White]

One of the sad things about mining is realizing that the incredible ore or the magnificent jewel can't be recovered because of a lack of suitable tools.
