

Teen Titans: Power and Item Combination Supplement

Tamaranean Physiology + Supernatural Durability

- Lava can no longer harm you.

Tamaranean Physiology + Super Strength

- Doubles your strength to 50 tons.

Tamaranean Physiology + Peak Human Condition

- Hold your breath for days and react so quickly that the world seems to slow down.

Tamaranean Physiology + Ionikinesis

- Fire large beams of plasma from your hands or eyes that can melt through buildings or shoot bolts of plasma small and precise enough to snipe people from afar.

Tamaranean Physiology + Flight

- Doubles your speed to mach 2.

Shapeshifting + Animal Morphing

- You'll be able to transform into animal/human hybrids and overcome the monochromatic limitations of Animal Morphing.

Cambion Physiology + Teleportation

- Teleport yourself and others anywhere on the planet almost instantaneously.

Cambion Physiology + Empathy

- Emotion manipulation. Drive people to suicide, turn friends into enemies, make people so happy or calm they don't want to fight you, etc.

Cambion Physiology + Telekinesis

- Start with the ability to lift and throw semi-trucks. With enough practice you'll be able to manipulate matter down to the microscopic scale.

Supernatural Durability + Armored Skin

- You can make yourself completely immune to all physical damage by covering body in an indestructible shell. You will be totally immobile while doing this and unable to use any of your other powers or abilities, but your allies can still pick you up, carry you around, or use you as a weapon.

Teleportation + Costume + Xenothium + Gadgets + Utility Belt

- Gain a replica of the Red X suit or your own personally designed suit with the extract same features. While wearing the Xenothium powered belt you'll be able to teleport short distances and fire projectiles from your hands that can mimic the functions of weapons and devices like shurikens and sticky grenades.
