For 200 CP, you can change your form into others of your same category. Biological with possible biological, technological to other technology, and mineral to mineral.

For 400 CP, you can freely change your form into a wide variety of things and fusions between. Animal-Vegetable-Mineral-Man is a form possible for you.

Living Bomb [200]: After having partaken in 27-QRX, you have become a living bomb capable of generating explosive force. An explosive force that is directly correlated in the amount of kinetic energy applied. A firecracker from a mere touch, C4 with a nasty right hook, and more is at your disposal.

Shrapnel [400]: An organic transient metal has bonded with your body and turned yourself into a being of living metal fragments. Through this form you can discharge pieces of your body as hyper velocity flechettes, enhanced restorative capabilities, enhanced physical capabilities enough to match or exceed O.M.A.C. provided you have enough energy. You are even able to turn physical forces or volatile acts into raw power. Enough to survive a massive nuclear detonation.

Embodiment of Freedom [800]: Freedom, Liberty, and Justice. These timeless virtues encapsulate the very essence of goodness and ignite the flames of hope. You embody these values, bestowed with extraordinary abilities to enhance your physicality, manifest formidable force fields, and empower those chosen by you. This power is amplified as more hearts genuinely embrace these virtues, and the potency multiplies when sung or chanted with reverence.

Though you may appear as a mere piece of clothing when weakened, you shall never truly perish as long as someone embraces these values within their heart, spanning the expanse of an entire solar system.

Lord of Order | Chaos | Equilibrium [900/1800]: Over 10 billion years ago, when the universe was born, two elemental and equally opposite forces came into being. One became known as the Lords of Order, and the others, the Lords of Chaos.

For 900 CP, you embody the realms of a Lord of Order or a Lord of Chaos. Your mystical might renders you immortal and intangible, endowing you with strength rivaling that of Superman himself. You possess the ability to transmute matter with great versatility, while your cosmic awareness grants you insight into the delicate balance of the universe. Manipulating the very fabric of space and time lies within your domain, and your knowledge of magic is vast, particularly in either Order Magic or Chaos Magic, among other awe-inspiring abilities.

For 1800 CP, you are another equilibrium child like Equinox, able to engage in fierce combat against both the Lords of Order and Chaos. Embracing the harmonious convergence of these opposing forces, you gain unparalleled knowledge of both Order and Chaos Magic, enabling you to channel their energies with mastery.

Scientific Ingenuity [400]: Your mind is a powerhouse of scientific brilliance, particularly in one specific domain that has started to push the boundaries of what's known and ventures into the extraordinary.

As the preeminent scientific authority in your specialized field, you possess an unrivaled level of scientific ingenuity that verges on the extraordinary. Your mastery of this discipline enables you to assimilate knowledge at an accelerated pace, learning at a rate five times faster than that of the average scientist.

Given sufficient time and dedication, there are no bounds to the scientific achievements you can unlock.

For example, Scarecrow has a Scientific Ingenuity for Fear which allows him to figure out how to make Fear Gas faster than Joker could figure out how to invent it from scratch. But Joker with his Scientific Ingenuity can eventually figure it out faster than a scientist without Scientific Ingenuity.

If you have Disciplined Mind, you are an equal to Batman and Lex Luthor in intelligence

Tragic Backstory [+300]: Great figures have often had a suitably tragic and catalytic event in the past. A one bad day, you could say. You also have a traumatizing backstory equal to Bruce's.

Powerless! [300]: This locks you out of all previous powers, abilities, and items that you have gotten in other worlds.

Ironic Injury [400]: Enshrouded in the pursuit of Justice or Injustice. You have found yourself afflicted with a suitably ironic disability by a Hero or Villain. A villain who has a color theme could be blinded by justice, a hero who stands and believes in the best of people finds themselves crippled by a crazy mob, etc.

The Disappearance of the Greatest [600]: There has always been a Knight and Dragon who have led the crusade for the side of Good or Evil. However, through an extraordinarily unlucky event, Joker for the Villain Origin has disappeared and has caused a surge of heroic individuals to come into form or Batman for Hero Origin has disappeared and has caused a surge of villainous individuals to come into form.

People will always see you as the Origin you have started as, no matter what you do to try and change.
