Introduction

The world you are about to enter closely resembles modern-day Earth in the 2020s, with one notable difference: in Japan, all-girl bands have become a cultural phenomenon, dominating the entertainment industry. Their success has inspired countless young girls to form their own bands, hoping to follow in their footsteps.

One such band, CRYCHIC, had just made its debut when tragedy struck. Shortly after their first live concert, the band's founder and leader, Togawa Sakiko, abruptly left for reasons unknown. Her sudden departure caused the band to disband, with each member going their separate ways. The event left deep emotional scars, particularly for those who once shared the stage together.

The story begins when Chihaya Anon transfers to Haneoka Girls' High School under unusual circumstances, returning suddenly from England to Japan. There, she encounters the former members of CRYCHIC and becomes determined to form a new band of her own, reigniting old memories and sparking new drama in the process. You will start a week before Anon returns to Japan, and stay in this world for the next decade.

Take these +1000 Choice Points into this world of music and girl bands.

Origins

Any origins can be Drop-In.

Drop-Ins would receive no additional memories besides being fluent in the local language.

Late Transfer Student

You are a transfer student enrolling in one of the many academies in Tokyo. Your arrival comes at an unusual time, long after everyone else has already formed their social circles and settled into their routines, making it difficult for you to fit in. Your past remains a mystery to those around you; all anyone knows is that you come from a distant land.

Band Girl

You are one of the many people who formed a band in response to Japan's booming all-girl band trend. Inspired by the performances of groups like Poppin'Party, Afterglow, and Roselia, you took up music yourself. Whether your band is still active or has already disbanded is up to you. Since most bands in this era are composed entirely of girls, you may freely change your gender to female if you wish.

Live House Worker

You work at a livehouse, a Japanese live music club that also functions as a bar. Most of your duties involve serving drinks and food, but you also assist with stage setup and equipment, allowing you to enjoy live performances for free. You can choose to work either part-time or full-time, as well as decide which livehouse you're employed at, whether it's CiRCLE, RiNG, Dub, or another venue of your choice.

Musical Producer

You're a producer for a band, whether it's one that already exists or one you've recently discovered and decided to sign. Your job is to guide the band in creating their best music and help them grow in popularity, with the ultimate goal of reaching the Budokan, the most prestigious venue for Japanese artists. However, achieving that dream will take time, effort, and perseverance.

You can choose your age and gender freely for all origins, as long as it's within reason.

Locations

You can start at any location below, or gain +100 CP to roll for your starting location.

1. Haneoka Girls' School

Haneoka is a large, affordable school known for offering generous scholarships that help many struggling families. A significant number of its students are passionate about music, with many either forming bands or aspiring to. Despite this strong musical presence, the school has no official music club. Students such as Takamatsu Tomori, Anon, Sakiko, and the members of Roselia and Afterglow all attend Haneoka.

2. Livehouse RiNG

This is the secondary branch of the livehouse CiRCLE, located in Ikebukuro. Most of its staff previously worked at the livehouse SPACE before it closed. This location serves as the practice and performance venue for the future band MYGO!!!!, while bands such as Poppin'Party and Afterglow also occasionally perform here.

3. Tsukinomori Girls' Academy

A prestigious high school renowned for its exceptionally talented students who excel in academics, music, and various competitions. Many of its students come from wealthy families and are well-known for their achievements. The band Morfonica, along with Wakaba Mutsumi and Nagasaki Soyo, former members of CRYCHIC, attended this school.

4. Hanasakigawa Girls' School

Hanasakigawa, commonly known as Hanajo, is a regular high school with a middle school branch. Although not as prestigious as other academies, it is home to many band members from various groups, making it the most attended school in the BanG Dream! franchise. Kaname Raana, Shiina Taki, Yahata Umiri, and Misumi Uika all studied here.

5. Free Choice

If you roll on this option, you can choose any location as your starting location, even the ones that aren't mentioned on the list above.

Perks

Perks are discounted 50% when discounted, with the 100 CP Perks being free.

You get two discounts for each price tier of perks.

Free Perks

The Songs in Spring

This perk grants you access to the complete soundtrack of the BanG Dream! series, including all band songs, character themes, and collaboration tracks. You can mentally play any song from the collection, either by manually selecting a track or allowing the perk to automatically choose one that best suits the current situation. An invisible interface, visible only to you, allows you to browse and switch between tracks from this and any other soundtrack related perks you possess. If you wish, you can also make the music audible to others.

Beginning of a Career

Choose one instrument, whether it be a classic like the piano, guitar, bass, or drums, or something more unusual, such as the kazoo, bagpipe, ocarina, or harmonica. You immediately gain exceptional skill and understanding in playing that instrument. This perk also prevents others from finding it strange or annoying when you play music unexpectedly, such as in public or during important moments. This perk can be turned on and off at will.

100CP Perks

Face of a Doll (-100 CP)

You now possess an adorably charming appearance, resembling that of a living doll. Your skin appears flawless, as though naturally touched with makeup and free from blemishes. This look makes you stand out effortlessly, often becoming the mascot or public face of any group or organization you join. Major agencies will find you highly desirable as a model, and you will easily draw attention in any setting, whether it be an advertisement, concert, interview, or show, naturally becoming the center of focus wherever you appear.

Idol's Body (-100 CP)

As an idol or performer, maintaining a reliable body is essential to your career. You now possess remarkable stamina, able to perform a 24-hour concert or travel on a nationwide tour without fatigue. Your body has also become highly flexible, allowing you to execute complex movements with ease. Furthermore, your physique will remain exactly as you desire, unaffected by calorie intake, lack of nutrients, or exercise, letting you maintain your ideal form effortlessly.

Reading the Air (-100 CP)

You have become highly adept at reading the mood and understanding social dynamics. You can easily pick up on subtle hints, know exactly what to say in any given situation, and recognize which social cues to follow. With this skill, you can naturally avoid awkward moments and blend seamlessly into most groups, allowing you to make a good impression from the start.

Latent Expression (-100 CP)

You can now conceal your true motives and emotions behind an impenetrable facade. No one can see through the persona you present, allowing you to maintain a cheerful and upbeat attitude even when you are struggling internally. Not even your closest friends will be able to discern your true feelings or intentions unless you choose to make them apparent.

Part-Time Hopping (-100 CP)

This perk allows you to obtain any part-time job you apply for, regardless of your age, qualifications, or experience. Even without identification or prior work history, you will always be accepted without competition. Employers will never dismiss you for poor performance, nor will they hold it against you if you have quit several part-time jobs in the past. This ensures that you can always find employment whenever you need it.

Jumper on Stage (-100 CP)

Being on stage in front of thousands, or even millions of people, can be overwhelming. With this perk, stage fright no longer affects you. The environment will never make you nervous, you will not stutter, and you will never forget your lines. You also gain expert knowledge of posing, dancing, and acting, allowing you to perform on any stage before any audience.

200 CP Perks

Mimic Actor (-200 CP)

It would be inaccurate to describe your skills as acting; they are more akin to mimicry. You can now perfectly replicate any emotion or action you have witnessed. You can make yourself cry on command, reenact a play after seeing it once, and imitate another person's mannerisms with precision. You can flawlessly reproduce someone's behavior and speech patterns as if you were them.

Enduring Musical Learner (-200 CP)

You are a fast learner when it comes to music, capable of matching your teacher's skill within a week, provided they properly teach you. Even without a teacher, you can start with no prior knowledge and become an expert within a month. When under high-pressure situations, whether related to music or not, your learning speed increases tenfold.

Musician's Strength (-200 CP)

A musician often needs to carry heavy equipment depending on their instrument, which requires considerable strength. You now possess the strength to easily carry a drum set, a guitar amplifier, and a guitar all at once. This strength is fully controllable, allowing you to handle fragile or delicate items without risk of damaging them.

Composer of Kindling Beat (-200 CP)

Every band needs a composer to bring their music to life, and that role is yours. You possess a supernatural understanding of music theory, able to read musical notation and create original songs inspired by your emotions and experiences. You can rearrange existing songs for different instruments, adapting them perfectly to new performers, and can effortlessly determine the ideal rhythm or beat to match a song's lyrics.

Memory Oblivion (-200 CP)

Some memories are too painful to remember, and forgetting them can be a form of relief. This perk allows you to selectively seal away memories of your choice, rendering them completely inaccessible to you. You will still know that these memories exist and remember why you decided to seal them. The sealed memories cannot be accessed by mind readers, telepaths, or anyone attempting to look into your mind. You can remove the seal whenever you wish, restoring the memories completely.

Disbandment Intuition (-200 CP)

Perhaps because of past experiences with abandonment or an innate sixth sense, you can instinctively sense when a band, group, or organization you belong to is about to fall apart. You will feel a distinct sensation in your body, similar to a sinking feeling in your stomach, though you can change how this intuition manifests if you wish. This ability also lets you identify who or what will cause the disbandment before it happens, as well as recognize which decisions, yours or others', could lead to the group breaking apart.

400 CP Perks

Language That Becomes a Poem (-400 CP)

The bonds you form with the people in your group are what truly hold everyone together, and words are your way of expressing those feelings. Your skill in songwriting and poetry is exceptional, enabling you to convey your emotions in words that deeply resonate with others. You possess an extensive vocabulary and always know how to express yourself clearly and meaningfully. Through your lyrics, poems, and words, you can ease conflict, mend emotional wounds, and inspire hope in those who are struggling or in despair.

Musical Relief (-400 CP)

Music has always been a way to ease stress, and now your performances amplify that effect. When you play or sing, both your own stress and fatigue, mental or physical, fade away with the melody. The same effect extends to anyone who listens to your music, soothing their mind and body. With continued exposure, your songs can even dispel brainwashing, mind control, and other forms of mental corruption, gradually restoring clarity and peace to those who hear them.

Genuine to my Heart and Palm (-400 CP)

You naturally emit an aura that gives off the impression of a small, fragile animal that others feel compelled to protect and care for. Those with a fondness for cute things, strong nurturing instincts, or emotional struggles such as loneliness are especially susceptible to it. People drawn in by this aura will instinctively take your side in conflicts, defend you in arguments, and go out of their way to ensure your happiness and safety, even offering to escort you home. While only those deeply affected will show such devotion, most people will still treat you with noticeable warmth, favoritism, and concern compared to others.

The Light of Inspiration (-400 CP)

Your presence acts like a lighthouse in the dark, guiding and inspiring those who have lost their creative spark. Whether it involves songwriting, composing, or any other form of creation, simply seeing or hearing you can give others the breakthrough they need. This effect is not constant; your presence only inspires when someone is truly stuck or out of ideas, shining through at just the right moment to rekindle their creativity.

Blue Sky Accompaniment (-400 CP)

Support and logistics are essential for any successful band, and you excel at both. You know how to plan and organize tours, handle merchandise and contracts, and choose the most effective venues to maximize your group's influence. You can complete paperwork with incredible speed, finishing even large stacks of documents within a minute. When you watch over or support your group from afar, their skills and performance improve in proportion to the effort you invest in helping them.

Band Mercenary (-400 CP)

Performing alone can be difficult, and many groups or bands often struggle because they are missing a member. This perk ensures that if a group, band, club, or organization lacks a member, you can join them seamlessly. Your presence will always be accepted, and regardless of your background or skill level, the group will welcome you without hesitation once you ask to join. While you can still be expelled for betrayal or actions that seriously harm the group, you will never be removed for lacking skill or failing to meet expectations.

600 CP Perks

Lost Virtuoso (-600 CP)

Music flows through you as if it were part of your very soul, granting you a once in a millennium level of musical talent. Every song you create or perform is timeless, destined to be remembered for generations. You possess perfect pitch and an intuitive understanding of sound, shaping notes effortlessly into masterpieces. The finest works of Mozart and Beethoven are considered average compared to your creations. Your music will endure through history, celebrated as some of the greatest ever composed. You also have a natural affinity for all instruments, no matter how rare or unconventional, performing at a professional level within minutes of picking one up and mastering it completely within weeks. There are no limits to your musical potential, as you continuously surpass your own peak. Even those incapable of hearing or comprehending music will find your melodies deeply moving and beautiful.

Sibling Takeover (-600 CP)

Sometimes your sibling seems to have everything you want, and now you have the chance to take it for yourself. When you enter a jump, you can select one canon character to become your half-sibling. You may choose to resemble them, appearing almost identical to a twin, and integrate yourself into their family background as if you had always been part of it. As their half-sibling, you gain two main benefits.

First, you inherit any hereditary abilities they received from their parents, though you may only choose one parent's bloodline to share. Second, you can choose to steal their identity, completely taking their place. When doing so, you will seamlessly inherit all of their relationships, and no one will realize the switch unless you reveal it yourself.

The original will be far away from the main events of the story when the jump begins. Alternatively, you can coexist with them as siblings without assuming their identity.

Voice of the Lost Star (-600 CP)

Your voice possesses a unique, captivating quality that makes every sound you produce pleasant to hear. Nothing you say or hum ever comes across as irritating; instead, your voice carries an almost angelic charm. People naturally find themselves wanting to listen to you speak, and they do not mind if you hum softly around them.

When you sing, this effect becomes especially powerful. Your voice resonates like that of a siren, capable of moving even the hardest hearts to tears and soothing those burdened by pain. Your singing conveys a deep sense of sincerity and hope, as if declaring that it is all right to be alive. Those who hear you sing feel comforted and inspired to open up, with their worries fading away in the presence of your melody.

Your performances will naturally draw admiration, earning you a devoted following of fans, some of whom may even become fanatics, though never in a way that endangers you. Recordings of your voice retain some of its beauty and emotional impact, though the effect is diminished compared to hearing you in person.

Monster of Many Heads (-600 CP)

Whether born from neglect and trauma or through a unique mental ability, you can now create and shape multiple distinct personalities within your mind, up to several dozen if desired. Each personality can be tailored for different roles or situations in your life, allowing you to effortlessly adapt to what each moment demands. You can design them however you wish, from being your complete opposite to embodying traits such as charisma, confidence, or optimism.

Unlike a certain member of Ave Mujica, you possess a mental plane where you can interact with these personalities freely. Within this internal world, you can see, touch, and converse with them, ensuring that your communication remains private and unseen by others. These personalities also act as guardians of your psyche, defending you from mental intrusion or corruption. As long as one remains unaffected, they can collectively purge any mental influence imposed upon them.

With your permission, these personalities can assume control of your body if you fall unconscious or become mentally incapacitated. They will never betray or harm you, always acting with your best interests at heart, and will not attempt to take your body for themselves. In moments of mortal peril, one of them can take over, reviving you temporarily. If this personality endures for at least twenty minutes, you will resurrect completely afterward. You can freely alter or reassign the roles and traits of your existing personalities at will.

As Bright as the Sun (-600 CP)

Forming a great band requires not only talented members but also the charisma to make them stay and follow your lead willingly. You now possess a radiant charm comparable to the brilliance of the sun, a presence so compelling that it drives those who interact with you into a state of deep fascination and devotion. People become irresistibly drawn to you, their attachment growing stronger and more obsessive the longer they remain in your orbit.

Although you cannot consciously control this charm, those whom you find attractive will be affected more intensely. Your allure transcends all boundaries; species, gender, social standing, personal preferences, and personality differences are rendered meaningless before it. Every moment spent with you becomes a cherished memory, filled with warmth and happiness that only strengthens their affection for you. Even when you are apart, their thoughts linger on the time they shared with you, and the memory never fades from their hearts.

To many, your presence feels like salvation, a light that brings meaning to their lives. If you wish, you can soften this effect so that those drawn to you simply regard you as their closest and most trusted friend instead.

Drawbacks

Crossover Episode (+0)

The world of BanG Dream has crossed paths with many different series, such as Arknights, Honkai Gakuen, and many more. To explore these possibilities, you can use this jump as a supplement to another jump document and vice versa. You can merge the settings of both jumps, carry over the purchases you've made into the other jump, or incorporate characters from one jump into the other. However, drawbacks are unavoidable; similar characters or events will still emerge. The CP pools of the documents are kept separate.

Those Days in Spring (+0)

Would you like to revisit the time when the members of these bands were still innocent and carefree? With this toggle, you can begin a week before the formation of CRYCHIC or earlier. At this point, most of the members are still in middle school and living in different locations, but perhaps you can alter their fates before their heartbreak.

Awkwardly Silent (+100 CP)

Like Mutsumi and Tomori, you become very socially awkward. You struggle to communicate your thoughts clearly, often saying things that require additional context for others to understand. You also become easily flustered when trying to speak, unsure whether to continue or stay quiet, which often makes you appear silent to those around you.

Emotional Outburst (+100 CP)

You are now deeply influenced by your emotions, allowing them to guide your decisions instead of logic or reason. Even a slight insult can drive you into anger, while a sentimental movie can easily bring you to tears. Controlling your emotions becomes a constant struggle, as they often take precedence over rational thought.

Youth's Vanity (+100 CP)

Like an ordinary youth, you have become quite vain. You can choose what your vanity centers around, whether it is your appearance, fame, wealth, or something else entirely. You will do anything to satisfy this vanity, even if it means betraying your friends, lying about your past, or exposing secrets others wish to keep hidden. You can resist the temptation; however, giving in even once will make it incredibly difficult to stop indulging again.

Girls Only Band (+200 CP)

This drawback ensures that you will never encounter any males during your stay in this world. While they do exist, circumstances will always prevent you from meeting them directly. If you are male, this drawback will transform you into a female. Every person you interact with will be female, with males appearing only in mentions or distant background roles. Your body will also instinctively avoid males, causing you to feel ill whenever one comes near.

You're to Blame (+200 CP)

You have become the scapegoat for everyone around you, constantly blamed for things you didn't do. If your classmates break something, they accuse you. If your band falls apart because of personal issues, people still say it was your fault. Even when your friends argue or drift apart, you somehow get blamed. You won't be accused of serious crimes or major incidents, but people will still hold you responsible for their personal problems.

Back to School (+200 CP)

All the girls in the band still attend school, whether it's junior high, high school, or college. To avoid being left out, you are now required to attend a legitimate school of your choice. You don't need perfect grades or attendance, but you must start from the first year and continue until you graduate. If you are expelled or fail to graduate, you need to find a new school to attend. You can't skip grades and must earn your diploma through legal means.

Bandmate Obsession (+400 CP)

You become intensely obsessed with one character from MYGO!!!! or Ave Mujica. You will constantly message and follow them whenever possible, eager to do almost anything they ask to keep them close. If they ignore you or reject you, your obsession may escalate dangerously, potentially driving you to kidnap them and lock them in your basement.

Band Girl Trauma (+400 CP)

Like many members of girl bands in BanG Dream, you now carry deep-seated emotional scars. You develop a mental illness such as dissociative identity disorder, autophobia, depression, or another severe condition that significantly impacts your life. This disorder cannot be cured or removed until the end of this jump.

Zero Musical Talent (+600 CP)

In a world centered around music and girl bands, lacking musical talent can be especially painful, causing you to miss out on many opportunities and experiences. You now have absolutely no talent in music. You are completely tone-deaf, and your performances are so dreadful that those who hear you may wish for mercy from the sound. No perks or items can improve your musical ability until the end of this jump.

Soul Crushing Debt (+600 CP)

Similar to Togawa Sakiko's father, you now carry an enormous debt of 168 billion yen. This is an amount no ordinary person could earn in a lifetime, requiring exceptional talent, skill, and connections to repay. You cannot leave this jump until the debt is paid. Any items or perks that generate money or provide financial benefits will not work until the end of the jump.
