

Ha goddamnit I think we took a wrong turn buddy, I knew we shouldn't have listened to Hornet for directions now we are going to be late for the party again !
Nah, okay we can still fix this, well, you can I have to go see where miss late as fuck got herself lost again, here take this :

1000 SP

And don't forget you have 24 hours to catch up, tomorrow after all !

Location :

1 smackdab in the middle of nowhere : damn those wild lands sure seems to traverse with all those savage bugs around huh ? and maybe a bit samey too, almost like they're generic on purpose...mmh...

2 Deepnest 2.0 : wait now you're in deep shit this place is worse than a no lantern run in the original deepnest, and aren't spiders supposed to be in the spoiler kingdom or something ? also i'm pretty sure they aren't supposed to look like skyrim spiders

3 storm country : a very mysterious country that must stay vague for lore reason, really you don't want to be here for long it's full of weirdo that call anything who can string two word together a god or some shit, also watch out for moth or higher problem, one's never too careful in this dump

4 spoiler kingdom : nah buddy your gonna have to reach it on your own two feet, hornet crashed the hype stagg again and it's not going to wake up on time

Origins :

: ok I know the journey to get here took a long ass time (no thanks to skill) but I'm glad you never doubted we could make it, but maybe tone it down a bit with the pep talk ?

Acceptor : really a " on the fence " kind of bug hey ? I don't care if you think that hornet crashing our stagg was " inevitable " or some shit maybe you should have done something ? well at least your a good mediator

Doubter : you know your whole doom talk about her driving skills really didn't help hornet keep her eyes(holes) on the road yes ? point I'm starting to think she made that accident on purpose just to shut you up...

Deltaposter : I think your lost buddy, even more than us right now and what's with that weird shell you got here, wait you're looking for what now ? a delta rune ? never heard of that but I don't think going to find it here huuh... better luck next time ?

Believer :

100 SP - Never lose Hope ! :

Really your sheer inability to fall to if not despair at least doubt is quite inspiring, when you believe in something neither misinformation nor the passage of time can make your hope waver, growing stronger with each new hardship, that and you can look half impressive, and dare I say it even inspiring while making cringe pose ! just don't overdo it or you're going to pass for a clown

200 SP - we'll do it tomorrow ! :

That's quite the strange talent you got here, by delaying to do something right now you can make the action more fun/less of a pain to deal with than if you had done it instantly. for example if a certain dumbass keep making himself a nuisance by boasting about his life rules, almost killing himself everytime he enter a fight you have to bail him out of, and stealing your waifu with fake accomplishments you could beat the shit out of him right now yes... or you could wait for this perk to take effect and it would be ten times more satisfying ! (important note : this perk is not responsible for turning you into a lazy bum that delay things they should deal with right now instead of putting off for later)

400 SP - Twenty yea-I mean bucks ! :

How the hell do you get such good deals ?! It's like things cost a quarter of their prices when you are involved, do you have their family at gun point or something ? Even legendary items are half as hard to get, better hope it doesn't crash the economy...

600 SP - Dreamer Maker :

Ok so there is believing in something and is being a full blown cultist sure you have to do this ?

Alright alright as long as I'm not the one on the altar I don't really give a fuck, but you got your claws on some kind of ritual that allow you to forsake four beings to the Dream dimension to make a wish of yours happen far faster than it has any right to tough the more you spam it the less effective it quickly become.

reality warping is kinda open ended but for example you could hasten the liberation of a Higher Being to a few weeks instead of a few centuries or you could make plates of continents violently split in a few years instead of a few millions.

effects vastly stronger if the sacrificed Dreamers hold positions of powers and/or are thematically aligned with your wish.

don't start a cult with this...

Acceptor :

100 SP - It's fate or some shit :

you got the (quite annoying) ability to rant about the inevitability of something you know is going to happen with people not only listening to you seriously but also keeping their (no doubt) increasing need to bash your teeth out of your smug face in check.

Truly Neji Hyuuga would weep in envy of this. (a word of warning, shonen protagonists may or may not have the ability to bypass that self control though you won't be able to know when it happen...sorry not sorry)

200 SP - SHAW ! :

Such a masterful way with words ! Truly I'm almost brought to tears, for such is your eloquence that many a debate can be resolved by you simply saying naught but a word, nay an exclamation of pure persuasion ! Though you get a mean sore throat for about a month after so don't overdo it if you don't want to turn to a silent build

400 SP - THE SILKSONG ! :

THE SILKSONG IS REEEAAAALL !!!! and so is your hype. SO much so that it make one thing you really really want to exist into a real thing, and fuck what reality has to say about it though only every fives years. As an example of hard cap for this you could bring the (original) dragon balls into this setting if that's what make you go crazy or something

600 SP - I am inevitable :

Ok so that's just bullshit, if you manage to convince enough peoples (without mind control or similar you have to CONVINCED them) with facts and logics about something that thing become true for the majority of the setting (beings that function on their own logic or are simply delusional will ignore this) though if you want some god like reality warping effect to occur you better have at least 75 % of the setting on board with the idea or it's going to fizzle out in a potentially humiliating fashion

It's...huh...really not helping in convincing you not to start a cult now is it ?

Doubter :

100 SP - Master Baiter :

When they say that bait used to be believable then they must have never met you because goddamn are you good at baiting other into traps the dumber it is the better for you, and more humiliating for them I suppose

200 SP - Silksanity :

So the good is that you don't need to fear going insane anytime soon, the bad is because you probably already are. But hey now you have a new insight and burst of luck to bypass what / you that can't even dream about ! like thinking it's a good idea to sacrifice four in an unholy ritual you don't know the specifics of so your favorite game out faster and actually in the attempt...I'm sorry what ?

400 SP - Mocking Jay :

It a special form of dumbassery to see what's in front of you and still going " no bet " and the worst part is that it working out for you. An enemy a powerful attack right in face ? Nah it must have been the wind, outwit you in a complex argument about a crashing down economy ? must be a coincidence.

of course there is only so much denial you can project onto reality before it bite you in the ass, hard, so don't get too cocky

600 SP - Natural Instinct :

Your animal instincts are now the stuff of legend, you can see devious hidden for miles away, detect the most secretive hidden intents and and react to movements twice speed with ease with eyes closed. With you around bait truly used to be believable

100 SP - The man who throw hands :

I really must ask but what the fuck are hands ? anyway that's some weird ass looking shell you got here dude, you sure you're not sick or something ? I'm not sure if this soft shell is going to help around theses part but hey you got weird glowey red fluid on you now I'm sure you can use it for something...no really are you sure some Higher Being didn't get to you while I wasn't watching ? because I swear if you start another Hallownest again I'm bailing out of here, fuck Hornet and her yuri shtick with the rapier girl !

200 SP - Chapter [] when ? :

You ged some ability that you to see the future ? sounds convenient bad it's only focused on things you think will take a time, try not to get too salty from the wait right ?

400 SP - I'm fast as fuck boi :

sure you are since you got the ability to go up to ten time you speed the longer you run (approximately 1 to 2 mins), now I don't mean to rain on your parade but around here it's more of a platform game type of travels so I hope you got dexterity to go with it, really are you sure you're to be here

600 SP - Bait Knight :

I knew it ! get away from me you void radiance thingy ! the hell is this form ! all black and gooeey with weird showy after effects. And you're not even the Hollow Knight you copycat ! I bet you're a fraud that needs help winning their fight without getting run over by a truck !

Object :

200 SP - twenty bucks :

wait your ordinary stacks of papers, see if you give them to a merchant, any merchant you get to choose one of their items regardless of price, of course said merchant must be willing to bargain with you in the first place no forcing them on this one, also it only work twice by setting.

still can't help you pay for silksong though

cheating, if you had one for yourself why did you let Hornet drive ? and they know every optimal route to where you want to go most while being almost unstoppable and twice as fast as normal for their species while you ride them to your destination ? you traitor ! You know what I'm going to tell Hornet about your friend here, see if she can't crash that one too !

200/400/600 SP - Hallownest Plunder :

hey hey where did you get this ? not from my personal stash yes ? , you got this from the Little Ghost ? well it's not like he can even say no at this point but, a word of advice, don't tell Hornet about this... she might not take it well

(for 200 SP you get around 30 % of all the hollow knight items for 400 it go to 60% and for 600 SP it's 90% no more no less sorry no void charm and things like that for you)

700 SP - Seven cold beers :

ey did you manage to get some foreign drinks ? Mind sharing some with m- wait why do I hear a rumbling sound ? Is it just me or is it getting closer ?!

Companions :

200 SP - Hornet :

Are you sure you want to follow her ? she's really not good at direction and frankly she doesn't seem to give a shit about such petty things as " aiming " and " friendly fire " too unless you're a rapier girl then somehow she really really to hit on you, what ? I say something funny ?

200 SP - Rule 34 favorite rapier girl :

I frankly this tsundere over the tsun part a little bit too seriously, doesn't help that she's always in a stabby mood one way or another...wait what ?

200 SP - Puppet knight :

the little ghost survived ? how ? and strangely they fixated on stalk- I mean following you and giving you white flowers; doesn't help that said flower to react ominously around you.. I wouldn't let that touch me if I were you

300 SP - The other puppet knight (bug, bugged yet buggier edition) :

! another weird ass looking bug around, joy, is your bullshit spreading or something ?
And for the last time no I don't know what a deltarune is and... is that a pink Dinosaur ?!

Drawback :

100 SP - No (silk)song while driving :

Told you, now you got into an accident again, you don't seems to learn though, something tell me you're going to try crash yourself and your unfortunate steeds into dark holes all the way to the spoiler kingdom if it keep going...Maybe it was for the best that Hornet was the one driving heh ?

200 SP - The Hornet Effects :

No, not the one above, the one where you look like a badass, all ancient and mighty from a high pedigree with a great knowledge of the land and experience in combat...all to get your shit beaten by a dusty noob who just started their journey. Not that it get better since your are going to meet again and you are going to lose badly, again, something tell me you're not one that learn quickly

300 SP - Keep Dreaming buddy :

Seems like you got scammed into giving your shiny new perks to a dreamer ritual to teleport your way into the spoiler kingdom (you lazy ass) well joke's on you because not only do you still have to go here yourself but if you want your perks you're gonna have to wreck 3 Dreamers too. Chaw !

400 SP - Snosk Trap :

God fucking dammit Hornet little stunt just freed this memtic hazard and it's gunning for us ! Well you more specifically but who ? (certainly not me) A last word of follow any light or comforting voice that going to guide you to the spoiler kingdom, it's surely a bait. Definitely 700 SP (must have taken Seven cold beers) - Driving in my car with my Skonger ! :

HEY THAT BUMP IS SHAPED LIKE JUMPER ! D-U-I ? HOW ABOUT YOU DIE ?! I'LL GO A MILES IN AN HOUR !!!!!
