

& Generic Competitive Sexfighting

Version 1.0.1

By Arcane Flame

It is another dark and dreary day in Atlantic City, New Jersey. You have recently moved into town to take on a new corporate job and it is the very epitome of dull. You want to constantly bang your head against the cubicle wall just to feel something - anything. You need adventure and companionship - you are alone in the big city with very few contacts to reach out to. It is a dull and depressing existence.

When you hear that a number of your coworkers are planning a meet-up at the Atlantic Bar, you eagerly attend even if you spend most of the time hearing your "friend" Matt droning on and on about nothing in a seemingly endless ramble. You turn to look at one of your coworkers Marlene, a cute brunette woman with dazzling blue eyes, and confide in her.

“Well, have you ever considered Sexfighting?” she asks?

“What’s that?” you ask.

Marlene looks at you surprised for a moment before explaining.

“Sexfighting, is the sport of competitive sex. It dates back into mists of history with various ancient civilizations engaging in the sport. Some variants might have more or less of the fighting part but typically the goal is to outlast your opponent. I’m a part time recruiter for a local club that hosts sexfights, the Kinky Fight Club, we typically host fairly vanilla ‘fights’ focusing on the sex part with no excessive force used, only moderate grapples and pulling on clothes for stripping opponents. We also forbid physical blows and strikes with the exception of erotic spanking which is limited to moderate strikes to the ass. The matches typically last until one fighter cums and thus loses the match. We’re having tryouts soon to fill two open spots on our roster. I think it’s just what your looking for.”

Marlene then pulls out a business card with the club’s address out of her purse and hands it to you. “Come to the club after work tomorrow and I’ll show you around”

The next night you enter a rather classy and well furnished nightclub, you are introduced to Mr. Zed, the eccentric owner of the club who wears a steampunk-style top hat with goggles sitting on the brim and then you enter one of the arenas. A packed crowd cheers on from the stands as a man and a woman in an octagon cage furiously engage in a match of competitive sex. Cameras broadcasting live for both local and national audiences focus on the passionate action. As the combatants jostle for dominance and to pleasure their partner the man suddenly cries out in orgasm as his opponent relentlessly sucks his cock in a sixty-nine position. The woman stands in victory with cum dribbling from her lips as the crowd erupts in cheers. The woman then has the loser perform cunnilingus on her until she cums as well.

Welcome Jumper to the great competitive sport of sexfighting! While this jump is mainly inspired by the game Kinky Fight Club by Mr Zed Games, it has been expanded to take in the whole genre of sexfighting involving games, porn, and art/writing projects. Examples of the genre include Princess of the Ring, Fairy War, Naked Fighter 3D, Ultimate Surrender, Defeated, The League, Ultimate Mating League, etc.

Setting – Choose one for free or roll 1d6 if you want a random setting.

1	Modern Day Earth In this setting you are on a modern day-ish Earth and sexfights occur in special clubs or public arenas. Typically, the sport of sexfighting is legal and is often broadcast on TV. Popular fighters often become minor celebrities due to the sexfighting being recognized as a legitimate sport. You have the option of starting in Atlantic City (the setting of the Kinky Fight Club story mode) or any other location on Earth.
2	Furry World This is a setting broadly similar to modern day earth but inhabited by various different species of anthropomorphic animals.
3	The Sexual Arenas of the Ancient World In this setting you are a participant in the sexfight arenas of the ancient world. Weather it be Ancient Greece, Rome, Sumeria, Babylon, Ancient Egypt, Ancient China, Ancient Japan, or another ancient civilization you will find sexfighting to be an active and popular sport. 6	Supplement Mode/Free Choice Bring sexfights into any world of your choosing!

Sexfighting Types

Next is a table of some of the more common rules/styles of Sexfighting. Feel free to choose one, several, or all variations to be active and practiced in the club or the world. Canonically for the Kinky Fight Club setting Basic Sexfighting is the main form practiced. Alternatively roll 1d6 if you want a random option.

1	Basic Sexfighting	The basic type of sexfighting where the combatants use only their erotic skills in an effort to get their opponents to cum first. There is little force applied and the fight closely resembles a sexual session with some minor jostling over who takes the lead. The matches end when the loser cums or alternatively may keep going until one fighter submits or cannot continue. This is the rule set used in the Kinky Fight Club game.
2	Sex Wrestling	A hybrid of sexfighting and wrestling where forceful grapples, full pins, and other wrestling moves are allowed. Matches end when the loser cums or alternatively may keep going until one fighter submits or cannot continue.
3	Full Contact Sexfighting	Streetfighter/MMA meets sex, where punches, kicks, and other attacks are used to wear down the opponent before erotic actions. This can range from the more “realistic” MMA-style to full on Fighting Game-style with erotic themed special moves/projectiles. The matches end when the loser cums or is knocked out. Alternatively the fight may continue until one fighter submits or cannot continue.
4	Ultimate Mating League	Ultimate Mating League is an art and story series originated by furry artist Dogsmith. It is a team based variant of Basic Sexfighting. In general the

		goal is to outlast the opponent with the matches ending when one fighter taps out, is physically unable to continue, or a predetermined time limit has been reached. Points are awarded for making the opponent orgasm. Strikers are Tops and Defenders act as Bottoms. Matches typically follow the following structure: 1st Round: Foreplay Actions. 2nd Round: Striker takes the lead. 3rd Round: Defender takes the lead. 4th Round: Striker takes the lead. 5th Round: Defender takes the lead. 6th Round: Cooldown Round – Foreplay Actions. The rounds then alternate between Striker and Defender Fighters taking the lead with no more cooldown round. Dogsmith's Official Ultimate Mating League handbook can be found here with more match types , team structures, and additional details on the system: https://docs.google.com/document/d/12iy_9xXtLt4zrdGbpwrnkPWHs9CPOBX39eYU9751ILw/edit
5	The League	The league is an art and story series originated by furry artist WhimsicalSquirrel. In essence it is a variant of Sex Wrestling with teams and a point

		structure. The events are Teams vs. Teams with Male vs. Female or Male vs. Male Matches. Female players play defensively while males attempt to penetrate. For every second a penis is in a vagina two points are scored, if the penis is in a mouth or anus it is one point per second. The match ends when the first or only male ejaculates. If the male manages to finish in a pussy it is 100 points while 50 points are awarded if they cum in the opponent's mouth or anus. The background for this system can be found here: https://www.furaffinity.net/view/29503418/
6	KO Collective	KO Collective (KOC) is an art and story series originated by the furry artist Dcheese. In essence it is a variant of Full Contact Sexfighting being boxing mixed with sex. Fighters wear crotchless trunks along with headgear and boxing gloves. Matches operate as normal boxing matches with the exception that fighters may initiate sexual actions at anytime. Sex is primarily used as an exhaustion tactic rather than a win condition. Matches end when the loser is KO'ed by 10-count, TKO, or decision (side note if sex is initiated while one fighter is on the ground in a count, the count is stopped until the fighters are no longer engaged and then restarted after they are parted.)

		The full rules and background for this system can be found here: https://www.furaffinity.net/view/37909309/

Typically clubs, leagues, and tournaments will have male-only, female-only, futanari-only, and mixed divisions. It is your choice which division you wish to participate in (with the exception of 'The League' whose rules require male vs. male or male vs. female matches).

An additional option is whether the fighters start out clothed, semi-clothed, or nude. If the fighters are clothed or semi-clothed the fighters have to strip off or move aside at least some of their opponent's clothes before performing any penetrative sexual moves or moves that involve the breasts in the match. In Kinky Fight Club fighters usually wear outfits like lingerie, swimwear, fetish wear, sexy cosplay, leotards, or athletic wear.

Items

General

Free – Consent Paperwork

The standard Kinky Fight Club paperwork declaring what you are willing to do and what you are not willing to do. So if you don't want to deal with things like torture or sexual assault in your chain you can specify this and worlds will be altered so you do not have to experience or deal with those elements (this will modify the narrative/characters so those specific acts do not occur while leaving the narrative intact as much as possible, often other appropriate events will be substituted).

200 CP - Power Limiting Collars

When worn they limit the wearer's power allowing powerful mages, demons, various monsters, and other powerful individuals to compete on equal footing. This makes things like magical blasts only as powerful as a hard punch and their durability in a similar range to other tournament participants. Since they were originally developed to hold magically powerful prisoners of war they can be locked in place with a provided key and their nullification ability can be increased to the point that the wearer's powers are completely nullified.

400 CP – Sex Changing Pills

Three bottomless bottles of pills. A blue one with blue pills labeled 'Male', a pink one with pink pills labeled 'Female', and a purple jar with purple pills labeled 'Hermaphrodite'. This will allow you to instantly retry the contest. Additionally, if you die the coin will restore you to life with a new body the next day in your warehouse or another safe place before vanishing. 200 CP – Business War Chest

Running a Kinky Fight Club requires a decent amount of capitol. Paying employees, maintaining the club, and large cash prizes for tournament winners doesn't come cheap. Also you never know if things may turn unfavorable such as the local government being taken over by some fascists backed up by the Mafia. So having a war chest of cash reserves is a solid back up plan. These reserves are equivalent to three years of the normal operating costs of your club and any other active businesses you have in your possession at the start of a jump. This should be enough of a reserve to help you through major rough patches.

Scenarios

Kinky Fight Club

Jumper, in this scenario you will go through the events of the story mode in Kinky Fight Club. You have just gotten a new corporate job. And tonight you will go to your work's New Years Party at the A City Bar. There you will meet Marlene who also works in your HR department, and she will introduce you to sexfighting and the Kinky Fight Club. But something is rotten in the metropolis of Atlantic City, as a power hungry couple, Kevin and Karen, have been gaining power over the city with the backing of the Giannucci crime family. Corrupt and hypocritical, they gained firm control over the local media, police, politicians, and numerous corporations including recently the one you work at. They have launched a New Puritan movement and have struck out at any opponents to the new regime along with anything erotic or sexual. The general populace has been cowed by the movement preferring to keep their heads down and repeat the party line even if they are opposed to Kevin and Karen's regime lest they become targets of the regime's wrath. Other clubs have fallen but the Kinky Fight Club survives for now due to its backers (which include the few remaining opponents to Kevin & Karen's rule such as Lucy, the new CEO of the powerful Skyflare corporation). However Kevin and Karen are turning on the heat with the aim to shut down the last obstacles to total control over Atlantic City before taking their New Puritan movement and power grab nationwide. While all this is happening this year's sexfighting season is starting and there are two open spots on the roster.

Jumper, over the course of a year, you must save the Kinky Fight Club and bring down Kevin, Karen, the New Puritan movement, and their Mafia backers before they seize total control of Atlantic City. You won't be alone as you will find allies within the ranks of the Kinky Fight Club such as hackers, ex-police officers, undercover FBI agents, smugglers, ex-soldiers, drivers, accountants, experts at spy-craft, and other people who can aid you in your quest.

In addition to this you must also pass the tryouts to join the Kinky Fight Club League, play in the league, and get to the finals of the 'Best Fucker in Town' end of the year tournament - all during your first year.

For reference, the typical year for the Kinky Fight Club League is this:

10 Week Open Try-outs Period	In this phase open try-outs are held.
12 Week Pre-Season	During the pre-season fighters engage in exposition matches and try to build hype for the coming season.
24 Week Season	The main event of Kinky Fight Club, for each victory fighters gain one point. The eight highest scoring fighters will move on to the Best Fucker in Town tournament.

5 Weeks of Finals	The Best Fucker in Town tournament. Over the course of five weeks of single elimination matches, one fighter will emerge victorious as the Best Fucker in Town
End of Year Match	The Final Week of the year features a special exposition match of the champion of the Best Fucker in Town against a previous champion or special guest.

Lucy, the CEO of Skyflare Inc., will rise to the championship as your opponent in the final match of the 'Best Fucker in Town' tournament. She will offer you a massive bribe to take a dive and lose the championship match to her and also serve as her pampered toy/sex slave for the rest of your stay since she finds you interesting. Lucy herself is interesting since in the game she makes an offer which breaks the fourth wall: 'coins' which are used for unlocks in the game such as additional costumes, custom character slots, and game modes. There are a few hints that she might be more than simply a mortal woman and she will probably figure out that you are a jumper and you will also be more than a decent match for each other. (Note: Lucy will be a scaled challenge for you – your equal in all things.)

Lucy also knows you will be a challenge, but she really likes winning and happens to like you as well. So Lucy will make you the following offer: Throw the match so she can easily win and then become her pampered pet/toy for the rest of your stay and you can have some CP.

Rewards:

If you choose to fight the match fairly and win the Best Fucker in Town Championship:

In recognition of your services Mr. Zed offers you a Kinky Fight Club franchise opportunity. You get all the Club Owner Perks and Items along with an extra 2000 KP to spend on the Kinky Fight Club Creator Supplement for a total of 3000 KP to kit out your new club.

If you choose to accept Lucy's Offer and throw the match so Lucy can win the Best Fucker in Town Championship:

The Jumper becomes Lucy's pampered pet and submissive toy for the rest of the jump living in the lap of luxury while tending to Lucy's whims and occasional 'discipline'. The jumper will also receive 1000 CP to be used on this or a future jump.

Your Jump-chan may greatly frown on you taking this offer (ether for moral reasons or simply that you are accepting CP from another source), so be prepared for possible repercussions from your Jump-chan. If things go really bad with your Jump-chan - well, maybe Lucy might be willing to take over the role... Provided the Jumper continues to be at her beck and call whenever she has certain needs...

Note: See Appendix I for more information on Kinky Fight Club characters and Appendix II for arenas used in the game. Also Kevin, Karen, and members of the New Puritan Movement are not affected by the Lewd Acceptance Perk.

Princess of the Ring

Loosely based on Toffi-Sama's game series "Princess of the Ring": The Princess of the Ring tournament has grown over the years. While it had its origins as an underground tournament set-up on the whim of a nymphomaniac Yakuza mistress at a local lesbian hangout to enjoy the sight of other women engaging in erotic fighting, it has grown to become a major tournament hosted once every ten years on the island nation of Nea Lesbos. This coming tournament promises to be the biggest so far with a wide field of more than 500 women from all over the world (and possibly a few from other universes) all aiming to win the 500 million dollar prize, the title of 'Princess of the Ring', and will become the new queen of the island after the unfortunate accidental passing of the old queen. The Princess of the Ring tournament uses a no holds barred Full Contact Sexfighting rule set where kicks, punches, strong holds, and other fighting moves are allowed. Fighters dress in their choice of simple outfits (lingerie, swimwear, fetish wear, sexy cosplay, leotards, or athletic wear) although swimwear is the most traditional attire as it was the rule in the first tournament. In matches, fighters must fully strip their opponents to expose the opponent's genitals and breasts before using their erotic moves. The match ends when the loser orgasms. The final match for the championship however is a 'Hardcore match' where a fighter must make their opponent cum in six different varied positions after which they must make their now heavily exhausted opponent cum a final 7th time with an over-the-top finisher (Which should involve a toy or showcase a particular fetish). The tournament goes on over the course of a year with multiple elimination rounds before the finals. Matches take place in a variety of locations around Nea Lesbos including cordoned off streets, the beach, a ring set up in the Star Crossed Lovers Shopping Mall, somewhere deep in the forest, various purpose built arenas in local clubs, and the final match takes place in a special holy arena connected to the Temple of the Patron Goddess Kyrá Líli.

Alternatives:

-Different form of fighting - Instead of Full Contact Sexfighting, the tournament can use a Basic Sexfighting or Sex Wrestling ruleset.

-Prince of the Ring - Instead of an all women tournament, the tournament is an all male tournament. The reward perks name is changed to 'Prince of the Ring' and the Island is instead Nea Aegina. The island is similar except it is an all gay island with the main temple dedicated to Ganymede. The island is also shaped roughly like a cock and balls instead of a pair of breasts.

Rewards:

Jumper, if you become the 'Princess of the Ring' you get the cash prize, a special perk, and Nea Lesbos itself.

Perk - Princess of the Ring

You have proven yourself in the ring as the reigning princess! Whenever you are directly in competition with or fighting another person of your gender, you will find that you are always a little bit more physically stronger, faster, and tougher than them. Also all members of your gender have at least a slight attraction and innate respect for you, the attraction is enough to make an exception for you with characters that do not normally swing that way.

Item - Nea Lesbos Island

A tropical resort island nation with an almost paradise climate. The island itself has two volcanic peaks and is vaguely shaped like a pair of breasts with a land area similar to the Big Island of Hawaii. Nea Lesbos has an excellent harbor, an international airport, and an ample amount of natural resources. The island is inhabited by almost one million lesbians, who due to some magical properties of the island are kept youthful even in old age, experience near perfect health, and fast regeneration of injuries (this property only affects women). The island is a major tourist destination filled with clubs, resorts, shopping centers, bars, spas, and other amenities. As a result of the youth giving properties of the island combined with the near constant party atmosphere Nea Lesbos' culture has a bit of a hedonistic bent to it with orgies being common. The island has developed a polytheistic folk religion centered around a number of different goddesses with Kyrá Líli, the Lilly Lady, being the patron and protector of the island. The island is famous for hosting the Princess of the Ring tournament once every ten years and the yearly Spring Lilly festival celebrating lesbian love. You are now the reigning queen of this island and it can either be incorporated into the world at the beginning of each jump or it can exist in a bubble reality attached to your warehouse.

Prince of the Ring Variant Rewards:

Perk - Prince of the Ring

You have proven yourself in the ring as the reigning prince! Whenever you are directly in competition with or fighting another person of your gender, you will find that you are always a little bit more physically stronger, faster, and tougher than them. Also all members of your gender have at least a slight attraction and innate respect for you, the attraction is enough to make an exception for you with characters that do not normally swing that way.

Item - Nea Aegina Island

A tropical resort island nation with an almost paradise climate. The island itself has two volcanic peaks and a long peninsula heading north looking vaguely shaped like a cock and balls with a land area similar to the Big Island of Hawaii. Nea Aegina has an excellent harbor, an international airport, and an ample amount of natural resources. The island is inhabited by almost one million gay men, who due to some magical properties of the island are kept youthful even in old age, experience near perfect health, and fast regeneration of injuries (this property only affects men). The island is a major tourist destination filled with clubs, resorts, shopping centers, bars, spas, and other amenities. As a result of the youth giving properties of the island combined with the near constant party atmosphere Nea Aegina's culture has a bit of a hedonistic bent to it with orgies being common. The island has developed a polytheistic folk religion centered around a number of different gods with Ganymede, being the patron and protector of the island. The island is famous for hosting the Prince of the Ring tournament once every ten years and the yearly Spring Cup Bearer festival celebrating gay love. You are now the reigning king of this island and it can either be incorporated into the world at the beginning of each jump or it can exist in a bubble reality attached to your warehouse.

Sexual Warfare

Conflict is handled differently in this timeline jumper, here all conflict from gangland turf wars all the way to international conflicts are handled by sexfights in ritualized matches. During your stay in this universe there will be a massive worldwide conflict similar to World War 2 in which you will lead a band of sexfighters as the representatives of your chosen nation. You must fight and help lead your nation to victory in the conflict.

Rewards:

Perk - Sexual Resolution

You can now settle any sort of conflict through a sexfighting competition. The opponent has an option of either competing themselves or nominating a champion to fight in their stead.

Sex Olympics

Congrats Jumper, you made the Olympic team for Sexfighting! During your stay in the world the Summer Olympics will happen at least twice and you will be one of the representatives of your chosen nation fighting in a tournament that is part of the Olympic Games. You must win the gold at least once. Note: This scenario may be paired with the Kinky Fight Club or Princess of the Ring scenarios.

Reward:

Perk - Olympic Sexfighter

Congrats jumper you are now an Olympic Champion at Sex! People will know this and you will be highly desirable. You will also regularly get sponsorship deals to endorse erotic products.

Adult Sports Entertainment

In this world sexfighting operates in a similar manner to Professional Wrestling. Sexfighting is a 'sports entertainment' show with scripted story-lines and over the top personalities. Shenanigans and hijinks abound and appealing to fans matters much more than the various titles you 'fight' for. Loose too much appeal and you could find yourself kicked out of the league, so keep fights interesting and change up your act from time to time.

Reward:

If you manage to become a decently famous professional sex wrestler, you branch off to form your own new league. You get all the Club Owner Perks and Items along with an extra 1000 KP to spend on the Kinky Fight Club Creator Supplement for a total of 2000 KP to kit out your new club.

Ancient Tribal Fights

Legends say that the origin of sexfighting dates back to the stone age in an edenistic land. Tribes would separate their offspring of one sex at puberty into a separate tribe. In a yearly contest the tribes would meet at a circle of stones and tribe members of the opposite sex would face the members of the separate tribe who had come of age in sexfights. If a tribe member defeated a member of the separate tribe they would claim them as a mate. The myths are contradictory as to whether the separate tribe was all male or female so they can be either sex. To finish this scenario you must either as a member of the separate tribe be undefeated for 10 years and not be claimed or as a member of the original tribe defeat all sexfighting members of the separate tribe and claim them all for the ten year period (to help you with this you will be the only participating member of your sex at the gatherings).

Reward:

Perk - The Better Gender

You have proved yourself undefeated by members of the other gender.

Whenever you are in direct competition or a physical conflict with a member of another gender you will always be a little bit stronger, faster, and tougher than your opponent. Also all members of the opposite gender have at least a slight attraction and innate respect for you, the attraction is enough to make an exception for you with characters that do not normally swing that way.

Item - Ancient Tribal Lands

The Ancient Tribal Lands where sexfighting originated. It is an edenistic paradise and now it is yours. This land is about the size of Corsica and is filled with a large number of natural resources along with the ancient ring of standing stones marking the sacred sexfighting ground. These lands can either be incorporated into the world at the beginning of each jump or it can exist in a bubble reality attached to your warehouse.

Gladiatorial Fights

We who are about to cum, salute you! Jumper, you stand at the crossroads of history in Ancient Rome, sexfighting (in the form of Basic Sexfighting) and the gladiatorial games are both popular and in competition. The competition is getting heated and some are considering merging the two sports. You are in a position to influence the course of sports history in this universe and you have a choice of one of two ways to succeed in this scenario:

Option 1: Swordsmen into Field Ploughers

You must keep Gladiatorial Games and Sexfighting from merging. While doing this you must also make Sexfighting more popular and the sole games receiving imperial favor.

Rewards:

Perk - Herald of a Kinder World

You inspire hope and love in those around you. This is enough to push away the dark clouds of despair and inspire people to take positive actions. You also have a toggle to make the universes you jump into a bit more kind, caring, and peaceful than they would be otherwise.

Option 2: Sexual Ultraviolence

You actively promote the merging of Gladiatorial Games and Sexfighting. You must also make this new hybrid and lethal Gladiatorial-Sexfighting more popular and the sole games receiving imperial favor.

Rewards:

Perk - Herald of a Darker World

You radiate a sense of darkness. This is enough to intimidate even the most iron willed of opponents. People around you are slowly corrupted into violent deviants. You also have a toggle to make the universes you jump into a bit more dark, bloody, and destructive than they would be otherwise.

Mortal Kumblast

It's Mortal Kombat but far lewder. During this jump you will be invited to the Mortal Kumblast tournament on a mysterious island in the 'Lost Sea' to determine the fate of this realm. However instead of a martial arts 'tournament' it is a sexfighting 'tournament'. You will encounter pornified Mortal Kombat characters (e.g. Johnny Cage may be a washed up Porn Star, Mileena has vagina dentata, and Kano might have a cybernetically augmented cock). Outworld will strike with 'tournaments' three times and this realm must be victorious in all of them. The first one will be similar to the Mortal Kombat tournament on Shang Tsung's island, followed by the Outworld tournament depicted in the game series. The third tournament however will be special as Outworld's forces will be led by Empress Mileena and augmented by evil lewd clones of fighters from two additional fighting games of your choice.

Rewards:

Companion – Mileena Klone

After Mileena Kahnium's defeat you gain one of her clones as a companion or pleasure servant – however you see fit.

Item – Flesh Pits Equipment

After defeating Mileena Kahnium you have claimed the Flesh Pits as your prize.

With this equipment and magical technology you can create an army of clones. The clones will originally be based off your Mileena Kclone companion, but you can change the archetype to another companion or even yourself. All clones experience accelerated growth to adulthood and gain the knowledge, skills, and a lesser form of all perks the of their archetype. The clones will be updated as their archetype gains new perks and skills through a mystical link with their archetype. These clones are also fervently loyal and will follow orders from the jumper unquestionably.

King of the Monster Fuckers

This is a world of giant monsters, Kaiju, they are destructive and they are very, very horny. Use a Kaiju jump as a supplement to create your Kaiju (or use a previous Kaiju altform) and then go forth to face off against other Kaiju as you engage in full contact sex fights across the globe to determine the King or Queen of the Monster Fuckers.

Rewards:

Perk - Powered by Orgone

Through your sexual battles with other Kaiju you have unlocked the ability to harness the power released by orgasms. Each orgasm your partner has empowers you, makes you stronger, and empowers all of your abilities. You can store this power and there is no upper limit to the amount of power you can gain. Like other forms of harnessed energy like Ki this extra source of power will be expended by heavy use.

The Mighty Yings

Congratulations jumper! You have just become the coach of the worst performing team in the Ultimate Mating League. This team is composed of a bunch of under-performers, slackers, and oddballs who have potential but need your guidance to realize it. You must lead your team until they are the best in the league.

Rewards:

Perk – Perk Coach

You are an exceptional coach though your training and coaching you can imbue others with perks that you possess. Those you train can only learn one perk every ten years or once per jump (whichever happens first).

Drawbacks & Toggles

Toggles

Neko Mode

Kinky Fight Club has a Neko mode which converts all the characters to kemonomini versions. This toggle replicates that effect replacing all characters in a setting with kemonomini versions (Catgirls, Catguys, Foxgirls, Foxguys, Bunnygirls, Bunnyguys, etc.). Your choice of species so you can have a mix or just make everyone Catgirls/guys.

Furry Mode

Several prominent competitive sex art and story projects come from the furry community and with this toggle you can change the setting into a furry one. All characters in the setting will be transformed into an anthropomorphic animal person or any of the furry-adjacent created species (Sergals, Yinglets, et cetera). Your choice of how this shows up in a setting, if you want a mix there will be a number of different species, if you want everyone to be a yinglet... well zhey will all bee yinglets. Weh.

Exaggerated Features Mode

Some people enjoy their bits larger than life, and Kinky Fight Club has options to allow that in the game by increasing the base size. Now you can do this in the setting as well, you can choose to change the average size of chosen erotic bits from just a bit larger than normal all the way to ludicrous hyper sizes.

A League of My Own Fetish

What to really customize your sexfighting experience? With this toggle in addition to male, female, and mixed divisions in the non-team based sexfights there will also be a division or even an entire league devoted to your fetishes – want a league of all BBW women? An all latex league? Or all cosplay league? Whatever you like it will appear as a league or division that will allow you to compete in it.

Guests in the Arena

One of the fun things about Kinky Fight Club is the custom fighters. Kinky Fight Club gives the users 30 slots for custom characters and 30 slots for guest characters. These guests are typically imports of other players' characters and there is an option allowing guests to show up in normal arcade modes. With this toggle you will occasionally have exhibition matches against “Guests” who could either be celebrities, famous characters from other universes, or even other jumpers.

Sacred Games

In a twist on the ancient nature of sexfighting in the Kinky Fight Club universe, not only are the games respected but they are considered sacred as well. Clubs will double as temples and shrines to gods, spirits, and saints of sex and fertility and matches may be run by religious officials with extra pomp and circumstance similar to how Sumo Wrestling was and partly still is entwined with Shinto rites.

Drawbacks

100 CP – The Matt

One of your companions or an in jump friend of yours has developed an annoying habit of going on long monologues about nothing. They just keep talking and talking as you grow bored and your mind wanders. You cannot in any way interrupt them, and must stand there patiently waiting for them to finish talking. You also cannot harm them, intimidate them into not talking, or any way prevent the occasional very long and very pointless monologues from happening.

100 CP – Terrible Drinks

Every bar you visit has a bartender who insists on serving you rather terrible tasting 'experimental' drinks.

100 CP – The Free Use Fix

You have a strange compulsion to offer yourself bound up for free use in either an erotic club or another appropriate place. At least once a month you must offer yourself up to strangers' whims or you will become highly stressed and agitated until you get your fix.

100 CP – Losers' Humiliation

Now in addition to servicing the victors until they orgasm as well, the losers of matches will face a humiliation of the winner's choice. This can include being paraded around naked in public by a leash (while possibly also stuffed with vibrators), being bound up and placed for public free use in the club for the rest of the night, a public 'punishment' session, or any other humiliating act the winner decides upon.

200 CP – Fair Play

Fighting a massively overpowered jumper with hordes of perks is a bit unfair in a competitive match. Let's make things a bit more sporting: this drawback will lock away all perks except the ones gained in this jump during your sex-fighting matches.

200/300/500 CP – Annoying Fans

In the world of Kinky Fight Club sexfighters often become minor celebrities and being a celebrity means dealing with fans. With this drawback wherever you go you will have at least one fan who will recognize you and ask for autographs, want to fawn over you, or want you to do something lewd. They will interrupt your meals in restaurants, come up to you in shops, and other places. You'll find little peace in public and even at home you will get occasional phone calls from fans who find your number. You will also be rather inundated with fan mail – quite a lot of which contains the fans' used underwear. For an additional 100 CP you will also have to deal with paparazzi who will constantly be trying to film, take pictures of you, and interview you. Finally, for an additional 200 CP you can also have a stalker who will really make your life difficult, they may even attempt to break into your place of residence and kidnap you.

200 CP – Bureaucratic Enemy

Well Jumper, it seems that you have annoyed someone rather socially powerful and they want to make you suffer. You will have constant issues with bureaucracy in your personal life and if you have a day job you will suffer there as well. You might even be arrested on false charges and questioned for hours before you are cut loose.

200 CP – Jobless and Broke

You get a cash prize for your victories and you're going to need it. Jumper, you are unable to hold down a day job for long and any money granting perks or items you have are locked away. In order to make it you're going to have to win and keep on winning or get used to the taste of instant ramen noodles.

200 CP – Do It For Them

A companion, relative, or friend has been involved in a horrible accident Jumper! The only way that you'll be able to afford the surgery to make them whole again is to win the league tournament to both impress the only doctor capable of healing them and win the prize money to pay them.

200 CP – The Rival

In Kinky Fight Club's story mode another sexfighter will declare you to be their rival and will go all out in an attempt to be a better fighter in all ways than you. They are the Blue to your Red, and you will occasionally have to face them in the ring where they will be your equal in skill.

200 CP - HERE COMES A NEW CHALLENGER!!!

New and random people often like to come up to you and challenge you to matches for some reason. You will often have people challenging you to sexfighting matches which you must accept and immediately compete in even if it is a weird time/place or interrupts something you are doing.

200 CP - A League of Someone Else's Fetish

Well Jumper, it seems that you will be competing in a division or league that is dedicated to a fetish that isn't your particular cup of tea. This is a bit of a double edged sword as you can probably last longer due to not being as excited but you will also have trouble attaining the drive and passion needed to dominate your opponents. (Incompatible with A League of My Own Fetish)

200 CP - Extreme Orgasms

Jumper when you cum, you really cum! With this drawback when you orgasm you experience a massively explosive and overwhelming orgasm that will leave you basking in the afterglow and drained for hours.

200 CP - Extended Afterglow

Oh so you like it here? With this drawback you will stay in this jump an extra ten years. This drawback may be taken up to four times.

200 CP - Rapid Climaxer

You have a very short fuse and it takes very little stimulation to cause you to orgasm - So naturally you decide to compete in a sport that's all about sexual endurance. Every one of your matches will be a major challenge and prepare to lose often – though you just might be into that.

200 CP/400 CP/600 CP – To the Victor Goes the Spoils

To the victor goes the spoils jumper! With this drawback, when a fighter is defeated they can be claimed as a sex slave to service the victor's whims. For 200 CP: This enslavement lasts one week. For 400 CP: The enslavement lasts until the victor is themselves defeated/enslaved or the yearly season ends. Finally, for 600 CP: the enslavement is permanent and if the victor is themselves defeated/enslaved then their slaves become property of the new victor.

(Incompatible with Sex Slave Gladiator)

200 CP/500 CP – Fertility Games

In the ancient world where Sexfighting arose, the games were probably connected to fertility rites. With this drawback the games have some mystical fertility magic behind them, for whenever a fighter with female sexual organs is defeated by a fighter with male organs the loser will inevitably become pregnant. Normally, the victor will cum into their defeated foe after the loser has came and the magic will ensure pregnancy. However, even if this doesn't occur the loser will still somehow mysteriously become pregnant (however it's considered bad luck for both fighters if the pregnancy occurs by unknown means). For 200 CP, By taking this drawback this fertility magic will be active and if the jumper is an active fighter they must take part in at least a few mixed sex or Futa vs. Futa matches. If the jumper or a competing companion has female sexual organs then this drawback is worth 500 CP. The pregnancy must be carried to term and perks which increase the speed of the pregnancy are locked away by this drawback.

300 CP – Sex Slave Gladiator

Well Jumper, it seems your Dominus/Domina has decided that you should compete in the games. They will manage you, decide your wardrobe, provide you with training, and book your fight. You as their sex slave have no freedom to disagree with their decisions and are mostly kept in your master's personal dungeon in between fights, training, and serving your master's needs. Your master can be one of your companions or a new character. (Incompatible with To The Victor Goes The Spoils)

300 CP – The Virgin Fighter

Well Jumper, this is an interesting way to pop your cherry. With this drawback you will start this jump a virgin, and all of your sexual knowledge and sexual perks that are not from this jump will be locked away.

300 CP – Erotic Weakness

Pick one of the following categories of sexual acts: Handjobs, Oral, Breast Play, Foot Play, Missionary/Facing Positions, Doggy-style/Non-facing Positions , Sexual Mountings (Cowgirl and Rider type positions), or Miscellaneous Erotic Acts (types of sexual acts that don't fit into the other categories including but not limited to spanking, kissing, and teasing).

You have an innate vulnerability to that type of sexual act causing you to have vastly increased arousal and high susceptibility to orgasm from that type of sexual act. Thanks to this you cannot last long when engaged in that type of act and your performance is more than often sub-par/less effective when you are the giver. This drawback may be taken more than once.

300 CP - Illegal Games

Instead of being legal and accepted, sexfighting is an illegal practice and shunned by wider society. With this drawback all clubs and fights will be underground, often happening in disused dirty warehouses. If exposed as a participant in sexfighting you may face arrest and/or become a social outcast. Also there is always the danger of a surprise police raid even when you may be hotly engaged in a match. (Note: The Lewd Acceptance Perk does not effect the authorities with this drawback active.)

300 CP - The Three-Cum Rule

One of Kinky Fight Club's more challenging modes is the 'Three Cum Mode', in this mode the fight does not end until the loser has come three times. While in universe it might be used for special matches, this drawback makes all matches you take part in 'Three Cum' matches. (Incompatible with Princess Hardcore)

400 CP - Princess Hardcore

Feeling a bit superhuman aren't we? The "Hardcore" mode of Princess of the Ring requires the winner to make their opponent cum in six different varied positions after which you must make your now exhausted opponent cum a 7th time with an over-the-top finisher. Your finishing moves should involve a toy or feature a particular fetish. With this drawback all of your matches will be like this, be prepared for long grueling matches. (Incompatible with The Three-Cum Rule)

400/600 CP – Gladiatorial Games

The practice of sexfighting took a rather dark turn sometime during the Roman era when it was combined with deadly gladiatorial games. For 400 CP with this drawback losers of sex fights may sometimes be killed by their opponents (most often by smothering/asphyxiation by facesitting or a quick neckbreak using the thighs). Thankfully, trained fighters are valuable attractions and fatal matches are rare, saved mostly for major events or particularly poor showings by a loser. The exception to these are rookie fighters trying to join the league where fatal matches are used constantly to weed out the chaff. For an additional 200 CP if you lose any match your opponent will kill you. (Incompatible with The Little Death Becomes the Big Death and Guro Games)

500 CP – The Little Death Becomes the Big Death

I'm sorry to tell you this Jumper but you have a heart condition. Despite your doctor's recommendations you still crave excitement and the fact that you're risking your life only makes sexfighting more exciting. With this drawback upon losing a match the combination of stress and excitement will cause you to have a massive and most likely fatal heart attack. Hope you have some one-ups or a really good doctor who can get to you quickly. (Incompatible with Gladiatorial Games and Guro Games)

800CP - Guro Games

Oh dear, things just got a bit ultra-violent. This drawback requires 'Full Contact Sexfighting' matches and they will always be excessively violent and brutal with both fighters going into a lust-filled murderous rage. These fights will often end with the loser suffering a very brutal death or maiming. These fights are so brutal that often the victor will have fairly major injuries as well. These fights are not for everyone and multiple one-ups are highly recommended.

(Incompatible with The Little Death Becomes the Big Death and Gladiatorial Games)
