Welcome back, Jumper to Earth, Japan, it's remarkably similar to your old world at first glance, save perhaps the existence of demons and the confirmation of God. Don't worry, it's not that dangerous, and HE is pretty chill, just don't become too evil, ok?

So, take these 1000 Choice Points.

Starting Location

It's Japan, anywhere really, if you want; however, as a demon, you start automatically from the abyss.

Origins

ALL origins can be taken as a drop-in; age and Gender are up to you.

You are a regular human, worse still, you are working a dead-end job, desperate for some comfort in life, or maybe you are just too average to be mentioned? Who cares.

Parasitic Demon [200 CP]

A non-human soul that has accidentally been absorbed by the abyss as it went through to the afterlife, as a disembodied soul, your body is really just a vessel, but while the physical can't interact with you, you can't interact with them, have an infinite lifespan, and the vessels you inhabit are much more powerful.

Regular Human

The Bottom of The Barrel [100 CP]

As a human, the one thing we cling to is hope, even when pushed to the brink of despair and beyond, you won't give up but find the strength and courage to get up and fight again.

A Kind Action [200 CP]

Good actions should be rewarded, and for you, they are, if a bit….well, your good actions are rewarded disproportionately, by a LOT. Burying a snail corpse on the road will guarantee its demonic soul will fall in love with you, level of reward, but it must be sincere and selfless.

Permission [400 CP]

When summoning demons and outer beings, others need rituals, artifacts, auspicious timing and other, for you, just your permission and the energy sufficient to summon, having rituals and the like just make it less costly and pin down requirement to be summoned, not only that, you can banish them by rescinding your permission, you also cannot be taken against your will to other dimensions.

The power of Love [600 CP]

Some people think that love and other emotions are mostly just for show or social interactions, these people never met you, your emotions and most importantly your love have tangible effects, firstly, your emotions can act as a power sources, the stronger you are and the more intense the emotions the bigger the output, again love work best, second, beings that feed on emotions cannot hurt you through feeding and are infect gain more energy than if they fed from someone else at least twice as much from the same type and intensity of emotion, lastly, those emotions when poured continuously day and night, even if it is a passive feeling, can grant a certain kind of miracle, such as granting a body to a disembodied soul or turning a non-sentient dead animal into a devoted parasitic demon with a brain melting love for you.

Parasitic Demon

Natural temptation [100 CP]

As a demon, you are a being of sin and emotion, and as such, you are a natural tempter; you know how to whisper honeyed words, perfect if you want to cajole your love or convince your target to give up its body. Also, this makes you a natural expert in the bedroom, as a bonus.

Hidden from God [200 CP]

The nature of shadows clings to you, as a being of the abyss. So long as you do not use your powers externally or in high quantity, you will not be detected by anything, and if you do use your powers outside something like basic shapeshifting, you have a margin of 5 minutes before your powers can be detected.

Body Manipulation [400 CP]

Your self is a soul, and the body is a vessel. You can create a physical body from the emotions and feelings that are poured toward you and use that power to further modify that body. However, you will consume power if the modifications exceed your body's initial body mass. If destroyed, you can create a new one or discard it.

The gap between [600 CP]

Your powers come from the shadows. This allows you to travel between shadows, a range of, let's say, around 100 miles radius, and travel between closely related dimensions. By default, it is the eternally empty abysses. You can be summoned by an inhabitant who permits you to enter, and you can let them travel with you through the shadows if they accept. You have awareness of shadows and what happens in that radius, and if you travel dimensions, such as the abyss, the last point of teleportation acts as an anchor where you can still extend your senses as if you never left.
