

True Lies

INTRO:

This world is, like most action movies, very similar to your own.

It focuses on Harry Tasker. Thought by his family to be a dull salesman, he is actually a US spy, and a damn good one. He has gotten involved in a lot of missions and big events. But in 4 years, his toughest mission will arrive as he will be tasked with tracking down nuclear missiles in the possession of Islamic jihadist Aziz. Harry's mission is complicated when he realizes his neglected wife, Helen, is contemplating an affair with Simon, a used-car salesman who claims he's a spy. When Aziz kidnaps Harry and Helen, the secret agent must save the world and patch up his marriage at the same time.

What you do in this world is up to you. Get involved in the world of espionage, make business deals with terrorists, or just sell computers.

Here's +1000CP to help you out.

BACKGROUND:

AGE: 108+22

DROP IN

You wake up in an abandoned mobile home on the outskirts of a city. You have no memories of this world to aid you. Fortunately it's not very different from home, and there are a lot of job openings for car salesmen.

ARMS DEALER

Not the weapons shop on the corner type of deal. You're the "people need something not quite legal and no one can know" dealer. So far, you haven't been involved in anything extreme and the US doesn't even know you exist. You could leave now, but your "employers" may not take kindly.

SPY

You've been assigned to Harry Tasker's team as a new field agent. Being a field agent means you get to do the exciting stuff and don't have to stay in the Van. But as a rookie, you're not going to be given nearly as much slack as Harry.
