

Welcome to SimNation. This is a world not too unlike your own, but filled with small communities populated with generally pleasant folk known as Sims. It has all the modern, real-life luxuries such as televisions, cars, and computers. However it also has also futuristic, advanced technology such as SimBots and supernatural creatures lurking in every town. You'll be here for ten years.

+1000cp
(Choice Points)

You keep all powers and gear from prior adventures so spend these points wisely!

Starting Area

Roll 1d8 To begin at whichever location the die shows. You can start in any town featured in the Sims for 100cp.

1 Sunset Valley

Before Pleasantview, there was Sunset Valley. Founded by the Goth family, and built up by the Landgraabs to be a quiet, peaceful town. But when the Altos arrived with uptown ideals, will the townsfolk feel the need to choose sides?

2 Twinbrook

In its heyday, Twinbrook was a small industrial town at the mouth of the Simislaus creeks. With a dam was built, dramatic changes came to the town. With an influx of professionals, artists and inventors living around the Sim-made lake, Twinbrook is experiencing a rebirth.

3 Bridgeport

Bridgeport was once a busy shipping town inhabited by sailors and smugglers. However, when the film industry came to the city, celebrities, Simoleons, and the sparkling lights of fame took over. Now it's a vibrant city with an energetic night life and bustling club scene.

4 Appaloosa Plains

At one point Appaloosa Plains was a sleepy ranching township, its only claim to fame being a garish tourist trap that drew in the occasional passerby. However, a recent influx of city slickers has turned the area into a bustling hub of activity.

5 Starlight Shores

Aspiring singers, musicians, and other performers come here looking for their big breaks. with its beautiful coastal setting, and eclectic and array of entertainment venues, performance competitions, and concerts--the city draws large crowds from all corners of the world.

6 Moonlight Falls

With its misty waterfalls, deep forests and fog shrouded coves, Moonlight Falls casts a spell on all who enter. The town is known for its peculiar potions. Only the truly adventurous stay out after dark... some say its a whole different world under the moonlight.

7 Isla Paradiso

An archipelago of islands surrounded by tranquil seas, Isla Paradiso is a great place for relaxation, recreation and exploration. Indulge with a stay at a resort, an adventurous boat cruise, or scuba dive into the depths in search of hidden wonders.

8 Strangetown

Truth-seekers move to Strangetown hoping to discover the secrets the town holds. Do aliens live among us? Do missing Sims mysteriously appear here? In this town nothing is what it seems. At this time, the town suffers from rampant food shortages and mysterious sickness.

Additional town options include: Riverview, Al Simhara, Champs Les Sims, Shang Simla, Barnacle Bay, Hidden Springs, Lunar Lakes, Lucky Palms, Sunlit Tids, Monte Vista, Aurora Skies, Dragon Valley, Midnight Hollow, Roaring Heights, and Sims University

Origin

Roll 1d8

See the below table to find out your life stage.

Or simply pay 100cp to select any age category you want.

1	Newborn If it's any consolation, this may only last 3 days.	5	Young Adult You have the chance to attend university now.
2	Toddler Relearn to walk, talk, and use the potty chair.	6	Adult You get to savour everything adulthood offers.
3	Child Elementary school age. Playtime and chores.	7	Elder Retirement age. Enjoy all the aches and pains.
4	Teenager Relive all the high school drama you could want.	8	Free Choice Choose whichever age category you like best.

You keep your gender. If you paid 100cp to choose your age, you may also elect to switch your gender.

In this world you are getting a brand new life. Depending on the age you were granted above, it could come with only a few years of new memories or dozens of them. All origins (except Migrant) are influenced by five random traits drawn from the list of traits available in The Sims 3 (and expansions). Note that these traits will affect your mind and could change the way you think and react to situations. You do not forget who you once were, but overcoming your new personality will take plenty of mental discipline.

Migrant

- + No new memories or personality interfering with your judgement.
- No familiarity with Sim social norms
- You have no history or connections in this world. No one but your landlord even knows you.

0cp

You awaken to discover yourself in a small apartment with simple furnishings in the town you selected. You have no memories of your life, only knowing that you live here. Proof of your birth does exist but you have no living family to call upon. As a newcomer in is a small town (all but Bridgeport), you will be a person of interest for a while.

Student

- ! Not available to child age or younger. You can pay 100cp to age up as normal.
- + You have plenty of friends in a social cliques (jocks, nerds, or rebels) of your choice.
- Your grades are currently rather average but you can work to improve them.

100cp

You are attending Sim University and have a scholarship that will cover your education costs as long as you can keep up your grades. As you come from an impoverished family, they will not be able to cover your tuition. Upon graduation, you will return to your selected hometown to live with your parents until you can afford your own home.

Townie

- + A stable job and reliable set of variable skills to assist in this adventure and others.
- + Connections with friends, family, and coworkers. Familiarity with the town and people.
- +/- A pleasant, well-furnished home, but somewhat frequent, high bills.

200cp

You've lived here all your life, and your family has been in the are for generations. You're familiar with the town and it's people. Though not necessarily super popular, you don't have any real enemies. The cost of living here can be a bit excessive at times, but so long as you (or your parents if young) maintain a job the bills will never get out of hand.

Occult

- + Generally speaking, occult Sims are significantly more powerful than ordinary Sims.
- + Access to a secret underworld of monsters and magic that others only dream of.
- Some Sims may react towards your abnormalities with fright or hostility.

200cp

You were born into the world of the supernatural. Things that seem frightening and strange to the common Sim are commonplace for you. For you this can be great, as it allows you to uncover all kinds of secrets that other Sims are not privy to. Unfortunately at times it can make regular Sims seem a bit boring in comparison to your exciting life.

Life State

Excluding ghosts, you may only have a single supernatural life state at a time.

Occult Sims may select one life state free of charge!

Ghost

Discount: Migrant & Midnight Hollow (Location)

Drawbacks & End

Each drawback you choose gives you the amount of points indicated.

For extra points you are able to select up to two drawbacks.

No Privacy

+100cp

You feel as though you are constantly being watched. Sims seem to know details that occur behind the closed doors of your home, and everyone in town knows everything about your private affairs.

Weak Bladder

+100cp

Keep close to a toilet, because you never know when you might need it. Embarrassment is certain to occur if you fail to account for your need for frequent bathroom breaks.

Censorship

+100cp

Over your 10 years here, you will not see any nudity or gain benefits from any intoxicants. Nudity will be censored staticy cloud in your vision. Nectar, juices, and herbs will do nothing for you.

Simlish Gibberish

+100cp

You will not be able to understand any spoken language while you are in this world. Even your own speech will be effected by this drawback. You will have a general idea of the topic and conversation by viewing speech bubbles that feature symbols related to the conversation.

Burglarized

+150cp

You will regularly suffer home invasions and have possessions stolen. Some of the criminals may be caught, however you will never be compensated the full value of your stolen goods (which will still be taken to serve as evidence against the crook).

Pollination Prone

+150cp

Cannot be taken as an Alien.
You will be abducted and possibly impregnated (1 in 3 likelihood) by aliens if you spend any length of time stargazing outdoors. The probing will last several hours and be entirely unpleasant and invasive.

Technophobe

+200cp

Those this world has many modern and futuristic luxuries, you won't be using any of them - because they fill you with dread. Telephones, televisions, cars. If it uses electricity and is any more complicated than a lightbulb you won't be using it.

Error 12

+200cp

You are unable to use any abilities that relate to save states. At the end of each week/day/month, there is a 1 in 10 chance that you will have to repeat the elapsed time as though it had never happened.

Where's Bella?

+200cp

You will be suspected as involved in the disappearance of a woman from Sunset Valley. You will never be cleared of suspicion, even if she returns. The case is highly publicized and you will become widely known as a kidnapper/murderer/psycho/llama that escaped justice.

Sadistic God

+300cp

The universe seems to want you dead, so keep an eye out for vanishing objects, faulty wiring, fire hazards, guinea pigs, dirty rooms, foul weather, flowers bouquets, scissors, vending machines, and jelly beans. Some Sims in town will occasionally be ensorcelled to be mean to you.

After your ten years here are up, there is only one more choice that needs to be made. Now I'm pretty sure you know what it is - but I'll tell you your options below just to be safe.

Quit

Well that was a fun trip, but you've had more than enough exploration. Now it's time to return home, and take all your powers, your toys, and the companions you've made with you back to your world. Have fun.

Save

This world may not be perfect, but is sure doesn't have many problems. Even the evil here is pretty nice most of the time. So why not stay? You will be unable to return home or visit other worlds by taking this choice.

New

This was never more than one stop along the road, and it certainly isn't going to be your last one. By picking this choice you leave this world, but there is a brand new adventure just waiting for you.
