

Final Fantasy Tactics CYOA

Jumpchain
Compatible

You've just finished your ten years in one of your jumps. Just in time too, there was something heading right at you in the last one. You prepare to start in the new world an-wait. This is your home. You're in your bed. Is it over? HA! Take THAT Jump-Chan! You beat it! You're feeling a bit lazy, so you decide to take a quick nap.

You wake up a little while later., the sun is in your eyes, birds are chirping, and you're... under a tree. Why are you under a tree? Why are you wearing armor? Why is there a giant bipedal lizard walking over there? Wait...

ohGodDAMMIT.

You start off with 500 Gil, the basic weapon and armor for your chosen class, and whatever you purchase for this jump. You've gained Choice Points, or CP, to fund your entry into this new world.

Ivalice is a land filled with Monsters, Magick, and the ubiquitous Clans. Fights between clans are moderated by Judges to prevent death. Unfortunately, this comes with being required to follow the law, which changes daily. The Laws either fine you heavily of items and money, or send you straight to jail.

+1000 CP

Race

1d8 or 100CP

Jumping into this new area has transformed you. You've become one of the native races of this world, with the class choices that come with it. Races have a default gender, but gender can be chosen by paying 50CP if race is rolled, or chosen if race is purchased.

Hume

Default Male

With access to the most widely varied tech tree, Humes are jack of all trades with abilities in most sources of magick and fighting.

1

Moogles

Default Male

A small and fast people, Moogles are a natural support race with a penchant for technology. Unusual jobs with unique abilities abound. Mildly hydrophobic, and do not swim.

2

Viera

Default Female

A race of cardio-bunnies, Viera are a race with phenomenal strength and speed. Their strengths are in precise physical attacks, or in wide-area magicks.

Bangaa

Default Male

Muscular, slow reptilians with a hissing accent, the Bangaa are known for their heavy reliance on physical attacks with few magicks.

4

Nu Mou

Default Male

A race of hippo-dog people, the Nu Mou are magickal fountains with access to strange arcane abilities that bend even time itself.

Seeq

Default Male

A race of pigmen, the Seeq are not a particularly bright species. Their speed is unusual, only beaten well and truly by the Moogles and the Gria. Their forte lies in traps, raw strength, and oddly enough, lightning magicks.

Gria

Default Female

A race of draconic women, the Gria's strength lies in mobility. Being the only of the sapient races capable of flight, the Gria bound around their opponents and whittle them to pieces through their skills and magicks.

7

Free Choice

Own Gender

The Judges of Ivalice smiled upon thee on your entry to this world. You have the ability to choose who you truly are, and what you are capable of here.

8

Origin

You've gained a new life in this world. Years of experience, the knowledge of the culture and taboo (we recommend not calling Bangaa "Lizards") are at your fingertips.

Drop In

Exactly like the heroes of the series! You drop into Ivalice knowing only what you've known before. No memories to help, but you're wholly yourself.

Free

Hedge Wizard

A self-taught magician, you learned the subtleties of magick through trial and error. This lead to mastery of the basis of magicks more than most, allowing for slightly more magickal damage and resistance.

50

Merchant

You got bored one day while minding the shop. This was another boring day in a series of boring ones. But for some reason this one was the final straw. You packed your bags, closed the shop, sold the inventory, and started an adventure. Your knowledge of economics leads to cheaper prices.

50

Chemist

The apprentice of a local healer, spending long years under your master learning both medicines and poisons. Having completed your apprenticeship, you set out to find a place in the world for yourself. Your knowledge of medicines allows you to use them to heal 50% more effectively, or to use them as poisons on your enemies.

50

Guard

You used to guard caravans for a living, but you noticed that adventurers with half your skills would get paid twice as much for doing the same. You quit, leaving your employers for a life of fortune. Your weapon damage is slightly higher, and you're more effective at blocking attacks.

50

Knight

A minor member of the nobility, you decided that you weren't happy with this. Whether trying to bring down the system, or to take over and become king yourself, you became an outcast amongst your peers. Your years of training have allowed you mastery of combat, allowing you to purchase TWO first column abilities and combine both their positive and negative attributes.

Paravir

Fighters specializing in Speed and Attack, the Paravir inflicts damage across the field as fast as possible. Wields Katanas.

The ability to deal absorbable damage is useful if their allies are equipped properly. Carry around their Books everywhere.

Alchemist

A support job, granting resistance to allies and a handful of status or damaging effects for enemies. Fencer

Exquisite swordswomen, the Fencers are the best for HP for the Viera in addition to their respectable Attack and Speed stats. Rapiers are her chosen sword.

Viking

Coming from lands of ice and snow, the Viking are Thunder and Water incarnate, pillaging from all. Teaches the Doublehand Support ability. Swings axes towards his opponents throat with blinding speed.
