Magus: You are a third rate magus with an unusually potent lewd magecraft, any day now you will fight a first rate magus of amazing lineage and incredible talent. You will somehow manage to defeat them easily and have the opportunity to corrupt them and maybe use them to get your hands on an even rarer prize. Or maybe you hail from the clock tower your lineage ancient and proud, you might not be your family's heir but you are accomplished nonetheless.

Civilian: You could be anything from truck driver on the road to a wealthy guest at an inn, You might have been given a potent drug by some priest and asked to stall a certain blonde girl, or maybe you made some aphrodisiac wine to prey upon desperate women either way you find yourself in the unique position of getting your hands on and corrupting a woman so far out of your league it isn't even funny.

Can be taken as a Drop in Origin, with no background or memories.

Master: The Last master of Chaldea fighting for the survival of the human order, somehow you manage to find time to fool around. I doubt anyone would mind you relaxing now and then. Or maybe another master made it?

Perks

Each origin gets their 100 CP perk free and the others at 50% price.

General

The Legendary Cock- 0 CP

What an impressive member, but it wouldn't be called Legendary for size alone. Your legendary cock allows you to instinctually fuck any hole you put it into perfectly, getting into even the tightest holes easily and with no pain whatsoever, every hole it is about to penetrate is perfectly lubed and cleaned, your semen tastes heavenly, makes your partner achieve a series of orgasms at Will each greater than the last, your fertility is under your complete control and you are able to impregnate even beings that should be sterile so long as they should theoretically be capable of it, finally you have no refractory period. Women that take this and don't wish to get a dick, can instead have these benefits applied in any way they desire, from getting a comparable boost to size wherever they wish, to having the cleaning and lube applied to themselves or their lovers as required.

Magus

Good looks -100 CP

You look good Jumper, good enough to turn heads. This comes in two parts. First you have a decent level of fitness that needs no maintenance and is easily improved upon. Second you are in good health and no mundane disease or sickness may affect you.

Concealment- 200 CP

You've studied presence concealment and somehow came up with this, while this doesn't hide you from sight, it makes observers view your actions as absolutely normal. Butt fuck a woman in front of her man and he will at the very most get this odd feeling that something is wrong before quickly dismissing it. The woman though is no observer, so hopefully you have something else to ensure her compliance, if she is stronger than you.

Plot Armor- 400 CP

Another kind to be certain. This one protects the plot from your actions. After all taking the heroine and turning her into your sex slave would usually have obvious and disastrous consequences, especially if she was supposed to prevent an apocalypse or two. Now events will work in such a way so as to achieve the same resolution despite your interference, after all conquering a woman only for the world to end a week later would really suck, how were you supposed to know to skip this one. You may turn this on and off at any point, maybe your aim is to start an apocalypse after all.

Lewd Magecraft- 600 CP

Your over specialization finally bore fruit, what you've achieved is truly astounding, from making insidious slave seals to unexpectedly potent hypnosis as long as it is in the pursuit of lewd endeavors you will find yourself able to come up with new spells with minimal effort as well as adapt others outside your specialization to your needs. That fire spell has always been beyond you? As long as you wish to use it to burn the clothes of your target fire away. Pushing this even further might even unlock your very own lewd reality marble.

Civilian

Profession- 100 CP

Choose any mundane profession Jumper, you are now quite good at it, you are in no danger of losing a job due to lack of skill that's for sure. Comes with any kind of documents necessary for you to prove your new qualifications.

Magnetism- 200 CP

You might be a simple civilian but that doesn't mean you can't be special as well. In your case you were born with a certain je ne sais quoi jumper. A quality all your own that attracts people of your preferred gender, and also makes you a master of everything relating to sex and seduction somehow.

Lucky- 400 CP

What are the odds of coming upon a person you find insanely attractive, that is also a Virgin, out in the middle of nowhere with you been the first person to come along willing to give them a lift. Well whatever these odds are you can beat them repeatedly as long as you're looking for someone to fuck.

Drug making- 600 CP

Somehow, you've managed to transcend the limits of your craft and achieved this.

What started as you simply fucking around to make aphrodisiacs and minor drugs somehow ended up as the ability to make any drug imaginable with an incredible potency, that bypasses any and all immunities and resistances, your drugs do not have any unwanted effects any unpredicted side effects would only be ones you'd approve of.

Master

Talented tongue- 100 CP

You have a talented tongue jumper, whether it's eating a woman out until she shows you her insanely sexy face or kissing her silly, your tongue is up to the task, just unleash it jumper.

Words- 200 CP

You have all the words jumper, the filthiest words and you know how to use them.

Instead of getting you into trouble they tend to get your targets into your bed.

Crude words from you start by making them weak at the knees, then hot and bothered as you unerringly push the right buttons. Why in the right circumstances I wouldn't be surprised if you could talk them into doing just about anything.

Qualifications - 400 CP

Someone might be doing a good job, a great job even, outshining you in every way, no matter what you do you always come up short. They are surrounded by beautiful people that admire and fawn over them while you get nothing. Unforgivable!

Luckily you have this. You can prove your qualifications just by fucking people silly, it might take a few sessions but they'll slowly see the light and understand your true worth. How could they have been so blind? Luckily you were kind enough to educate them and now they'll help you educate others.

Unlock Slutty desires- 600 CP

Your own Unique Special magecraft, using this on someone unlocks their subconscious slutty desires focused on you, they don't understand why their body responds to you this way Jumper, they know you must have done something, but they can do nothing about it other than beg you to stop this even as their body gets ready to be tamed utterly and completely by you. They could be incredibly powerful servants that should be resistant to all modern magecraft, they'd still be felled by this, watch as they present their holes for you to pound with the most eager face imaginable while warning you not to fuck them only to start singing your praises when you ignore them and give them what they truly want. There is no resisting you jumper, not unless you allow it.

Items

Each Origin gets their 100 CP Item free and the others at 50% price.

Magus

Shadow- 100 CP

This allows you to cloak the top half of your face in shadow, hiding your features and making you impossible to identify.

Brainwashing Wear- 200 CP

A set of lewd clothes, the wearer is turned into a cock hungry slut, the wearer's soul is cursed to serve and they will swear eternal loyalty to the first person fucking them. The only catch is that they must be worn willingly knowing full well what their effects are.

Coat- 400 CP

This coat is quite special, it's a mystic code that allows the wearer to summon tentacles, but these aren't the normal variety of tentacles no. With these you can restrain and modify your target as you wish. From enhancing their sensitivity, modifying their body to be lewder or even messing with their common sense until they honestly believe that when asking to be fucked it's only polite to kneel and bow with your head touching the ground before desperately begging for it. It takes a few sessions but the results speak for themselves.

Estate- 600 CP

A luxurious Estate built on top of a powerful Leyline it is worthy of even the Greatest of Magi. While within its walls the use of magecraft and magic in general during subsequent jumps is much less taxing and your recovery is boosted by an order of magnitude. A Magus couldn't ask for a better place to establish a workshop and further their craft. The Manor has been heavily enchanted so that setting the rooms to a particular purpose makes it assist you in your endeavors, as an example turning a room into a sex dungeon will see the manor take care of supplying the toys and other Knick knacks necessary. Its kitchens are equally grand, full of all sorts of meats fruits and ingredients that replenish daily. Its nature also makes it difficult for those who would harm its owner to find and it takes extremely well to defensive and secrecy barriers cast upon it, making them part of it, interweaving them to reduce their weaknesses,boosting their overall power by connecting them directly to the leyline and restoring them automatically if destroyed.

Civilian

Vehicle- 100 CP

It can be any type of mundane vehicle available this jump, remains in perfect condition without requiring any type of maintenance, doesn't need to refuel to keep running and self repairs.

Assortment of drugs- 200 CP

From pills to incense, ever kind of drugs to make a woman fall in love or go wild with lust can be found in this ever full case. Being of incredibly high quality these will have no side effects you wouldn't approve of.

VIP- 400 CP

This card marks you as a VIP Jumper. With it you might visit any kind of hotel, inn and the like and be treated as their most important guest, everything will be on the house, allowing you to live there as long as you wish. This card will be in your pocket whenever you require it and your stay at these establishments will not hurt them financially.

Enma-Tei- 600 CP

This, Jumper is a very special inn that you will be able to access from any world you visit and it is yours. It will always be the most luxurious place you've seen, if you stumble upon a grander place during your travels this will immediately grow to exceed it.

It is staffed by men or women of incredible beauty depending on your preference, that found themselves bound to provide satisfaction and servitude at your establishment for 10 Years, you might even see some familiar faces (Visit dragon ball as an example and anyone from Ranfan to 18 could end up here go to super and even the Angel Vados could show up). They are ageless and powerless while working here, you might convince them to 'Serve you' in exchange for lowering the time they have left there, indeed you are the only one capable of doing so.

Should you manage to convince them to swear themselves as your eternal servants, cocksleeves, sex slaves, wives or some such. They will be bound to the Inn forever.

Master

Costumes- 100 CP

A wardrobe full of all kinds of costumes for your women, anything from the most exquisite to the sluttiest can be found within. They are of the highest quality, their wearer is protected from feeling hot or cold always remaining perfectly comfortable, they self repair and are guaranteed to be a perfect fit. The wardrobe always seems to have what you want.

Scheherazade- 200 CP

This Servant is here for a reason, she is absolutely useless for anything that isn't satisfying you sexually, she is incredibly afraid of dying and is unable to fight. There is no risk of her dying now. Somehow she is under the impression that doing anything but giving you the very best she can manage will result in her death. You can summon her at will as long as you are somewhere safe.

Vacation Spot- 400 CP

This gives you access to a beautiful beach stuck in perpetual summer, everything you'd need for a great vacation is available for free, the stands are staffed by NPCs and in case you are lacking company, random attractive people of your desired gender looking to have fun will find their way here. One more vacation spot you would enjoy will become available every 10 years.

Chaldea- 600 CP

A copy of Chaldea dedicated to the summoning of Lewd servants, their upkeep completely taken care of.

Due to their status as lewd servants they might be somewhat different than what you'd expect. Any summoning magic attempted here will be easier, requiring less resources overall but also twisting the summoned being into being lewder.

This place comes with a few quirks, the most notable are the ability to alter a summoned servant to a specific version you are aware of at the moment of their materialization and the fact that despite what legends might suggest a particular servant will always be of the gender you are attracted to.

In future jumps you will be able to summon lewd servants specific to those worlds.

Companions

Local Magus- 100 CP

A local Magus you wish to take along? You may do so now. When approached about joining you they will point out how this opportunity would help them further their craft beyond theirs and their ancestors wildest dreams and will insist it is the only reason they are coming along, it's not like they like you or anything...

Servant- 200 CP

You may take your Servant as a companion whether you summoned them or not doesn't matter as long as they ended up bound to you.

Lewd Saint- 100 CP

This Saint was about to be picked up by a man who would have corrupted her and made her his. Luckily you happened upon her before him and whether you took the same path he would have or another she is yours now, happily joining you in your adventures.

Anal Slut Trio- 200 CP

What used to be a magus of amazing potential and two powerful servants are now absolute anal sluts that only wish to be with you and serve you in any way you wish. Anal sex with them is unmatched.

Drawbacks

You may take up to 600 CP through drawbacks.

Baby Dick- 100 CP

Not only is your dick small but anyone that sees it will only feel pity for you at best, all thoughts of a relationship with you evaporating, no matter what you went through before.

Quick Shot- 100 CP

You have absolutely no stamina, just a couple strokes are enough to make you cum, your recovery speed is equally shit, taking ages before being able to go again for a few seconds. Prepare to be met with utter scorn.

Blind- 200 CP

Your eyesight is perfectly fine. Something happened to you that made you incredibly oblivious, your lover could be leaving the house in an incredibly revealing outfit, give a blowjob to someone else or get fucked in the ass right in front of you and all you'd feel is an odd feeling of discomfort and hopelessness. This doesn't make these things likely to happen, it just makes you blind to them if they indeed do happen.

Ugly Bastard- 200 CP

You have a face even a mother couldn't love Jumper, and your body isn't much better as unhealthy as it is. No one can get passed your looks even blind people somehow feel how repulsive you are and shun you. Let's hope you have some way to compensate.

Locked out- 300 CP

You only have access to the perks and resources acquired during this Jump, everything else your warehouse included is locked out. How brave!

The Ultimate NTR Experience- 600 CP

This was a bad Idea Jumper. This Kouhai of yours Snapped due to seeing you flirting with someone else one time too many and after somehow achieving incredible reality warping powers decided to spend their time making you live through parallel worlds where your local counterpart experienced bad ends, nothing fatal, in fact they will use their powers to keep you perfectly safe and healthy, but expect to witness every person you'd ever had feelings for or were attracted to in this jump being taken from you and broken into sex slaves with you utterly powerless to stop it.

Are 10 years of continuous heartache really worth it Jumper?
