

Fate Servant Supplement

So you've summoned a Servant. Or maybe you decided to be summoned as a Servant instead. What does this mean? What does a Servant get? What doesn't a Servant get? It might sound complicated and daunting and alarming but don't worry- we're here to guide you through everything you'll need to know.

What follows will be your introduction to everything you need to know about having or being a Servant as well as a step by step guide to making one. Right below, you'll find an index made to help you keep everything on track.

The first three chapters introduce the concept of Servants and explain their various abilities. Chapter 4 is the starting point for actually creating a Servant and continues to chapter 10. Chapter 12 contains many premade Servants at varying cost levels for those who do not want to make their own Servant and chapter 13 includes a terminology section for easy reference.

Introduction

The Holy Grail Wars. Secret battles between wizards and witches fighting over a mythical artefact said to grant any wish the user can dream of. 7 Masters are chosen by the Holy Grail, 7 magic users from across the world to take part in this battle, each of whom will be drawn to the battle site. On each of those Masters appears a set of 3 red seals. These are the Command Seals, the sigils that mark them as a Master and will perform an important function. Once chosen, these 7 Masters can then summon their Servant and once all 7 Servants are summoned, the Holy Grail War commences.

So what exactly are these Servants? They are Heroic Spirits. Heroes, Anti Heroes, Villains and Monsters from myth, legend and history who have been called from their legendary resting place, the otherworldly Throne of Heroes, to take part in this war. They are people whose deeds have changed entire countries, entire continents, even the entire world. King Arthur and his Knights of the Round, Heracles and the heroes of the Trojan War, Alexander the Great and his great army and hundreds, thousands more are all possible to be summoned.

What is summoned is not truly this original mythical person or being but rather, a spiritual copy of them, a spirit formed of magic and legends into a physical but artificial form. To you and I, they are every bit as real as the original and they possess all the memories of that being but still, they are not truly that original being. Instead of the real being, they are summoned in a form that fits one of the many Class categories of the Servant System.

Saber, Lancer, Archer, Rider, Caster, Assassin, Berserker. These are the 7 core classes, though there exist several more specialised forms. When a Servant is summoned, they are summoned into one of the classes that they meet the requirements of, such as being famed for great magical power as a Caster or feared for terrible rages as a Berserker. These Classes will define many of their abilities such as the basic Parameters of Strength, Speed or Magical Power and even grant new ones, but often the Servant themselves will bring unique powers of their own.

Some of these unique powers will take the form of Skills, innate abilities or techniques possessed by the Servant, to reflect the abilities and skills that they used and picked up in life. But the thing that every Servant has at least one of, the thing that can be called the crystallization of their legends, is the Noble Phantasm.

Noble Phantasms are terrifically powerful magical artefacts or abilities or beasts or any number of other forms. They can range from things such as the Sword of Promised Victory, Excalibur, which can unleash immense blasts of magical energy to Gae Bolg, the Barbed Spear of Cu Chulainn, which can alter Cause and Effect to always strike its target in the heart to Godhand, the representation of Heracles legendary 12 tasks, which grants him almost unstoppable durability, regeneration and resurrective powers. Some Servants have more than one but all have at least a single Noble Phantasm.

These are all Heroic Spirits. Whether they are Heroes to millions of people or just to their own stories, every single one has a legend. There is no Heroic Spirit who is afraid to fight. No Heroic Spirit that has no reason to be in the Grail War. Even if solely for the chance to fight other powerful beings, they will come when summoned. Whether you are summoning a Servant to fight for you or becoming one of these legendary beings, it is now your time to choose what you will make of it.

How Do I Choose?

There are quite a few things to consider when choosing who will be your Servant or when choosing to be one yourself. But don't worry, this part will walk you through the initial steps and things to consider.

Time Periods

Heroic Spirits have been made throughout history, from all the way back in the very beginning of civilisation to the beginning of the 20th century. Just because they have been made however, does not mean they will continue to be so. In the world of Type Moon, after a certain point humanity simply ceased to qualify as heroic enough to become Heroic Spirits. Thus, there are certain restrictions on who can become a Servant, if you are choosing someone from myths or history.

In the Fuyuki Grail Wars, which include the Fate Stay Night, Fate/Zero and Fate/Apocrypha, any figure of history or legend or fiction can be taken as long as they were created or their story largely took place before the 1900s.

In the Moon Cell Grail Wars, which include Fate/Extra, any Heroic Spirit up until 2030 may be taken, though they must be dead by then and have actually qualified as being notable enough for the honour. This can include canonical characters from the Type Moon series as long as there is no doubt at all that they are dead by then and that they have made a great enough mark.

In the Grand Order Grail War, including the Fate/Grand Order Part One jump, there are no time restrictions on when Servants may be taken, even including Servants that come from the future or present and have not yet died. This does not lift the restriction on contemporary fiction Servants but it does allow you to summon beings that are otherwise still alive as Servants.

Fictions

Servants may not be summoned from any sort of modern fiction. Unless they are a canonical Servant, as in they exist in a published work in the Type Moon series as a Servant, you may not take anyone from any form of modern fictional media such as Video Games, Movies, Anime/Manga, Comics, TV Shows and so on.

Non-modern fiction that was made within the time limits of your particular jump is usable.

Life

To be summoned, a Heroic Spirit must be such a thing. If the hero is still alive then they have not passed onto the Throne and cannot be summoned, though who is or is not alive may change depending on the Jump in question, as some take place in alternate realities or timelines. Fate/Grand Order summons do not need to follow this rule and may summon still living beings.

Divinity

Demigods are a common sight in fables, as are other forms of god-children or other divine creations. However, the creators of the Fuyuki Grail War deemed fully realised Gods as being unwanted for various reasons.

Thus, in the Fate/Stay Night, Fate/Zero and Fate/Apocrypha jumps, no Servant that has a Divinity rank of EX may be summoned. This includes any sort of actual God or Goddess, along with extremely highly placed beings in monotheistic religions such as Archangels or the like.

In all other Fate jumps, this restriction is lifted and Servants with a Divinity Rank of EX may be summoned.

Jumps

You may not summon any being from a previous jump, even if they resemble or share qualities or identity with legendary beings in the various Fate jumps. The sole exception to this is the case in which you choose to summon an imported companion, which will be detailed in each individual Fate jump.

Canon Servants

But what if you want one of the Servants that's already present in the war as someone else's partner? It's simple, you replace that someone. Taking any of the canon Servants in a war in which they'd already participate under another Master replaces that Master with yourself. As an example, taking King Arturia in the Fate Stay Night jump would lead you to replace Shirou Emiya as the Master of Saber.

Be careful, as this can change the story dramatically and ruin or mess with many plans.

If you are simply taking the same class of Servant as another that already exists, such as taking a Saber in a war that already has a Saber, they will both be summoned. It wouldn't be the first time a Grail War doesn't go as planned.

But maybe you're choosing to become a Servant. In that case, a lot of the above information isn't so applicable to you. So instead, have some advice below.

Masters

Since you're a Servant and all, you'll need a Master to go with that. There's a few different options you've got open to you now and we'll outline each one below.

- A) First up is the Jump option. This involves taking whatever Master option is outlined in the Companion section of the specific Fate jump you are taking.
- B) Second is the Canon Master option. Similar to the Canon Servant section above, by choosing one of the classes already used in this war as your own, you may opt to replace that Servants with yourself and take their Master as your own. As an example, becoming the Berserker class would make you replace Heracles as the Servant of Ilyasviel von Einzbern.

Beginning Date

As a Servant, it might seem strange to simply drop in half a decade in advance of the war. There are a few choices open to you as to when you begin as a Servant.

- A) First, you can choose to be summoned anywhere between a day and a year before the Holy Grail War of your jump commences, giving you ten years after your entry point for the rest of your jump.
- B) Two, if you take a Canon master, you may choose to be summoned at the canon time that Servant would have been summoned instead.

The Basics

A Servant has a whole array of abilities just because they are what they are. This section will tell you the basic abilities, powers and weaknesses all Servants possess. It will also tell you what happens post jump to you as a Servant or to the Servant you have picked up through the Jump's options.

Magical Energy

Servant can have massive stores of magical energy and start with them fully filled when summoned but they do not naturally regenerate this mana. Instead, they must receive most of it from their Master through the bond they share. There are several alternate ways a Servant can regain Magical Energy however. The first is eating and sleeping like a normal human. This allows a very small amount of magical energy to be restored each day. Second is to devour the souls of humans being, which can give significant amounts of magical energy back to the Servant. Third is direct prana transfer rituals, usually through some form of bodily liquid, between the Servant and a being with Magical Energy of its own. Post Jump, Servants regenerate magical energy naturally, as if they were living beings.

A note for those who somehow became a Demi or Pseudo Servant. These sorts of beings can naturally regenerate their own magical energy as if they were alive, as they effectively are.

De/Materialization

Servants are spiritual beings. They do not have to be in physical form if they are not fighting. A Servant can choose to be invisible and intangible if they wish to be, though they can still be sensed and affected by magic. They can freely re-materialise from this state at any time. This power is also applicable to any Noble Phantasms that they have, allowing them to instantly dismiss them to this intangible, invisible state or to instantly summon them back to their hand/around their body. This ability is lost post jump unless you have taken the Living Template.

Modern Weaponry Negation

As they are spiritual beings, mundane weaponry and beings cannot harm a Servant. A human could physically interact with one if the Servant had materialised but they would be unable to actually deal harm to one. Someone could push them around if strong enough but not bruise or split their skin. Similarly, no matter how powerful the weapon, if a given attack could not harm a spirit then it would not harm a Servant, as by their nature they are simply physical spirits. This is lost post-jump unless one takes the Living Template.

Innate Knowledge

Servants gain a certain degree of innate knowledge when summoned. This is roughly equal to what an adult of the modern first world would know and serves to smooth over any culture or time shock that they might otherwise experience. It also teaches them the main language spoken by their Master in order for the team to be able to communicate and work together. This only applies to the initial summoning and is not a continuous effect.

Sensing

Servants are able to sense the presence of each other. This is not an exact locator but rather allows them to know when another Servant is present in the area, even when they are dematerialised, though it does not bypass any Skills or Noble Phantasms dedicated to hiding the user's presence. This ability is retained, however it still only works on other Servants.

Historical Weakness

Heroic Spirits have a built in weakness to whatever killed them in their original life and legend. A hero who died to poison would take greatly increased damage from it, even a mundane poison would be able to hurt him. This flaw is removed post jump unless desired to remain.

Creating A Servant

To build your Servant will need to purchase their class, Statistics, skills and noble phantasms.

You will receive 1000 Servant points or SP to spend to do so, spend them wisely

This Supplement uses a ranking system to organise costs for Statistics, Skills and Noble Phantasms. The Ranks are as follows: E>D>C>B>A>EX. It is also possible to add on up to 3 plus (+) marks to any level except EX or to add a single minus (-) to any level without a plus.

Each letter upgrade from E to A costs 50SP each, meaning that an A Rank costs 250SP. A plus (+) costs 100SP per plus and can be added to any rank level except EX up to three times. Upgrading from A to EX rank however, costs an additional 350SP on top of the cost for gaining A rank as it is a much bigger boost. Your first EX rank costs this much but everyone after that you take, regardless of which category they are from, costs an additional 100SP. Thus your second EX rank will cost 450SP to gain whilst your third would cost 550SP and so on. It is also possible to apply a minus (-) once to any ranking without a plus (+) mark. This will give you 25SP back but will reduce the effectiveness of that Statistic, Skill or Noble Phantasm until certain conditions are met.

Class

The first step to building your servant is to purchase their class. This will provide a range of basic stats and abilities for your Servant to start off with in exchange for a reduced CP cost that it would normally take to purchase the same. Each option will describe it's cost next to the name, what the Class is, what its requirements are and what it will give you in return, such as base stats and discounts.

Saber- 375

One of the three Knight classes, the Saber class is one of the stronger classes. To be a Saber, one must be known for wielding a melee weapon that does not fit into one of the other classes, rather than just sabers.

Ruler- 375

A Class for the Saints and those of a neutral side in the Holy Grail Wars. While often summoned as the coordinators of large Grail Wars, it's not absolute requirement for that to be so.

They gain B Rank in Strength, C Rank in Endurance, A Ranks in Agility and Mana. They gain discounts on Agility and Mana. They gain God's Resolution and True Name Discernment as Class Skills.

Avenger- 200

The class for those who have been betrayed, abandoned and left to lie in their own hatred. Sadly, many heroes of myth have met their end to a knife in the back.

They gain C Ranks in Endurance, Agility and Mana. They have discounts on Endurance and Mana. They gain Avenger and Oblivion Correction OR Self Replenishment (Mana) as Class Skills.

Jumper- 50

The Anomalous class. Possibly a hero of another world or many worlds. There is no common denominator to this class. It is the most unpredictable of the classes.

Personalised Class Name

For 25 SP, you may alter your class name to whatever you desire. This has no effect mechanical effect and for all non-cosmetic purposes you are counted as the original class you bought such as for discounts. You will also still replace the canon Servant if you chose a non-jumper class originally. Free for Jumper class Servants.

Templates

In this section, several additional templates will be presented. Each one will give a variety of buffs/debuffs, personality changes, history changes and cosmetic changes in exchange for a certain amount of SP. Not all Templates are compatible with each other and if they are incompatible with certain other Templates, this will be noted.

If you are the Servant or a companion is one, your/their history will not change but they will receive all other effects. Template rank ups can give +s to A rank stats but they do not give EX ranks and rank ups gained from Templates cannot be cashed in for SP back.

Alter- 150

Your Servant comes from a much darker version of their past. Though not necessarily unhappy, they were forced to take a much more brutal path in their original lives and this has left them much more aggressive, dominant and commanding. They are much paler and their armour or clothing has taken on a predominantly black/red colour scheme. They gain a one Rank increase to Strength and Endurance and a two Rank increase in Mana. They also gain a greatly increased willpower to reflect the greater hardships they have suffered through in their past.

This Template is incompatible with Lily template.

Lily- 150

Your Servant comes from a much lighter version of their past. They succeeded where they might have otherwise failed and reached their happy ending. This optimistic ending has left them brighter, friendlier and more hopeful. Their outfit takes on a mostly white colour scheme and they have a more graceful appearance. They gain a one Rank increase to Strength and Agility and a two Rank increase to Mana. They gain a greatly increased willpower to reflect the victories they know they have achieved in the past and the bonds of friendship and love that still support them even now.

Living- 200

Your Servant somehow retained their living body or perhaps they were simply given a fitting host when summoned by you. Either way, they no longer need you to supply them with mana as they generate it naturally at their own original rate, though they do need the connection between the two of you through the Command Seal to remain summoned, at least without certain skills. Buying the Living Template also allows you to keep certain innate traits of a Servant, as denoted earlier.

Fresh Fruit/Fine Wine- Free

Your Servant, perhaps the age they would normally be summoned in is not to your liking. With this free, optional choice you may summon them in an older or younger form. Whether this is merely a physical change, to give them a more youthful appearance or to have them appear older and more well-developed, or also includes the personality they would have had at that stage in life is up to you.

Sakura- 25

Your Servant is Best Girl. Kidding. This is one of the alteration Templates that gives little mechanical benefit. Instead, the Sakura template changes the appearance and personality of your Servant. Taking Sakura will make your Servant into an excessively Japanese version of themselves. Any swords become katanas, armour becomes Samurai armour and so on. Their personality also becomes more fitting to the Japanese equivalent of their current role, such as knights behaving more like mythical Samurai.

Summer- 25

Your Servant at the beach. Your Servant has now been summoned in a fetching swimsuit and with many of their items taking on a appearance more suited for fun and games at the beach, such as horses becoming surfboards or swords becoming super soakers. They're a lot more friendly and relaxed, perhaps too much to really focus on battle.

Bride- 50

The Waifu Servant. This Servant is a version of themselves currently looking for someone to love, apparently you fit most of the criteria they're looking for. They're very devoted to their particular idea of love too. They wear a white wedding outfit, which doesn't cover very much, but otherwise have little difference from their normal version.

Mystery Hero- 50

Your Servant instead arrived from an entirely different dimension. They're a super cool and collected version of themselves and have technological alternatives to many, but not all, of their Skills and Noble Phantasms. They also have an innate hostility to other versions of themselves and a surprisingly poor memory.

Red- 25

Your Servant but without any inhibitions. This version of them is, to put it politely, excessively lewd. In both their exhibitionistic attire and the attitude they have towards you, they're sure to raise more than a few blushes. They're also a lot more developed physically, to fit their new personality.

Lion- +50 or -25

A vicious little beast wrapped up in an adorable little package. Your Servant is now in an animal mascot suit, related to the animal that is most associated with them, and seems very devoted towards playing their part. For +50 points, you may have this be the mascot suit as described and your Servant will seem to lack much intelligence beyond how their animal suit acts. For -25 instead, you may have them just take on the ears, tail and paws of whatever animal is chosen, along with some similar personality traits.

Santa- 25

Your Servant arrives on a reindeer driven sleigh, with a fitting present for you as their new Master. Outfitted like Santa Claus himself, this Servant has a Christmas theme from their powers to their Phantasms. They retain most of their old personality but feel it is their duty to reward or punish good and bad boys and girls with presents and coal respectively.

Brave- 50

The classic heroic adventurer version of your Servant. Very similar to certain famed video games, your Servant has taken on a new outfit and a new outlook on life, more fitting for the hero of a fantasy RPG than whatever they used to be.

Halloween- 25

Trick or treat! It's your Servant, all dressed up to spook you. This spooky version of your Servant has gone for a big Halloween theme, changing both their appearance and even their powers and equipment to fit the scary spooky Halloween theme. They also really, really like candy.

Statistics

You receive base stats according to the Class you chose, as indicated by the previous section and this section. Each letter rank upgrade costs 50 SP. Pluses cost 100SP and can be bought up to 3 times per Stat and permanently increase the Statistic. EX ranks may be bought for A rank Statistics or higher at 350SP, with an additional 100SP added on for each successive EX rank you have bought in the entire supplement. You may buy a Minus once for any Stat that has no Pluses to give you +25SP.

Discounts are given as described immediately below and on the Class Section.

There are six Statistics that are important to Servants.

Strength: The measure of the servant's Strength and Physical Power.

Discount: Saber, Brawler, Lancer and Berserker Classes

Endurance: The measure of a Servant's Toughness and resistance to damage.

Discount: Archer, Shielder and Berserker.

Agility: The measure of a Servants Speed and Reflexes.

Discount: Saber, Archer, Brawler, Lancer, Rider and Assassin, Ruler

Mana: How much prana can store and use.

Discount: Caster, Ruler

Luck: The measure of a servants luck. Not luck in the common sense, it is used to see whether a Servant can dodge or avoid the most certain abilities and attacks here, such as causality reversing attacks.

Discount: Assassin, Shielder

Noble Phantasm: The strength of the Noble Phantasm one owns. Note: this Stat does not need to be purchased it is assumed equal to your servant's highest ranked Noble Phantasm.

Discount: Caster and Rider (on one Noble Phantasm)

Base Parameters: Each class has base parameters that are unmodified by the strengths and weaknesses of particular Heroic spirits, described in the Class Section and directly below. These are the base statistics that your Servant gets you may spend points to raise them. Base stats may be lowered below their base level as indicated by your class but you only gain points back as if they were discounted ranks for you. Ex. A Saber who lowered her Mana rank by two (C>E) would only gain 50SP back as the Base Parameters she gained from her class count as discounts, instead of the 100SP it would usually give. Lowering Stats that are not gained as Base Stats through a Class or Template gives full SP back.

Container	Str	End	Agi	Man	Luk
Saber	A	B	B	C	D
Archer	C	C	C	E	E
Lancer	B	C	A	D	E
Rider	D	D	B	C	E
Caster	E	E	C	A	B
Berserker	A	A	C	E	E
Assassin	D	D	B	E	B
Shielder	C	A	E	C	D
Brawler	B	B	B	E	E
Avenger	E	C	C	C	E
Ruler	B	C	A	A	E

Scale

The above Parameters work on a special scale, that is unique to them. Human Peak, for ease of measuring, refers to the current peak in our world, not the theoretical maximum the human body can output. For reference, the peak for Magic would be Tohsaka Rin, a genius magus in the FSN series. This Scale only applies to Statistics, it does not apply to Skills or Noble Phantasms.

E x10 the human peak.

D x20 the human peak.

C x30 the human peak.

B x40 the human peak.

A x50 the human peak.

+ Each adds again the rank it is applied to. A+ becomes x100, A++ becomes x150 etc.

EX x500 the human peak

Variability of Scale

Not every Fate jump accurately follows this scale. Some like Apocrypha and Grand Order will regularly have showings from certain Servants that indicate higher statistics than they seem to have. In those cases, as long as you can give an accurate, supported guess as to the actual level of benefit a stat rank has, you may take that instead. If a series has Servants regularly display more than x50 the human peak of strength for Servants with A rank Strength, you may also have you're a rank or higher strength be on that level SO LONG AS you purchase it in the same jump that those Servants display those higher stats.

Skills

You get one C rank Skill free and receive an E rank for free in any Class Skill you have according to your bought Class, what each Class has as Class Skills is indicated below and in the prior Class section. Further ranks in Class Skills are discounted, including Pluses and EX ranks, excluding the undiscounted surcharge for additional EX ranks beyond your first. Reducing your ranks in a Class Skill only gives you back discounted SP.

Each letter rank upgrade costs 50 SP. Pluses cost 100SP and can be bought up to 3 times per Skill. EX ranks may be bought for A rank Skills or higher at 350SP, with an additional 100SP added on for each successive EX rank you have bought in the entire supplement. You may buy a Minus once for any Skill that has no Pluses to give you +25SP.

Certain Skills are not available, partially unavailable or conditionally available. The Banlist section at the end of the supplement details these. Partially unavailable or conditionally unavailable Skills will have BANLIST next to the Skill name, indicating you should check the Banlist section for details on whether it may be taken or not.

IMPORTANT

Until the Supplement is fully updated, you may gain Skills that are in canon but not in the below list. You may not take any Skill that is exclusive to a Grand or Beast Servant, any Cheat/Id_es Skill, any Skill that breaks the supplement (Skill that gives more skills, Skill that gives extra Classes, etc) or any Skill on the banlist.

Servants possess two types of Skills. Class Skills are abilities that certain Classes gain discounts on because of the Class they are summoned to, as indicated below and previously. Personal Skills are Skills that are not discounted or connected to any one Class. If you do not have a discount on a Class Skill, you can still buy it, you just need to pay full price for it.

Saber	Magic Resistance, Riding
Archer	Independent Action, Magic Resistance
Lancer	Magic Resistance, Battle Continuation
Rider	Riding, Magic Resistance
Caster	Territory Creation, Item Construction
Berserker	Mad Enhancement, One Skill of choice
Assassin	Presence Concealment, One Skill of choice
Jumper	Choose one Skill of choice
Shielder	Magic Resistance, Self-Field Defense
Brawler	Independent Action, Mad Enhancement OR Presence Concealment
Avenger	Avenger, Oblivion Correction OR Self Replenishment (Mana)

Ruler	God's Resolution, True Name Discernment

The Skills that may be bought are detailed over the following pages. Only canonical ranks will be given as examples for now, a more complete redoing is in the works still, but even if a rank does not have an example given you may still take it, barring the BLIST notification that indicates you should check the Banlist section at the end of the Supplement to find out what limitations there are on a Skill.

Multiple Examples of a given rank may be given at times.

List of Class Skills

Avenger	A Class Skill of the Avenger representing the state of an Avenger as one that gathers people's hatreds and grudges onto oneself.
A	Those around the servant consider him/her as an enemy but those negative emotions immediately turn into strength.
B	It is easier for her to accumulate loathing and resentment.

Counter Hero	Reduces the Statistics of any "hero" that the Servant faces in combat.
B	At Rank B, it reduces all of the opponent's parameters by two ranks. It's weaker against anti-heroes, reducing their parameters by one rank.

Independent Action	This skill allows the Servant to operate independently of the Master and reduces the reliance on the master's prana. As indicated in the later Drawback section, this Skill may give a certain amount of SP as described there if taken by a new companion Servant rather than the Jumper or an existing companion as a Servant. For Jumpers and their companions as Servants, it is a costing skill.
A+	Servant can remain in this world indefinitely even without a Master. However, in order to activate his Noble Phantasm, it is necessary to first acquire an extra supply of Magical Energy from alternative sources.
A	Can remain in this world for a week even after losing his Master. However, to use Noble Phantasms of great Magical Energy consumption, back up from the Master is necessary.
B	Capable of remaining in this world for two days without an established contract. Also capable of living on for a short period of time after suffering extensive damage on his spiritual core.
C	Capable of remaining in this world for one day without an established contract.

C	While Hans Christian Andersen does not know magecraft, by putting his Noble Phantasm to practical use, it seems he can more or less produce what can be found in his literary works. - Semiramis specializes in poisons, so she can't make any other types of tools.

Mad Enhancement	Raises basic parameters in exchange of hindering mental capacities. In some cases, also seals away Personal Skills.
EX	Parameters are Ranked-Up, but is deprived of most reason. Even when under Mad Enhancement Spartacus is able to hold a conversation. He is fixated on "always making the most difficult choice," so essentially, a mutual understanding with him is impossible. - She does not lose her reason and remains as her original intellectual self. However, she manifest a fanatic maternal love, to the point she monopolize the one who she feel motherly love for, losing sights of all social morals and eliminating anything for him/her. She's mentally ill, but other and neither herself can perceive how much broken she is. She is impossible to persuade to make her correct her ways. - She doesn't lose her reason, but she will not listen to anyone and will follow through her desire to save others by any means, seeming more a demon, instead of an angel in her pursue of her means. - Parameters are ranked up, but they aren't or are just partially deprived of their reason. They follow strictly their ways, becoming impossible to persuade and to get a mutual understanding with.

A+	All stats receive a Rank-Up, but the majority of reason ended up being robbed away. Only the mission to expand the Roman Empire and make it prosper is not lost; thanks to it, if an ally approaches him citing Rome, a Luck check occurs, and if successful, he restrains his rampage. If the contact is by a person with ties with Rome, the check occurs with a plus. That is to say, if he is approached by the likes of Nero or Romulus, he would be able to reliably restrain himself. However, such restraint is just a condition of standby, and it's not like perfect communication becomes possible.
A	Rank up for parameters, but most of one's reason is robbed. Due to undergoing consciousness equalization with the Master, one has become a more mechanical Servant.
B	Rank up for all parameters, but takes away most of sanity.
C	Increases all parameters in rank with the exception of Luck and Mana, but removes the ability to speak or have complex thoughts. As a Berserker, she is only active at night, with "Darkened Misty Metropolis" always active, and will attack anything that possesses mana. - Rank up for all parameters except Luck and Mana, but in exchange one can no longer think and speak properly.
D	Strength and Endurance parameters are up. Language ability is simple. Continuing complex thoughts over long periods of time are difficult.
E	Normally does not receive the benefits of Mad Enhancement. In exchange, he retains a normal capacity to think. A Luck Check is performed whenever damage is received, failure results in him going wild and Stats excepting MGI and LCK being raised. On that occasion, his whole body becomes red.
E-	A skill that transforms one into a brute and raises one's abilities. ...But as Elizabeth still possesses her reasoning abilities, the benefits from this are very low. Rather than effecting her abilities or endurance, it's simply made it so that she "does not feel pain." -

	The user does not receive the benefits of Mad Enhancement nor do they lose any of their reasoning abilities, and overall they just become a little rougher. Beowulf has this rank of Mad Enhancement because, while he is linked to historical berserkers, he had never lost his sanity in his life.

EX	In addition to the Magic Resistance of the Saber Class, Joan demonstrates high Magic Resistance due to her unwavering piety. However, since it is just averting (evading) the Magecraft, only Joan will be saved against a wide-range magic attack. It cannot cope with the sacraments of the Church either.
A	Cancel spells of A-Rank or below, no matter what high-thaumaturgy it is. In practice, the Servant is untouchable to modern magi, so it would not be an exaggeration to title the Servant a "Magus Killer".

EX	Becomes one with the World itself. The moment one shifts to attack, it becomes A+.
A+	It is possible to disappear completely and become almost impossible to be detected. However, efficiency will decrease once preparations to attack are taken. -

A++	She is able to ride every beast and every vehicle. Normally the Riding Skill is not supposed to allow one to ride dragons; however, she is an exception.

A	All creatures but those of Phantasmal Beast and Divine Beast-rank can be used as mounts.

Those who were sucked are dead while still alive, and are fundamentally subordinate to the one who sucked them as they are turned into one's manservants through the sipping of their blood. Also, because this deed is not an attack but an act of affection, one cannot defend against it even with "a body that pushes aside all sorts of attack".

C	For Carmilla, it is an absorption and recovery of physical strength by bathing in blood. Although something close to a misconception, Carmilla's skin has certainly rejuvenated. - For Eurayle and Stheno, sucking blood will recover one's own magic energy. A	Can be said to have achieved the greatest level of popularity as a human being.
B	Suitable for a king of a country.
C	Joan's figure participating in the assaults hoisting a flag raised the morale of the soldiers to the limit and united the troops. Thanks to her charisma, it is possible to make others believe in the contents of the "revelations" without basis. - Elizabeth Bathory has a Charisma bonus when talking with females. - Having the Roman citizens' exuberant support and seeing his success as a general in the Gallic Wars, there's really no need to ask if Gaius Julius Caesar is charismatic.
E	Leadership skills increase, but the morale of troops decreases extremely. Charisma is a rare talent, but in rare cases, there are things that can affect the personality development of the owner. In the case of Sir Gawain, this resulted in a "Natural Knight" against whom no one could object.)

Chinese Martial Arts If one wishes, this may also be taken for the martial arts of other culture groups.	A Chinese rationality. A value that measures one's mastery of the martial arts that made becoming one with the universe as its objective. However, the Servant's Master derives no benefit from this personal skill. This Skill only assists in creating a collection like this, it does not automatically grant a full collection.
EX	A collector of treasures. Within his era, he aggregated and sealed unto his collection all the fruits of civilization. Rather than "possession of individual items," it would be more appropriate to say that the true treasure he grasped was "the very essence of human ingenuity." All that falls beyond the Treasury of the King are those creations that came of "new concepts" crafted by Post-Humans, and items derived of the civilizations of other celestial bodies.

Combination	A Skill that displays how much one's combat power increases when on a united front with a specific person

A	Distorting her abilities and appearance, Demon Archer is unique in that it was something Nobunaga called herself in life, allowing her to receive its benefits without any demerits and activate or deactivate it of her own choosing. She can alter her appearance from being a small child to having a prominent bust.

Demonic Defender of the State	The capacity of a Servant to mark a region as his personal dominion by securing the surrounding leylines prior to an engagement.

Divinity EX rank divinity refers to Divine Spirits, and is only purchasable for Servant's in Extra, Extella or Grand Order.	The measure of whether one has Divine Spirit aptitude or not. At high levels one is treated as a mixed race of a Divine Spirit, and the level declines when the Heroic Spirit's own rank as a Monster, Demonic Beast raises. It can also decrease due one's dislike for the gods. It also has an effect which reduces special defensive values called "purge defense" in proportion to the Divinity's Rank. It can break through Skills such as Protection of the Faith and Enlightenment of the Sacred Fig.

Because of this, Alterra who became a Heroic Spirit on Earth, has a high ranking divine spirit aptitude. - At the same time that he is a ruler that controls the people and reigns over the land, a pharaoh is also someone who reaches the gods. Dragon Witch	Grants an innate skill to control dragons. This skill partly works as the Charisma skill, raising the party attack.

Evil Eye of the Abyss	The final fate of Gilles de Rais that looked into the abyss and was looked back in turn. Those eyes suffered a great metamorphosis and became a thing that spreads fear, similar to those "things" that lurk in the depths.

Eye of the Mind (False)	A natural talent to avoid danger on the basis of an innate 6th sense, intuition, or prescience, where accuracy of instinct has been augmented by experience -- somewhat overcoming the problem of visual obstructions that appear in the course of combat. The difference between Eye of the Mind (True) and Eye of the Mind (False) lies in that the former is an ability that humans can obtain through accumulation of experience. The 'False' version is superficially similar, but in fact represents a natural instinct that cannot be obtained regardless of effort or experience - - even though experience can refine its accuracy.
A	The ability grants an effect of offering resistance against penalties caused by visual obstructions. (During the fifth Holy Grail War, in the battle with Arturia, Assassin crossed blades with an invisible sword numerous times. He was able to use this ability to gauge even the length and width of the sword, and see through the fact that Arturia was unable to use her Noble Phantasm attack due to a lack of mana. Seeing through the weapon and style of his opponent after crossing blades only a few times, the perception of his eyes is the best among Servants.)
B	(Even though Hercules' sanity was lost due to Mad Enhancement, this skill remained effective as it is nearly an instinct. When crossing swords with a seasoned swordsman like Arturia, he would not fall for half-hearted feints. It is such a troublesome ability for Heracles' opponents. Although monstrous in size, Heracles has a high rank in Agility. As a result, it is very difficult to corner him.)

Eye of the Mind (True)	A heightened capacity for observation, refined through experience.
B	Capable of calm analysis of battle conditions even when in danger and deduce an appropriate course of action after considering all possibilities to escape from a predicament. So long there is even a 1% chance of a comeback, this ability greatly improves the chances of winning.

D	They can be directed by thought alone, without need for a contract.

Galvanism	A skill that allows unrestricted conversion and accumulation of magical energy and bio-electricity. Thaumaturgical attacks involving no material existence—wind manipulation, energy bullets, beam attacks—are converted to electricity and rendered without effect, discharged into the environment. Absorbed electricity may be used to implement rapid self-repair and physical attribute reinforcement. Like Phlogiston and Ether, the concept of Galvinism, which explains organic activity as a bio-electric process, falls under the domain of Alchemy.
A	By instantly converting attacks without form such as magic light, magic wind, and magic bullets into electricity and charging it, Tesla can recharge his own mana.

Glory of the Past	The memories of the four years when Caligula lived as a wise king; these memories don't soften his madness, but they actually accelerate it.
B	He obtains a plus modifier to his resistance against mental interference and the like, and

Incidentally, this personal skill is attained purely through the mastery of the martial arts, and is therefore unrecognizable to those trained solely under the system of Magecraft—being lacking in the telltale large-volume Magical Energy utilization that manifests in the use of Magecraft-based invisibility. As with the Tsubame Gaeshi attained by the Assassin of the 5th Heaven's Feel of Fuyuki, the Presence Elimination effectuated by the Sphere Boundary exceeds the domain of human capability. According to the Fate/Extra Drama CD, as with the technique of Presence Concealment utilized by the Hassan i Sabbah, elimination of presence drops in efficiency in the circumstance that the user initiates an attack or poises for an offensive—even though invisibility is still effectively maintained. For this reason, opponents unfamiliar with the technique are still capable of 'just barely evading' a seemingly invisible attack, provided sufficient skill, talent, or experience. Voyage	A Skill denoting one's steering techniques for a ship. Because it is specialized for ships-only, it is impossible to ride horses or chariots.
A	As expected of reputable pirates, both of them are prodigious.

Voyager of the Storm	The talent to impel a ship and those who the user identifies with. Because the ability as a group leader is also necessary, this unique Skill also has the effects of both Charisma and Military Tactics .
------------------------------------	--

Warcry of the Warrior	A morale boosting skill.
B	Similar to the breathing techniques in karate, by way of this warcry he carries out a moral coordination.

Wisdom of Divine Gift AKA Wisdom from the Gods	A gift of wisdom given by various Greek Gods to the character.
A+	Other than those characteristic of heroes, almost all other skills of proficiency B~A rank can be displayed. Also with a Master's agreement, other Servants can be granted skills. This refers to normal skills, not Servant Skills.

Witchcraft	The Dakini heavenly methods. It includes methods to discern one's time of death and secret arts to obtain influence, such as methods to attain status and fortune (for men) and methods to gain the favor of influential individuals (for women).

EX	By lamenting harshly learning from experience in the past, Tamamo-no-Mae does not feel like making much use of this
-----------	---

Whimsical Bond	Originally a Skill to shackle Orion by overwhelming love, but it acquired increase in attack power towards males as a side-effect.
A+	According to the claims of a red bowman -- she claims that effectiveness is stronger towards those prone to adultery, but that is probably a misconception.

Zealotry	Normally unattainable mental strength can be obtained by having so much religious faith in something that it is beyond the understanding of those around her.
A	Trauma is instantly overcome, strong resistance to mental interference type magecraft is obtained.

Noble Phantasms

You receive one C rank Noble Phantasm for free. Each letter rank costs 50 SP, Pluses cost 100SP and can be bought up to 3 times per Noble Phantasm. EX ranks may be bought for A rank Noble Phantasms or higher at 350SP, with an additional 100SP added on for each successive EX rank you have bought in the entire supplement. You may buy a Minus once for any Noble Phantasm that has no Pluses to give you +25SP.

Caster and Rider Class Servants gain a discount on a single Noble Phantasm.

Your Noble Phantasms. Crystalizations of your legend. This section is where you will decide what will become your chosen trump cards. They can take many forms. Weapons, Armour, Abilities, Attack Techniques, Pets, Clothing and so on. Magical blades that can unleash blasts of powerful light, the ability to negate any attack below a certain level of power complete and a mighty dragon steed are all examples of things Noble Phantasms could be. Noble Phantasms must be singular however, it is not possible to purchase collections of Noble Phantasms.

Costs are as before each letter Rank costs 50SP. At A rank, an EX rank may be purchased for 350SP (+100 for each successive EX rank, including ones from earlier in the Supplement). Pluses may also be bought for 100SP each, up to a max of 3. The ranking system in this section measures the power of the Noble Phantasm, with more ranks giving more power and pluses (+) granting a permanent increase in power unless indicating otherwise.

Each Noble Phantasm is based on the legend of their wielder, linking to some deed that they have accomplished in the past or some idea important to them or some being they hold dear or any of a great range of reasons. Because of this, you have mastery of whatever Noble Phantasms you buy. A sword would make you the equal of all but the greatest swordsmen in its use, a horse would make you a rider unmatched by any below the level of an actual Rider class Servant in its use and so on. The stronger these Noble Phantasms are, the higher the rank must be.

Most Noble Phantasms must be activated to call out their true effects. This requires one to call out the name of the Noble Phantasm and usually expend a varying amount of magical energy. However, not all Noble Phantasms are active effects, some are always on or are passively activated and these do not need to be called out to use.

Noble Phantasms also possess certain classifications that determine the area or number of targets it affects such as Anti-Unit, Anti-Army or Anti-Fortress. These would be built into the cost and thus are entirely up to the wielder, as they are largely extraneous to the main effect. However, for 25SP the player can purchase a single Anti-“type of target” for their Noble Phantasm that will increase it’s effectiveness somewhat against that category. Things such as Anti-Divine, Anti-Human or Anti-Elf.

Variability of Scale

Noble Phantasms are not always quite equal across the Fate jumps. In certain worlds such as Apocrypha or Grand Order jumps, they possess much greater destructive power. Their special abilities are not any stronger but the level of force they hit with may be much higher in certain worlds than in others. In those worlds, if you are creating a Noble Phantasm through this supplement in that jump, you may have your Noble Phantasms work on that same higher scale of destructive force as long as you can point to accurate examples to support the higher scale.

Drawbacks

You can take up to 600SP in drawbacks from this section. Certain Drawbacks are unable to be taken if you have a specific template or Demi/Pseudo Servant and these will be marked as such.

This section will detail several drawbacks that you may take in order to gain more SP. Any number may be taken but only 600SP worth may be gained in SP, no matter how many you take.

Gender Bent- 0

Your Servant has been summoned as the opposite gender to what they were in the myths or even what they were in this reality. Maybe history got things wrong or maybe your summoning was just particularly strange.

Saber again, Really?- 0

That man, this mysterious Takeuchi person, seems to have struck again. Your Servant has taken on a face and body exactly like that of King Arthur, in either their male or female incarnations. Doubtless this will cause quite some confusion if taken in a war with any other Seibahface.

Troublesome Host- 200 (Pseudo Servant Only)

As a Pseudo Servant, you would normally have taken over a blank body or one that you easily subsumed with your will. Now however, this is no longer the case. Your host has the mental strength of will to easily put up an incredible fight against you and when they are in control of the body, they will gain your powers and work to tear down what you have done. When the jump is over they either disappear or can be negotiated with but for the course of the jump, you will constantly battle for control.

What Spiritual Form?- 50

For one reason or another you or your servant is unable to go into a spiritual form. This means they will have to physically accompany you everywhere, you may have to find a way to conceal their identity and they are more likely to draw attention.

No Natural Mana Replenishment- 100 (Cannot be taken by Demi Servants)

Something with your summons must have gone wrong. You or your Master are incapable of replenishing your servant or your own mana through the Master-Servant bond. You must either find some other way to replenish their mana or they will fade out of existence before the war

Does not feel like using this Skill- 100

Due to some past trauma, your Servant refuses completely to use one of their Skills. Maybe you could convince them to use it once with a powerful argument and the risk of death or with the use of a Command Seal, but such things would seriously strain your relationship. This drawback may be taken up to two times.

Sader- 300

You're not quite sure you summoned the right Servant. It could be the blank, white stare they have. Or maybe the...sort of melted face they have. Is it their painful stupidity in fights and inability to properly use their abilities? Or just the way they constantly seem to be gross and annoying? All of the above it seems. You've summoned a cheap knockoff version of the Servant you originally wanted and sadly, you're stuck with each other. If they die before the jump is up, they're gone for good. But if they survive, you'll find the real version of that Servant arrives to cleanse the shame of their half arsed copy and join you as a proper Servant henceforth.

If you are the Servant...well, you won't be replaced at the end, but you'll have to suffer through all the above indignities. You might be coming out of this one with a bit of a poor reputation.

Personality Clash- 200 (Cannot be taken by Demi Servants)

You have an extremely poor relationship with your Servant. Perhaps due to simple dislike or to a dire difference in ideals, the end result is a great deal of infighting between the two of you. If you don't do your best to accommodate or work with them even in spite of this, they might even turn on you. Survive past the war and you'll be able to work to resolve this dispute, but before then you'll need to deal as best you can.

Mana Muncher- 100

Your Servant requires a much greater amount of upkeep than normal, both for maintaining their existence and using their abilities, roughly around twice their usual level. This cannot be taken by those with Independent Action or anyone who naturally regenerates magical energy.

Independent Action- Variable (25cp per rank. Up to A+ rank may be gained)

The ability to remain independent even when rejecting the prana supply from the Master. At the higher ranks, it is also possible to remain for extended periods of time in this world without an established contract. It is both useful and troublesome depending on the disposition of the Servant and the rank of Independent Action. Acting in autonomy from the Master's prana supply, the Master can concentrate their own prana on large spells, or the Servant will be fine even in the case they cannot supply prana due to injury to the Master. The downside is that they can be harder to control and keep by their side, making the only true way to command them by utilizing Command Spells. This only gives SP if the Servant is a new companion. If the Jumper is the Servant or if one of their existing companions has become their Servant, it costs SP to grant as it is only an advantage then.

Migraine- Variable (25cp per rank. Up to A+ rank may be gained)

A curse inherited from the birthplace of one's previous life. Due suffering from chronic headaches, the success rate of mental Skills decreases considerably. Worsens the higher rank is taken.

Powerless Shell- Variable (25cp per rank. Up to A+ rank may be gained)

A skill that make the user difficult to perceive as a Servant, declining both his parameters and skills. This may be temporarily released but comes with negative conditions, such as loss of control when using true power, time limit or increased energy costs. Higher ranks increase the loss in parameters and skills or worsen the conditions to release.

Weak Constitution- Variable (25cp per rank. Up to A+ rank may be gained)

A weakness struck by the nature of frail health. Taking this means that one's physical Statistics have a certain chance that increases with higher ranks, of taking a sudden drop in one or more ranks when in strenuous activity. Active combat makes this chance much higher.

Banlist

Certain Skills are either far too powerful or specifically break certain aspects of this Supplement to be offered. Such Skills will be noted here and cannot be taken.

The Skills listed in this section, in most cases, will eventually be available through use of a certain pair of scenarios in the future. Some Skills exist which are not in the Skills list or the Banlist, these are Skills with currently insufficient information and will be added at a later date.

Terminology

The world of Type Moon can use some pretty confusing words and it can use them quite often. Servants especially deal with a large amount of pretty confusing terminology at times and this section will be all about explaining these terms and what they mean for you as a Servant or Master, especially if you ever need to refer back to things.

Heroic Spirit

This is what a Servant is technically called. A spiritual, ghost like being made of magic, legends and spirit. They have physical form if they wish but are not truly alive. Nor are they the original beings, just copies. If a Servant was summoned in one war and then summoned again in a later one, they would have no memory of the former.

Master

One of the 7 (Sometimes more) human wizards participating in the Grail War. They are the ones who summon Servants and assist them in their battles against other Servants. Sometimes, the Master is strong enough to even directly fight Servants on their own, but that is meant to be rare.

Throne of Heroes

A mystical location outside of normal reality that holds the true, original spirits of all beings that would qualify as 'Heroic Spirits' through their actions. It is also what each Holy Grail War copies information from to make copies of Heroic Spirits to summon as Servants.

Holy Grail War

A battle between 7 Magi and their 7 Servants over a Holy Grail that grants wishes. The HGW can often change depending on the series of origin, such as having two teams of 7 Masters or extra Servants being summoned. What the HGW in your jump is like should be explained in that specific document.

Prana

The magical energy used in this world. It is actually a mix of two energies. Mana, the energy that is external to the body and exists naturally in the world and Od, the energy produced from within the bodies of living things. For human magic users, this energy is generated and controlled through Magic Circuits but Servants, being formed of magical energy and spirit stuff entirely, do not seem to possess the same weaknesses that Magic Circuits have, though they still produce Prana through mixing Mana and Od. Unlike living Magi, Servants do not naturally replenish magical energy on their own and must draw either from their Masters or find an external source, such as eating souls.

Command Seals

All Masters possess 3 Command Seals, which symbolise the bond between you two and allows them some control. Each Seal can be used up to give an Absolute Command to the Servant. If a Master were to order their Servant to do something they were completely against, they'd have no choice but to obey. Even if the command was "Kill Yourself". However, while specific commands like this cannot be disobeyed, the more general and broad the command the weaker the effect. If you were to tell a Servant to “Obey All My Commands” then at most you’d give them a minor compulsion to follow your orders, something any Servant worth his salt could resist with ease. These orders can also be used to boost the Servant. Ordering “Come to Me” would teleport your Servant to you regardless of the distance, while telling them “Defeat that Opponent” would boost their power.

Using up all 3 Command Seals severs the connection between the Master and the Servant. Without any ranks in Independent Action, this spells death for the Servant and without high ranks in IA it only means a temporary respite. It is possible to steal command seals from other Masters and then reconnect with your Servant or even another Servant in the war if they be willing. However, without Command Seals, the Master is no longer considered an eligible participant and even if their former Servant were to win, they would receive no prize.

Classes

The various ‘outfits’ that Heroic Spirits are summoned into. These generally govern what abilities a Servant will have access to and will usually grant them several basic abilities and stat boosts too. Each class has prerequisites that are gone into with more detail earlier but they are surprisingly wide. A Saber is typically a swordsman or woman but axes, hammers and big sticks are all just as viable.

Parameters/Statistics

The 5 Stats that each Servant has, measuring their basic abilities. These are Strength, Agility, Endurance, Mana and Luck. Strength is physical power and strength, Agility is speed and dexterity, Endurance is durability and stamina, Mana governs the amount of magical energy you have available and Luck deals with the chance you have to avoid certain supernatural powers that are otherwise unavoidable, such as effects that reverse causality to always hit or those that manipulate destiny.

Skills

These are innate skills and abilities each Servant has.
