

BLUE EXØRCIST

by Faucheusestar

The series is set in modern times, and the story places our world alongside a parallel world: Assiah, the world of humans, is linked to Gehenna, the world of demons. In the shadows, two organizations clash:

The first is the Exorcist of the True Cross, founded by demons to protect humans and represented by Mephisto, the second most powerful demon king.

And the second, the Illuminati, led by Lucifer, the most powerful demon king, is a pro-demon faction intent on merging Assiah and Gehenna and bringing Satan back to this world.

Origins

Drop-In [Free]

You are dropped into this new universe with no background, memories, or documentation... Did you take a mysterious means of transport to get here?

Exorcist [Free]

You're an exorcist, you may have started hunting demons and solving mysteries and other local urban legends a while ago. In any case, you know enough about this art not to be floundering around like someone who's just discovered it.

Illuminati [Free]

You're not affiliated with the exorcist or perhaps you're a double agent! You are a loyal member of the pro-demon faction

Race

Human [Free]

You're a human or your current species if it's not here, unlike the average boring human you can see demons a chance can't you? Hard to say but it's free!

Demon [Free]

As a demon, you belong to one of the five main demonic elements: Fire, Rot, Air, Earth and Water, or the three rarer variants Space/Time, Light and Insects. This gives you powers and a form linked to the chosen element, plus you have the same weaknesses as demons and must possess something linked to your element to live in the human world.

Nephilim [200 CP]

The advantages with far less disadvantages, you are the child of a demon and a human or perhaps from a long line of cultured people in any case you resist much better than normal demons to exorcist techniques, much better than normal humans to demon powers like demon infection linked to rot and could use the powers of your demon parent.

Race Perks :

The different perks linked to a race require that race to buy them, with the exception of Nephilim can buy perks in all three categories.

Human

Ordinary human [100 CP | Free for Human]

You're an ordinary human... But since when is that a bad thing? The supernatural never suspects humans after all, so from now on any attempt to analyze you if you wish will end with "false alarm, it's just a human, nothing strange to report"..

Learn and teach [200 CP | Discounted for Human]

Learning from your predecessors and transferring your own knowledge to the new generation has been humanity's tactic for a long time and you've mastered the art of being a pupil and a teacher, when you learn from someone you quickly understand what they're trying to pass on to you and your teacher will become better at what they do, this phenomenon also works with your pupils when you're a teacher.

Human are funny [400 CP | Discounted for Human]

Humans have never survived alone, whether it's allying themselves with wolves long ago, or countless demons like Mephisto working with exorcists today, the primal human instinct to caress cute things rather than run away from them is strong within you. Not only can you create unlikely alliances where everyone gets something out of it and grows stronger with time, but your ability to fluff things is supernaturally good.

United we stand [600 CP | Discounted for Human]

Strength in numbers, as a certain exorcist professor said, exorcists don't fight alone, and he's absolutely right: when you fight as a team, each of you sees your abilities doubled, and you're able to use some of your team-mates' greater strength and learn it much more quickly than is normally possible.

Demon

Possession [100 CP | Free for Demon]

In this world demons do not have physical bodies and must possess the matter found in the human world. Demons linked to decay possess fungi, bacteria and corpses for example. Of course you can also do this and possess people and other material things.

Vile tempter [200 CP | Discounted for Demon]

What a sinister creature you are Jumper, you know how to wait for the moment when your innocent prey is in need and take advantage of their distress to trick them into a deal that benefits you.

A deal is a deal [400 CP | Discounted for Demon]

Don't you find it annoying that one of your unfortunate victims, I mean customer, doesn't keep his word? Deals are absolute things in many legends and making a pact with a demon shouldn't be a simple arrangement that's easy to break. Your deals, written or oral, as long as both parties agree of their own free will, are absolute and can barter even immaterial things.

Faith [600 CP | Discounted for Demon]

Demons in this world are all creatures originating from Gehena, not just traditional demons, but also kami, spirits and other folk creatures. You are no exception as certain, like deities or yokai faith/belief in you strengthens you the more famous you become and the more worshippers you have the more powerful you become. If you lose them all and become completely forgotten, you lose most of this buff but still retain some of the power you gained.

Nephilim

Dissimulate your fang and tail [100 CP | Free for Nephilim]

You have traits that demonstrate your ancestry. You can choose which ones or hide them until you are using all your powers from this lineage.

Chimera [200 CP | Discounted for Nephilim]

Perhaps you've accumulated a number of alternative shapes? With this you can merge them all together, or even the one of your choice, as many times as you like, as well as choosing the appearance it gives you. Your new forms will have all the powers formerly limited to the old ones.

It runs in the family [400 CP | Discounted for Nephilim]

It looks like you come from a family with good taste, Jumper. You can add two extra demons as parents, giving you two elements in addition to the one you originally had. In the other jumps, you can choose to take two different races instead of just one.

One face of two mirror [600 CP | Discounted for Nephilim]

Material and immaterial, human and demon you are a mix of many opposite things but that doesn't affect you negatively in any way you can take two energies, races or things that shouldn't be compatible and use them to their full potential better than that you will suffer much less from the disadvantages of each and you counter for pure blood when it suits you.

Perks

Origins get their 100cp perks for free and the rest are discounted to 50%.

Talismanic cooking [200 CP | Discounted for Exorcist]

What's more, all those hours of gun training weren't for nothing. You mastered the double handling technique, being able to fire in two places at once with unaltered accuracy, and didn't even really need to see your target, hear it, and smell it or anything else that's enough.

Naberius [400 CP | Discounted for Exorcist]
