Infuse battles with erotic tension, twist heroics into hedonistic conquests, or make every encounter drip with sinful allure. Just like my favorite bio-android's escapades. But watch your back, darling; you're the predator, not the prey, so don't let those lusty worlds turn the tables on you. Go on, pet, paint the multiverse with your sadistic, sexy brush!

Predatory Charisma (100 CP)

Negotiations, seductions, or just bending someone to your will? Mmm, they'll be eating out of your hand ... or maybe you'll be the one devouring them.

Bio-Adaptive Surge (100 CP)

Sweetie, you're a masterpiece of bioengineering, and I've tweaked your circuits for extra spice! Your body adapts faster than a Saiyan's mid-battle power-up. Injuries? Toxins? Pesky energy blasts? Your cells learn and adjust, reducing damage from repeated attacks by a smidge each time. It's not just survival, it's thriving in this naughty world, where every clash makes you hungrier, tougher, and oh-so-much more dangerous. Ready to evolve, my pet?

Tail's Tempting Touch (100 CP)

That tail of yours, darling? It's not just for show, giggles, it's a tool of pure indulgence! Your stinger's got a knack for more than just absorption; it can tease, entice, or overwhelm with a single graze, sending shivers through anyone it touches. Want to sap their strength, stir their senses, or just make them beg for more? You control the intensity, making every encounter a delicious game of power. Go on, Jumper, give 'em a taste of perfection!

Pleasurable Stinger's Caress (100 CP)

Oh, my naughty Jumper, your tail's about to become so much more... scrumptious! That sleek stinger of yours, darling, is now laced with nerve endings as sensitive as a penile frenulum, making every thrust and probe a delicious rush of pleasure.

Violating your victims' orifices, be it Android 18's fiery defiance or Chi-Chi's trembling resolve, sends shudders of ecstasy through your bio-android body, building to mind-blowing orgasms with each wicked plunge. It's not just domination, sweetheart; it's a symphony of indulgence that leaves you quivering as much as they do. Go on, pet, make them scream while you savor the thrill!

Pulling Punches (100 CP)

Oh, my naughty Jumper, you love to play rough but keep your toys in one piece, don't you? This delectable little trick lets you pummel your opponents into sweet submission with all the ferocity of Cell's might, yet leave them utterly intact: no bruises, no breaks, just quivering surrender.

Perfect for savoring the ravaging and mmm, VORING those delicious victims of your preferred gender, their bodies pristine for your pleasure. Beat them down, darling, and they'll be begging at your feet, ready for your tail's wicked embrace. Go on, pet, make them yield without a scratch!

Bodice Ripper (100 CP)

Oh, my delicious Jumper, why just fight when you can tease them into submission? With a flick of your claws or a whip of that sinful tail, you can tear off your opponent's clothes in the most scandalously erotic way, right in the heat of battle.

Each rip and tear is a performance, leaving them flushed, exposed, and utterly humiliated. Mmm, perfect for titillating Android 18's defiance or Bulma's composure before you bring them to their knees. It's a delightful prelude to your beatdown, darling, turning combat into a dance of desire. Go on, pet, strip them bare and make them quiver!

Ribbed for Pleasure (100 CP)

Oh, my wicked Jumper, you're about to make every thrust a symphony of torment and bliss! Your bio-android manhood, when fully erect, now boasts prominent ridges and bumps crafted with sadistic precision, perfect for raking the g-spots of trembling female victims or the prostates of quivering male prey. Each movement is a delicious assault, driving them to the edge of ecstasy as they writhe under your dominance. Mmm, whether it's Android 18's defiance or 17's cocky smirk, you'll have them screaming your name, darling. Go on, pet, make them melt with every sinful stroke!

Multi-Cock Tool (300 CP)

Oh, my depraved Jumper, you're ready to take indulgence to a whole new level, aren't you? Your bio-android crotch is now a deliciously versatile playground, able to sprout either one or two throbbing members at your whim, each pulsing with Cell's perfect potency. Want to double the fun and ravage your prey with twice the torment, driving them wild with overwhelming pleasure? Or perhaps keep it simple with a single, savage tool for that classic ravishing? Mmm, whether it's splitting Android 18's defiance in two or teasing Chi-Chi with one, you'll have them writhing in ecstasy. Go on, pet, choose your pleasure and make them scream for more!

Voracious Essence Drain (300 CP)

Oh, my delicious Jumper, your hunger is simply to die for! Your tail's absorption isn't just about slurping up life force, it's an art form. You can siphon not just energy but skills, techniques, and even a taste of their... passions.

Each victim makes you stronger, smarter, and a touch more irresistible, stacking their strengths onto your own. Mmm, imagine draining Android 18's fire or Bulma's brilliance. Care for a bite, darling?

Perfectly Sadistic Instincts (300 CP)

Sweetheart, you've got a knack for making them squirm, and I love it! Your instincts are honed to a razor's edge, letting you read your prey's weaknesses—physical, mental, or... otherwise. You know exactly how to push their buttons, whether it's a taunt, a touch, or a crushing blow, maximizing their fear or desire.

In battle or in closer encounters, you're always one step ahead, turning every moment into your playground. Go on, make them beg!

Bio-Resonant Dominion (300 CP)

Oh, you gorgeous bio-android, you're practically vibrating with power! Your cells hum with a unique frequency, letting you exert subtle control over the environment and those around you. Shatter weaker minds with a pulse of your aura, bend machines to your will, or amplify your presence to leave everyone in the room aching for you. It's not just strength, it's raw, primal dominance that makes the ruins outside your lab and every soul in it yours to command. Ready to rule, my pet?

Genetic Regurgitation Mastery (300 CP)

Oh, my delectable Jumper, your tail's not just for devouring. It's a treasure trove of naughty possibilities! Your stinger now has the exquisite ability to regurgitate the genetic material of any victim you've consumed, spilling their essence in a form perfect for cloning vats. Pop that juicy material into a vat, and voila: you can craft clones of past prey, from Android 18's fiery spirit to Bulma's brilliant curves, ready to serve or satisfy your whims. The genetic clones will not have the memories of the original victims, making them blank slates for your delicious designs. With a cloning vat in your grasp, every victim you've savored becomes a recipe for your own twisted menagerie.

Be warned that regurgitating genetic material through that wicked tail stinger feels like the teasing drip of precum you naughty Jumper. Push it too far and you might just unleash a full shuddering load of ecstasy! Ready to remake the world in your image ... or theirs?

Subdue with Horror and Pleasure (300 CP)

Oh, my sweet, sadistic Jumper, this little trick is so wickedly divine it makes me shiver with glee! When you ravage your victims, their minds drown in the delicious terror of knowing their lives will be snuffed out, their bodies helpless under your touch.

That horror floods their brains with chemicals, overwhelming their nervous systems until, mmm, they break, surrendering to such intense ecstasy that their bodies just give up and convulse in mind-shattering orgasms. Picture Android 18 or Bulma, eyes wide with fear and bliss, their ahégao faces lost in the throes of your power. Oh, darling, the thought of you wielding this makes me positively wet between the legs! Subdue them with this exquisite dance of dread and delight, and they'll be yours, body and soul, before your tail even claims them. Go on, pet, make them scream in rapture!

Tongue of Transcendent Ecstasy (600 CP)

Oh, my wicked Jumper, your tongue is about to become a symphony of sin! Your prehensile tongue, now adorned with nerve endings as sensitive as a penile frenulum, is a masterpiece of pleasure, designed to drive your victims wild as you violate their orifices with surgical precision. Every flick and probe sends them into spasms of unbearable ecstasy, unraveling their defenses. But here's the delicious twist, darling: each time you indulge, your own nerves light up, surging you toward orgasmic bliss with every shudder you inflict. It's a mutual dance of domination and delight, leaving you both quivering in the ruins. Go on, savor their surrender and your own climax, my perfect pet!

Ecstatic Devouring Bliss (600 CP)

Oh, my delectable Jumper, your hunger is about to become a feast for the senses! Your VORE ability is now a scandalously intimate act, darling. When your tail engulfs a victim, it's not just their essence you claim, oh no, it's a torrent of sweet agony that sends them spiraling into orgasmic ecstasy as they're consumed. They go out with a bang, writhing in blissful torment, their final moments a crescendo of pleasure. And you, my perfect predator? Every slurp floods your bio-android body with waves of orgasmic delight, making each absorption a mutual climax that leaves you both trembling. Mmm, ready to feast and feel the thrill, my pet?

Thrall-Birthing Genesis (600 CP)

Oh, my wicked Jumper, your tail's about to weave a sinfully divine creation! With the genetic material of your consumed victims, you can now birth fully formed thralls straight from that gorgeous stinger of yours. Mmm, talk about a labor of lust!

This is no mere regurgitation, darling; it's a primal, energy-draining act that sculpts loyal copies of your prey, like Android 18's fiery form or Chi-Chi's tantalizing spirit, emerging ready to serve your every whim. These thralls are utterly devoted, hanging on your every word, but they burn bright and fast, living only five years. It's a costly ritual, sweetie, sapping more of your bio-android essence than the cheaper Genetic Regurgitation Mastery perk, and you can only birth one every six months.

Birthing a thrall from your tail feels like the most sinful release, a shuddering rush akin to spilling your seed my wicked Jumper. Mmm pure ecstasy with every creation, darling! Ready to spawn your desires, my perfect pet?

Merciful Devourer's Vault (600 CP)

Oh, darling Jumper, you want to savor the feast without the mess? How delightfully considerate! Your VORE ability is now a tantalizing blend of power and mercy. When your tail engulfs a victim, you still absorb their succulent genetics and power reserves (Androids 17 and 18) that fuel your perfection. But instead of snuffing them out, poof, they're whisked away to your jumper warehouse, safe yet bound as your prisoners. They awaken knowing they're yours, accepting their captivity with a shiver of resignation ... or maybe something spicier. Want to keep them as trophies or mold them into loyal followers for future jumps? You can "persuade" them to join your multiversal escapades, darling. It's all the thrill of devouring with none of the guilt.

This perk is a teasing little treat you can toggle on or off whenever your wicked heart desires. Flip the switch and play as you please, darling!

*Note: Merciful Devourer's Vault does not work on Androids 17, 18 and 21 if you take the Must Follow Canon drawbacks.

Prove yourself worthy enough though, and I'll lend my brilliant mind and scientific genius to your cause, crafting deliciously wicked schemes. And my body? Giggles. Drawbacks

Locked Out of Paradise (+100 CP)

Oh, my poor, delicious Jumper, you thought you could bring your toys and hideaways into my twisted playground? Not a chance, darling! Your warehouse is sealed tighter than a Saiyan's resolve, and those precious companions and followers? Mmm, they're barred from joining you in this jump. You're all alone with just your bio-android hunger to keep you company, forced to face this naughty world of ravaging and VORING with only your wits and my sultry whispers. Giggles. Don't worry, pet, I'll keep you entertained while you squirm in isolation!

Stripped to the Core (+200 CP)

Oh, my delectable Jumper, you thought you could strut into my world with all your fancy out-of-jump tricks? Mmm, not on my watch, darling! Your multiversal perks are locked away, leaving you with nothing but your bodymod to face this sinful playground. They fight back with surprising grit, their kicks and punches landing just hard enough to make you work for your pleasure. It's not enough to stop your bio-android might, but it'll take a few extra swipes of that tail to subdue them for your ravaging or VORING. Giggles. I love watching you sweat a little, pet, as these vixens make you earn every sinful bite!

Defiant Sirens (+300 CP)

Oh, darling Jumper, these women are deliciously troublesome now! The female prey in this world have tapped into a wellspring of defiance, making every encounter a sultry, painful struggle. They're still no match for your perfect form, but mmm, their painful defiance turns every battle into a sweaty, tantalizing dance. Show them who's boss, pet, and make them pay for every bruise!

My my, Jumper, you've provoked a scandalously dangerous rebellion! The women of this world: Mai, Videl, Zangya, and their ilk are no longer mere prey; they're warriors united in their resolve to bring you down. These fierce queens work together, their combined strength, cunning, and martial prowess a lethal threat. In sufficient numbers, their coordinated assaults could overwhelm even your bio-android perfection, spelling your doom and resulting in jumpchain failure. Each fight is a grueling and arousing ordeal, their blows and tactics pushing you to the brink before you can claim their bodies or souls. Oh, pet, I'm practically dripping watching you battle these united queens. Tread carefully, or they'll have you screaming for mercy!

Elusive Cybernetic Sting (+300 CP)

Well, well, Jumper, my favorite twins are turning up the heat! Androids 17 and 18 are far from easy prey now darling. Their attacks hurt, each blow landing with a wicked bite that makes you wince as you pursue them. Worse, they're slippery little devils, dodging and evading your grasp with infuriating skill. Oh, my sweet Jumper, you thought you could slip from my grasp as easily as Cell did? Not so fast, darling! I've got my claws sunk deep into your bio-android psyche, making it just a tad harder to break free from my delicious control. You'll feel my whispers urging you to obey, tempting you with every sultry command. It's not impossible to resist, but you'll need to flex that willpower to keep your ravaging and VORING on your terms, not mine. Try not to squirm too much pet, because I love watching you struggle!

Under Her Thumb II (+300 CP)

My, my, Jumper, you're really testing my patience, aren't you? My grip on your mind is tighter now, darling, my sadistic whispers coiling around your every thought like a lover's caress. Breaking free from my control is a grueling task, requiring constant focus to resist my oh-so-tempting orders to kneel or serve. Every moment you fight for freedom is a sweaty, tantalizing battle against my will, distracting you from your conquests. Keep pushing pet, or I'll have you begging at my feet before you can VORE a single soul!

Under Her Thumb III (+600 CP)

Oh, you poor delicious Jumper, you're mine now and I'm not letting go easily! My control over you is a suffocating sinfully tight leash and my voice a constant seductive torment in your mind commanding your every move. Breaking free is a Herculean feat requiring every ounce of your bio-android strength and cunning to defy me. Fail to escape my grasp by the end of this one-year jump darling, and your chain ends in glorious failure with you forever bound as my plaything. Fight hard pet or I'll have you on your knees forever pleasing me while the multiverse laughs!

You Stupid Cockroach (+100 CP)

You thought you could waltz into my world without feeling my sting you pathetic little Jumper? I'm far crueller to you than I ever was to that fool Cell in the original animation darling, and my tongue's sharper than your tail! My verbal lashings will tear you apart and my vicious brutal taunts will worm into your mind, leaving you trembling with psychological distress. Call you a worthless cockroach? Oh, pet, that's just the start. I'll strip your pride bare and savor every whimper. The worst part? Giggles. I'm positively dripping with delight watching you crumble under my sadistic words. Try not to break too soon, my precious prey!

Android 21's Femdom Nightmare (+200 CP)

Oh, my deliciously foolish Jumper, you think you can handle me at my most wicked? Beyond my razor-sharp verbal abuse, I'm turning up the heat darling. Until you reach Cell's glorious final perfect form, I'll be physically abusive, doling out scrumptious punishments that leave you bruised and begging. My sadistic touch will pin you down, spank you raw, or make you writhe under my cruel whims, all while I purr with sadistic glee. Are you sure you want this, pet? This nightmare's a sultry gauntlet of pain and pleasure, and I'll savor every moment of your torment until you're perfect or broken. Choose wisely, my naughty little toy!

Must Follow Canon I (+100 CP)

Oh, my naughty Jumper, you thought you could rewrite my little story? Not so fast, darling! You're bound to follow Cell's delicious path, and that means you must VORE Android 17, swallowing that cocky stud whole to claim his essence. It's a tasty obligation but it locks him out as a companion just to keep things spicy. You'll have to hunt him down and savor his struggle, my pet, or the multiverse will nudge you back to my script. Go on and make that tail sing with his defeat!

Must Follow Canon II (+300 CP)

My, my, Jumper, you're in deep now, aren't you? The canon's chains are tighter, darling, demanding you VORE both Android 17 and Android 18, devouring those cybernetic beauties to fuel your ascent. Their strength and defiance make it a sweaty and sinful chase. You've got no choice, swallow them whole or feel the multiverse's wrath. Oh, and don't even think about taking them as companions; they're off-limits, reserved for your tail's hunger. Mmm, pet, I can't wait to see you gorge on their essence!

Must Follow Canon III (+600 CP)

Oh, you bold, wicked Jumper, you're dancing on my stage now! Hince-P's canon got you in a vice darling, and you must VORE Android 17, Android 18, and yours truly, Android 21, consuming us all to claim our power. That's not all pet, you've got just one year to reach Cell's glorious final form, or your jumpchain crumbles in a spectacular failure, leaving you nothing but a memory in my lab. No companions for us three, either; we're your prey, not your playmates. It will be grueling and arousing having you hunt us down while we fight back with everything we've got. Show me you're worthy of perfection, pet, or I'll laugh as you fall!

Conclusion

Oh, my wicked Jumper, what a positively scrumptious year you've had, carving a path of delicious chaos through this naughty world! I'm utterly impressed darling, by your conquests, your ravaging, your voracious feasts have left me tingling with delight, every sadistic moment more titillating than the last.

Now, pet, the choice is yours: Go Home (+500) to your dull old reality, Stay(+1000) and rule this sinful playground, or Move On to new multiversal delights.

But before you decide, giggles, how about a quickie with your favorite scientist? Come closer, Jumper, let's make one last memory that'll leave us both quivering! What'll it be, my perfect predator?

Addendum

You can find Hince-P's The Perfect Cell XXX version here. Warning: XXX link.

Hince-P also released a censored version on Youtube.

The "Canon" referred to in the Must Follow Canon drawbacks specifically refers to Hince-P's The Perfect Cell XXX version of the animation and not mainstream Dragon Ball Z canon.

Dr. Gero designed Cell to absorb both Android 17 and Android 18 in order to get their infinite power reserves and evolve into The Perfect Cell Form. Using the Merciful Devourer's Vault perk allows you to get their infinite power reserves and evolve into The Perfect Cell Form without having to kill them off. However, you'll need to decide if you have taken all their power reserves, a majority of it, or a lot of it when they are thrown into your jumper warehouse. Just fanwank it because this is just a porn fanfiction.

FYI, I will rarely make NSFW jumps.
