Backgrounds:

You will get a discount on any Perks and/or items of your background choice, with the -100 CP being Free.

Unknown Samurai

You are new to the Sumo world, perhaps you are an unknown hero from another land or a dastardly evil like Kenko.

Heroic Sumo

You are a great Sumo Slammers warrior widely known for being an honorable protector and the enemy of all evil.

Villainous Shapeshifter

You are a dark wizard, a master of evil known to work alongside Kenko in order to try and conquer the many worlds.

Locations:

You will start within the Sumo world upon the lowest section of this fractured world, this land is often referred to as level 1.

Perks:

Sumo Skills - Free

Visiting this world will permanently enhance your natural fighting abilities; you can run, jump, and strike with 5 times the power of a normal human.

The power of two worlds -400 CP

Any powers that you gain that are normally limited to working within the world that you gained them in, such as video game powers in a digital world, will now function in any other world. This also acts as a Capstone Booster.

Unknown Samurai:

Martial Skills -100 CP

You can utilize martial control in its multiple forms in order to enhance your combat skills. Using "Martial Skills", you instinctively understand how to wield most weapons, including improvised and exotic tools, in order to inflict damage or harm.

The Pause Button -200 CP

By saying or willing the pause button, you can stop time for everything except your mind. While time has stopped, you can figure out your next course of action, but you too are motionless and unable to change the world around you.

Game Over -400 CP

You have a great power of transportation; you can move yourself between dimensions, which includes parallel worlds and digital worlds.

Last Life -600 CP

You will either gain a tattoo or an ornament with three luminous Life Orbs in it; each Life Orb functions as a 1-UP. Upon your death, one of the Life Orbs will go dark, then you will respawn in a safe space near where you died, and for a short period of time, you will become invulnerable. At the start of each Jump or once every ten years, these three Life Orbs will relight themselves.

Boosted:

After using up a Life Orb, it will be possible for you to gain a replacement Life Orb by gaining 10,000 points. This can only happen while an Orb is missing and only up to 3 times per ten years or per Jump, depending on which one is first.

Heroic Sumo:

Sumo-Size -100 CP

You gain the ability to "Sumo-Size" yourself and grow into a larger Sumo body shape, increasing your strength and durability.

Despite this form being overweight, it is capable of running, jumping, and displaying feats of physical strength far above what it would appear to be capable of.

A Warrior's Vision -200 CP

A warrior's eyes should be able to see the difference between an honorable friend and a dishonorable foe.

Through this Perk, you can perceive a warrior's honor; using this sight, you can see the virtues of a target's deeds, the evils of their enemies, the morality of their intentions, and the nobility of their spirit.

Thunderous Shockwaves -400 CP

The path of the sumo slammer is one of combat. Through the act of slamming, you can release a thunderous energy to strike with concussive force, to tear through obstacles, and to knock your opponents away. It can also do damage, both internal and external, to structures and machinery.

A Sumo's Growth -600 CP

A Sumo's duty is never complete.

There are always new roads to walk and new foes to face.

Traveling this path, you can always find ways to improve and new paths of progression.

At least once per Jump you will find a new system of power and strength.

Boosted:

Your power always has new paths of growth, and with this boost once per year, you will gain a Power Coin that can be spent on almost any Perk or System of Power you possess in order to learn new ways to use it.

This can be something along the lines of learning how to use sword intent as a ranged weapon or how to use a shockwave attack in order to produce a fire. If what you have selected is illegible for any reason, you will be refunded the Power Coin.

Villainous Shapeshifter:

Masterful Deception -100 CP

Boosted:

Your shapeshifting capabilities now possess the possibility to mimic more than merely the form of your opponent.
