

Out of Context: Frieza Freeza Day Special

V1.02 By DeverosSphere

How many times must I tell you? There is no "I" in "Freeza"!

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have "Freeza Day, the most explodiest time of the year!" within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to participate and promote the "holiday" event of Freeza Day to the masses of the setting's world.

This "Holiday" was created by Freeza to replace Christmas and the celebrations are known to all planets in the Freeza Empire.

The first Freeza Day is known as the day Freeza blew up Planet Vegeta with each subsequent year Freeza celebrating by receiving gifts from all planets within their empire but those who give Freeza the worst gift or refuse to give any gift at all get to be Planet Vegeta for a day before getting blown up.

You will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In bursting out of a Freeza Day Present during a musical number that explains the event to those who are listening.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten-year-long Jump.

Thanks u/Sin-God for helping me make decisions on the images.

Origin:

What type of holiday celebrator are you and why are you trying to spread the Freeza Day cheer?

Armored

Oh, you're more interested in the events that take place rather than the reason for the season. The combination of action with a Freeza Day setting, such as a hostage situation or a fight against mercenaries while Lord Freeza opens gifts.

Metal

Nowadays people forget the true meaning of Freeza Day but not you!

You know the story of Freeza's birth, the stupid monkeys, the journey of King Cold, his empire, and the special meaning of putting peons in their place.

Gold

It seems you're more interested in the glitz and glamor of the season which features themes of death, Genocide, and the spirit of blowing up planets. Some people focus on the unimportant things like resistance, existential dread, and the magic of not dying this year.

Perks:

Note:

To get a Booster: Perk you will need to purchase the complimentary Perks as an example:

Almost Unique -??? CP

Something Rare Booster: Something Unique

To get the Perk Something Unique, you need to take both the Almost Unique Perk that it follows and the Something Rare Perk that is commented before the boosted Perk.

General Perks:

Deck the Forms - Free

You can now "grow" clothing that is durable as your nails or hair. The clothes can be removed or replaced with newly grown clothing but removing them will be itchy.

A Freeza Story - Free (Cannot be taken with "Holiday Fanatic")

And how better to tell that story but in the language of its people and as you now say "Aloevi vi vivial", which as you know means "Let's get down to business". You can now speak, understand, read, and write in the native language of Lord Freeza's race.

Miracle of Freeza Street - Free (Cannot be taken with "Holiday Fanatic")

It truly is a miracle you can go 40 days and 40 nights without food, water, oxygen, or sleep! Well, you can go indefinitely without them while being exposed to Stellar Radiation but you will still find eating, drinking, breathing, and sleeping more pleasant than going without them.

Form Alone: A Comedy Without Cooler - Free (Cannot be taken with "Holiday Fanatic")

It seems that you wish to take the place of Lord Freeza in this holiday as you gain an Alt-Form similar to Freeza's lowest restricted form. For the duration of this Jump you will be locked into this Alt-Form with your power level being restrained to 0.441666% your normal power level. If your normal power level is less than 2,265 PL this form's power level will be 10 PL otherwise it will rise to match your proportional Power Level. Any training you do while in a power-restraining form will increase your Power Level proportionally. This Alt-Form has a short, lean build with red pupils, a white exoskeleton called a Bio-Suit, a long reptilian tail, three talon-like toes, horns that protrude at the 45-degree angle and colored gem-like plates on your head, torso, ankles, wrists, and shoulders. The exact colour scheme and shade will vary depending on the person.

Form Alone 2: Lost in New Namek -100 CP (Requires “Form Alone: A Comedy Without Cooler”)

You are now able to transform into a more mature version of your First Form and while in this form your power level is restrained to 0.88333r% your normal power level. If your normal power level is less than 2,265 PL this form's power level will be 20 PL otherwise it will rise to match your proportional Power Level. This second form will look similar to your first, except it is noticeably taller, very muscular, and the horns grow longer curving sharply upwards into near right angles.

Form Alone: The Ridley Scott Heist -100 CP (Requires “Form Alone 2: Lost in New Namek”)

You are now able to transform into a less humanoid version of your Second Form and while in this form your power level is restrained to 1.7666% of your normal power level. If your normal power level is less than 2,265 PL this form's power level will be 40 PL otherwise it will rise to match your proportional Power Level. This third form will look similar to your second, however, it has an elongated head with facial features contorting and changing so that your nose melds into your mouth to form a crude beak and additional spikes sprout from your back.

Form Sweet Form Alone -100 CP (Requires “Form Alone: The Ridley Scott Heist”)

You can now transform into your True Form and while in this form your power level is restrained to 2.666r% your normal power level. If your normal power level is less than 2,265 PL this form's power level will be 60 PL otherwise it will rise to match your proportional Power Level. This True Form will look similar to your first in terms of size and bulk but with a smoother Bio-Suit structure. Your version of this form could be completely white except for the coloured plates on the chest, head, shoulders, lower arms, and lower legs or you could have a coloured form with white parts on your joints.

Freeza Day All Over Again Booster: Have yourself a merry little Freeza Day

You are now able to access your Base State which is visibly unchanged from your True Form and allows you to access 50% of your normal power without any discomfort. This form's power level will be 1,132 PL at minimum, otherwise it will rise to match your proportional Power Level.

I Wish It Could Be Freeza Day Everyday - Free (Cannot be taken with “Holiday Fanatic”)

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting as a musical number for a holiday of your choice.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 “Out of Context Origin Perks” from other Supplements)

Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

Freeza Wonderland - Free

You now have a natural level of Ki control. This gives you the ability to fire a simple energy blast, transfer Ki to others, and fly through the manipulation of Ki. You also have a rudimentary Ki sense that you can use to sense nearby powerful people.

Almost Freeza Day Booster: Freeza Day Miracle

It seems your gifts with the art of Ki are less mundane than expected. You can now fire a Death Beam, a piercing Ki technique that can be used on single targets or create a huge city-sized explosion upon impact.

You can produce a Death Ball and a Supernova both of which are planet-busting techniques, with the Death Ball being a small ball of energy charged on the finger used purely for planetary destruction whereas the Supernova produces a giant yellow-orange, sun-like energy sphere that can be used as a wide area attack without necessarily destroying a planet.

Also, your rudimentary Ki sense is improved allowing you to get the awareness of anyone around you regardless of any special type of Ki they may use.

Do They Know it's Freeza Day -100 CP

Being a leader is more than simply being in charge, it takes a tactical mind, willpower, charisma, loyalty, and fear. You now have some of the skills required as you can better analyze opponents and events, stay true to your intentions through any humiliation or torture, and better communicate with others. From this you can make others understand how sincere your statements are, allowing them to understand when you are jesting with them, questioning them, rewarding them, or threatening them even when you are saying the same thing to a group of people with different intentions for each member.

What a Durable Life -200 CP

Your durability and neuroplasticity have ascended so that you are to survive horrific injuries so long as enough of your brain is intact. From this any wounds you suffer will quickly heal, sealing off the wound as though cauterized leaving a scar-like tissue that will eventually smooth out.

Though this will eventually heal some wounds such as a hole in the chest it will not regrow severed appendages such as limbs or the lower half of a torso. Each segment of your brain will contain backups of all rudimentary processes and memories meaning that so long as you have approximately 20cm<sup>3</sup> remains it would be a functional and continuous brain, though without any form of life support it would eventually die.

Form Alone 2: Lost in New Namek Booster: It's a Durable Life

When transforming to a higher form you can regenerate some of your missing biomass.

Almost Freeza Day -400 CP

You now know how to excite others and enhance the holiday cheer, Manipulation! Well, emotional enhancement. You are now able to passively emit an aura of excitement that will make those around you become more excited about anything you desire. For some this may only reduce negative feelings they have but for others, they will find themselves overjoyed and excited for what you are using this perk for.

Form Alone: The Ridley Scott Heist Booster: Freezethius

Your Aura can now do more than merely making others happy you can now choose to warp the emotional well-being of others however you like targeting others to be shrouded in an aura of the emotions of your choice making them feel fear, joy, sadness, anger, or disgust as you see fit. Keep in mind that those with strong minds, emotional energy abilities, or mental defenses may be unaffected or be able to resist or disperse the emotional Aura.

Freeza Day All Over Again -600 CP (Requires “Form Sweet Form Alone”)

You can now reach your maximum power which, while mostly the same as your True Form, causes all of your muscle mass to increase greatly making your body become broader and your build become engorged compared to your base form’s sleek frame. While in this form you will have full access to 100% of your capabilities but your stamina will quickly drain. While in this form you have complete access to all of your power of 2,265 PL unless you are stronger in which case it will rise to match your Power Level. With training and practice the drain on your stamina will lessen to the point that you can stay in this form perpetually. The more control you gain the speaker your appearance will become as your muscles compress without any loss in power. With full control you will look identical to your True Form without any stamina issues.

Almost Freeza Day Booster: Seasonal Mutant

Though you don’t have a shiny nose you do have a mutation of your own. While normally this mutation would give you an evil nature and sadistic personality you don’t have that restriction. With this mutation, you can grow in power at an alarming rate over a short time. You will quickly outpace any training you do as your strength and speed grow continuously, requiring you to increase the intensity to match your current strength.

Almost Freeza Day Booster: Ultimate Holiday (Requires “The Last Freeza Hero”, “The Freeza Day Star” and “Shining Freeza Day”)

You can now combine all of your transformations allowing you to become a living liquid metal. While in this form all forms of power you possess are dramatically boosted with them passively growing in power to match your needs. In this form you adapt sometimes retroactively on meta-narrative level to any forms of harm, hazard or damage that could affect you. Mechanically this functions as the ultimate plot armor so that you gain resistance to anything that could destroy, weaken or change you in any way you dont want and should you be “permanently” defeated, disposed of, erased or removed from reality you will be restored as though nothing had happened to you.

Armored Perk Tree:

Lethal Zarbon -100 CP (Free for Armored)

You know how to get others to pump up effectively. With this perk any muscle or physical strength training you coach others on will be ten times as effective.

Freeza All The Way Booster: Lethal Zarbon 2 The moan is back

You can now teach others how to obtain a buff transformation that allows them to look more muscular while increasing their physical strength and durability.

The Freeza Express -200 CP (Discounted for Armored)

Your brain is one of your strongest muscles. Literally as you can now express psychic abilities, primarily psychokinesis with the same level of physical strength as your own body.

HIFL Hard -400 CP (Discounted for Armored)

With this perk, you feel an almost magnetic pull towards any action-oriented event, letting you choose to insert yourself into it in a narratively appropriate way.

Almost Freeza Day Booster: HIFL Hard With a Vengeance

Once per jump or once every ten years, whichever comes first, you will gain a 1-UP that will prevent your death and protect you with plot armor forcing you to escape with it remaining active until you have reached a location where you are safe.

Freeza All The Way -600 CP (Discounted for Armored, Requires "Form Sweet Form Alone")

You can now ascend your True Form into an Armoured Form that increases your power substantially. This transformation is an inversion of the standard transformations which simply suppress the user's true power. Instead, this greatly boosts the physical strength and durability of the user to 7,230% of your Base form while also enhancing your ki reserves to 150%. When taking on this form you become noticeably taller in addition to being far more muscular, your Bio-Suit gains shoulder bows, a helmet or crown-like armor around your head, back spikes, a facemask that hides your facial features, and potentially other features such as a stinger on your tail or additional spikes. Your minimum power level in this form would be 163,759 PL.

Freeza Day All Over Again Booster: The 6th Freeza Day

You can now transform even further from your Armoured Form into a Titan Form which increases your power even further. This transformation massively boosts the physical strength and durability of the user to 38,462% while also enhancing their ki reserves to 1,800%. When taking on this form you become even larger than your armored form with your cranium extending immensely and you gain a second set of arms that you can utilize in combat. You may also gain additional features such as multiple sets of horns, your claws becoming longer, your tail tip becoming very sharp, and additional exoskeleton plates. Your minimum power level in this form would be 871,164 PL

The Freeza Express Booster: The Last Freeza Hero

Why stick to just physical strength when you can also enhance your mental powers? You can now activate a reinforced transformation that you can stack on any other form, when activating this transformation your appearance changes, your exoskeleton takes on a darker colour, your gem plates take on a black tone and numerous horns appear on your head and shoulders. When transforming into this form your power level rises to 500% of your previous form, you are also able to create a mental connection with your opponent or opponents to read their surface thoughts, put them into a mental simulation without their knowing and your psychokinetic prowess can exert ten times your current physical strength. If used on top of your 100% form your minimum power level in this form would be 11,325 PL, if used with your Armoured Form your minimum power level would be 818,795 PL and if used with your Titan Form your minimum power level would be 4,355,820 PL

Metal Perk Tree:

The Freeza Day Candle -100 CP (Free for Metal)

You are not only a brilliant scientist but an amazing teacher, when you are explaining academic knowledge to others they will better understand and retain the information allowing them to effectively utilize it.

The Heart of Freeza Day Booster: Burning Cold at Both Ends

You can now infect others with your nanites, which will have the nanites processed to restore the target's health and well-being. During the period of time the nanites are active they will replace any damaged or missing body parts with technological equivalents that their body won't reject. These technological body parts can be replaced over time by the target's natural regenerative capabilities as they replace the added tissue with their natural equivalent.

Journey to Namek -200 CP (Discounted for Metal)

Whenever there is an event or object of interest that is about to become directly or indirectly relevant to you a sign of some kind will arise and catch your interest, such as a star leading to a stable or insubordinate monkeys talking about wishing orbs. When one of these events takes place you will always recognize the sign but not necessarily what the goal is you're looking for.

Freeza Day Eve Vigil -400 CP (Discounted for Metal)

You can grant yourself and others a short-term power up which multiplies power levels by burning through lifeforce. This power-up multiplies the user's strength, durability, speed, and ki but at the cost of rapidly aging them. While it is active their aura will take on a lilac and white colour but the higher the multiplier used the faster the target will age.

Almost Freeza Day Booster: Freeza Day Grace

You can now grant yourself and others an altered variant of this power-up with a lilac and black aura that painlessly burns through the body in exchange for power. While this power-up is active the user will be able to select what aspect of themselves they wish to empower and where to focus the burn, with the body parts literally burning to ash as they gain the power boost. The higher the power multiplier and the wider the scope of the power up the faster it burns.

The Heart of Freeza Day -600 CP (Discounted for Metal, Requires "Form Sweet Form Alone")

Your Bio-Suit now has nanite-based technology integrated into it that boosts the power level of each of your forms by 20%. These nanites also enhance your physical durability and energy reserves by 150%. Your cells will produce these nanites naturally and if you lose a proportional amount of your bio-mass the nanites will create a cybernetic equivalent and help your body regrow the biomass with the cybernetics acting as a framework. The nanites can also shield you from most forms of ki-sense and life force sensors.

Freeza Day All Over Again Booster: Sharing Freeza Day

Your nanites are now far more advanced allowing you to integrate, optimize and replicate technology. When gaining this upgrade the power level of each of your forms is increased by an additional 30%, and your physical durability increases by an extra 80%. Whenever you come into physical contact with technology you can spread your nanites to either have them take direct control of the device or break it down for absorption. Any technology or parts that your nanites integrate with are copied as blueprints that your nanites can reform, replicating the device and giving you an intimate knowledge of the technology. When taking control of technology your nanites can utilize any blueprints they possess to upgrade the device making it more advanced or causing new features to form. By default, you will have the blueprints for several energy-enhancing weapons allowing you to manifest an energy cannon that will enhance the power of any energy blast you fire from it, chargeable grenade-like tools that will produce wide area energy explosions and your can produce additional armor blades that can channel Ki to produce energy blades.

Journey to Namek Booster: The Freeza Day Star

It seems you have found your own Star! That is your own Big Gete Star. From this, each of your forms are boosted by 100% with the nanites also enhancing your physical durability and energy reserves by 400%. Your nanites can also be spread out separately from your body as drones that will automatically seek out anything of interest to you and keep you up to date on its progress. Any of your nanites including your drones can be programmed to create full mechanical copies of yourself, facilities, and transportation systems for anything you take interest in. You can instinctively control any of your nanites in several ways including commanding selections of nanites, remotely taking full control of specific nanites, or giving orders that the selected nanites will follow. The nanites within your body also gain an upgrade for their regenerative capabilities allowing them to regrow your bio-mass within seconds of the technological equivalent forming.

Like the search for buried treasure those who follow you will find the real gold was within them all along. Well, at least it is now, with this perk you can help others unlock a golden form that will enhance the power of their energy without necessarily increasing their reserves. When transformed they will gain some form of golden colouring depending on their species whether this is golden hair, golden skin, golden plating, golden markings, or just a golden aura.

All I Want for Freeza Day -200 CP (Discounted for Gold)

If this is too much for you, you can instead target a potential present with who you have in mind and see how they would react to getting it. You can utilize your energy to boost your Ki power immensely allowing you to transform into a golden form that boosts the power of your Ki usage including Energy Enhancements and Energy Projectiles by 200,000% of your current form. However, the overwhelming power gained from this form comes at a great cost, the form is very taxing on the user's stamina which causes their power to drop the longer they are in the form, resulting in them losing approximately 0.1% of their total power level every second. By default, this form is Golden in colour but when purchasing it you could instead choose another metallic or gemstone colour for the form to take such as silver, opal, or jade.

Freeza Day All Over Again Booster: Black Freeza Day

While in this form each strike you make utilizes as much Ki as it needs to perform the desired result so that if you wish to harm but not kill the strike will have the exact amount of Ki you require but if you want to punch all the way through them your strike will have the exact amount of ki you need. However, unless you have found a way around it you will still be losing stamina in this form and your power level will be dropping faster the more you fight.

All I Want for Freeza Day Booster: Shining Freeza Day

You have found a way to fulfill the wishes and needs of yourself and others through indirect means. Firstly you will no longer suffer the weakness of your Golden or Black Obsidian Forms as this form is now stable and will not leak stamina but your form will become a uniform shining colour. That's not all though as while in this form you can in a way fulfill the desires of others as you can expend a proportional amount of energy to grant the targets heartfelt desires. This form of desire fulfillment is not the true art of miracles and may have unpleasant consequences.
