Free Pick.

You are free to choose where you choose from the available options.

Age and Gender

Freely choose your own age or gender.

Race

This Jump does not have Origins or Background instead you choose a clas/races.

Monster [Free]

You are one of the creatures of this universe, like a tofu or a bellaphone, as long as you don't choose something overpowered, in which case it will cost you a number of CP similar to the race option of the same level. You can choose whatever you want and still have the same kind of power and ability.

Shushu[Free]

You want to be a shushu very well consider the shushu category of the jumpdoc as your Origin (moreover you can pass from the form of an object of your choice to your freed shushu form at will) moreover if you take minor shushu for your form of this jump then you gain 200 CP.

Twelve[Free]

You are one of the inhabitants of the world of the twelve, more or less the humans of this universe although some are cats, robots, dogs, elves... In any case you can get the magic of the class you choose for free and a discount on perk and related items.

Dragon [400 CP]

You are a dragon, with all the advantages that this presents and if you love someone you can create a Dofus although this weakens you momentarily. If you wish you can pay 200 CP instead of 400 in which case you will be an adorable baby dragon!

Demi-Dieu [400 CP]

This makes you a Bastard, a Mongrel... but you'll probably prefer the name demigod! Not only does this act as a booster for all your abilities related to your divine parent, but it also makes you much more powerful than normal and you don't die of old age. In addition, you can choose a magic or an aspect very linked to the deity in question, like poison for Sram, you would be incomparable in this particular area.

Perks

Origins get their 100cp perks for free and the rest are discounted to 50%. Monster, Ouginak or shushu gains a discount in each category (100, 200, 400, and 600). And everyone obtain 500 CP for general perk

Général

Jobs [50 CP]:

There are many professions in the world of the Twelve, from harvesting to manufacturing, from weapons smith to tailor. If you choose one of these trades, you'll have the same skills as someone who has spent decades in this world practicing them. Maybe even several times over.

Baker [100 CP]:

You're a master baker and all the pastries you make are so much better. What's more, you know how to create living bread monsters and other desserts that will obey your commands, as well as reinforce all kinds of pastry and bakery-related items.

Absorbent genie[100 CP]:

You have the same strange abilities as Gonard, gaining properties from what you eat as well as possessing Shapeshifting abilities. Eating kamas or gold strengthens you, but be careful not to eat chocolate, or you'll be as melting as you are delicious!

Shak Shaka [200 CP]:

Just like him, you're a talented builder, especially when you stick to a candy and sweet theme, but that doesn't stop at creating machines. Strangely enough, your talent for sweet treats applies to all fields: you could make absurd things like crescent trees or perfectly functional candy plants without a problem.

Issering the tinkerer [200 CP]:

Like him, you're an expert in the manufacture of techno-magical gadgets of all kinds. You can easily create Tormentators (magic guns capable of channeling the elemental power of those who use them).

Prince or Princess [200 CP]

You're heir to a kingdom or its equivalent in this jump and the next. But it doesn't stop there. Strangely enough, the royalties in this kind of universe are more powerful than their less noble versions, maybe their ancestors were very powerful or all those expensive teachers were useful, but in any case, that makes you a better version of whatever race you are.

Joris [300 CP]:

You're similar to Joris: not only does your state strengthen you as much as it does him, but being the host of a dragon or any other type of situation that has given you this ability means you don't age. If you own a Dofus, then this perk receives a discount.

Belladone [300 CP]:

You have the same powers as this witch, whether it's creating sinister-looking brambles or poisonous berries with the ability to strengthen and temporarily transform into monstrous versions that eat them before the poison potentially gets the better of them. Oh, and you can use the blood of young organisms to rejuvenate your cells.

Guardian of the months [400 CP]:

You're like Jiva or Djaul, you're the guardian of a month (a minor deity) perhaps literally or perhaps a substitute, but that doesn't change the fact that you draw power from the month you're protecting. You could have ice-related power for December, for example.

Feca

Feca class [300 CP | Free for Feca]

You're a Feca, a magician specializing in protection. You have all their magic from the various krosmos media, such as glyphs and barriers, and you also know how to deal with gobballs.

Shapeshifting [200 CP | Discounted for Feca and Dragon]

Just like Otomai, you can transform into a whole host of different creatures, ideal for flying and moving across any terrain.

Resilient [400 CP | Discounted for Feca]

You're incredibly durable, so much so that striking with your bare hands can cause injuries to your attackers, it's as if your skin were similar to dragon scales. What's more, you recover much more quickly and can survive as long as you're given a little care, even with mortal wounds. Although this won't save you from decapitation, at least you don't die easily.

Otomai [600 CP | Discounted for Feca]

You are one of the greatest alchemists in the World of Twelve, and your skills match those of Otomai. Of course you know how to make potions, but that's not all Otomai knows. You also know how to create Ogrist with ogrins and other things.

Osamodas & Foggernaut

Osamodas/Foggernaut class [300 CP | Free for Osamodas & Foggernaut]

Maybe you're an osamodas, a monster trainer able to call up lots of friends, or a foggernaut, a steampunk engineer able to use stasis, for an extra 100 CP you can have both.

Crowmancer or othermancer [200 CP | Discounted for Osamodas & Foggernaut]

You really love crows, don't you? Well, this is just the thing, because with this you'll do more than kill two birds with one stone! In fact, not only are you a master at training these pesky fowl, but you can generate feather swords, change into crows and disperse into clouds of them, which also acts as an amplifier for anything that might be related to these dark feathered creatures (or you can choose another animal as a theme instead, for example a squid.)!

Veteran [400 CP | Discounted for Osamodas & Foggernaut]

Whether it's because you're a veteran adventurer, an expert in the use of advanced technology or thanks to your unique fighting style similar to the beast you grew up around: you are incredibly skilled, absurdly cold-blooded and able to fight several opponents at once. What's more, the more beastly your fighting style is, the less people will be able to predict you and the more they'll panic, which also increases your overall power.

Survival instincts [600 CP | Discounted for Osamodas & Foggernaut]

Kingdoms fall and species disappear, but Sufokians as well as Osamodas and their animal friends always rise again, and you're just like them! When it comes to surviving and thriving in the face of catastrophe, you'll excel: your inventions will be better and ideas will flow, and your instincts will enable you to find ingenious ways of taking advantage of catastrophe.

Enutrof

Enutrof class [300 CP | Free for Enutrof]

If you love treasures and digging them up, you're undoubtedly an enutrof, and as such you have all their usual powers, enough to fill your pockets with lots of them!

Treasure seeker [200 CP | Discounted for Enutrof]

You have a flair for finding riches, whether they be kamas or precious objects to make you rich, as well as knowing the ores and being able to identify each lode around them by their presence. What's more, you'll notice that, strangely enough, you extract three times as many resources as the lodes should contain!

Mechano [400 CP | Discounted for Enutrof]

Like Ruel, you have a knack for building machines that some might call archaic and polluting, but whose durability is unquestionable, no doubt because garage fees are horrendously expensive, so they mustn't break down! Generally speaking, these are drills, but they can also be trains and all sorts of machines running on coal and other fuels that you could mine.

Fusion [600 CP | Discounted for Enutrof]

Although normally working only on phoreurs, you can momentarily merge with anything you like, whether it's your cute pet, one of your companions or something else. In this form you have all the abilities of both, but enhanced synergistically.

Sram & Rogue

Sram/Rogue class [300 CP | Free for Sram & Rogue]

You have the same magic as srams, such as making yourself invisible, laying traps and other ambushes, or that of the Rogue, with their bomb and pistol fire, for an extra 100 CP you can have both.

Friends of the dark side [200 CP | Discounted for Sram & Rogue]

Maybe it's your villainy or your showmanship or simply your personality, but in any case, artifacts harboring dark beings and powers that can corrupt you will always be friendly to you, although they may play a few benign and "amusing" pranks on you. In fact, you'd even be naturally gifted in exploiting their power to lots of potential.

Sram's Shadow [400 CP | Discounted for Sram & Rogue]

You're like a shadow, a master in the art of stealth, but that doesn't stop at making no noise when you move. No, you're able to blend in and be easily forgotten by those around you with little effort, even in combat.

A professional salary [600 CP | Discounted for Sram & Rogue]

When you're good at something, it's a shame to do it for free, isn't it? With this, you'll always be paid double what your mission (not created to abuse the perk) should have earned you. Of course, these concerns 200,000 kamas will become 400,000, but also items and all sorts of rewards. Doesn't worry about the uniqueness of an item, this part of the loot seem to come from nowhere, even though nobody pays attention to it.

Xelor

Xelor class [300 CP | Free for Xelor]

You're a xelor, a magician of time and all the related mechanisms like hourglasses and clocks. You can slow down time, speed it up and, if you have enough power and energy, even stop it.

Time alteration protection [200 CP | Discounted for Xelor]

Time loops are a real hell to keep without causing paradoxes. Well, it looks like that's out of your hands, thanks to this you can change the past without risking any collapse and other problems from time travel shenanigans whether you caused them or not, and you and your friends can't be affected without your consent if someone travels through time.

Clockmaker [400 CP | Discounted for Xelor]

Whether you're like Noximilien, a simple clockmaker before his encounter with the cube, or like Count Harebourg, you're a true genius in the art of creating machines based on clocks, cogs and Xelor technology. What's more, you possess the same cryomancy as Count Harebourg himself.

Time traveler [600 CP | Discounted for Xelor]

Rewinding time itself and surpassing the god Xelor with the power of the eliacube and the wakfu of an entire species Nox would almost have succeeded but he only had twenty miserable minutes... Well, that won't happen to you as long as you have access to enough wakfu/energy you could even rewind your own chain and erase all your crimes! If you do, you'll keep your perk, your items and everything else that goes into your machine, and you'll notice that the world/fate isn't conspiring against you to make you fail this task. What's more, you'll be able to go back in time by a few seconds without any great difficulty or expenditure of energy, once a day.

Ecaflip

Ecaflip/Ouginak class [300 CP | Free for Ecaflip & Ouginak]

Maybe you're an Ecaflip, a feline-themed magician playing with chance, cards and roulettes purr for you! Or maybe you're an Ouginak, a dog-themed barbarian - whichever aspect of Ecaflip you are, you can pay an extra 100 CP to have both.

Cats Have Nine Lives [200 CP | Discounted for Ecaflip]

As the idiom says, it almost seems as if you have nine lives, as you seem to manage to survive many disastrous situations. It must be that the dice are on your side. If you have Demi-God, then nine times per jump you can choose, instead of dying, to be reincarnated in feline form, perhaps as a chacha or an ecaflip, as luck would have it.

It's Time to D-D-D-D DUEL! [400 CP | Discounted for Ecaflip]

Whether it's the tarot of this world or another card game, you'll find that every few minutes six cards are drawn from your deck, activating effects such as a boost, the summoning of a structure or creature and lots of other things based on the card in question. The power of the cards depends on your own personal power and the numbers of cards with an adverse effect for you that you put in, you're an ecaflip after all you're playing with luck. What's more, you're really good at playing cards games, and in the case of tarot, you can predict the future with them.

The Favorite Child [600 CP | Discounted for Ecaflip]

You're always the favorite, which is probably why your hair is so silky, but that's not all. Of course, in each world, you can choose a deity from the decor, and that deity will like you a lot. In this world, this will make Ecaflip like you, giving you extreme luck like Kerubim, which will be preserved after this jump.

Eniripsa

Eniripsa class [300 CP | Free for Eniripsa]

You're an Eniripsa and you excel in the magic of healing but you can also fight. As with each one of the perk of class you have all the magic which is related there which comes from dofus, wakfu, waven or other media of the krosmos

If it's not the right name, it's not the same thing! [200 CP | Discounted for Eniripsa]

Many iop are idiots, but that doesn't mean the rest don't have their own share of idiocy. With a good plan, and despite all the clues blowing your cover, you'll have no trouble trapping your pursuers. A simple change of name on the inn that everything suggests is the right one and your pursuers will drop their guard.

Beautiful butterfly [400 CP | Discounted for Eniripsa]

Aww, you really are too adorable and magnificent Jumper and not only! You are a healer powerful enough to stand beside dragons and demigods. What's more you're always considered worthy, whether it's to use a selection weapon or an artifact like a dofus or something else.

Brumen [600 CP | Discounted for Eniripsa]

You're the greatest herbalist who ever lived, and your knowledge of plants is perfect. What's more, you can create fearsome poisons as well as poultices capable of healing even lost causes. But like Brumen and Black Jack, your lots of potential lies in work that most swear to be unnatural, such as bringing the dead back to life. When you do this kind of work, your intelligence is greatly amplified, and failure can never demoralize you.

An iop needs to know how to use its head [400 CP | Discounted for Iop]

Whatever those who call iops 'iop brain' may say, they're not as stupid as you might think! You've got a great analytical mind for combat, able to use the environment to save you from a bad situation and quickly discover potential weaknesses in your opponents' abilities.

Goultard [600 CP | Discounted for Iop]

You're like Goultard with his immense power, as well as several forms. To do this you can seal part of your power in roles with the personality you choose (yes it can be just you every time, but at least do a little drama!) to be only at a certain percentage 10% 50% 100%, if you die so then you can no longer use that form during ten years but move on to the next form.

Sealing [400 CP | Discounted for Sadida & Masqueraider]

What's more, your expertise in mask creation enables you to create all kinds of magical masks, whether those of the Masqueraider's masks or others.

Spirit of vengeance [600 CP | Discounted for Sadida & Masqueraider]

You're like Maskman, you're absurdly hard to kill, falls of any height will never be fatal for you and you could lose gallons and gallons of blood without it killing you. In addition to even being used as a sacrifice to a dark deity will just make the ritual fail. This effect is even greater if you're trying to avange someone or restore an extinct clan.

This doesn't guarantee victory, but it's still very useful!

Just as the Sacrier goddess does, you can draw power from the suffering of others, although it will take horrible catastrophes like famines or wars to receive a big bonus and perhaps even found a religion around you, but with enough you could well become a deity equal to the other twelve. ShuShu

Want to be a shushu guardian? With this you can create your own, thanks to 200 SP. Plus, iop starts with 300 SP (Shushu point) more and you can converted 1 CP to 1 SP.

Payment + 100 SP

Your shushu is dissident and will only agree to work if you offer him what he wants... And no, this doesn't necessarily mean souls (although you can raise this to +300 SP if you choose souls/death) but more reasonable things like sweets, which according to one very powerful one of them are much better! Or any kind of specific food, or small thing like compliments or destroying something specific, it's up to you.

Level :

The level acts as a booster, reinforcing the overall power and that of the perks purchased in this selection. For example, if you have major shushu and ghoul, the ghouls will have the same level as Ombrage's if you have minor, but will be weaker or stronger if you have Rime.

Minor Shushu 100 SP

They're a minor shushu like Skribble, but don't underestimate them they may be the weakest category, but they can still be useful. It has a small effect depending on the object used as a prison, such as serving as a map or something else

Major Shushu 300 SP

From then on, the shushu you have is not just anyone but a big name like Shadowfang (Ombrage), plus he gets a 100 SP perk for free.

Rime 700 SP:

This equipment doesn't serve as a prison for any shushu, but has a shushu on the same level as Rushu's brother Rasha himself, and is far more powerful than his brother.

Such power allows the weapon to possess great powers, such as cutting through dimensions and sending people through them, and at this price, using it in combat won't break it.

Power:

Tentacle 50 SP:

Your shushu generates tentacles that you can use as additional limbs.

Elément 50 SP:

Like Kerosho, your shushu masters an element: if it's fire, its flames will be almost comparable to those of a dragon, and will be perfectly capable of powering a steam engine or other fuel source.

Mirror 100 SP:

Your shushu can walk through reflections, be they mirrors or other objects, and can also lead you into them. What's more, it can create doubles of the people it touches or distort people's bodies, turning them into their own reflection in a distorting mirror.

Ghoul 100 SP:

Like Shadowfang (Ombrage) your shushu can transform people into a type of monster totally under its control. It can be a ghoul, or any other humanoid monster, they will have a power similar to the ghoul though.

Duplication 100 SP:

Similar to rubilax's ability, it allows your shushu to create stone clones, although much weaker and without any of its powers.

Unlimited growth 100 SP:

Your shushu has the same ability as Rubilax: the more you hit it, the bigger and more powerful it becomes. Although, with time, it returns to its normal state.

Absorption 100 SP:

Just like Rushu, your shushu can absorb what it eats to obtain their power. Be careful not to eat live desserts, they're bad for your health!

Every year, as December draws to a close, you'll have to defeat Jaul so that the world doesn't have to suffer a horrible famine due to an extension of this month... Tot has been there [+200 CP]

If I succeed I'll erase all my mistakes [+200 CP]

Betrayal [+300 CP]

You're like a certain ecaflip everyone you meet will use you and betray you the worst part is you won't remember taking that drawback and sometimes a few good people will actually be your friends but it's impossible to tell which ones. (And no, this doesn't affects your companions, former jumpers).

Cire Momore[+300 CP]

What magnificent gems you have here, Jumper, I wonder, or did you steal it from that scary candle-themed golem by any chance? No, because if you did, he'll be following you all the way to the end of the jump. God slayer [+400 CP]

One of the twelve gods (of your choice) seems to have ignited the flames of your Jumper hatred, and you'll have to slay him (either with your own hands or by participating in a roundabout way). You're free to choose how you want to do it, perhaps like Osamodas, Sadida and Oropo, you could slaughter as many Dozen who worship him as possible to weaken him. Or like Brumen, you could play it smart and attack their domain as bringing peace to the world would greatly weaken Iop.

Eliotrope [+1000 CP]

Have you played with six dofus recently or perhaps someone else made the mistake? One thing's for sure: here you are in a state similar to that race, with thousands of versions of you (weaker than the original, including you, but with the many you that will merge and the years of adventure and preparation, it's not impossible that the last of you will win against your original),

Each time one dies, its memories and energy are transferred to another until only one remains. This last one, whether it's you or someone who now carries your memories, will have to face Jumper (a copy of you from the time you entered this jump), and the winner takes all (note that whoever carries your memories at the very end counts as you in determining whether the chain fails).
