Origins

ALL origins can be taken as a Drop-in, for good or for ill.

Fate's Chosen [Free]

Fate, it seems is a much more active participant than we think, yet some have the unique to entangle themselves in their strands, you are one (perhaps the only one) of the humanoids who have that capacity.

Humanoid Hero [Free]

Much like the 13 Heroes chosen by the king of Hyden, you are a master of combat, one of the humanoid pinnacles of individual power, however, do not forget that the definition of heroes does not adhere universally.

Dark Beast [100 CP]

Rather than one of the humanoid races, you are one of the Dark beasts that roam the lands beyond, whether as kin to one of the Four lords or a unique creature is up to you, make no mistake all beasts can understand speech and are as intelligent as any human. And even the weakest are many times stronger too

Perks

Origins get their 100cp perks for free, and the rest are discounted 50%.

General [Undiscounted]

Ancient Mind [Free]

Fate is a funny thing here, civilization rise and fall, as if someone reset the progress any time they reach a sufficient level, the humanoid races memory as fickle as the wind, not with this, your memory is perfect automatic and retroactive, meaning you remember everything even before gaining this perk, all the way back to your first life first breath.

Songs of Edthea [Free]

For those who wish for an appropriate song at the appropriate time to play to liven their adventures, contain the OST of this world and update with the OST of the future worlds you visit.

To feel the flow of time [100 CP] [Free for Dark beast]

Beasts, especially Beast lord, can sleep for centuries, and are completely ageless being, yet they all feel keenly aware of the passage of time, and now so do you, with a mental flex, you will get the date, the amount of time passes between activity, sleeping time and more, you will never lose track of time ever again.

Fate's chosen

Weaved strength [100 CP]

Some rely on their skills to fell their enemies, other their innate strength, you however have the favor of fate, your attacks always have a small bend in the rivers of fate, having higher chance to critically hit than normal, nothing crazy, but with this you could fight a stronger opponent and more likely to win.

Fateful encounter [200 CP]

Some beings need to explore the world to find companions others like you have the world deliver them to you, need a nursemaid? Well, I'm sure the nearest bandit camp has someone who doesn't mind doing it, provided you help them first.

A call to a King [400 CP]

Let them cry all they want, but a king must prove themselves above the common masses in certain ways, first is charisma, you exude the presence of someone born to lead, second is that you grow faster depending on the need of king, if a people is desperate need of you to become king you could turn years of growth into a few measly months.

Royal Blood [600 CP]

Congratulations, you have royal blood flowing through your vein, what do I mean by that? Well, this blood is a little special, first it makes you automatically qualified in fate's eyes, only the hero can lift the sword? You can, only the Hyden royal family can cast this magic? you can. No man can kill them? You can even as a man, don't ask how. Second is the ability to craft regalia, even without any supernatural resources or techniques, a single drop of your blood upon a weapon you forged is enough for some basic enhancements, adding Arcanacite and you can craft equivalent empty regalia, needing the soul and/or life force of something slain to gain their iconic powers, the more supernatural processes and resources the more powerful the Regalia and the ore evolved are the powers it will absorb.

Fate Breaker [600 CP]

Some are born favored by fate, and some like you are masters of fate, you might be the only one in this world, first fate cannot affect you in any negative way, you can break fate plan as you wish, second, no one can divine you or your actions, as if fate never account for you, thirdly those blessed by fate, find themselves with its blessing or any luck when facing you or acting against your interest, if they wish to triumph, its on their own strength. Paired with True Human or Lord of Dark Beast enhance the power even more and allow you to decide how exactly this luck manifests. This effect stacks.

Humanoid Hero

Grit and Guts [100 CP]

We call them heroes not because they win, but because they refuse to fall, with this you will be infused with the boldness found in heroes willing to put their lives on the line to close the gap they faced against superior opponent, along with the grit to survive and handle the pain of those crazy plans, be it exploiting one immortality to survive asphyxiation and handle all your bones being reconnected.

Sword Master Skill [200 CP]

To lessen the gap between men and dark beasts, weapon masters created techniques, such as the rising dragon that remove all thought but bloodshed to deliver a devastating attack. At their core, these techniques serve to remove the natural limitation of the human body as well as use 100% of your strength efficiently in combat, making them more advantageous against superior innate strength, and now these techniques are yours.

Gift of Magic [400 CP]

Magic is the ability to use arcanacite along with other ingredients and methods to subvert natural phenomena to your will, for those without the talent, arcanacite is but a shining red rock, not for you as your talent stands at the apex itself. There are three major schools, divided into ingredients, insertion and circles/symbols, you are proficient in all. But while normal wizards are limited by a single magic you aren't, sacrificing power for versatility, and as this magic belong to you only, it will respond to none but you, as opposed to other realm where spells are encoded upon reality, meaning the spells available are those you craft, ingredients are made by mixing living or once living ingredient with arcanacite, such as a parasitic pupa that confuse the sense of dark beast, insertion is the resonation between you and a living being, such as a turtle beast with a magnetized shell, giving you the power of polarity, lastly is symbols, drawing runes and channeling arcanacite to channel power into destructive natural form like fireballs.

Immortal Puppet [600 CP]

A curious happening occurred, you died but has been reborn as a living corpse by Dark Ichor, this ichor is for your exclusive use, meaning this blood will obey no master but you, and as long as it courses through your veins, it will repair your body back to its former state and enhancing it, thought it does nothing to pain for now. However, over many years, this blood will be infused with your very cells, turning you into living Dark ichor, meaning you revive so long as a cup of it survives, though it might take time for it to regenerate to its former amount, needing fresh blood to accelerate the process.

True Human [600 CP]

There are heroes, and there are heroes above heroes, you fall under the lateral category, first is a boost in physical power to just below Dark Beast Lord, second is the usage of Runes, also called skills, normal humanoid can only hold Two, but you have infinite slots, in fact you can copy all native skills in this world at a glance since they all originate from the first hero, and you can create more through repeated actions and feats, such as channeling damage into extra strength. You can bestow them if you wish to others, up to two per person, of course only one example of skill can exist at times. Skills exist in the soul, so switching bodies still allow access to them, and you can recall all your skills at a thought.

Dark Beast

Perfect Disguise [100 CP]

Some beasts, especially the servants of Dark Beasts Lords, have the ability to take a humanoid disguise perfectly to the mundane senses, save that they still retain access to their skill, they also can partially dispel it to better use their natural abilities like flight.

Eyes of Truth [200 CP]

The eyes of Beast are beyond the level of normal ones, piercing through disguises and illusions, even the divine level illusion of the lord of the west are incomplete, letting see the outline of the beast hidden behind the illusion, the stronger you are the more your eyes see through lies and deceptions.

Dark Ichor [400 CP]

You have gained the ability to hold and generate Dark ichor, it obeys no master but you, and is very flexible to your will, such as making a prison sphere of the stuff. Its most important function is when it is channeled into a corpse that has yet to rot fully, resurrecting the corpse as an eternal slave incapable of disobeying or attacking you, it enforce feelings of loyalty, let you sense your servant location and situation and allow for telepathic communication, you can channel a fraction of your power through it.

Tapping The Territory [600 CP]

Much like the Dark beast Lords you can claim an uncontested territory, as large as lunar mountains and more depending on your strength, in it your innate strengths and abilities are multiplied manyfold. Additionally, you have clairvoyance over its entirety, and over time, arcanacite will emerged from it, yielding more and higher quality with more bloodshed, and last but not least, your territory cannot be turned against you, manipulating its earth will have the ability fail or explode back, its weather will not turn without permission, and the air is dead to your enemies call, the spirits native to it will remain deaf to pleas and bargains.

Lord of Dark Beast [600 CP]

You have taken the mantle of a Dark Beast lord, giving you the physical prowess beyond any other living being, far above a giant ancient one in its native environment and more a kin to a living calamity along with a bunch of miscellaneous powers such as summoning/creating servant kin, choose the thematic powers of one of the four lords, or become the fifth one, alternatively if you have the True Human perk, take all four:

South: shadow manipulation, seven expanding and lengthening whip-like tails and lightning aura, power howl.

West: illusion and mental manipulation, four giant tornado crating wings, extra fast speed and agility.

East: water manipulation, hive mind parasites body, extreme regeneration, magic termite fast devouring.

North: Fire/lava manipulation, extra tough dragon scales, fire breath and giant draconic form and wings.

While a Regalia can boost the physical parameters, this one has two more abilities, strike vertically and even water is cut, strike horizontally and water move to propel you forward, note that most living creatures are mostly made of water, hint hint. Does not work on Dark beast Lords and its servants and kin. Alternatively gain any other Regalia.

Nevertheless, she can hold herself in combat, having all the perks of the Humanoid perk line save for the ones costing 600 CP, and a discount immortality like Immortal Puppet, save that it cannot evolve any further.
