

Doujinshi High School

Version 2.4

Have you ever noticed that a lot of doujinshi take place in high schools, or the characters in them are teenagers? Wished that high school was just like one of your Japanese animes? Well, now you can make that dream a reality! For this jump, you'll be going to a mundane high school in a real-world location of your choice, and the students and teachers are both hot and willing.

Here, take +1000 Choice Points.

Backgrounds

Transfer Student: You're new to this school (and world). Not really much more to say than that. The Drop-In option.

Popular Crowd: You're in! Maybe you're a jock, or just friends with the right people, but you won't have to worry about popularity, unless you fuck something up.

Loser: You're at the bottom of the totem pole. Maybe you're fat and ugly, maybe you're a huge otaku, maybe you're bad in social situations, or maybe you just pissed off the wrong person. Don't worry, though, I'm sure you'll be getting your revenge soon enough. Did I mention that the girls who are bullying you, and the girlfriends of the guys that do so, are all really hot?

Teacher: Looking to enjoy a forbidden romance? Just don't want to go through puberty again? Well, this option is for you.

Your age is changed to 14 years old (plus ten years for Teacher), and you can choose your gender for free.

General Perks

Perks are discounted for their respective backgrounds, with the 100 CP perks being free.

Hentai Body (Free)

Doujinshi can get a bit extreme, sometimes. Well, with this perk, you won't have to worry about getting internal damage or having something tear when you shove your arm-length cock into someone's holes, or having something equally large shoved into yours. This isn't guro, after all.

Flirt (100 CP)

A lot of the people here are open to a roll in the hay, but it doesn't hurt to have a bit extra. With this perk, you're not only better at seduction, but those you flirt with are more receptive to it.

Skilled at Sex (100 CP)

As the name implies, this perk makes you more skilled at having sex. You know how to play your partner's body like a fiddle, knowing just where to do to ensure that they have a good time.

Cum Cannon (Free/100 CP)

If you're familiar with hentai, you know that the amount of cum can get a bit unrealistic. Well, you're in a hentai world, now, so that's now reality. You can decide how much cum you let out, ranging from "enough to cover someone's entire face" to "enough to fill a bucket," even if you should be running on empty. If you want to retain this after the jump ends, you have to pay 100 CP, but it comes with the added benefits of letting you control when you cum, as well as letting you temporarily apply this perk to a properly-equipped partner.

Mr. Clean (Free/100 CP/200 CP)

Sex can take a lot of prep-work. Showering so you're not all gross and sweaty, using an enema to clean out your rectum, and so on. Well, now you don't need to do that, anymore. Your partner will smell like [insert scent you enjoy], inside and out, and you won't need to worry about having shit smeared all over your dick.

As a bonus, I'll even throw in a complete immunity to STDs. You won't even need to worry about being a carrier. For an extra 100 CP, you're not only immune to them, you actively cure the STDs of those that you sleep with. Any other diseases, as well.

This is free for the duration of the jump, but if you want to retain it, you have to pay 100 CP.

That's My Fetish (Free/100 CP)

You know that thing that you're into that other people find kind of weird or gross? What was it, again? Wearing fursuits or having your partner take a dump on your chest? Well, from now on, people won't find it any more strange than, say, anal sex or deepthroating. It has to be an actual fetish, though, and it has to be consensual. "Let me slay you so I can absorb your power" isn't a fetish, and your enemy won't agree to try it out.

Of course, depending on the factors involved, some fetishes might be harder to convince others to actually participate in. For example, even if you can convince someone that NTR is hot, that doesn't mean that you'll be able to convince them to cheat on their partner, if they're not already the type of person who would do so. Also, you may not get dirty looks for telling people that you're attracted to children, but if you try to molest one, you'll still be going to prison.

This is free for the duration of the jump, but if you want to retain it, you have to pay 100 CP.

What's a "Pregnant?" (Free/100 CP)

Something you no longer need to worry about, that's what! As a matter of fact, you now have complete control over your fertility. Want to ensure that you or your partner gets pregnant? Set it to 100%. Want to avoid it completely? 0%. Want to leave it up to chance? Set it to anything in-between. If you set your fertility to 0%, your partner will treat the sex as if you're using birth control, and will be perfectly fine with cumming inside, even without knowing about the perk. However, if you would have set it higher during sex, whether you're planning to or not, they'll automatically know, and treat it as unprotected sex.

On top of that, you'll never need to worry about periods again, assuming that you had to in the first place.

This is free for the duration of the jump, but if you want to retain it, you have to pay 100 CP.

Designer Baby (100 CP)

When you impregnate a woman, or get impregnated by a man, you can decide which features the child will inherit from you and the other parent. Within reason, of course. If you're both normal humans, the baby couldn't have purple skin and hair made out of tentacles. This includes deciding whether the child will inherit a power that's passed down from parent to child.

As a bonus, if you have sex with a pregnant woman, you can have your DNA overwrite the DNA of the unborn child's original father.

Teacher's Pet (100 CP)

Maybe you didn't do so well in school, the first time. Well, that's okay. This perk will boost your intelligence, retention, study-habits, and concentration enough for you to easily become the top of your class. Of course, by that, I mean the top of your class in a particularly good normal high school, not a high school for extreme geniuses, from some anime. Any teachers you have will also favor you a bit more.

Hentai Body Plus (200 CP)

Remember how I mentioned cocks the size of your arm? Well, those aren't too uncommon around these parts. Neither are tits the size of your head, and with this, you can get both. This perk lets you design a new body for yourself. Within limits. Give yourself a cock the size of your forearm or Mogudan-sized tits, slap a cock onto your female body, or make yourself look like a cute little girl despite being a guy. Unless you want them to, nobody will find the changes you made to be something unnatural, even if it's something that normally can't happen. This perk is for things along the lines of changing the color of your eyes, hair, or skin, changing muscle definition and body fat percentage, changing the size of your sexual features, adding or removing sexual features (max of one male and female genitalia per customer), and things along those lines, not for things like adding extra arms, giving yourself a vagina for a mouth, or something like that. You can alter your body at the start of each jump, and every six months following that. Nobody will notice that you've changed, unless you want them to.

Transfer Student Perks

Easy Adjustment (100 CP)

Transferring to a new school can be hard; new teachers, new students, new school layout, and more. Well, you'll have no problem adjusting to new surroundings. This won't let you breathe on a planet with a poisonous atmosphere, nor will it help you learn a new language, but you'll never get culture shock.

Mysterious Backstory (200 CP)

Having no history can be a bit difficult, in most worlds. Now, people generally won't look into your past, and even those that do generally won't go over more than the surface details, such as looking up where you were born and grew up. Only those that are actively looking for issues will find anything, such as the fact that nobody in your "hometown" or the school that you supposedly went to knows who you are. In addition, people will be more likely to believe what you say about your past, so long as it isn't too unbelievable. Being descended from someone famous is one thing, but being the President's illegitimate child is another.

Everyone's A Little Bisexual (400 CP)

At least, when it comes to you. If someone only likes people of a certain gender, species, skin color, profession, and so on, they're willing to make an exception for you. On top of that, you and your partner won't be discriminated against for these relationships.

Main Character (600 CP)

Powerful and interesting people will go out of their way to include you in their activities. If some strange new club opens up, you'll be one of the first scouted for it. If an elite unit is looking for people to join them, your name will be at the top of the list, as long as you meet their standards. This is only for positive things, though, so don't worry about being targeted by a serial killer looking for their next victim. This can be toggled on and off.

Popular Crowd Perks

Prince (100 CP)

You're attractive and good at socializing. This alone wouldn't let you become a movie star, but you'll have no issues in high school, unless you piss off the wrong person.

Playboy (200 CP)

You like to get around, and people are fine with it. This perk ensures that there will be no hard feelings over breakups, nor any misunderstandings about one-night stands.

Indecency Acceptance (400 CP)

People don't mind indecency as much, when you're involved. Walking around with an erection, groping and/or making out with your significant other in public, making lewd suggestions, wearing revealing clothes, and so on. Things like having someone sit on your lap, as long as they're not clearly uncomfortable with it, or having consensual sex with your partner in an alleyway, or getting a blowjob from them in a bathroom or movie theater, are also covered by this.

Best End (600 CP)

The harem route. None of your partners will mind you sleeping with other men and/or women, nor will anyone else. If you're dating multiple people at once, they will agree to share you, or to ignore one another, if they dislike each other. Over time, they'll grow closer, and may end up in love with each other, as well.

Loser Perks

Spineless Wimp (100 CP)

People underestimate you. Your bullies are going missing? As long as you don't act too obviously or leave any evidence, you'll quickly be dismissed as a suspect.

Creep (200 CP)

When it comes to setting up hidden cameras, drugging food and drinks, breaking into rooms, restraining people without them waking up, and carrying unconscious bodies somewhere without being seen, you have something of a talent. Not only do you always know the best time or place to do so, but people will be less likely to notice it, if they're not already on the lookout.

Mindbreak (400 CP)

Perhaps due to your bullying, you know just how to break down someone's will. You know exactly how to use pleasure, pain, threats, humiliation, and more to irrevocably destroy someone's mind, turning them into a mind-broken cumdump, an eager sex slave, a cock-addicted slut, a loving wife, and other things along those lines.

NTR (600 CP)

In the majority of NTR doujinshi, the main character gets away with their actions without a scratch. Now, you can, too! Your lover's former lover/spouse won't seek vengeance on you for being in a relationship with them. As a matter of fact, neither will their friends or relatives. Depending on their willpower, it may not be safe to let them know about it by inviting them over and letting them see you fuck him/her while having him/her insult them, though. They may also have a problem with learning that you used drugs, rape, and/or mind-control to seduce him/her, as well. Just a word of warning.

Teacher Perks

Actually a Teacher (100 CP)

You know how to teach a class of high school students, and have the knowledge of one subject that might be taught at a mundane high school. On top of that, you'll find that you're easily able to keep the attention of your students.

Math Prof Rock Star (200 CP)

Some people say that power is attractive. When it comes to you, people agree. The more authority over someone you have, the more attractive to them you are. If you're a teacher, your students will have crushes on you, and if you're the ruler of an empire, you could walk up to any one of your citizens, and have them instantly drop their panties.

Great Teacher Jumperzuka (400 CP)

When it comes to teaching, you have one hell of a talent at it. At its base, this perk allows those you teach to learn twice as fast as normal. Show some skin, and that number starts getting higher, up to five times as fast while you're completely naked. Work sex into the lesson, like teaching someone how to use telekinesis by having them fuck someone with a dildo they're controlling? Don't be surprised if they learn in hours what should have taken them weeks. Though, that bonus is only for the one doing the /work/.

In addition, the less clothes you're wearing, the more your students will pay attention to what you're teaching. Wearing tight clothes would be enough to keep the attention of a class full of normal high schoolers for the entire lesson. Wearing nothing but a speedo or bikini would do the same for a class full of second graders with ADHD.

Not-So-Forbidden Relationship (600 CP)

Worried that you'll get into trouble for having sex with your students? Well, now you don't have to be! As long as everyone involved has agreed with it (even if said agreement involved threats or mind control, as long as nobody else finds out about it), nobody will have an issue with the age disparity between you and your partner(/s), nor the connection you have with them. Want to date your MILF mother? Go for it. Lusting after your preteen daughter? Have fun. This also covers flirting. A grown woman would respond no differently to having a nine-year-old Jumper flirting with her than she would to someone her own age. Given that "consent" is required, "baby fuck" is not "awwwright."

General Items

Items are discounted for their respective backgrounds, with the 100 CP items being free.

Condom (Free)

Whenever you need a condom, you have one available. Just reach into your pocket, your wallet, into the glovebox, under the pillow, or behind your partner's ear. Unless there's someone else involved that needs one, you'll only be able to get another one once the current one has been used.

Box o' Sex Toys (100 CP)

Exactly what it says on the tin. A big ol' box of sex toys. When you open it up, you'll always find what you're looking for, though it only contains the basics. Vibrator? Sure. Pair of handcuffs? You got it, bub. Onahole? Easy peasy. Love doll shaped like your favorite animu character? Sorry, you're out of luck. They're self-cleaning, too!

Homework-o-Matic (100 CP)

Failing your classes, because you're too busy fucking to do your homework? No problem! Just open up this box-shaped device, drop your homework in, close the cover, and five minutes later, your homework will be done! Even just a set of instructions and a blank CD will work. However, there is a downside to this. The device can only do your homework to the level that you would have been able to, so if you haven't been paying attention in class or studying, don't expect your homework to get a perfect score.

The inside of this box can expand to fit in homework of any size, the device can also do projects and take-home quizzes/tests/etc, and the work that it does will seem as if you did it, using your syntax, habits, writing style, and so on. This device can also be used for job-related projects.

Transfer Student Items

Old School Uniform (100 CP)

A uniform of your design that you can wear in place of any other uniform, school or otherwise; a bikini will be perfectly acceptable as a replacement for your army uniform. If you're going to or coming from a place where a uniform is required, you're still covered. The effect will be retained if you alter the uniform in some way. If you want, you can instead import a piece of clothing, rather than designing one.

Acceptance Papers (200 CP)

A set of acceptance papers with a blank space where the school name goes. By writing down the name of a school that you wish to go to, you'll automatically be accepted to it. Keep in mind that this may not work on schools with special requirements, such as needing to have super powers, if you don't have any. Gender-specific schools are another story, however, as long as you're willing to crossdress and hide your true gender from the faculty.

For an extra 100 CP, undiscounted, you can gain another set of papers that lets you be accepted as a teacher for a school. Teachers who buy this item get this one by default, and must pay an extra 100 CP to get the papers for being accepted as a student.

Fake ID (400 CP)

Being new to this world, you don't have an actual identity. While the school you're at might not find that odd, you'll likely find it difficult to find a job. Well, this fake ID will fix that. This starts off blank, but when you focus on changing it and state the name you want to use, the name and your current appearance will appear on it, along with any other information it needs. Said ID will be added to any necessary databases, and you can change the name and picture at any time.

Popular Crowd Items

Allowance (100 CP)

A weekly stipend of $100. Don't spend it all in one place! This will follow you to future jumps.

Pussy Wagon (200 CP)

You have your very own sports car. It's a total chick magnet, and doesn't need any maintenance.

Date Book (400 CP)

If you write down the name of someone in this day planner, events will conspire to bring the two of you together on the date selected, as long as it's reasonably plausible. The president of the United States won't fly out to Alaska to meet with you, but a celebrity's car might break down near your house, if they live in the area.

Loser Items

Victim's Day Planner (100 CP)

After writing down your current target's name on the cover of this day planner, it will fill out to give you what they're planning to do at any date and time over the course of the next week.

Sleeping Pills (200 CP)

These sleeping pills instantly disintegrate into any drink that they're put into, and give off no taste.

Blackmail Camera (400 CP)

If you take a picture of someone using this camera, it will produce a set of pictures of something that they wouldn't want getting out. Cheating on a test, stealing from a store, sleeping with someone other than their spouse, and so on. Of course, there's no guarantee that they'll consider being blackmailed into sex preferable to having the pictures get out.

Teacher Items

Class Roster (100 CP)

Unlike a normal class roster, each of your students will have a page dedicated to them in this book. Along with their names, it will list their addresses, all contact information, ranging from phone numbers to IM screen-names, their fetishes, and a full-body picture of them that can be rotated and altered to be naked. In future jumps, this will be altered to show co-workers, fellow students, and so on.

Reliable Car (200 CP)

An average four-door sedan. It's nothing special, but it doesn't need gas and it repairs itself, so you won't have to spend any money on it.

Apartment (400 CP)

You have a good-sized apartment, or maybe a small house, in a nice neighborhood. Not only that, but it doesn't cost very much to keep it. You'll be able to find a similar property whenever you move, and in future jumps.

Companion Options

You can convert your CP into CP for a Companion at a 2:1 ratio. This includes canon companions that you buy, if you want to give them a boost.

Companion Import (Free)

This option lets you import up to eight of your Companions for free. They each receive 400 CP.

New Companion (50 CP Each)

If you find someone that you would like to turn into a Companion, while in the jump, this option will let you bring them with you, if you can convince them to come. This includes people you meet with the A Familiar Ceiling or Symmetrical Docking drawbacks (ie: canon characters from other settings).

Alternatively, you may design a Companion to meet in the jump, with a stipend of 400 CP.

Drawbacks

SFW (+0 CP)

A jump that removes the sexual overtures of this universe, if you want it. For some strange reason. If you use Return on this jump, this drawback can be taken again.

Fuck High School (+0 CP)

Interested in women that are a bit older than you can find in high school? Younger? I don't judge. This drawback lets you change what kind of school you start off in, from preschool to college. If you use Return on this jump, this drawback can be taken again, though you won't be able to take any point-giving drawbacks from this jump.

A Familiar Ceiling (+0 CP; Incompatible with 'Symmetrical Docking' and 'A Very Familiar Ceiling')

Rather than a generic world, you can choose to head to a setting that doesn't currently have a jump, where the main characters spend a significant amount of time at a school, shown or not. By default, this has to take place at a high school, and the setting is sexualized, but you can take this drawback with SFW and/or Fuck High School to change that. If you wish, you can head to a specific fanfic/doujinshi/CG set/etc; NO CROSSOVERS. If you take this drawback, any Companions purchased with New Companion lose all supernatural powers, until post-chain. If you use Return on this jump, this drawback can be taken again, though you won't be able to take any point-giving drawbacks from this jump.

A Very Familiar Ceiling (+0 CP; Incompatible with 'Symmetrical Docking' and 'A Familiar Ceiling')

Actually... isn't this your ceiling? You're back in your home world. Or, at least, an almost-exact copy of it. There are a few small differences, though. For one, you're back in your high school years. Second, everyone is hotter and more open to sex. Seriously. The students at your school? All crazy hot. Their parents? All MILFs and DILFs. The mailman? A total stud. Of course, you can always change this back to the boring old normal world, by taking the SFW drawback, if you want, and/or use Fuck High School to change what grade you're in.

Symmetrical Docking (+0 CP; Incompatible with 'A Familiar Ceiling' and 'A Very Familiar Ceiling')

If you want to make another jump more "exciting," you can combine this jump with that one, as long as the characters in it spend a significant amount of time in school, shown or not. The CP pool for each jump is kept separate, and the backgrounds/ages/etc for the other jump override the ones from this jump. Be default, this has to take place at a high school, and the setting is sexualized, but you can take this drawback with SFW and/or Fuck High School to change that.

The changes made to the setting can't significantly raise or lower the level of power/danger. If you wish, you can head to a specific fanfic/doujinshi/CG set/etc. NO CROSSOVERS.

Graded (+100 CP)

You'll need to maintain a B average or higher, until you graduate. This is a school, after all. Hopefully you'll make sure to take time to study between all of the sex you'll be getting. If you're a teacher, you instead have to make sure your students all have a C average, minimum. Just so you won't get screwed over by a teacher who hates you, or cheat by inflating the grades of your students, all work will receive the grade that it deserves.

They Call Him "Mister Winky" (+100 CP; Restricted to men and futas)

There's really no polite way to put this; your dick is tiny. It looks like it would be more at home on a little kid than an adult, and no amount of shapeshifting perks can fix this. To be more specific, your penis is about 2-3 inches long, and as wide as one of your fingers. Of course, you may still be capable of pleasuring your partner, if you can find someone willing to give you a pity fuck. Still, I hope that you're prepared to be mocked.

Blue-Balled (+100 CP)

Nine times out of ten, something will come up just as you're about to have sex, and you or your partner will have to put it off.

Too Sensitive (+200 CP)

You're a bit of a quick-shot. A five pump chump, if you will. If you're a woman, or prefer men, this instead affects all of your partners.

Repulsive (+200 CP)

In this world, there are plenty of people who are willing to fuck. Unfortunately, you find 90% of them absolutely disgusting, with the remaining 10% being tolerable at best. It may be their appearance, their behavior, or their fetishes, but something about them just turns you off.

Unwanted Attention (+100 CP; Requires Repulsive)

Unfortunately, while you find the people of this world repulsive, the same can't be said about them. For some reason, you're like catnip to the people of this world. You won't need to worry about someone trying to rape you, unless the person in question is a criminal, but prepare to be obnoxiously flirted with for ten years.

100% Accuracy (+200 CP for Men/+300 CP for Women)

Your sperm, has it. Or your partner's sperm. Whatever the case, vaginal sex will result in pregnancy, for you, even if you're using birth control. Non-heterosexual jumpers will find themselves getting drunk and sleeping with someone of the required gender at least once, during this jump. For whatever reason, you or your partner will either be unable or unwilling to abort. I hope you have some money saved up for child-support.

Doormat (+200 CP/+300 CP)

How do I put this, Jumper? You're kind of a pushover. It's easy for people to pressure you into things, and you're unwilling to stand up for yourself. You're much better at resisting things that are harmful or unhealthy, but pretty much anything else is fair game. I suggest you have a Companion or some friends that can protect you from being taken advantage of.

For an extra 100 CP, the types of people that you wouldn't want finding out about this can sense the weakness on you, and are more than happy to take advantage of it.

Twisted Around (+400 CP)

Your sexual preference has been switched. People who like women now like men, people who like men now like women, and people who like everybody now like nobody. Or maybe they like plants or animals. Who knows, maybe you'll end up learning something about yourself, and this drawback will be a blessing in disguise. Or maybe when the jump is over, you'll curl up into a ball, vomiting uncontrollably.

Genderbent (+400 CP)

If it wasn't obvious from the name, you're going to be spending the duration of this jump as the opposite gender. Of course, that alone wouldn't be enough to earn you 400 CP. For some people, it might even be more of a perk than a drawback. As such, in addition to having your gender changed, you'll also be given gender dysphoria, ensuring that this change will be plenty uncomfortable for you.

Hated (+400 CP)

Someone out there really hates you, and they want to make sure that you know about it. Whenever you start a relationship with someone, he or she will be targeted by a fat, ugly, slob with the perks from the Loser tree. Somehow, you'll never see it coming, and it will always be heartbreaking. If you get them imprisoned or kill them, someone else will just come and replace them.

Targeted (+600 CP)

Someone has decided that they want to have you, and they're not willing to take "no" for an answer. Not only do they have an unpleasant appearance and personality, but they have all of the perks from the Loser tree. If you manage to kill them or get them locked up, and someone who looks and acts just like them will take up where they left off. I suggest that you be careful about what you eat and drink, and where you sleep, for the next ten years, because this drawback removes any immunity to drugs and lack of need for sleep that you have. After the jump ends, all effects from Mindbreak will wear off.

The End

Well, I hope you enjoyed your ten years in this universe. I'm sure you already know your options, but here they are:

Stay

I can see why staying in a world like this would be tempting. Time will resume for the universes that you've been to, and I'll take care of things back home.

Go Home

Maybe spending ten years on a mundane world made you a bit homesick? This option will let you go back to your home world, the moment after you started your chain.

Continue

Having finished up here, you can choose a new world to travel to.

Author's Notes

If this winds up on 4chan, it's just some asshole trying to stir up trouble. This is purely for Questionable Questioning and anyone else that wants to make their chains a bit more lewd.

If it wasn't completely clear, the perks in this jump are somewhat fuzzy on the subject of "consent." Getting consent from someone by blackmailing them, threatening them, altering their minds (Permanently. Just long enough to get them to agree isn't good enough.), raping them into compliance, and things of that nature are perfectly fine, as long as nobody finds out that's how you did it.

As an example for "a significant amount of time in school," Bleach, where the characters are mostly high school students, would be fine, as would Love Hina, where the students are all high school students, or trying to get into a university. Naruto, where the characters graduate just after the story begins, would not be fine.

I've tried to make the perks and items mostly asexual, so just assume that if something says that it works on a girl, it'll also work on a guy.

If you're not familiar with it, "baby fuck" and "awwwright" are references to a rather (in)famous guro doujinshi called Mai-Chan's Daily Life, by Uziga Waita. If you're not familiar with it, I wouldn't recommend looking it up.
