

Out of Context: Hulk Supplement

V1.3 By FutureMobile4, Original Template by DeverosSphere

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have The Incredible Hulk or Marvel in its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be a Hulk or “Gamma Mutate” in science terms and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In awakening crashing onto the planet out of a dimensional rift from the Marvel Universe.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long jump. The appearance of your Hulk form can be your choice, ranging from similar to She-Hulk to monstrous like Abomination.

Origin:

There are many types of Gamma Mutates who each draw their powers in different ways including, gamma power, advanced technology, mystical energy and cosmic forces.

Gamma Powered

Like the original Hulk you draw your power from pure gamma energy, enhancing your body far beyond that of normal human limits and allowing you to achieve feats once seemingly impossible to do. In addition, this may grant unique abilities possessed by few beings such as telekinetic powers, enhanced intelligence, and even gamma energy manipulation.

Hulk-Tech

The power of the Hulk augmented with advanced technology, granting you abilities that most Gamma Mutates can't replicate. Be it from nanotechnology, genetic manipulation or cybernetic augmentation your Hulk form is uniquely capable. From creating high tech tools and weaponry to technological absorption and manipulation you possess a veritable arsenal for any situation.

Magically Enhanced

Through mystical means this variation of Hulk is empowered by magical energy. Oftentimes the nature of this magical energy is reflected in the form. Divine energy grants your form a golden and awe-inspiring appearance whereas more malevolent energies give you a nightmarish if not demonic look. Regardless of appearance magic grants you many unique abilities ranging from empathic senses, to possession to even self resurrection.

Cosmic Powered

Channeling the powers of the cosmos your form is suited for survival in the deadly reaches of space. Often appearing with an energy based or metallic form your new form grants you so many wondrous abilities like cosmic awareness, flight, and even immortality.

Perks:

Hulk Form - Free

You can use this Perk in order to instantly transform into any Hulk form you have in any way you choose. As a base you have strength capable of lifting 100 tons, durability to withstand a missile to the face, regeneration to heal from fatal injuries in an hour and speed to match race cars.

Color Coded - Free

Hulks come in many different colors and now you can too. From red to blue to pink to gray and even classic green the choice is yours. You can change colors once a year.

Comic Book Looks - Free

Just like 90% of all the characters in Marvel Comics you are incredible to look at, being a 10/10 with little effort. No matter how blooded, stained, or bruised you get your looks won't be tarnished a bit.

Comic Book Logic - Free

This ensures that there are no secondary consequences when using your powers. You can use your strength on buildings without them collapsing and move at extreme speeds without igniting the air.

Green is Good - Free

This ensures that you won't accidentally mutate someone or poison them with gamma energy when you're releasing massive amounts of it. Can be toggled if that's what you want.

Hulk Origin - Free (Cannot be taken with "Not Drop In")

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting as if you were a Hulk using this Supplement.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 Out of Context Origin Perks)

Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

JUMPER SMASH!!! - 100 CP

You are skilled in the fine art of Smashing, able to unleash incredible destruction to anything in your way be it man, monster, building, and much more. Just by looking at something and/or someone you know where to hit and how hard to hit to cause maximum destruction. Any other abilities you have you'll instinctively learn to use them in devastating ways.

LEAVE JUMPER ALONE!!! - 200 CP

Sometimes you just want to get away from all the smashing, to relax and unwind without someone shooting missiles at you. This perk is designed to make it difficult for people to find you if you don't want to be found. Radar, gamma tracker, satellite surveillance, and more will be less effective when tracking you down and will require greater effort from those searching for you.

Gentle Giant - 300 CP

Despite the fact that people perceive the Hulk as a mindless, destructive monster he's actually quite soft spoken and gentle when treated kindly. Now that applies to you as no matter how terrifying or scary you may seem people will not respond negatively unless you intentionally cause problems.

Gamma Reactor - 400 CP

With this perk you become a walking Gamma Reactor, able to produce massive amounts of gamma energy to strengthen yourself and your abilities. In addition, this protects you from any attempts at draining your energy as it will always replenish faster than it's lost. With the proper technology and perks this energy can be used as a power source. As of now the current amount of gamma energy you generate is equal to the iconic bomb that created the original Hulk. With time and continued usage this amount of energy will grow. Capstone Booster.

WE! ARE! HULK! - 500 CP

You've become bonded to a Venom Symbiote from another dimension, one where it was experimented on with gamma radiation, granting you a whole slew of new abilities at your disposal. In addition to possessing all the abilities of Spider-Man you can now shapeshift and mold your body into various forms, even becoming fluid. You can create weapons out of symbiote matter such as axes, blades, hammers, and more. Your regenerative abilities have been enhanced greatly, to the point that you could survive and recover from being reduced to a puddle on the ground. The gamma infusion has also granted Venom immunity to its natural weakness to fire and sound. In addition, the symbiote enhances your abilities by an order of magnitude, both in human and in hulk form. Your bond is as strong as Carnage and Kletus Cassidy's, ensuring that even if Venom is removed you'll be able to regrow them from your blood alone.

Gamma Reactor Booster: The King in Green

It would seem that you've got something incredible, Jumper. This gamma infused version of Venom comes from a timeline where they defeated and killed Knull, the dark god of the symbiotes, becoming the new King in Black. This grants you a whole slew of new abilities and powers at your disposal. You have control over any and all symbiotes across vast distances, manipulate and control shadows and darkness, generate and control symbiote matter at will, drain the energy from your target to enhance yourself. Your shapeshifting abilities have no limit now, allowing you to mold your body in countless ways. But the best part is that you have the ability to create your own Necrosword, the All-Green, a weapon made of Living Abyss and further empowered by gamma energy. This weapon is the bane of all gods, cutting through them like a scythe through wheat, growing in power with each god slain. And with gamma energy empowering it the blade becomes an apocalyptic weapon, bringing death and destruction to all in your path.

The Incredible Jumper - 600 CP

You are now equal to the original Hulk, possessing all the abilities he had. Along with a massive boost to your physical abilities you also gain the ability to grow stronger the madder you get, ensuring that your power is potentially limitless. You also possess the ability to adapt to any environment ranging from the depths of the sea to the void of space. Your regeneration is boosted as well, to the point you could recover near instantly from having all the flesh burned off your body and every bone shattered. Your mind is just as strong as your body possessing both an indomitable will and a nigh-unbreakable mind, even the strongest telepaths will have trouble entering your mind especially when you fight back.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Hulk Squared

Due to being a walking source of gamma energy your Hulk form has been greatly enhanced. Doubling in size and with power exponentially enhanced you've become a walking natural disaster. With a simple wave of your arm you can unleash a shockwave that sends people and vehicles flying miles away and can obliterate entire mountains with a single, simple blow. What's more you have the ability to grow and manipulate your bones, now as hard as tungsten, to create spikes anywhere on your body that can pierce nearly any material, for both offensive and defensive purposes.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Man and Monster (Requires Titan, Starship Jumper, Immortal Jumper, and Silver Smasher)

While being a Hulk is an amazing thing one downside is that you only have access to these incredible powers while in your Hulk form. This perk changes all that as now you have access to all of the abilities you've purchased here in your normal form, albeit at a reduced state. Your acquired abilities will be at half effectiveness in your normal state. As a result, your Hulk form has all of their abilities enhanced by an order of magnitude. In addition, every Alt-Form you have or will have now has access to their own Hulk form. See Notes for further details.

LEAVE JUMPER ALONE Booster: The Imperceptible Jumper

You can use your gamma energy to make yourself temporarily imperceptible to people. When active people will not notice or be aware of your presence unless you make it obvious. This also prevents you from being recognized by any form of technology ranging from scanners to surveillance equipment and even radars. The amount of time this ability is active depends on the amount of energy used, one day of imperceptibility equating to an entire reserve of gamma energy. With time, practice, and usage this cost can be lessened.

Gentle Giant Booster: Not So Mean and Green

When you really get to know him, the Hulk isn't that bad a guy. And now so are you as you give off an aura of gentleness that makes people treat you kindly and with care. Even when you cause mass destruction as long as it wasn't intentional people are more inclined to forgive you, especially if you were helping them.

Gamma Powered Perk Tree:

Thinks In Math - 100 CP (Free for Gamma Powered)

One unique trait that the Hulk possesses is the ability to “think in math”, subconsciously performing complex calculations to gauge how much strength is necessary to defeat a foe without killing them. And now you possess the same ability as you can now easily control your strength, allowing you to nonlethally deal with threats and prevent accidental destruction.

Gamma Genius - 200 CP (Discounted for Gamma Powered)

Your mind has been greatly enhanced by the gamma energy, increasing your intelligence to levels unheard of. Your intelligence is now equal to the likes of Bruce Banner, able to learn new subjects and fields at a blistering rate. You could build technology decades ahead of anything ever seen with very little effort and time. What’s more, you could through mental exercise and study further improve your intelligence, achieving even greater heights of brilliance.

Emotional Empowerment - 300 CP (Discounted for Gamma Powered)

Your abilities are now enhanced by your emotions. Whenever you feel a certain emotion, (rage, joy, sadness, fear, etc), you’ll feel your power grow at a rapid rate. The more of this emotion you feel the greater the power increases. When that emotion reaches its peak you’ll experience an unbelievable surge of power as your abilities are pushed to their maximum potential. While this is great, just know that if you’re not careful you can be overwhelmed by the emotion and suppressing or no longer feeling this emotion will return you to your base level of power. Can be bought multiple times.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Infinite Emotion

Just like your gamma reactor there’s no limit to the amount of emotion you can feel, as now you can make yourself feel that emotion forever and directly control how much you feel at once. In addition, instead of growing strong the more emotion you feel, you now become stronger the longer you feel that emotion. Best of all you no longer have to worry about becoming overwhelmed by the emotion you’re feeling, allowing you to maintain a calm and focused state no matter what.

Gamma Blast - 400 CP (Discounted for Gamma Powered)

You now have the ability to unleash a blast of pure gamma energy from any part of your body, such as eyes, mouth, hands, feet, etc. The exact effect of this gamma energy is yours to decide. Whether it’s a simple concussive blast, a mutagenic beam, a super-heated ray, or an explosive blast the choice is yours. The current power of this ability is equal to one of Cyclops’ normal beams but can be changed with perks and other abilities.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Gamma Explosion

Due to being a walking gamma reactor you can now build up and release massive amounts of gamma energy from your body in an omni-directional explosion with enough force to wipe out a small city, as a start. You can control how powerful this explosion is and the effects it has on the environment.

Worldbreaker - 500 CP (Discounted for Gamma Powered)

Of all of the many variations of the Hulk it was the Green Scar that was considered the strongest of them all, especially when they became the Worldbreaker. So great is the power of the Worldbreaker that with a single step the Hulk nearly sank the entire Eastern Seaboard. And now this power is yours to command. When you push yourself to your limits and let go of all restraints you'll find your power skyrocketing to world-destroying levels. But be cautious because this power is difficult to control, should you not be careful you risk destroying yourself along with the world.

Gamma Reactor Booster: The Strongest One There Is

As a result of becoming a walking gamma reactor you gain the ability to control and master the power of the Worldbreaker, allowing you to use its power freely without causing massive damage to the world, unless you want to. In addition, you can use the gamma energy you generate to enhance the Worldbreaker form further beyond. With this power you will ensure that all will know that you are the strongest one there is.

Titan - 600 CP (Discounted for Gamma Powered)

Many people have wondered: "What happens when the Hulk hulks out?", this is the answer. You have the ability to transform into an immensely destructive monster, standing several stories tall and wide with the power to destroy continents with ease and destroy planets in minutes. Your body constantly emits gamma energy in the form of lighting and that can be controlled and manipulated at will. You also passively drain energy from your surroundings and can use it to further increase your power.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Gamma Genesis

In your Titan form you can unleash a blast of gamma radiation that spreads across the world, turning every person into a Hulk. These Hulks will vary in size, shape, and power but they all have one thing in common: a strong sense of loyalty, reverence, and obedience to their creator, you. This can only be done once per jump or every ten years.

Gamma Genius Booster: Psychic Green

Your gamma energy has unlocked your brain's psionic potential, allowing you to manipulate objects with nothing but the power of your mind. At the beginning you can only lift your base level of strength but with time and training that will change.

Hulk Tech Perk Tree:

Tech Wiz - 100 CP (Free for Hulk Tech)

With this perk you gain twenty years of experience in any field regarding technology. In addition, with enough time and effort you can learn and replicate any form of technology. The more advanced the tech is, the more time and effort required.

DNA Augmentation - 200 CP (Discounted for Hulk Tech)

You are able to incorporate the DNA of any living creature into your being, gaining any beneficial traits/qualities they possess albeit at one-fourth their full potential. Any superpowers that are tied to one's genetics can also be acquired.

Only One Hulk - 300 CP (Discounted for Hulk Tech)

So many people have used pieces of the Hulk to create their own monstrosities and weapons for war and/or profit. This will ensure that no matter the method any attempts of using your DNA to create clones or offshoots of you will fail. Science, magic, cosmic power, all attempts to use your genetic material will lead to disaster. Even if they managed to get a whole bucket full of your blood to use it would be useless.

Hulkverine - 400 CP (Discounted for Hulk Tech)

Your DNA has been spliced with Wolverine's giving your regenerative abilities a major boost, allowing you to recover from total body destruction in minutes. You also possess a set of retractable claws on your hands. Your senses have been heightened to that of an animal, able to see, smell, hear, and taste at levels above humans. Most importantly, your skeleton has been laced with adamantium rendering them unbreakable. Thanks to advanced nanotechnology you can shift between your human and Hulk form without issues.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Gamma Shift

You are now able to alter your gamma energy's frequency, allowing you to shift your Hulk form into different variations for different situations. A smaller, thinner form for speed and agility, a bulky, armored form for defense or a winged form for flight. Eventually, you'll be able to combine forms and make more of them.

War - 500 CP (Discounted for Hulk Tech)

You have become one of the four horsemen of Apocalypse, the first mutant. Your body has been enhanced by Celestial tech, empowering your abilities by an order of magnitude. In addition, your mind has been rewired for combat and conflict, implanted with the combat knowledge, skills, and experiences of the best fighters, tacticians, and strategists in the Marvel Universe, making you the greatest warrior in existence. As you fight you grow, becoming better, more skilled, more efficient, perfecting and improving your abilities as the fight drags on. The more dangerous the fight is to you the faster this growth will be.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Apocalyptic

In this ultimate form, you become more than a Horseman, you embody the full power of Apocalypse himself, merged with your Hulk form to create a veritable god. With the combined abilities of Apocalypse and Hulk, your strength reaches untold heights, granting you complete molecular control over your body and a near-infinite ability to adapt to any threat. You can increase your size to monstrous proportions, regenerate from even the most catastrophic injuries, and shape-shift at will to create weapons, armor, or enhance your body's capabilities in real-time.

Beyond this, you wield the powers of telekinesis, telepathy, and matter manipulation on a vast scale. You can control and reshape inorganic matter around you, forming weapons or imprisoning enemies. Your telepathic powers allow you to control minds, communicate across distances, and protect yourself from mental attacks. With energy manipulation amplified to cosmic levels, you can absorb energy attacks, convert them into raw power, or unleash them in devastating blasts capable of leveling entire cities.

In this form, you are the apex of evolution, a being who stands at the peak of Hulk power fused with the ancient, destructive might of Apocalypse. The universe itself trembles at the sight of the Apocalyptic Hulk, the ultimate force of destruction.

Starship Jumper - 600 CP (Discounted for Hulk Tech)

Your body has been fitted with incredibly advanced technology, increasing your destructive capabilities by a wide margin. Powerful sensors that can detect energy signatures from across the planet, durable armor made with a tungsten alloy that can self-repair, powerful laser/plasma weapons across your body capable of causing catastrophic damage to a continent, a built in jetpack for supersonic flight and more makes up your new body. If you have the skills you can improve on your tech, making it better than ever.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Super Battleship Jumper

Your cybernetic augmentations are now far more powerful than ever, making you a weapon of mass destruction. Your armor is now composed of adamantium nanomachines, allowing you to shape and mold your armor into a variety of forms. In addition, they can repair any damage and can be used to infect your target. Your weapons have been boosted as well, able to wipe out small planets in seconds along with a jetpack that can reach FTL speeds in space. But your most powerful ability is the power to absorb and incorporate any form of technology into your being. The larger and more advanced this tech is, the longer it takes to absorb.

DNA Augmentation Booster: Perfect Integration

You can now incorporate the DNA of any lifeform into your being with total success, granting you access to one-hundred percent of their abilities with room to grow with training. In addition, you also gain whatever skills they possess, allowing you to use them as well as they do. Most importantly you can combine and merge said DNA together for more powerful effects.

Only One Hulk Booster: The Immutable Hulk

Whether it be through gamma dampeners, magic seals, temporal anomalies, cosmic forces, or reality warping your abilities cannot be weakened, sealed, copied, stolen, or nullified. Any attempts to do so will fail.

Magically Enhanced Perk Tree:

Magically Inclined - 100 CP (Free for Magically Enhanced)

You have some skill regarding magical arts, able to perform minor spells and cantrips at the start. With time and training you could eventually reach the level of Scarlet Witch or Stephen Strange.

Smell A Liar - 200 CP (Discounted for Magically Enhanced)

You have the ability to sense and detect lies and deception from others. This allows you to track and find someone just by the lies they tell, both to others and themselves.

Fear The Monster- 300 CP (Discounted for Magically Enhanced)

You are terror incarnate, your very presence alone causing those who see you to tremble in fear, paralyzed by the existence of you. Even the bravest, most courageous beings in the world second guess themselves when facing you. This can be controlled and turned off should you desire.

The Third Form - 400 CP (Discounted for Magically Enhanced)

Originally gamma energy was thought to only exist as both a particle and a wave. However, it is eventually found to exist in a third state, one that is supernatural in nature. This gives you a unique form of protection against magical forces. Any harmful magic used on you is weakened to half effectiveness while beneficial magic is doubled in power.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Gamma Magic

Due to the combination of being a living gamma reactor plus the supernatural nature of gamma energy you can now cast magic using it. Any spells, weapons, or artifacts that require mana can now be powered by gamma energy. Some major benefits of this is that you can now use them at half the cost for double the power and that you're protected against anything that negatively affects magic. Spells that disrupt magic, artifacts that prevent the usage of magic, and weapons that deal greater damage against magic users now have no effect on you.

The Mighty Hulk - 500 CP

Infused with the ancient power of Asgardian magic, your Hulk form transcends mortal limits to become something even more formidable. This enhancement grants you not only legendary strength, enough to shatter continents, but also the mystic might of Asgard, unlocking powerful new abilities that make you a living weapon of both brute force and arcane prowess.

With Asgardian magic coursing through you, you gain the ability to manipulate an element of your choice (ice, fire, wind, lightning, etc) in battle, unleashing powerful strikes that decimate foes and shatter the earth beneath you. Your already impressive durability is bolstered with mystic resilience, making you immune to most magical attacks and granting you resistance to spells and curses from the realms beyond. In addition, you now have access to the Allspeak, allowing you to communicate with any being, mortal or otherwise, in their own tongue.

But perhaps most impressively, you gain access to the Runes of Asgard enhancing your attacks with destructive runic energy, amplifying each strike with bursts of runic power. In this form, you are more than just the Hulk. You are a colossal, mythic force, a fusion of Asgardian divinity and gamma might, embodying the raw power of Midgard and the unyielding strength of the Nine Realms.

Gamma Reactor Booster: The Worthiest There Is

You have been deemed fit by Asgard itself to wield a weapon of unimaginable power. This Asgardian weapon, crafted with divine precision and enchanted with the same might as Mjolnir, is now yours to wield. It hums with raw energy and ancient power, a symbol of your ascension beyond mortal limits. This weapon is bound only to you, refusing to be lifted or wielded by any who you deem unworthy, and when you call upon it, it flies to your hand from any distance.

With this weapon, your already formidable Hulk form gains even more astonishing abilities, elevating you to a divine status. The weapon further enhances your physical and magical capabilities, allowing you to devastate worlds, withstand such blows and outright ignore all but the most powerful of spells and curses. Each strike of your weapon is infused with Asgardian magic, amplifying its destructive force to shatter mountains and send shockwaves across the world.

Moreover, the weapon enhances your elemental ability, either channeling it through the weapon or wielding it directly, increasing its range and power to a global scale. The weapon also allows you to better wield and channel the Runes of Asgard, allowing you to inscribe powerful runes that can shield you, empower your attacks, or weaken your foes.

The Immortal Jumper - 600 CP (Discounted for Magically Enhanced)

Your strength is such that you could devastate the world with your blows and destroy small planetoids with durability to withstand planet-busting attacks and speed to dodge lasers. Your regeneration has been boosted to the point that you could survive being cut into many pieces and regenerate near instantly. In addition, you are more powerful at night and your senses are able to detect supernatural phenomena. But your most powerful ability is the ability to resurrect yourself through the Green Door, once per jump or every 10 years.

Gamma Reactor Booster: The Jumper Below All

You have become a being similar to the One Below All, a living mass of pure gamma energy. As such physical attacks will have little effect on you, phasing through you at best and dispersing you at worst. The more gamma energy you have the larger and more powerful you get. In addition, you can use your gamma energy to make Hulk-like creatures that are loyal to you. You can shift from energy to flesh at will. Eventually, you'll become strong enough to create your own dimension to rule over.

Smell A Liar Booster: Truth Seeker

Your ability to sense the truth has been bolstered tremendously, to the point that any attempt to deceive, manipulate, or hide the truth from you will fail. Illusions, hallucinogens, mind tricks and more will fail against you, and the harder someone tries to hide the truth from you the easier it'll be to uncover it.

Fear The Monster Boost: Emerald Terror

For a short period of time Hulk became the Lord of Fear, gaining the powers of Nightmare after encountering him and now you have a small fragment of his abilities. You can now invoke fear into the hearts of even the bravest of people, tormenting them with their greatest nightmares. Doing this will allow you to grow stronger by feeding on the fear and terror generated. The more you feed the stronger you get and the stronger you get the wider the range and effect.

Cosmic Powered

Smashtronaut - 100 CP (Free for Cosmic Powered)

If you're going to traverse the endless expanse of space you should have the skills to do so. You are now an accomplished space traveler, equal in skill to the best pilots and navigators.

Red Hulk - 200 CP (Discounted for Cosmic Powered)

Rather than gamma energy your body has been infused with cosmic energy, making you a Red Hulk. As a Red Hulk you can absorb massive amounts of energy to strengthen yourself. You can also release an immense amount of heat from your body, to the point that metal starts to melt and sand turns to glass when near you. Be warned however that too much heat will cause you to explode.

Cosmically Charmed - 300 CP (Discounted for Cosmic Powered)

I'm not exactly certain what it is about you; maybe it's your looks, your voice, your kindness, or something else but cosmic beings tend to see you in a positive light. While they may usually be indifferent to the plight of mortals, for you they will provide wisdom, assistance and even kindness when needed. Only those with dark temperament and mindsets will be resistant to this perk.

Old Power - 400 CP (Discounted for Cosmic Powered)

Created by the Shadow People of Sakarr, the Old Power is an artificial form of the Power Cosmic that allows users to draw on the energy of a planet for a variety of effects. By drawing on the energy of the planet they can increase their strength, speed, durability, healing factor and more at an exponential rate. They can also manipulate the very earth itself in a multitude of ways. Should someone die while wielding this power they can resurrect themselves as living stone.

Gamma Reactor Booster: New Power

Just like Hiro-Kala, Hulk's second son and brother to Skarr, you've managed to combine the Old Power with the Power Cosmic to create something...New. This power grants you a plethora of new abilities such as force fields capable of withstanding Galactus' attacks, energy blasts that can wipe out a planet, precognitive visions, spatial manipulation, technopathy, soul manipulation, mental control and power bestowal. This is what you're capable of now but with time and training your level of power could threaten the universe.

The Marvelous Hulk - 500

The same Kree experiments that gave Carol Danvers her powers have now improved and enhanced you to levels beyond your original limits. You have the abilities of Captain Marvel on a much grander scale thanks to your Hulk powers. Your physical abilities have increased to the point that you can destroy planets with ease, you can withstand the heat of stars and fly at FTL speed through the void of space with no issue. You also gain the ability to absorb various forms of energy like sunlight, radiation, and more. This allows you to channel and unleash this energy out in the form of energy blasts and beams. When you've absorbed enough energy you can enter a powerful form called Binary which elevates your power to that of cosmic beings. Able to manipulate matter and destroy solar systems with ease, withstand attacks that can wipe out a galaxy and travel across the universe in days.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Gamma Binary

Becoming a living gamma reactor has allowed you to maintain your Binary form indefinitely by drawing on the gamma energy you produce. As a result, this boosts your Binary form to levels beyond previous limits. Matter and energy are yours to command on a galactic scale, allowing you to perform mind-blowing feats. Even with the gamma reactor fueling you, you can still drain energy from any source at a rapid pace to further empower yourself. You could drain a star dry in a day if you chose.

Silver Smasher - 600 CP (Discounted for Cosmic Powered)

You have been imbued with a fragment of the Power Cosmic, a source of unlimited cosmic energy, by Galactus which grants you numerous abilities. In addition to greatly boosting your physical abilities the Power Cosmic grants you flight, cosmic awareness, immunity to extreme temperature, radiation, and extreme conditions such as the vacuum of space and black holes. You can utilize the Power Cosmic in a variety of ways such as concussive energy blasts, rearrange matter to transmute objects from one form to another, teleportation, healing, and many more. You have the option to have your form take on a silver, metallic appearance similar to the Silver Surfer if you want.

Gamma Reactor Booster: Blue Hulk

It would seem that you have been chosen for a great purpose as you have been imbued with the Uni-Power, turning you into Captain Universe. In addition to your other abilities gaining a massive boost in power and versatility you also gain access to two powers unique to the Uni-Power. First is the Uni-Vision, a form of cosmic consciousness that allows you to sense things on a subatomic level and across the universe. Second is the ability to manipulate all forms of matter and energy in the universe. Best of all, unlike the original Uni-Power this one will follow you across your jumps and will not abandon you should you use it for malicious purposes. You have the option to have your form take on a blue coloration or an appearance similar to Captain Universe if you want.

Red Hulk Booster: Supernova

Thanks to the Power Cosmic your body can now withstand far more heat than ever before, to the point that you could reach temperatures hotter than the core of the sun with little issue. You can also focus this heat into powerful beams capable of melting nearly anything. Should you successfully absorb and build up enough energy you can release a powerful explosion similar to that of supernovas.

Cosmically Charmed Booster: Celestial Charisma

You seem to have knack at making these incredibly powerful cosmic beings like you. Although usually indifferent to mortal beings you can slowly gain the attention and eventual friendship of beings far beyond you. Rather than treat you as just another mortal in a universe full of them, they truly appreciate you and come to view you as a genuine friend and confidant, providing aid should you need it.

I would like to thank DeverosSphere for creating this template so that I and others can create our own supplements for others to enjoy.

Man and Monster Clarification

Regarding the Man and Monster perk, it is essentially a super capstone I made so you can access the powers and abilities of not only your Hulk form but any non-human alt-form you possess while staying in a human form, albeit at half power. For example, if you had a dragon form that could fly a Mach 1, lift 100 tons, breath 1000 degree celsius flames, and withstand tank shells, then you would be able to do all of that at half that form's full power. And now all your Alt-forms have access to their own Hulk form which greatly amplifies their abilities.
