

Isekai Harem Monogatari v1.02

Complex_Ad_5944

A 16-year-old named Naoki Oikawa is addicted to masturbating. One day, while pleasuring himself as usual, his erotic magazine begins to glow and Naoki suddenly finds himself in a fantastic world. He appears in front of three female adventurers who later present themselves as the swordswoman Filia Shiora, the priestess Tiane Rutheim, and the elf Llusse. They explain to Naoki that the world is in danger of destruction due to the resurrection of the Demon King, and the only way to save it is for him to use his special power— feeding his semen to the three girls so as to increase their strength exponentially. Of course, the young hero agrees to join the party, and his erotic quest begins.

Within the next 10 years you will be in this kind of world, so to start the jump we give you +1000 CP, use them as you like.

Location

By default you will start in Fus Village. Unlike our protagonist, you will not appear in a cave fighting monsters, but the time will be before our protagonist's summoning, so you can meet his party in the village.

Gender and Age

Choose the gender and age you want.

Origin

Hero (Restricted for jumper only)

You will appear in this world, either through a summoning in the royal palace or through some adventurers who will be your companions. You are someone who holds a very important title. You have a duty, and that is to defeat the demon lord and restore peace to the world.

But considering the type of jump it is, your journey will not be the typical traditional hero's journey, so your job may differ from what we know as "fighting" the demon king. By default, your race will be that of a human.

Heroine

You are one of the party companions of the famed hero. As someone of such a position, you are no ordinary person, being the best among your peers. Although you may also have to help the hero with things other than fighting the demon lord.

By default, your background will be that of a commoner or a noble with very little importance, since you achieved your position through your talent, not your connections. You can choose any race that is not demonic or related to it such as vampires, etc.

Demon

You are on the other side, the forces of evil (supposedly). You are either part of the demon lord's army or you are your own boss as an independent force.

As a demon, you can choose any demonic or demon-related race. Keep in mind that it will only affect your appearance, so if you choose to be a vampire, you will not have their abilities just because you have this origin.

Perks

All origins receive their 100 CP perk for free. The rest of the perks of an origin are discounted..

You can turn on/off any Perk at your will or dial their strength.

Undiscounted

Basic Training (Free)

If you're going to jump into it, you should at least have the basic skills to not be embarrassed when having sex with someone. You have decent skills when it comes to fucking someone. You're not the Sex God, but you're so good that people will see these skills as one of your good points.

There is no Such Thing as Harmful Sex (Free)

Let's be honest, if you try to have sex with that girl who has a lava body, things will not go well for your penis.

As long as it comes to sexual relations, nothing can hurt you. It doesn't matter if your bodies are incompatible or if having sex with your partner could negatively affect you (like losing vitality by having relations with a succubus), you will not receive any harm.

Although if you force someone, a punch to get you off will be very harmful and deserved.

Classic Class (Free)

You will gain the basic knowledge of any class you choose, but will be limited to Mage, Cleric, Warrior and Archer. By having the basic knowledge, you will be at the level of a beginner adventurer.

If it is more practical for you, you can incorporate a classic Japanese RPG system, being able to see your stats and skills in a menu window like any classic game of that genre. You will also have a level system that will help you increase your power. You can also see the level and stats of other people.

Virgin? (100 CP)

It is strange that the succubus who boasted of being an expert in everything related to sexuality turns out to be a virgin with no experience.

When you meet a person that you like or that you want to add to your harem, they will turn out to be virgins. And like any good hero, you have the responsibility to teach them how to fuck.

This has its limits, it is likely that a milf who has a daughter in her care turns out to be that girl's stepmother, so she is a virgin. But if she is her biological mother, this effect will not turn her into a virgin out of nowhere. But she will have an almost non-existent sexual history, her only sexual relationship being the one that caused her to conceive her child.

Tachibana Omina Style (100 CP)

Like any good hentai manga, the beauty of its characters is unquestionable. All the women in this manga are attractive, and despite being a medieval era it does not seem to have all the cons that should be present.

This Perk will make that in this jump, as in future jumps and other worlds, the level of beauty increases drastically. To begin with, the increase in the beauty of the people will be noticeable. They will be so beautiful that they will not need makeup to look good, at most a touch-up but more for protocol than to increase their attractiveness. This is so extreme that even people who are considered ugly will be more attractive than any supermodel in our world, being almost impossible to find ugly people (as for your tastes), it is more likely that an average villager will defeat the demon lord. People will have very attractive and erotic bodies like any hentai manga, being common to see women with large breasts and figures like those shown in the works of Tachibana Omina. Even the hands, skin and hair of people who work all day in the fields will look flawless.

Also, people's aging will be more graceful, older people will not be affected by age, on the contrary, like a good wine, they will not lose their beauty, they will only mature having the beauty of a milf or gulf from any hentai manga.

In addition, the world will become cleaner, any type of dirt or bad smell being eliminated. Unlike a medieval era in our world, this will be cleaner, the hygiene of the place being much better than that of our world in the 21st century.

Finally, sexual diseases are non-existent, making any type of casual sex safe. As an extra, biological logic can be twisted if you want, making it possible for a woman to be penetrated by a 20-inch penis without suffering damage.

It should be noted that you are benefited by this Perk, so you will have all the advantages it offers.

Matriarchy (100 CP)

Apparently the world or universe where you are will be dominated by women, with them having positions in power. The best thing is that the higher their rank, the more beautiful they will be. The cliché that the queen and princess of a kingdom are the most beautiful will not be something fictional. The best thing is that many of these will be single, divorced or widowed.

As an additional, if you wish, you can change the demographics of the world or universe where you are as you wish. You can modify it so that the population of women and men is 10 to 1 or even 1000 to 1.

Perverved World (200 CP)

In most of these types of works we can find that sex is the law. Many of the deals between powers are closed after a sexual encounter, it is not considered disgusting to have sex with multiple people, war crimes are simplified mainly into pillage, etc.

This effect makes the world or jump where it is given more importance to sex, being more normalized instead of being seen as something taboo. People will be more open to their desires that the dress code will be totally altered, being the norm to wear provocative clothing or clothing that shows a lot of skin. For some reason, people will have a resistance to cold or fire.

Freezing temperatures, so going naked in the middle of winter will not be something uncomfortable.

As society will be more libertine, casual sex will be more frequent. You will not get into trouble for sleeping with your friend's wife, but there is also the risk that a stranger is fucking your partner.

But this has a price, as it is the most accepted sex, it will also be used for horrible acts. Bullying will be more closely linked to sexual harassment, war crimes will not result in civilian deaths but there will be many abuses, etc.

Reward and Punishment (200 CP)

For some reason, they are going to use the excuse of having sex with you to reward someone for some feat they did or to punish them for some mistake or crime they committed. No matter how meritorious the feat was or the severity of the crime, you will have sex with them to distribute rewards or justice, depending on the situation.

The best thing is that this will only have an effect if the person to whom the fact should be attributed is your preference or you find attractive. So don't worry about having to use the stick and the carrot with everyone.

Good Summoners (200 CP)

Classic isekai shows malevolent summoners, who will see their summons more as weapons than as people. Using them until they die or stop being useful.

This is not your case, jumper. In each jump or world that you are summoned to, your summoners will be more of the benevolent type. They will see you as a hero and treat you as a hero deserves. They will help you in your mission and prioritize your safety, so the missions they assign you will be at your level, and you will have all the resources you need for its success.

In case you manage to complete the given mission, rest assured that you will be rewarded very well.

Domino Effect (400 CP)

It would be great if by turning the leader of a party into your lover, her other companions would fall for your charms.

When you manage to dominate a person who has servants or subordinates under their command, they will fall like their leader before you, generating a domino effect. The higher their position in the organization, group or nation to which they belong, the greater this effect will be. If you manage to dominate the queen of a country, it is certain that all the women of that country are under your feet.

Of course, this includes all the resources they have, so if you manage to dominate them, any material thing they have in their possession will become your property.

This effect also applies to a family, if you make the milf yours, her eldest daughter will fall for you instantly, followed by her younger sister, etc.

Sex is Equivalent to Combat (400 CP)

Many of the conflicts presented in this story are summarized in the fact that the hero has sex with his opponent and he manages to defeat them (makes them have an orgasm). You will have a similar situation.

Any type of conflict or competition in which you find yourself involved, whether it is a fight, a debate, etc. You can use sex as a means to resolve such a situation or define a winner (who pleases his or her partner first).

This can be used for larger scale conflicts or competitions if you feel like it. Instead of starting a war between two nations to claim a strategic resource, it would be better for you as a representative of your country to have relations with the representative of the rival country.

As a side effect, any situation in which you cannot freely select your opponent will have characteristics that you like, both physical and personality.

You can use this Perk at your convenience, so you are free to choose when you want to activate its effect and when not.

Hentai Life (400 CP)

Your life is like that of a Hentai, jumper. No matter where you are, at least three times a day you will have the opportunity to have sexual relations with people of your choice. These people will be beautiful and will be more than grateful to have an encounter with you. Imagine going to an inn to spend the night so that later the beautiful owner of the place wants to have a threesome with you and her daughter.

Keep in mind that these encounters will be more casual than romantic, so don't expect them to fall in love with you. Also don't expect these people to be of any help in the future, they will only be willing to have sex with you, nothing more.

Stupid Enemies (600 CP)

It's a cliché that in every hentai manga the enemies are stupid. It's not a good idea to send an attractive woman to subdue the hero knowing that he is a womanizer who can conquer any woman with his perverted skills. The worst thing is that they keep making the same mistake, no matter how many times they have used the same strategy.

With this perk, all your enemies will have the habit of making stupid mistakes or making bad decisions when they antagonize you. And this will not only be limited to failing or being defeated by you, they will have a significant loss for such a decision. Those talented assassins that the demon king sends to eliminate you, will not only be easily defeated by you, they will also fall in love with you and betray their lord to serve you. Or that powerful weapon that they use to kill you, will not only fail its target, it will be stolen by you or your allies and will be used against your enemies.

And rest assured, these will not be as clever as sending assassins to your loved ones or using dirtier and unethical methods. Their methods will be more direct, so the only target of their evil plans is you. You could say that they are the most honorable and respectable type, if we do not take into account that they want to kill you.

The effect of this perk only works if they are the ones who initiate the attack (i.e. assassination or sabotage attempts). If you go straight to the enemy camp, don't expect this perk to work.

Absolute Hypnosis (600 CP)

The most powerful ability used by most hentai protagonists who go to another world.

You have the power to control people's minds, making them enter a state of hypnosis where they will be at your mercy. This state will be well simulated, so many people will not know that their loved ones are affected, even these same people will not know that they are hypnotized.

You can turn them into loyal servants whose only will is to obey and serve you. You can also implant specific memories or erase the old ones and replace them with new ones, whatever you want. You can even change their personality to your liking, as well as the type of relationship they have with you and with other people.

Hypnosis is permanent, unless you want to deactivate the effect. But if it is applied to someone with a strong willpower or someone who is immune to mind control or has some kind of protection against it, it will be ineffective to control them. Although if you manage to break their will or strip them of what protects them, hypnosis will be effective.

A limitation of this power is that you have to apply hypnosis to the person directly, how you do it is up to you, but you cannot use indirect means such as a hypnotized person being able to affect another person just by looking at them.

You can hypnotize as many people as you want, but this consumes a bit of magical energy, so if you are a person with an average amount of magic, you will be able to hypnotize one or two people per day.

Contract (600 CP)

It is known that when you manage to give an orgasm to a member of the demonic race, they will be linked to a Master-Servant contract to that person. Luckily you have something better.

When you manage to make your partner have an orgasm, a Master-Servant contract will be created (with you being the master), turning that person into your faithful servant.

The benefits of this contract are several, such as the absolute and eternal loyalty that your servant will have towards you. Another benefit is that your servant will be immune to any kind of mind control or corruption, making it impossible for them to be controlled or affected by a third party other than you. Lastly, this effect will not only be useful against demons, but with any race or being with whom you have relations, so as long as you manage to make them have an orgasm, they will serve you.

It is optional if you want them to have any tattoos near their private parts after managing to turn them into your servant.

Hero

A Hero's Body (Free) (Restricted for jumper only)

A hero's body should not be an average one, it should be one that lives up to that title.

Your body is a special one, first, your body is immune to any kind of negative basic status effect, be it poison, aphrodisiacs, etc. As long as they are status effects that affect your body and are not very potent like powerful poisons or the like. Curses and similar natures that affect both the body and spirit are not included, neither are illusions and the like. Second, your body has infinite vitality (in terms of your sexual performance) so you will never run out, no matter if you had an orgy with twenty women all night, your body will hold up and you will only need a short nap to keep going. This includes the amount of semen you can generate, so you will never run out, and there will be no negative effects from producing such a large amount. Third, your body will always be in its best condition, so no matter how many years pass or how long you were without training, your physical condition will be at its best, and your skills will never rust.

A Hero's Mind (Free) (Restricted for jumper only)

The hero's mind must be a strong mind, capable of withstanding the conditions of a new world.

Your mind is special, having several advantages over an average one. First, you are immune to any kind of low-level illusion or charm skills or techniques, so they will need an expert or someone decent to be able to affect your mind. This includes negative status effects such as fear and confusion, as long as they are low-level skills. Another effect is that you are immune to boredom, no matter how many times you do a repetitive task, you will never get mentally tired. This also includes pleasures that will never fail to satisfy you, no matter how many times you have sex with the same girl or the same position, you will never get tired of it or it will stop giving you pleasure, so monotony and boredom is not something you need to worry about. Third, your mind will adapt to any cultural or lifestyle changes you undergo, so being summoned to a different world while naked will not be a problem for you. Fourth, you are less likely to be affected by trauma or bad experiences, being able to survive a chaotic world without falling into madness.

As an extra, you will have the ability to automatically learn the language of the place, both speaking, listening and writing. But this does not apply to lost languages or those with magical or supernatural properties that have several uses, only those that serve as a means of communication.

He's the Hero, So There's no Problem (100 CP)

It would be problematic if the woman you had sex with the other night was married with a child. But luckily, being a hero you don't have to worry about those details.

By your title, no matter who you sleep with, be it a princess promised to the king of the neighboring country or a simple housewife, it will not create any kind of consequence for such an act. As long as there is consensuality, there won't be any kind of problem, after all you are the hero.

Many shameless acts will be tolerated, such as walking around town naked or attending an audience with the queen while having an erection and staring at her tits instead of paying attention to the topic of conversation.

Also, people will be more permissive if you want to have a harem, so there will be no kind of repudiation or legal consequences if you have a harem.

The Hero's Reward (100 CP)

A hero like you deserves a generous reward, no matter how simple the job was, doing it yourself adds a plus to the price.

Any job, quest or equivalent you complete will give you a reward far greater than its original value. Saving a simple village from thugs will be rewarded with a noble title or a small fortune. Saving that beautiful princess who was going incognito and escorting her to the royal palace will be rewarded by engaging her in marriage to you, and she will be very happy about that.

The best thing is that the rewards will not negatively affect you or those who give them to you. That princess you married is the wife you always wanted. That wealth that village gave you came from the loot of those thieves or is it the money of a wealthy noble who offered to make the payment.

A Hero's Duty (100 CP)

Being a hero is not a right, it is a duty that must be taken seriously. You have a mission, and you have to complete it.

This perk will make every world you enter, immediately recognize you as the Hero. But your case will be special because you are an unconventional Hero. Your duty is not to fight against the Demon Lord, your duty is to spread your seed throughout the world. Therefore, the people of the world or universe where you are will accept that you have to have sexual relations to generate offspring. In short, your only duty is to impregnate (or conceive if you are a woman) as many offspring as you can.

This has its limits in itself, to begin with you cannot force anyone, it is your duty and not that of others, so everything must be consensual. The other limitation is that this effect, apart from the one previously mentioned, will not give you another ability. If you have this Perk and the abilities of an average person, chances are your children won't be all that impressive, so you'll be relying on your partner's genetics to make up for that.

Heroic Kidnapping (200 CP)

Being the hero is a complicated thing, your enemies will not only think about killing you, but also kidnapping, torture and deprivation of liberty will be an alternative that they use to torment you. But this is a hentai manga, so we will make some changes.

The first effect of this Perk is that your enemies will not want to kill you, they will choose to kidnap you, so your life will not be in danger for the moment. The second effect is that your captors will be beautiful women or beautiful people of your sexual preference, and the methods they use will mainly be seduction, being a constant to have sex with you so that you lower your guard. The third effect is better, when they have you kidnapped, they will treat you more like a guest than a prisoner, so things like a bad meal or being confined in an unhealthy place is something you do not have to worry about. But being technically a prisoner, you are not allowed to go out or have any freedoms, you will be given comforts and treated like a king, but you will be confined to one place at the end of the day. As a last resort, any kind of means to extract information from you or torture you will be the use of sex. If you like women, your tormentors will make beautiful women perform oral sex on you or practice all the positions of the Kama Sutra.

Anti-NTR Blessing (200 CP)

Having a harem of beautiful women can cause a lot of jealousy. Some will try to bother you to alleviate frustrations, but others will be smarter and try to steal the members of your harem, after all you can't protect so many lovers.

This blessing will make you immune to NTR, in other words, you won't have anyone chasing your harem. Any attempt they make will be useless, and even better, this will have negative consequences. That guy who wants to force himself on the milf of your group, apart from failing in his attempt, will be arrested by some patrolman who was passing by or will be beaten by the members of your harem who went to the aid of their friend.

Sexual Training (200 CP)

Training is a good thing and all, but there may be other, more enjoyable alternatives. When you have sexual relations with your partner, you will be able to learn any skill or technique that he or she possesses. These can be skills that can be learned, as well as skills that only a certain group or race can use. And this not only includes the skill itself, but also its mastery, so you can become an expert swordsman just by having sex.

Depending on the difficulty of learning that skill, more sessions will be necessary to acquire them, and many more to master them perfectly. Learning to use the sword will take you only one encounter, but mastering it perfectly will take you months having sexual relations.

Another factor is the person you are having sexual relations with. Sex with a master swordswoman can be useful, you can learn everything you need since she has reached the top. But with a rookie will be another story, no matter how many times you do it with her, you will not surpass the basic level.

Manga Hentai Protagonist (400 CP)

You are a lucky jumper. Like a protagonist of any hentai, you are a magnet for beautiful women. Regardless of whether they are allies or enemies, on a scale of 1 to 10 they will be considered a 20.

Another advantage is that they will be talented, influential or both. That girl you met at the guild and agreed to join your party turns out to be a prodigy swordswoman, and as a bonus she is the daughter of a duke.

As an added bonus, falling in love with you will take them as much time as heating a glass of water, almost nothing. About two or three days traveling with you will be enough for them to fall madly in love with you. And don't worry about them being jealous, they will allow you to have a harem, as long as you give them a little of your love.

The effect of this Perk also works on your enemies, so it is very likely that that beautiful Demon Lord who wanted to kill you will choose to become another member of your harem, although you will have to make her fall in love with you. And instead of killing you, they will prefer to convince you with more pleasant methods. If they do not succeed, they will only give up the attempt and use the same one next time.

A Hero's Privileges (400 CP)

Being a hero can exempt you from many problems, problems that you yourself caused but that you do not have to take responsibility for given your position.

No matter what you do, or how many people you harm, you will be exempt from all blame or responsibility as long as such action has brought some benefit to your mission as a hero, has caused more good than harm or you were not the mastermind of such an act.

You had sex with the queen who was asleep, you will not have any kind of consequence because it was the princess who told you to do it. You stole a large amount of gold from a bank, by investing it to equip your team to defeat the demon lord, there will be no problem, they will even see the act as a necessary one. During a fight with a demon general half the city was destroyed because you used a technique you should not have, since you defeated one of the pillars of the enemy side there will be no problem, regardless of how many lives were lost and the material damage.

As long as you comply with the above conditions, there will be no legal, monetary, or social consequences for such actions. On the contrary, you will be seen as just another victim of the situation who had no other choice. But try not to be such a scumbag, if you kill half the kingdom (mostly children, old people, and honest people) under the pretext of wanting to train your skills, the effect of this Perk will not help you much. Nor will making up a lie help you out of a bad situation, if you kidnap and abuse noble daughters and lie saying that the demon lord forced you to, the truth will come out quickly.

Heroic Charisma (400 CP)

A hero is a pillar for a society, the embodiment of all the good values and all the positive things that are always taught in a society. And you represent all of that, or so people think.

No matter where you are or what time you are in, everyone who sees you will think that you are the perfect hero. People will trust you completely, believing your word to be more credible than that of their own family or friends. People will admire and respect you, making it easier to get allies and connections. Your presence can raise the morale of an exhausted army, turning them into warriors who fight to the death. Even those enemies you defeat who have at least gray morals, will be willing to join your cause. Your reputation is so impeccable that you must do something horrible and obvious for people to suspect your honesty.

Hero Maker (600 CP)

Being a hero and fighting against the forces of evil is all well and good, but one person alone cannot bring peace and order to a world plunged into chaos. You need allies to fight during and after your stay, when you are not there to help all those people.

You are a special existence, jumper. Being a hero, you are superior to any person of your race, being a hundred times more powerful than an average human. This applies to your physical power, skill, magic, willpower, intelligence, etc. You go beyond the pinnacle of your species, you are a being that represents all the virtues of an entire species. You are a genius in combat, adapting to any situation. You are a prodigy who can learn any skill or magic and in a much shorter time than it would take the average person, you can learn in a week what would take someone a year.

But this is not the only advantage of this Perk. All of the talents mentioned above can be passed on to your children, and not only that, but also all of your perks and powers that are biological or related to increasing stats. For example, if you have the Sharingan, your offspring will have it as well. If you have a perk that increases strength tenfold, your children will also have that effect, although it won't be fiat-back like it is in your case. Things like perks or powers that increase luck or other effects that are more unique are not applicable.

Another effect is that your offspring, until they go out to complete a hero's task, will have a plot-armor that will protect them from any threat, both direct and indirect. This includes anyone related to them, except you, you already have your own means to defend yourself.

Naturally, you will have excellent control over your fertility, as well as being able to choose the gender of your children as well as the species they have (you can distribute how many of each race you want them to have). You can also choose which traits of their parents you want them to inherit, as well as limit how many of your Perks and Powers you want them to have.

You are also compatible with any race, so you can impregnate any partner you have relations with, without suffering any consequences, as well as being able to produce your offspring without facing any negative consequences that reproduction could have.

As a last effect, you are considered a first choice for having children. Many people will want you to impregnate them or bear their children. Princesses will beg you to marry them and impregnate them, the king will beg you to impregnate his wife and other daughters as well, and to marry them as well.

Heroic Cum Power (600 CP)

If you're going to defeat the demon lord, you might as well get your party to train. Relaxing is fine and all, but if you don't get strong, there's no chance you can take on the demon lord and his army. Luckily, this story is adapted into a hentai manga, so there are other alternatives.

You have a powerful ability, so powerful that it is unique. It is the power to make people stronger just by cumming inside them or by having them consume your semen. Your semen is the fundamental element of this power.

To start, when you cum inside a person or they consume your semen, two of the following options can happen. The first is that they will gain a 200% power increase in all their statistics. This is temporary, so the effect will last about five hours. The second option is that they gain a 5% increase in their statistics, but this increase is permanent. This option will also remove any limits that the person has, so their potential will be unlimited. You can freely choose which option to use, but the second option requires that the sex be vaginal or anal (when you have sex with men), so if they give you oral sex only the first option will apply.

Another effect of this ability is that the second option of this skill also benefits you, so cumming inside your partner (vaginal or anal sex to be precise) will give you a 5% increase in your statistics, this increase being permanent. Of course, your potential is unlimited when you purchase this perk, so there are no limits to how powerful you can become.

For the increase in power to occur, sexual relations are necessary. Any alternative that replaces sex will cause the effectiveness of this ability to be lost, sex is absolutely necessary.

If you use this ability, you can control your fertility as you wish.

Heroic Journey (600 CP)

The hero's journey is a journey where the protagonist develops during his trip. He will gain powers, experiences, allies and wisdom.

Your case is similar, when you go out to complete a mission or task, whether it is entrusted or self-imposed, you will have the destiny in your favor.

To begin with, the enemies you face during your travels will always be weaker than you or there will be a high probability of defeating them, so you will not run the risk of facing the demon king at your starting point. This is always that you do not go directly to your enemy, if when entering a jump the first thing you do is go directly to the enemy camp to face the most powerful being in the place, this effect will not protect you.

Another effect is that you will gain many things during your trip, you will become more powerful by having different Power Ups during your fights. You will find treasures and very valuable or useful objects that will help you increase your resources or weapons at your disposal. You will meet key people who will be very useful allies to complete your mission, being loyal to you and your cause. These will be mentors, lovers, members of your party, friends and sponsors, their help will be very valuable to facilitate your task.

Your deeds will be recognized, many people will talk about the great hero you are, as you will inspire many to follow your example and fight for your cause, even without you knowing them. This legacy will be transmitted from generation to generation, your fight and your ideals are not something temporary, they will endure over time and will be deeply rooted in people. If you fight for a better world, rest assured that many will follow your example. If you are an evil being, rest assured that you will be seen more as the demon lord who punishes those who follow the wrong path, as if you were the executioner of evil people.

This Perk is more focused on luck, so it is of that nature.

Heroine

Total Babe (100 CP)

You are the one who accompanies the hero on his journey, so you must have both the skills and the beauty for such a privilege.

You are a beauty that only the most beautiful princess could compete with. You have a perfect body and a beautiful face. If you study a little etiquette you could be mistaken for a princess, and rest assured that members of royalty will be tempted to ask you to marry them.

Wing Woman (100 CP)

There's nothing wrong with sharing, and sometimes it will be beneficial for you. You're the ideal person to help a person get many sexual partners.

You're so good at it that getting a newly initiated hero surrounded by a dozen beautiful ladies is a piece of cake for you. And to be clear, the hero will greatly appreciate this generous act, so he'll be a loyal ally when you need him.

Competent Maid (100 CP)

Many remember those who fought alongside the hero to defeat the Demon Lord, but not many mention the maid who took care of all the support work to make things easier for the hero.

You are a multi-purpose maid, you can perform various tasks such as cooking, cleaning, organizing things, etc. Your skills in these areas are perfect, being able to compete on par with those maids who work in the royal palace.

Lewd Creativity (200 CP)

Having talent is important to learn and perfect one or more skills, but a creative mind can make those skills more versatile, in your case more perverted versatility.

Whatever skill or technique you've learned, you can adapt its use into something more perverted. You can throw a holy attribute ray at that succubus, but wouldn't it be more interesting to imbue the hero penis with a holy element and let him have sex with that succubus, making her reach orgasm with a few thrusts.

You can use this effect in both magical and equivalent skills as well as physical ones. This also applies to scientific knowledge, such as creating a special aphrodisiac with a formula similar to a cold medicine you created.

I Will Protect You (200 CP)

There are many dangers in this world, so having a little protection is a great help.

Anyone with whom you have some type of relationship, be it sentimental, friendship, etc. They will be more than willing to protect you from any danger. Depending on the depth of the relationship, they are capable of risking their lives to save you. So an acquaintance will only help you when you are in day-to-day problems, but someone who loves you will not hesitate twice before receiving a poisoned arrow aimed at you.

Anti-Rape Blessing (200 CP)

In this type of story, it is likely that any female character may suffer abuse from a bandit, monster, corrupt noble, etc. Luckily, this is not your case.

You have a plot armor that protects you from any type of rape attempt. This even protects you from any attempt at torture or any type of humiliation that any captor may do to you.

The next time you are kidnapped, rest assured that your captivity will be less traumatic, being at most a confinement in a room with not so delicious but acceptable food.

Good Genetics (400 CP)

If you're going to have a child of the hero, it's expected that you have genetics that match that character.

In this jump as well as in future jumps, when you enter that new world, you can choose a prestigious or powerful family, race or bloodline and share their genes. For example, if you go to a Dragon Ball jump, you can choose to have the Saiyan genes to give birth to Saiyan children.

To make things clear, this perk alone will not give you the powers or advantages that these races or bloodlines have, it will only make you part of that family or race and give you the genes so that your children inherit those racial or bloodline advantages. Also, the races you choose must be mortal or have physical bodies that can reproduce. As for the bloodlines, they must be common powers, it is not worth choosing exceptions or mutations that are not normal in those families, such as choosing to be part of the Gojo family from Jujutsu Kaisen. Your children will not be like Satoru Gojo, they may inherit the Limitless, but do not expect all of them to have the Six Eyes, as these are a rarity.

Party Leader (400 CP)

Coordinating a team is no easy task, you have to have the charisma and leadership skills to be able to make it work.

You are a great leader, capable of directing your group to perfection. You are able to put together an excellent formation, assigning each member of your team a role where they can bring out their best potential. Your formations will be harmonious, so each action of each member will be coordinated, with no weaknesses that break the formation. And of course, you can analyze any strengths and weaknesses of your group instantly and in detail. Creating the perfect party is easy for you.

As an extra, you are someone very good at handling interpersonal relationships in your group, so you will be the perfect bridge for each member. You also have the minimum but necessary skills for all those complementary jobs, such as negotiation, budget management, etc.

Alchemist (400 CP)

You are a genius at this craft. Your potions are the work of an expert. Your potions last longer than the average; if a potion that increases attack lasts an hour, yours will last for a day.

Your knowledge of recipes is so vast that you can make potions to restore stamina and elixirs that can restore any wound (even injured limbs) without any problem.

But your knowledge is not limited to the preparation of conventional potions, it also applies to potions with more perverted uses. You can create powerful aphrodisiacs that would make even succubi succumb, as well as potions that can lengthen body parts. Your creativity is the only limit to exploiting this ability.

Summon (600 CP)

It would be boring if you were the only one transported to a new world. The more the better.

You have the ability to summon people from the same world or a different one than yours. You can set conditions to bring the person you want, instead of being totally random. But they should not be very specific, like bringing a specific person, these should be more general conditions, like being a woman in her twenties and other things. Because of this, the person in question will be transported to the world without their consent.

The good thing is that this summoning creates a kind of contract so that they cannot do any direct or indirect harm to you. But you will not gain their loyalty, only their limited obedience, since you cannot ask them for absurd things like being your wife or something meaningless.

Their only purpose is to fulfill an important mission such as defeating the demon lord or fighting against an enemy country.

Keep in mind that the person will not gain any cheat abilities, so it will depend on the innate abilities that he or she has. But he or she may be able to use the power system of the world you summon him or her in, so a non-magician could use magic.

You can do a summon once a month.

Talented (600 CP)

Being part of the Hero's Party is something reserved for a select few, these being people of great power and talent who must at least be champions of their country or race.

Depending on the class you have chosen, you will be at the top among those who share that same class. If you are a mage, you do not need to recite chants to use your spells, you will have an affinity to all elements as well as great magical power, being able to destroy a hundred monsters with just one spell. If you are a cleric, you can resurrect people as long as you apply the spell within an hour of their death, you can destroy high level demons with just one attack, as well as purify corrupted areas in a matter of seconds with just one prayer and if this doesn't convince you, you can give temporary blessings to your allies to increase their statistics. If you are a warrior, with just one attack you can cut a dragon in two, your battle senses will allow you to counter any type of attack and your endurance will be such that you can be on the battlefield for days without taking a break.

This will not be limited to your class, you are also the pinnacle of your race, being stronger than the average of your species. If your race is an elf, you will be a high elf or have physical and magical abilities and equivalents that surpass those innate to your species.

A True Queen (600 CP)

Many speak of Heroes and Demon Lords, but no one takes into account the importance of those who rule the world, those kings and queens who with just one command can change the destiny of a country.

You were born to rule, Jumper. Your leadership and government skills are excellent. You are able to lead a country of little importance to become a world power with your creative and accurate policies. Your level of diplomacy is so exceptional that even in a negotiation between countries where you are at a disadvantage, you can manage to control the entire negotiation and achieve a very favorable result. Your cunning is to be feared, being able to anticipate any conspiracy against you or your government, as well as control your subordinates and allies with your political games.

You are a great manipulator of the masses, being able to instill your will in those under your command or the citizens under your government. Your speech is inspiring and you know how to use words well, being so persuasive and convincing that you can implement policies that benefit only you and people will applaud you.

Demon

Merciless (100 CP)

The Demon Lord must be a fearsome being for allies and enemies alike. Showing no mercy at any time.

You have the mentality of a tyrant, being able to massacre an army of a million soldiers without flinching.

Good Guys Don't Kill (100 CP)

These heroes are so naive, being able to let genocidares live just because their supposed moral code does not allow them to kill.

When you face people who have a good moral alignment, they will spare your life when they defeat you and try to get you to join their cause. In case you are a scum who has committed several atrocities, they will simply arrest you and put you in a dungeon.

In case you encounter someone more neutral or an evil being like you, this Perk will have no effect on them.

Succubus' Skill (100 CP)

You are not required to be a succubus or incubus. You have a great talent for seduction, knowing all the basic tricks of courtship and body language. You also have the ability to use a low-level charm, effective for those of weak willpower or mind. This charm is temporary, lasting at most three hours.

Break Them (200 CP)

Defeating the hero and his entourage is not enough if you want to have a true victory. You have to crush him both physically and mentally.

You are an expert in all kinds of physical and mental torture. But given the nature of this jump, your methods are more sexual. Your methods will make both the hero and his harem become your submissive secular slaves, molding them to your liking, both mind and body.

If they have a strong willpower, it will take a little time but it will not be impossible, perhaps it will take you a couple of years to turn the bravest hero into your toy.

Dream Magic (200 CP)

You are an expert in dream magic, being able to control people's dreams. Your abilities include both controlling people's dreams and being able to interact with them in their dreams. You do not need to be near the target to use this magic, but if the person is not asleep it will be impossible to affect them with this magic. If the target has countermeasures against this magic, you will not be able to affect them.

One of the weaknesses of this magic is that you need the target to be in a drowsy state or to be deeply asleep. Another disadvantage is that when you use this magic you will be in a trance state, leaving you totally vulnerable. You can get out of this state at will but while you use this magic your body is an easy target for any attack. If you die while in a trance state, you simply die.

Please note that you cannot kill your target when they are in their dream world, but you can cause nightmares that will drive them insane.

Lewd Miasma (200 CP)

You have the ability to release a kind of miasma that affects people within a radius of 100 meters around you. Just by touching this same miasma, it can affect people, corrupting their minds.

The effect of this miasma is to affect the minds of the victims, leading them to a state where they will give themselves over to their sexual pleasures. Basically, you will turn every place where you release your miasma into a huge orgy.

People with a strong willpower will be able to resist this effect, but people with a free mind or with more libertine tendencies will be affected instantly.

The effect of this miasma lasts about an hour. Those affected will not remember what happened when they were in that state.

Domination (400 CP)

A being like you was born to dominate, not to serve. And you put that ideology into practice perfectly.

You have an aura that makes beings weaker than you bow before you, swearing eternal loyalty to you. With just one look you will make them be affected by this ability. They will obey every order you give them, being your loyal and submissive servants.

The effect will not completely affect their personality, since it only makes them subservient and loyal to you, so those people close to those affected by your ability will not notice that those people are controlled.

While they are affected by this ability, it is impossible to affect them with mind control effects or similar abilities, so you don't have to worry about others controlling your servants.

The duration of this effect will depend on your power; as long as you are stronger than those you have affected, they will serve you. But if they surpass you in power or manage to defeat you, they will be freed from this effect.

Vampirism (400 CP)

You are not a vampire per se, but you share one of their most distinctive abilities, that of absorbing the blood of their victims to obtain certain benefits.

You have the ability to absorb the blood of your victims to recover from wounds (be they mortal or minor), as well as to recover your magical power or any equivalent source.

Depending on the severity of the wound or the amount of magical power to recover, the blood of the target will be key. The benefits of consuming their blood will depend on whether they are strong or highly skilled people or come from a renowned bloodline or race (such as a dragon or the blood of a descendant of a hero).

Expert General (400 CP)

No matter how powerful you are, you alone cannot achieve what every demon lord wants, to conquer the world and subdue everyone to your will. You need an army to accomplish such a campaign. And controlling and coordinating an army is no easy task.

You are an expert general, being a great strategist as well as a great administrator when it comes to military campaigns. You know all the strategies created in the world you are in as well as military formations, having a solution for every situation your army faces. You also have a great ability to control the logistics of your army, being able to supplement your rags with what is necessary.

Another effect of this Perk is that it increases your leadership skills. You are able to control and direct an army of millions of subordinates without any difficulty. The best thing is that you also have a talent for putting the right person in the position that will get the most out of them.

Your army is not just brute force, it is a fully organized army, full of competent people (monsters).

The Demon Lord's Power (600 CP)

Rather, the power that this one has. We all know that in this type of work, most of the time the Demon Lord is a beautiful woman. But her beauty is not the only thing that is exceptional, but her immense power.

Your magical power and brute strength are so exceptional that you are able to defeat an army by yourself.

Your magical power is so great that you can throw a fireball and destroy a castle, leaving only ashes.

Your brute strength is immense, being able to lift five tons of weight without effort. The strength of your fists and kicks are so powerful that destroying the fortified wall of a city is not a challenge for you.

Your physical and magical resistance is incredible, being able to withstand a rain of arrows without receiving any damage or withstand an attack of divine element from several users without any problem.

Your power is at the level of Tier 6-C.

Immortal (600 CP)

The Demon Lord can be defeated or sealed, but never killed.

Like every Demon Lord, you can recover from any kind of injury, being able to regenerate limbs in a matter of seconds.

Even destroying your entire body won't kill you, your spirit alone is enough to possess a person and take control of their body. The downside to this is that any physical advantage (other than fiat-backed) will be lost.

Another effect of this Perk is that you will always be physically in your prime, if you prefer to always be in your thirties or twenties.

The downside to this is that it doesn't protect your soul or mind, so any attacks directed at them won't have the same regeneration. If they destroy your mind you will be no different than a zombie without consciousness. If they destroy your soul, there is no regeneration that will help you.

Coexist (600 CP)

Why the Demon Lord should be seen as a being of destruction and corruption. The Demon Lord can represent change, and not all change is bad. Sometimes a corrupt world must change, and it takes a force like yours to achieve that.

You are a great peacemaker, being able to unite several races in a single ideal, that of coexistence and cooperation. This is not limited only to races, you can also get countries or cultures that are at odds to put aside their differences and align themselves to achieve a better future for their people.

This perk will work even after you leave the world to continue your chain. All those alliances between countries and cultures, as well as the peace you managed to establish in that world will continue to be present, whether you are there or not.

This Perk stands out because you can bring any race or culture to your cause, as long as it is a noble one. If your intentions are good, even the Hero and his Party will be your most loyal allies.

Items

All items are discounted to the appropriate origin. Discounted 100 CP items are free instead.

You can import any Item or connect it to your Warehouse.

-All items will be returned when lost, all items may be imported into similar items, weapons to weapons, vehicles to vehicles, etc.

-Item alterations, modification and upgrades will be maintained between jumps and are also fait-backed.

-Buildings, land, vehicles and other property, unless stated to have a particular location will be placed near your starting location in-jump and will be attached to or moved into your warehouse after the jump is complete. After the jump they can be imported into future jumps as desired.

-All properties and vehicles come with renewing fuel, electricity, food, water, air and other things required to keep them running including titles, deeds, certifications, registrations and licenses.

Undiscounted

Tachibana Omina Works (Free)

You have a complete collection of all the works of this author, be it manga, anime and light novels.

Basic Gear (Free)

You have all the basics for your stay in a new world, clothing, identification papers and other useful items that will make your stay more bearable.

If you purchased the Classic Class option, you will receive a full equipment of your class, but one that a novice would wear.

Condoms (Free)

It would be problematic if you got pregnant or became pregnant during your stay in this jump, or if you caught a venereal disease.

You will receive an unlimited supply of condoms so you can have fun during your stay without having to worry about any consequences of having unprotected sex.

These condoms will fit any species, so they will not be destroyed if you do it with a being made of lava.

Money (100 CP)

A classic, you have a small fortune that can cover the expenses of a family of ten people for a whole year. Depending on the jump where it is, this will become the most used currency in the place.

Sex Toys (100 CP)

Toys that you can use during sex or when you don't have anyone to have sex with. You will receive a dozen sex toys of your choice. You can use them to please yourself or to please others.

These toys are indestructible and have a self-cleaning system, so you don't have to worry about having to clean them after use.

Free Entrance to Brothel (100 CP)

No matter what world you visit, there will always be a brothel to satisfy those people who are just looking for sex without commitment.

You have a special card, more like a V.I.P. pass. This pass allows you to use the services of any brothel for free.

The only limitation is that you can only receive a free service once a day, so if you plan on spending all day having sex with the workers of the place I suggest you get some cash.

Rings (200 CP)

Special rings for your partner or loved one to use. These rings are special, for starters, those who wear the rings can communicate with each other telepathically. Another use of this ring is that it serves as a locator, being able to know the location of the wearer of these.

You will be provided with rings for yourself as well as for your harem. Those who are not considered part of your harem will not be able to use this ring.

Encyclopedia of All Races (200 CP)

This book contains everything you need to know about any race existing in the world you are in.

The content of the book will cover general information, weaknesses, habitat, physiognomy, abilities, etc.

This book will be updated with each jump you enter, adding information to already registered races or incorporating a new race with its information.

AV Fantasy Equipment (200 CP)

Having sex is great, but it would be better to have sex and record it so you can sell it and make some money.

You have fantasy production equipment that are magic crystals that have a function similar to a video camera. These crystals can also be used to show live events, like streaming.

In case you buy this option, the world where you are will be established with a system of magic crystals, this will allow you to distribute and sell your videos without any problem such as having to popularize this medium in the society where you are.

Sponsorship (400 CP)

A hero's journey is expensive, between equipment, resources, party member payments, compensation, etc. Luckily, you have a sponsor who will take care of everything.

This sponsor will not only cover all your expenses, but will also act as a middleman in various negotiations and other formalities that you have to do that are not related to directly fighting the enemy.

You will also have great logistical support that will provide you with everything you need as well as a network of contacts that you can use to facilitate your mission.

The only limitation is that you do not have an unlimited budget, being granted only what is necessary, so he will not buy you a castle for your personal use, but he will be willing to buy a place that functions as a main headquarters.

Love Potion (400 CP)

A powerful love potion that will make anyone who consumes its contents fall completely in love with you. Every year you will receive a dozen of these potions.

The effect of the potion will last for a month. Despite this limitation, the effect will be so subtle that neither the affected person nor those close to them will know that that person are under this effect.

Lewd Weapon (400 CP)

Like every good hero, you have a powerful weapon that will accompany you on your adventure. This weapon has several properties, for starters it is indestructible and does not require maintenance, so you do not have to waste your time taking care of it.

And to differentiate them from the rest, the other peculiarity is that the source of power of this weapon is not magic or something similar, it is your lust. The more excited and lustful you are, the more power this weapon will possess. Do not expect something that can destroy the world, at most it will have a power that can rival the demon lord of a hentai manga, where sex is given more priority than fighting.

Kingdom (600 CP)

You are the owner of an economically stable country with the size of Germany, as well as without any social or political inconvenience. The citizens are totally loyal to you, there is no corruption and the crime rate is zero. The maximum number of inhabitants will be two million, the distribution between men and women is at personal discretion. The best of all is that you impose the rules, it is an absolutist regime where all the power is in your hands. But be careful how you are going to govern your citizens, if you are a tyrant who massacres without control or does acts so heinous that they harm all the inhabitants of your country, it would not be strange that sooner or later there will be a revolt. If you are somewhat hedonistic there would be no problem with some laws like virgin women will be deflowered by the king, people will accept it as something natural and will not do anything about it, even the people involved will only see it as a civil duty. Another advantage of this item is that all the inhabitants gain the "Tachibana Omina Style" Perk, so if you haven't bought it before, it's sure that your country will have the most attractive people in the world.

Post Jump, you can import this country to other worlds if you wish, with all its inhabitants. Anyone who lives in the country or becomes a citizen will become your follower.

Strange Watch (600 CP)

A strange pocket watch that has two time meters, the traditional twelve-hour one that has the hands of the seconds, minutes and hours, and another meter that only has two hands, one for seconds. A peculiar watch but one that has great power. The power to stop time.

You can stop the time of the world, but the effect will last for one hour, returning the passage of time to normal after this time. You will be immune to the effect as long as you hold the watch.

Aside from that power, the watch is indestructible and can only be used by you, so you don't have to worry about them using the power against you.

And since it's a jump from a hentai manga, everything you do to people in suspended time will follow the logic of a hentai or any fictional series that doesn't follow the rules of physics to the letter.

Ticket to Go to A Better World (600 CP)

It would be great to go to a world where all your (sexual) fantasies would come true. Imagine a milf lover traveling to a world where women, upon reaching the age of majority, develop so much that they will have the body of a mature woman and will remain with this appearance until they die, being immune to the passage of time upon reaching the age of majority.

When you start a new jump, you can choose an alternate world, from the jump in question, where the people, their culture, etc. have elements that fulfill your most desired sexual fantasies.

To give an example, if you enter a Dragon Ball jump, you can customize the world or universe of this series a bit, making the main cast all women (Rule 63 or replacing Goku with Chichi in the role of Saiyan who protects the earth) or having the female characters have more voluptuous bodies. The common sense of the world may also be different, such as that instead of battles things are resolved with sex or that there is more sexual freedom in the world you are in.

Don't be confused, you will not change the world or universe of the jump you are in, you will only go to a parallel universe that meets the characteristics you want in this one.

Hero

Beautiful Waifus and Where to Find Them (100 CP)

In any fantasy world it is possible to find creatures very different from those in our world, even those that appear in our myths. But there is a special subgroup, those that share human characteristics.

This book will record all the creatures that have human characteristics or that can transform into humans. It will also have a detailed description of everything there is to know about them, such as habits, weaknesses, behavior, skills, etc.

If you want to make a harem of monster girls, this book is for you.

King Sized Bed (100 CP)

A bed fit for a king, one that could comfortably fit twenty people.

This bed is the most comfortable and luxurious you can find, capable of lulling a person with insomnia to sleep. But since you're not going to use it to sleep, it also has the function of increasing the libido of those who sleep in it.

Sex and then sleep, that's going to be your routine every night with this bed.

Vibrator (100 CP)

This powerful tool, if we can call it that, has the great utility of making a woman reach orgasm in just one minute.

It may seem strange, but it is completely effective, no matter if she is dressed or protected by armor or if she is a being that takes the form of a woman. By simply applying the device near her clitoris, it will make her cum in just one minute.

The best thing is that during contact, she will be affected by a state of paralysis and confusion. This will make it impossible for her to fight back or try to escape.

An unorthodox but useful tool. By the way, this tool is indestructible and has infinite energy, so it does not need any external energy source to work.

Royal Decree (200 CP)

This decree, issued by the highest authority in the place where you are, gives you the power to ask any person to have sex with you in order to have a child of yours. Because it is a request, people are not obligated to accept it, but by generously rewarding those who manage to fulfill such a request, many will think twice before rejecting the offer.

In addition to the monetary reward, people will receive a subsidy to raise your children, providing these children with first-class health care and education, and all for free.

Inn (200 CP)

Since you're going to travel the world to defeat the demon lord, you'll need a place to relax with your party.

This inn is a rather unique one, for starters it will have all the necessary equipment to make your stay relaxing. We're not talking about a luxurious place, but a simple but well-equipped one, with bathrooms, kitchens, rooms with many amenities and a place to store your things. Of course, the inn will be well kept, with cleanliness and order being something they can boast about.

In charge of the inn will be a beautiful curvy milf elf who will attend to any need you have, food and accommodation. For you, you will have an extra service, such as satisfying your sexual desires whenever you need it. This elf will be considered a follower.

This inn will appear anywhere you want, as if it had always been there. Of course, you and your party will be the only customers, and there will be no charge for the service.

Brothel (200 CP)

It would be great to have sex with beautiful women or attractive people of the gender that attracts you, and best of all, get paid for it.

This brothel is an exclusive one, so exclusive that it only has one sex worker, you. As such, the clients will be so exclusive that they will only ask for your services from people that you find attractive or that you want to have sex with. That attractive princess that you saw only once in that parade, curiously visited your brothel to hire your services.

Don't worry about having to face future consequences for sleeping with someone specific, like a princess, since you are only a sex worker you will not be held responsible for anything (or almost anything). Try to use protection, if you get someone pregnant or give them a venerable disease, in that case you will have to take responsibility for your actions.

Unfortunately, the rate for your service is that of any average male prostitute, so you will not earn a fortune with this.

Female Knights (400 CP)

Jumper, you have a platoon of fifty beautiful women at your command. These will be women (or men or both if you want) with skills that surpass the average soldier, being considered the elite of an army (at least by the standards of this world that would be at the level of a Tier 9-A). All will be considered followers.

The skills of this group are diverse, counting on people talented with weapons and martial arts, as well as others with great knowledge and skills in magic and its equivalents.

They will also be well instructed in everything related to the military, administration, economics, etc. Being a very cultured and competent group even outside the battlefield.

You can customize these fifty to your liking, also assigning a leader to direct them and be your confidant. Unlike the rest, the leader will have several skills, making her an all-rounder.

Party Application (400 CP)

This form is a special one, you can put the names of twelve people who belong to the jump you are in and recruit them to your party.

No matter what their relevance is in the plot, these will accompany you on your journey and others will take their original place.

These will be loyal allies who will accompany you on your adventures, automatically forming them into your followers. If you want them to be companions, you will have to pay the price with CP.

The only limitation is that you cannot choose those beings whose power far exceeds the others or who are main villains or the final enemy. So if you are in the Jujutsu Kaisen jump, characters like Satoru Gojo or Sukuna will be an absolute no.

Special Smartphone (600 CP)

This smartphone is a very useful and powerful one, my dear jumper. To start with, it has an infinite battery, so there is no risk of it running out or stopping working. Another advantage is that it is indestructible, both the device and its programming, so there is no risk of it breaking or having its applications malfunction. In addition, the phone is resistant to any environment, be it extremely hot or cold, as well as resistant to water and anything that could harm its operation.

But the true power of this phone goes beyond those mentioned above. This smart phone can display and control the parameters of all the people or beings you take a picture of. You can change them as you like, affecting the original version of the photo.

You can increase the statistics as you wish, being able to decrease them as much as you want, but increasing them will have a limit, not being able to be more than ten times higher than the original. You can also manipulate parameters such as desire, lust, sensitivity, reproductive needs, motivation, willpower, affection, fertility and libido. You can also modify physical size, but to the limit that your species allows.

This effect is useless against beings as powerful as gods or beings of equal power. Therefore, using it against a god is impossible.

Special Village (600 CP)

This village is special, jumper. Inhabited by a population of a thousand people (all will be considered followers.), it has public buildings such as a school, a training place, a library, etc. Of course, there is also a residential area and a two-story mansion that will be your home.

But this place has something in particular, there are no men (except you if you are) and its population is made up of young or adult people, taking as a reference the human age, between 18 and 40 years old. The best thing is that they are beautiful women, all having physical characteristics that you like. And being the leader of this village, they will be totally loyal to you, obeying any order you give them.

If that were not enough, these women are not ordinary people, they are talented people who dominate different areas, such as combat, magic, alchemy, etc.

Another characteristic of this village is that it is made up of different races, we can find humans, elves and other fantastic races that you can find in a hentai manga. The physical features that characterize these races can be customized to your liking, so it is up to you how human you want their appearance to be.

If you prefer, you can choose another gender if women are not your thing, or you can choose both if you wish.

This village will be self-sufficient, so do not worry about resources or supplies. In future jumps, this village will appear in the country or nation you choose, as if it was always there.

Waifu Catalog (600 CP)

You like a particular character but you don't want to deal with troublesome things like gaining their trust and having to deal with their family or friends. Or you like the appearance of a character but not their personality.

You have a special catalog that will show a list of the most important people in the jump, for example if you are in a Dragon Ball jump the list will be made up of the entire cast of this series.

This catalog is special, since it allows you to summon a parallel version of those people that have the characteristics or other factors that are to your liking, such as summoning a No. 18 who is not married to Krillin (is single) and is a good person. This is not limited to people who are alive, if they are dead in that world, you can bring one who is alive in a parallel world.

They will not show hostility, on the contrary, they will treat you as an ally who brought them to a better world, so they will be loyal to you. But only loyal ones, if you want them to be part of your harem you'll have to work hard.

Unfortunately this has some limitations, these must be versions of people or beings that are in that jump, so if you're in a Dragon Ball jump you won't be able to bring Naruto characters to the Jump.

Another limitation is that the versions you bring will be weaker than their "original" version, so the parallel No.18 you summon will be weaker than the No.18 of the universe you're in. The version you bring must be weaker than you in case the version of your universe is a powerful being, not be at your level or stronger than you. All those summoned will be considered followers.

Heroine

Alchemy Kit (100 CP)

This portable laboratory contains everything you need to make various potions, including healing potions, magic energy restorers, potions that temporarily increase stats, etc. All the equipment is indestructible, so there is no danger of a potion not being completed due to the state of your equipment.

Depending on your technological level, this equipment will be upgraded to adapt to the needs of the place you are in.

Beautiful Dress (100 CP)

A beautiful dress that will enhance the beauty of its wearer. If you wear this dress at a party, you will be the center of attention. Don't worry, you won't attract the envy of those less attractive, but rather the admiration and love of those who see you in this dress. But keep in mind that when you take off the dress, this effect will stop working.

As an added bonus, this dress will have a self-cleaning system so that any tears or damage can be repaired. It will also be tailored to the wearer's measurements.

Basic Guide of How to Summon People From Another World (100 CP)

The typical how-to book for beginners. This book has simple instructions on how to summon a person from another world.

Don't expect too much from this book, you will only be able to summon a typical average high school student. Don't expect them to have powers either, they will be normal people without any combat experience.

This book will be a guide on how to summon people from other worlds, so it will not give you directions on where to find the materials to perform the summon, or teach magic or other techniques that should already be known before performing the summon (like teaching how to use magic). Don't expect too much for only 100 CP.

Treasure Map (200 CP)

A strange blank map, but when you imbue it with a little magic, an illustration will appear of the surroundings within a ten kilometer radius that indicates where there are treasures or valuable or important objects around the world you are in.

On the map, a dot will appear indicating the place where the treasure or object is. This will also have small instructions that indicate how to enter the place and if there are secret rooms.

As an extra, it will also indicate the traps that the place has, as well as the monsters that you can find.

Means of Transport (200 CP)

Your mission will take you all over the world, and I doubt you'll be doing it on foot.

You have a private vehicle at your disposal, which can change its shape to whatever means of transport you need. If you have to travel by road, it will take the form of a cart pulled by fast horses that don't need to rest or eat. If you have to travel by sea, it will take the form of a boat. Depending on the number of people accompanying you, it will change its size, but you can only carry up to twelve people.

In future jumps, it could take the form of the most commonly used vehicles or means of transport. Keep in mind that it doesn't need any type of fuel to function.

Sperm Bank (200 CP)

A sperm bank where the semen of several renowned heroes is stored. This bank has facilities where women can be artificially inseminated with the semen of the place.

The quality of those born with this method will be inferior to that of the heroes whose semen was used, but this will ensure a number of warriors that will compensate for its lack of quality.

Even with this limitation, the strength of those born will be considered; you may not have a hero or a champion, but you will have an army full of elites that can face the Demon Lord's army. Although it will take some time.

Crown (400 CP)

This crown is not a simple one, it has several uses.

The first is that anyone who wears it will be considered royalty and will be treated like someone from the royal family would receive in a foreign country. The second effect is the most interesting, it allows the wearer of this crown to release an aura of authority that will make anyone near the wearer consider him as their master, serving him easily. A person with a strong willpower will be able to resist this effect, but those with a weak will will fall and be affected instantly.

Basically you can become a member of the royal family and control people to use them as you wish.

Dozen of Heroes (400 CP)

Apparently you command a group of twelve summoned from another world. These people can be customized to your liking, both in appearance and personality. All those summoned will be considered followers.

Even though these guys are your average citizens without powers, they can access the magic and skill system of the world you are in, so they can be trained to be true heroes. Their potential is enough for all of them to fight on par with the Demon Lord.

These Heroes will be completely loyal to you, so you don't have to worry about them betraying you after they gain power or defeat the Demon Lord.

High Quality Equipment (400 CP)

Depending on your class, you will receive a set of top-notch armor and weapons, reserved only for the elite. This equipment will be made from the finest materials to achieve great resistance to any magical or physical attack, as well as being imbued with various enchantments to increase the wearer's stats and increase the damage of their attacks.

Basically, this equipment can be considered a national treasure.

It will adjust to the user's measurements, as well as have a self-cleaning and self-repair function.

Castle (600 CP)

This is great, jumper, you own a huge castle.

This castle is huge in size, putting any castle a king might own to shame. It has several recreation areas, kitchens, a large garden, training grounds, libraries, dungeons, etc. It also has the capacity to accommodate ten thousand people, having more than two thousand rooms for VIP guests and a thousand rooms for your family.

This castle will be equipped with the best, both in quality and utility. Also all its equipment will be the most technologically advanced taking into account the technological level of the place where you are.

This castle will have automatic maintenance, so it will clean and repair itself, thanks to a magic imbued in it. It will also have a defense system, being protected by a magic barrier capable of withstanding the impact of a meteorite. The barrier can also detect hostile presences and intruders, blocking their way so they can't get in.

As an extra, you have a thousand people who will serve as Staff in your castle, you can customize them to your liking. These will be made up of three hundred maids or butlers, four hundred soldiers for protection, fifty administrators who will take care of more technical tasks (lawyers, accountants, etc.) and two hundred and fifty people who will provide more support work such as gardening, cooking, etc. All of these will be considered followers. Each group will have a hierarchy, which you can customize to your liking.

The castle is self-sustaining, so you will have everything you need to produce food and anything else you need for its maintenance and that of its residents. By the way, you don't need to pay any kind of taxes or have your papers up to date, everything will be done magically. This castle is connected to your Warehouse.

Ultimate Bikini Armor (600 CP)

You have the most important and durable armor, you have in your possession the legendary Bikini Armor.

This armor is made by the gods themselves or extraordinary blacksmiths and magicians, making it one of the most powerful armors, rivaling that of the Hero or the Demon Lord.

The armor is special, being able to withstand attacks as powerful as those of the Demon Lord. Although this armor leaves many parts of the body exposed, it protects its wearer through magical barriers that cover the user's entire body.

The armor also has several enchantments that increase the wearer's stats. If an ordinary person wears this armor, they will have a power that can defeat high-level demons, so someone competent will receive a great increase that will allow them to fight the Demon Lord and not die in the attempt.

It will adjust to the user's measurements, as well as have a self-cleaning and self-repair function.

Eden Forest (600 CP)

This forest is a very special one. The rarest plants grow inside it, as well as special fruits and vegetables. All the vegetation provides the rarest ingredients for the creation of powerful potions or elixirs. Fruits and vegetables, when consumed, will give a temporary increase to the statistics of the people who consume them. The wood of the trees can be used to build powerful bows or top quality items.

Another advantage of this forest is that you can plant vegetation and other non-native crops, those that belong to worlds from future or past jumps if this is not your first jump.

The size of this forest will be 3,472 square miles. This forest will be attached to your Warehouse. You will also have some Dryads that will take care of the plants and all the vegetation in the place. The climate will always be the same, being ideal for their development.

Demon Lord

Basic Guide to Creating Traps (100 CP)

A basic guide on how to create basic traps. The traps will be very simple, so don't expect an experienced adventurer to fall for them. But they are quite useful for buying time or catching newbies in them.

Tentacle Monster (100 CP)

Every hentai needs a tentacle monster to be considered a hentai.

You will have as a pet (follower) a multi-tentacled monster with the ability to catch victims and hold them. It can be an octopus, a slime or some monster with the appearance of a Lovecraftian being.

This monster cannot exceed the height of two meters tall and be less than five meters wide. It will also have the ability to secrete aphrodisiac substances from its tentacles but they will be so diluted that they will have a weak effect compared to an aphrodisiac. But if it traps a person for a long time, the effect could be stronger.

Aphrodisiac (100 CP)

Every year you will receive ten liters of aphrodisiacs in special bottles. The effect of this aphrodisiac is so strong that a person with little self-control will fall to lust in just minutes. A person with strong willpower will be immune but I don't think there are many people with great self-control.

Be careful how much of this potion you give your target, too much can kill them. You will have to find out for yourself how much is needed for each person.

(Sexual) Instruments of Torture (200 CP)

A wide variety of sadomasochistic sex toys to torture your victims (in a sexual way). These "instruments" of torture are very useful to extract information or break the will of those victims you subdue through the extreme pleasure they generate.

Slave Collar (200 CP)

A hundred slave collars, effective in subduing weak people without special powers. These collars will make you the legitimate owner of those who wear them, being totally obedient to you.

The collars are indestructible and impossible to remove, so there will be no way for the wearer to take them off. Also if you want more discretion, instead of collars you can choose another accessory such as rings, earrings, etc.

Restraint Ties (200 CP)

Strong, indestructible chains can restrain any being chained in them. These chains will nullify any raw power or supernatural power of those bound in them, making it impossible for them to free themselves.

The size of the chain will depend on the size of the one being restrained, but it can only trap a single target.

Another limitation is that the chains can be removed by others, so if it traps someone else, they can be freed by someone else.

Formula to Turn People Into Demons (400 CP)

For a demon like you, it is easier to govern your race than those other inferior races. Luckily, you have a recipe that allows you to create a special potion, capable of turning those who consume it into demons like you.

This recipe will not only give you instructions on how to create the potion, but also where to find the ingredients to finish it. Luckily, these ingredients will not be so rare, and the recipe can be adapted according to the ingredients you have available in the world you are in.

Demonification, apart from changing the race of those affected, will give them a slight increase in their statistics such as strength, speed, magic power, etc. As well as extending their longevity, doubling their previous longevity.

Being transformed into demons does not mean that they will be loyal to you; if you want their loyalty, earn it. As an extra, you can choose the appearance they will have.

Orc Horde (400 CP)

If you want to advance through the ranks you will need a strong group under your command. For example, a group of strong orcs or ogres who will take care of protecting you and doing the hard and dirty work for you.

You have about fifty of these guys at your disposal, who are totally loyal to you and will follow your orders to the letter.

These are customizable to your liking, both in appearance and personality, so you can have a group of violent savages as well as disciplined warriors made for the battlefield.

Being these followers, when one dies another will appear just like the one who died.

Livestock (400 CP)

These cattle are special, they are made up of three hundred people of different races, including humans, elves, dwarves, etc.

You can use these guys however you want, as food for your army, slaves, etc. If one of them dies, another one will replace him.

These guys already have their will completely destroyed, so you don't have to worry about them rebelling or not obeying your orders.

If you have a moral dilemma about using them, I'll make it clear that these guys are not good people, they are scum that have ruined the lives of many people and thought they would get away with it. So don't worry about holding back in case they are innocent people, these are the worst scum that will make a fool of the misdeeds of the demons under your command.

Chair of Power (600 CP)

A special chair that, when you sit on it, you can give off an aura of authority that will affect all those who are your subordinates. It will make them totally loyal to you. This applies to your prisoners of war, being totally affected by this ability.

This seat also serves as a control center, so you can control your army like a war simulator, making the leadership of this army easier. Each state or situation of your army will be reported in a text message like in a video game, being able to make decisions based on what is reported and give the order, which will reach your generals as a telepathic message. By having a broader view of the battlefield and faster communication, this will give you a greater advantage, having a faster and more fluid information system.

Another effect of this throne is that while you are sitting on it, you will be covered by a highly resistant magic barrier, capable of resisting magical and physical attacks.

Dungeon (600 CP)

Every good Demon Lord has his own dungeon that he uses as a base. And luckily your dungeon is one worthy of your title.

You own a huge dungeon, the width of a football stadium. It has several floors, with a maximum of one hundred floors.

The dungeon has several traps on each floor, as well as spawning monsters, the closer they are to the floor you are staying in, the deeper or higher the floor in the dungeon, depending on your tastes.

If you wish, you can use the closest floors of this dungeon as your base of operations.

You can customize this dungeon to your liking, including the environments on each floor, the monsters within it, and the traps on each floor.

Army (600 CP)

You command a military force that numbers a million. This army is mostly made up of low-ranking demons, a moderate amount of mid-ranking demons that will serve as lieutenants or special forces, and about ten high-level demons that will serve as generals of this strong army.

This army will be divided into several platoons specialized in different areas, such as infantry, cavalry (monsters), mages, etc. Being a well-organized troop.

You can customize your soldiers however you want, but being a large group, this customization will be more general, such as all being women or 40% being vampires, etc.

These guys will be totally loyal to you, so they will die for you if you order it. Every time one dies they will be replaced by another. These are considered followers.

Companions

Any companions you have in this jump will be treated as Drop-Ins, and cannot choose the origin of the Hero. However, they can use the discounts offered by the other origins.

Companions cannot take Drawbacks.

Import (Free/100 CP)

You can import up to 8 people for free, but by paying 100 CP for each, they will receive 300 CP to spend on this document.

Canon Companions (Free/100 CP per)

If you manage to convince them, you can recruit any character from the series as a partner. If you pay about 100 CP, you will have a favorable first meeting, which in a short time will turn into friendship.

Queen and Princess (200 CP)

This duo is the dream of every man who wants to make an oyakodon with members of royalty. Even though they don't have the title and would be considered commoners, their appearance, aura, education, etc. are comparable to that of a person who was raised in the royal family.

You can customize their personality and appearance to your liking, or choose a character from a hentai manga as a reference. These do not have CP, but they do have the " Good Genetic" Perk included.

My Team (400 CP)

This group of four women (or men) will accompany you on your journey to defeat the demon lord, although you are not obligated to defeat him. They are a close-knit and experienced group, so they will be of great help in your task.

You can customize their personality and appearance to your liking, or choose a character from a hentai manga as a reference. These do not have CP, but they do have the Perk "Classic Class", "Party Leader" and "Lewd Creativity" included. They also have the Item "Basic Gear".

Demon Lord (600 CP)

The most powerful demon of all. This being is capable of destroying a castle with one attack if she casts her most powerful spell. Aside from being versed in different types of magic, she is skilled in several types of hand-to-hand fighting styles and weapon use. A worthy final enemy for the famous hero.

You can customize her/his personality and appearance to your liking, or choose a character from a hentai manga as a reference. These do not have CP, but She/He does have the Perk " Demon Lord " and "Domination" included.

Drawback

You may take any amount of drawbacks you like.

I'm the Protagonist?

Congratulations jumper, you have just replaced Naoki Oikawa, our protagonist. Unlike him, the summoning will be within the village, so you will not have a dangerous entrance to this world.

Crossover

Are there any hentai manga that you are interested in and want to add to this jump?

You can add other series to this world, as long as they are medieval fantasy hentai. You can add as many series as you want. In case they have different power systems, these will adapt to the magic and class system of this world.

If you are only interested in some characters and not the plot, you can bring only those characters. As for powerful items that exist in those plots, such as magic or very broken powers, these cannot be incorporated.

Supplement

If you are not in the mood to spend 10 years on this jump for a Perk, Item or Power, you can use this jump as a supplement and buy whatever you want. But you will not have the benefits of discounts. If you wish, you can combine this jump with another one you are doing, being able to take Drawbacks from this jump, but without discounts.

+100 CP

Mute

You are unable to speak or make a sound with your mouth. In order to communicate with other people you will have to use other means.

Communication through telepathy or something similar is prohibited.

Shota

This is bad, jumper, no matter your age you will have the body of a shota. And it gets worse, because you are a magnet for perverts who want to have sex with shota, and they are the dominant type, so they fuck you. Prepare to be the sex toy of your allies as well as the people you save, since that is their way of thanking you.

This also applies to your enemies, if you are defeated by a woman, rest assured that she will fuck you to celebrate her victory.

Ugly

On a scale of 1 to 10 you're a 3 jumper, as far as your looks go. You're ugly, and it's not just your face, your physical appearance is affected as well. More superficial people might treat you badly, but most won't discriminate against you, so the idea of having a harem isn't far off.

On the plus side, you have an appearance worthy of an ugly bastard of an NTR.

+200 CP

Milf or Young

Are you a fan of Oyakodon? Unfortunately you won't get to experience this jump if you take this option.

You will have to choose between young women or milfs in order to have sex, if you choose one group, you are unable to have sex with the other group. As a Hero, you can only have sex with young women without children, or if you chose the milfs, with women who already had a child. Don't ask the reason, things are like that and you have to accept it.

This applies to all races, so a hundred year old elf who is considered young by the standards of her species will be considered young for this option.

Impotent

If you were thinking about having sex all the time during your stay in this jump, I'm afraid it will be impossible. Your tool doesn't work, or rather you won't be able to get an erection. No matter what methods you use, they will all be useless.

Considering the type of jump this is, I think it's a reasonable price.

Infertile

It seems that you are the one who will have to fight the demon lord, since you are not able to get pregnant or give birth to offspring to take charge of saving the world.

The good side is that you will still be able to have sex and you will be able to fight using alternative methods, if you know what I mean.

+400 CP

Goblin

Goblins are the pest of most fantasy series, especially hentai ones. And I assure you that during this time-lapse you will have to deal with this group on several occasions.

At least two or three times a month, you will have to face a horde of these annoying beings. The worst thing is that they will not only use their numbers, but also their cunning to defeat you and your party. Even though they are weak, they are smarter than other types of monsters, and of course more cruel and savage. At the very least, when you and your party are defeated by these scum, rest assured that they will rape your party and torture you until they get bored or you manage to escape from them.

Reincarnated

Apparently you weren't summoned to this world, but rather reincarnated. You'll be born into a middle-class family and will only gain access to all your Perks, Powers, Items, Companions and Followers from previous jumps and this jump at the age of fifteen. And then you'll be tasked with defeating the Demon Lord, and until you kill or defeat him, you won't be able to exit this jump.

The good thing is that during the time you can't use your powers and access your belongings, you'll have plot armor that will protect you and your entire family from any threat. Those fifteen years will be quiet but boring.

Ugly World

Do you remember the Tachibana Omina style Perk and any other similar ones from previous jumps? I'm afraid these will be ineffective during your stay if you take this option.

Just like the Middle Ages in our world, the concept of hygiene is non-existent, diseases abound everywhere. And as expected, people are not positively affected by this, so the vast majority will be very ugly. Don't expect any milfs, because the years do affect people who live in these conditions, so a forty-year-old woman will look like she's sixty or older, and she won't age like wine, but will have a very bad appearance.

I recommend that you don't have sex during your stay, I say this because of the diseases and the dirt.

+600 CP

Dark Fantasy

This world is no longer a vanilla hentai, it's become a dark fantasy. The invasion of evil forces is brutal, with massacres, rapes, and looting being commonplace. The people in power are corrupt to the core, looking out for their own interests rather than the greater good. They won't hesitate to use the people they're supposed to protect as disposable pawns. The forces of law and order are also corrupt, abusing their authority and acting more like bandits than soldiers. And the bandits are much worse than you might expect.

If you're apathetic enough to live in this kind of world, I think this option is for you. Don't expect to solve things by having sex though, as the method to get something done is violence or manipulation.

NTR Protagonist

If you like the NTR genre, this option is for you, if you are the one who enjoys having your girlfriend stolen and being cuckolded.

You are the protagonist with a harem of beautiful women, with the mission of saving the world from the demon king's army. You will travel to many places with your harem, but it seems that they will meet many people who will be interested in them, and in the most sexual way.

Get ready to see how they fuck your girlfriends in front of you while they insult you comparing your small penis with their big tool, while your girlfriends moan with pleasure and beg them not to stop.

The worst thing is that you will see all this helpless, so you cannot defend yourself or make them stop. Get ready to be a cuck for your entire stay. But the good thing is that those traumas heal over time.

Power Loss

Lose the Perks, Powers and Items from previous jumps, and can not import any companion or access your Warehouse, at least you still have your Body Mod.

Many thanks to Nikki Praphan, Muroshi 9, Leo Georg, Abolade Ibrahim, Balázs Ortutay, Dark Aeon999, Domar7431, Mac Ibach, Anon, Atriox, marquez martin, donutoutlaw and everyone who advised me on how to polish this jump.

The power level that is used in this jump is the same as that used in the VS Battles Wiki.

The jumper can choose any origin, but his/hers companions cannot choose the "Hero" origin.

Change Log:

v1.0: created the jump.

v1.01: Some changes in the document format v1.02: Some changes in the document format and a change of the Perk "A Hero's Duty".
