

Harry Potter Harem King

It seems that you want to have a fun time at Hogwarts but with this Jump you are restricted to being a version of Harry Potter. Gain +1000 CP for this Jump lasts 10 years and starts shortly before the arrival of the Hogwarts acceptance letter that this version of Harry Potter actually gets to read. Normally this would be midnight between the 30th and 31st of July 1991.

Origin:

What house do you think you belong to? This won't necessarily determine where the Sorting Hat puts you as you can convince it otherwise but this will show what you value the most.

Gryffindor

You are going the traditional route of Harry Potter. The House of Bravery and Courage, the home of Harry Potter Prime and the large majority of Harrys who follow in his footsteps. Perhaps courage is most dear to your heart, or perhaps bravery is something you've adopted.

Slytherin

The House of Ambition and Cunning, is also the most common change to deviate the golden boy from well-trod paths of canon. Maybe you need to always look out for number one, perhaps you have a goal you desire to accomplish, or perhaps you are filled with the desire to excel.

Ravenclaw

Often the home of Harry Potters who aren't as foolhardy as a Gryffindor, nor as ruthless as many Slytherin Harry's, the House of Knowledge and Wisdom will help your intellect shine through. However many may compare you to Lily Evans forgetting that she was a Gryffindor herself.

Hufflepuff

The House of friendship and loyalty but unfortunately this is the home of only a small number of Harry Potters across the multiverse. Harrys are rarely permitted to experience friendship or meet anyone worth being loyal to before starting Hogwarts. Normally those sorted into Hufflepuff are placed within purely because of their potential for love and kindness.

Generic Perks:

You gain +400 CP to spend exclusively on General Perks.

It is thought that originally the 4 houses of Hogwarts were split to the occupations the student would be best suited for and each course taught the then educational tools required for each category of profession.

For -100 CP you may gain the education that your house would have taught the first batch of students it would have received after the school curriculum was finalised.

For -300 CP you gain the education that all four houses received.

Though each field of education has been improved upon over time all the knowledge gained though this Perk is still viable and useful for those who seek it, with some of this knowledge being lost to time.

Gryffindor

The House of Warriors, Knights and Generals. House Gryffindor taught its students the art of combat and battlefield strategy. This education would have included swordsmanship, physical enhancing magic and the now outdated combat spells of the era. While a lot of the education focuses on combat arts, physical fitness and combining spell usage with weapon arts, it also contains specialist rituals to help improve the users physic and create magic prosthetic limbs.

Slytherin

The House of Lords, Merchants and Politicians. House Slytherin taught its students economics and political strategy. This education would have included legal procedures, laws, political influencing, perception enhancing spells and the then allowed political rituals and oath magics. While the education focuses mainly on management and political aspects of lordship and governess it also contains specialist information about counterspy and counter assasination procedures that enhance the users ability to detect hidden enemies and hidden intentions.

Ravenclaw

The House of Scholars, Researchers and Educators. House Ravenclaw taught its students classical Arithmancy and spell crafting. This education would have included academic researching principles, development procedures and practical divination for finding specific research books and documentation magic. Hufflepuff

The House of Sculptors, Farmers and Workmen. House Hufflepuff taught its students wandlore, ritual study and healing magic. This education included Herbology, Farming Magic, Potioneering and Magical Construction. While this education taught how to create fields and structures in an instant it also shows the long term principles that support the development. The most important lesson more than how to create colossal structures, perpetually fertile fields or even how to combine the principles was how to preserve and maintain them.

Your attractiveness is directly boosted by your warrior's spirit, and willingness to fight for those you are attracted to. If you're willing to charge into an army to rescue someone you care about, everyone will find you much more appealing and handsome. This isn't necessarily just wholesome rescues, as if you're willing to punch someone who's making them uncomfortable, that will also count as 'fighting for them' and will make people even more drawn to you. Fighting literal duels for their attention or honor will get them smitten very quickly.

Aura of Supremacy -200 CP (Discounted for Slytherin)

The bigots of Slytherin often count themselves as superior to others. With this should you give any reason for your superiority even to those Witches and Wizards can't help but agree that you just 'seem' superior. Those who see you as superior will happily debase themselves for you, unwittingly treating you as their lord and master. Educational Experiences -200 CP (Discounted for Ravenclaw)

You have an incredible knack for getting people to try new things especially in the bedroom. They will enjoy new food just because you told them to or try out new Fetishes that they'd never even think about just because you asked them to try it out, for the thrill, for the knowledge, for the experience or for whatever excuse you gave. What's more they will always enjoy it and will be willing to repeat them with you, until they have a new kink they never knew about before. All thanks to you, and they'll be ever-so-grateful for that.

Nice Guys Finish First -200 CP (Discounted for Hufflepuff)

When you perform an act of kindness for someone you're attracted to, big or small, it doesn't get brushed off. The target of your affection will remember that, fondly, and with every further kind or nice act you perform, your potential paramour will only have their own affections grow. Quickly, remembering all the kindness you've done for them, someone who had no interest in you before, may begin to fall head-over-heels in love. And once there, they're quite likely to stay that way.

Lewdify -400 CP

You are able to use this Narrative Perk to make a specific character, groups or the setting as a whole into a lewder version of themselves, with all 'benefits' and drawbacks that entail.

The dress code of all locations is more like fetish clothing, every named character is at least 7/10 in terms of look, for magical setting their is Eromancy and all sexual acts are permitted as long as the other person consents and is of age. Capstone Booster:

You can now Toggle who is and isn't affected by your Allure either individually or by categories as well as allowing you to control how powerful the effect is on others. You are able to scale this Perk down to a level where it barely makes others take more of a notice of you or scale it up so that anyone affected will find their arousal towards you causing orgasms by itself and possibly even addiction to your Allure.

Trauma Occlumency - Free (Incompatible with "Basic Occlumency")

The quick and dirty form of Occlumency gained from suffering repeated abuse from aggressive Legilimency over a short period of time. This form of Occlumency is similar to PTSD as it causes the mind to go into a state of aggression and panic when feeling any form of Legilimency forcing it out through instinctive attacks. Because of its unconscious nature this form of Occlumency tends to be one of the most effective forms of defensive Occlumency but tends to be incompatible with other forms of Occlumency and have negative effects on the users mind long term.

Magical Oath - Free

You are now able to perform an Oath on your life and magic that what you say is true. To perform a Magical Oath you must lift your wand then open the statement by saying "I [Insert Full Name Here] swear on my life and Magic that" followed by your statement and close the oath with "So mote it be". Anyone who hears this Oath will instantly know that the statement you make is true and cannot be disproved to anyone who heard it. If you lie or the statement is a technical lie, such as stating something you believe but do not know for certain to be true you will die and lose the Source of Magic perk.

Teachable Oath -100 CP

Magic Gems -100 CP (Requires “Source of Magic”)

You are now able to solidify saturated areas of magic into a condensed Gem like state. This can be used to remove curses or the taint of dark magic from individuals, objects or locations in order to safely remove it without damaging the target. While searching through someone’s mind you are able to cause damage as you search, weakening any defences they possess but at the risk of causing them brain damage.

When using Legilimency on someone’s mind you are no longer detectable allowing you to bypass some mental defences simply by preventing the reaction to your presence.

Erasing Legilimency -100 CP (Requires “Professional Legilimency” and “Destructive Legilimency”)

When you have found information within a target's mind you can now erase it from their memory preventing them from recalling or recovering the information.

Basic Occlumency -100 CP

This is the most basic principle behind Occlumency as it allows you to clear your mind and feel a sensation when Legilimency is being used on you. Though this could prevent beginner Legilimencers it is not very effective against those with skill or training.

Mindscape Occlumency -50 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

The most entertaining but least practical form of Occlumency, this allows you to create an interactive mindscape that hides the access to your mind within the simulated environment. Some people create castles and dragons to protect their mind, some create complex computers to run algorithms or replicate video games but Legilimencers who know “there is no spoon” ignore these offences or defences and simply need to search for the entrance to the mind.

Structured Occlumency -50 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

This form of Occlumency is more often used by academics in order to better structure their mind. This form of Occlumency allows the user to gain a form of artificial photographic memory as they structure their mind for quick and easy access to information. This form of Occlumency can be used to hide information or hinder access to someone using Legilimency by forcing them to view other information but can be overpowered by someone more skilled in Legilimency.

Repressive Occlumency -100 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

This form of Occlumency allows the user to block out and repress emotions, desires and memories at a reactive state requiring an incredibly powerful Legilimencer to access memories that are being repressed.

Feedback Occlumency -100 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

When someone is performing Legilimency you are able to force them to experience memories or emotions in order to give them mental distress.

Reflective Occlumency -100 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency” and “Basic Legilimency”)

Sometimes the best defence is a good offence. When someone uses Legilimency on you, you can use this to piggyback on their probe in order to perform Legilimency on them while they are unprepared.

Regenerative Occlumency -200 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

The safest but one of most difficult forms of Occlumency to set up. This Occlumency has your mind set to constantly try to repair itself, this makes it so any Legilimencer who attempts to enter your mind is constantly damaged and its attempts to fix. From the Legilimencer’s perspective it is like being batted around within your mind causing them to lose focus on what they are searching for and after causing them nausea and sometimes brain damage. An added bonus of this form of Occlumency is that any damage to your mind will attempt to fix itself immediately.

Counterfeit Occlumency -200 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

Considered one of the more dangerous forms of Occlumency, this allows you to create a fake mind which retains any information you select but lacks any information you wish to hide. The fake mind is given control of your body and truly believes itself to be the real you. Anyone who views them with Legilimency will see that they truly believe what you want them too regardless of how powerful the Legilimencer is. Afterwards the true mind will need to destroy the fake mind to regain control of their body if the fake mind is built too realistically the real mind may have difficulty destroying it and may become trapped.

Incomprehensible Occlumency -300 CP (Requires “Basic Occlumency”)

A strange form of Occlumency used by the Lovegood Family that causes your mind to become illegible and alien to any Legilimencer. This makes it so that anyone using Legilimency can't understand anything they view in your memories.

With this Perk you gain a great deal of knowledge on true Light Magic both theoretical and practical. All Light Magic relies upon the lighter aspects of a person's mind and emotions in order to be used. Most true light spells leave a rejuvenating effect on the target of the spell making them far healthier and happier. Light Rituals often require a positive state of being with the sacrifice of some negative emotions and like Light Potions require the use of ingredients charged with Positive Emotion either literal such as using the blood freely given from a loved one or using chrysanthemums. Prolonged use of the Light Arts will have an effect on the user making them far more Peaceful and Forgiving even during combat.

Dark Arts Booster Pack -100 CP

The Dark Arts are often mislabeled by the ministry of magic as a number of ordinary spells are banned as Dark Magic by those with a personal interest despite them lacking the functions to make them truly the Dark Arts. With this Perk you gain a great deal of knowledge on true Dark Magic both theoretical and practical. All Dark Magic relies upon the darker aspects of a person's mind and emotions in order to be used. Most true dark spells leave a corrosive effect on any wounds they make, causing them to be incredibly hard to remove and often leaving scars on the survivors. Dark Rituals often require a negative state of being with the sacrifice of some positive emotions and like Dark Potions require the use of ingredients charged with Negative Emotion either literal such as using the blood forcefully taken from an enemy or using petunias. However with this Perk you no longer have to go through the ritual and instead must select 1 mundane animal and are now able to transform into that creature almost instantly. Mechanically all Animagus forms will function as both an Alt-Form and a transformation that you can take from any Alt-Form.

Focused Apparition -200 CP

You are now a master at mundane Apparition allowing you to teleport with a loud snap to any location you can imagine. The further the distance you intend to travel the more raw magical power you will need to make the leap, though the same distance can be made through smaller jumps but if you haven't been to the location you run the risk of appearing into an object which will cause you to bounce off it into a nearby empty space and feel a notable amount of pain.

Silent Apparition -200 CP (Requires “Focused Apparition”)

This accidental magic is explosively responsive making it effective for dealing with a target of anger or fear for self-defence but dangerous to use without a focus. You will typically have no control over this magic but could learn to use it in a more practical sense.

Silent Spells -100 CP (Requires “Accidental Magic”, Free with “Kneazle Got your Tongue”)

You are now able to internalize spellcasting when wielding magic without using any verbal components. This means that when you start using a spell you will only need to think of the incantation to cast it but with time and practice you can learn to silently cast spells through intending it without needing any form of incantation.

Magical Intent -300 CP (Requires “Silent Spells” and “Who needs a Wand”)

Your magic now dances to your whims allowing you to continuously wield your magic through intent alone almost like accidental magic. This allows you to use your magic with the intent to cause an effect without needing to cast any specific spells but having a spell effect take place.

Limitless Bonds -200 CP

Some forms of magic require you to create a magical bond such as gaining a familiar or some forms of marriage. Some of these bonds will have a limitation to them preventing you from bonding with more than a certain number of targets. Cleansing Balance -200 CP

When casting Dark or Light magic both require emotional components or intent to cast successfully. Light magic like the Patronus requires positive emotions such as joy whereas darker magic such as Fiendfyre requires darker emotions like hate and violence. When using Dark or Light spells or rituals they often leave behind traces both physical and mental. These after effects can build up and eventually cause physical or emotional changes such as blackening nails, pale skin, glowing eye or loss of a nose they can also have a negative mental effect by making you feel the emotions needed for a spell more easily with each casting until it becomes a dominant emotion. With this Perk your body and mind have an innate sense of balance that will remove these traces and after effects gradually cleansing any decay or mental changes gained from casting those spells or rituals.

Gray Balance -200 CP (Requires “Cleansing Balance”, “Light Arts Booster Pack”, “Dark Arts Booster Pack” and “Repressive Occlumency”)

When casting Dark or Light magic you are normally required to pull upon specific emotions but now you are able to fake them. You can now use your Occlumency to tap into the required emotions and state of mind required for Light or Dark Magic without truly feeling those emotions. As a result of this the traces of this magic will fail to latch on onto you and are easily washed away by your balance almost as soon as the spell is cast.

Superior Transfiguration -200 CP (Discounted for Gryffindor)

Through Transfiguration magic you are able to easily alter the physical shape of things. While normally new students are only able to transform small objects into other similar sized objects you have the knowledge and capabilities to transform objects and people into alternate forms such as a raven into a writing desk or a harmless knickknack into a feral wolf. You can even perform partial Transfiguration on yourself in order to gain gills, longer legs or even take on a monstrous form however using these transformations to fly or swim will be less comfortable and less effective than taking a capable form through Animagus.

Precise Potions -200 CP (Discounted for Slytherin)

You have a talent for the magical profession of Potion making the art of combining ingredients to create consumables that have long term effects on the consumer. Through this you understand how to effectively prepare your ingredients, have a precise understanding of the reactions going on in any potion you make and can remove some of the negative effects without lessening the positive such as removing the foul taste. Normally this is used to brew medical aid such as wart remover or Wiggensweld Potions which mostly just enhance the natural healing process but you can also brew potions that grant the drinker abilities they did not have before such as taking the form of another through the Polyjuice, gaining immense luck through the Felix Felicis or fire immunity through the Ice Potion.

Persistent Charms -200 CP (Discounted for Ravenclaw)

You are now a natural prodigy with Charms, the magic of altering how something behaves without altering its shape. The changes you can make can range from changing the temperature of the air or altering someone's state of consciousness or even how light behaves. You have also learned how to interweave these charms with other effects allowing you to create magical logic gates and apply delays on when magical effects will trigger. A simple use of this would be a magical lock that only disengages when a password is said. Additionally should you choose to set up an enchantment you can anchor them together so that unless all the enchantments are removed they will all function.

Permanent Enchanting -200 CP (Discounted for Hufflepuff)

You now have the capacity to embed magical effects into objects. This is normally done through runes, a diverse school of magic that focus on symbols placed together to make potentially permanently magical effects but you also have knowledge of a number of quick spells for simpler effects to be enchanted onto items. You can even combine enchantments to make a flaming sword that heals like the Episkey spell or create a combat golem with complex enchantments that grant it a simulacrum of a personality.

Magical Bones -400 CP (Requires "Source of Magic")

Your bone marrow while still producing Blood and Glucose now also produces a type of nutrient called Mana or Blood Mana. By using your body's Blood Mana you would be able to perform magic even if you were trapped in some form of anti-magic field however the how far that magic can be used outside of your body depends on your magical power. Your body can utilize Mana as though it were Blood Glucose allowing you to utilize it to prevent exhaustion or starvation with those with enough raw magical power being able to sustain themselves without food so long as they don't overuse their magic.

Your magic is now able to passively heal and repair your body. Whenever you are injured your magic will automatically realign any broken bones, repair any torn muscle tissue and patch up cuts or wounds you have taken. Though this is a tiring process, the more powerful your raw magic is, the easier it will be, the faster you will heal and the more effective the magical repairs will become. While this won't grant you any form of immortality it should see you through surviving any injuries so long as you don't die instantly or die of exhaustion.

Magic Armor -400 CP (Requires “Source of Magic”)

You are now able to solidify your magic around your body making it a durable and physically enhancing power armor. The exact shape of the magic armor will depend on your focus and intent while its size, durability and strength enhancing properties will depend on your raw magical power. Someone like Snape using this would be bigger than and overpowering a troll.

Ancient Magic -400 CP (Requires “Source of Magic”)

You have a natural capacity to wield Ancient Magic allowing you to see the traces and whispers of this powerful but primal form of magic. Ancient Magic functions almost as the opposite of an Obscurus as it is a luminous mass of magic that is controlled through instinctive actions. The user can unleash raw magic for it to take on the shape of the user's intentions such as mimicking magical beasts or offensively projected emulations of the natural elements. Those with the ability are also able to channel Ancient Magic into Modern Magic in order to enhance it in unique ways such as augmenting spells with increased power and potency or ignoring some fundamentals of magic theory.

Recursive Potential -400 CP (Discounted with “Magic Mind”)

You have an amazing mind allowing you to learn magic usage with ease. Though this may not help with the theoretical side of magical education you will find the practical side easy as you are able to quickly copy and learn any spells you seek or read from a book. Whenever you cast a spell you will instantly cast the spell 100 times within a realistic theatre of the mind. You will remember the experience of each attempt without any of the consequences, while retaining any understanding or improvements you would have made through each casting. The hundredth and first casting of the spell will be the first true casting of the spell.

Magic Zone -600 CP (Requires "Source of Magic")

You are able to passively spread your magic beyond your body, having it expand over an area of space. From this you can sense all things within the area allowing you to perceive it with an awareness of all senses from all angles as well as perceive magic as though it were a colour or flavour.

Capstone Booster:

You are now able to control the effects that take within an area your magic is spread across allowing you to apply spells you know to everything within such as Silencio to mute everything, Episkey to passively heal everything or even Avada Kedavra to kill everything. The more powerful your magic the larger the area you can control with it having the potential to encompass everything.

Magic Ocean -600 CP (Requires "Source of Magic")

Your magic is now fluidic allowing you to store it in an ocean-like field within your body and spread it like a liquid. When you come into contact with magical effects that target your body you will be able to absorb the spells or other magical effects into your Magical Ocean negating their effects while replenishing your reserves. The more raw magical power you possess the larger your Ocean will become and the more powerful the dangerous effects will be that you can absorb.

Capstone Booster:

You now know how to meditate in order to enlarge your Magical Ocean thereby increasing the amount of raw magic power you have available. To begin with, an hour's worth of meditation would be enough to increase your raw magical power by roughly 1% but it may change with time and practice.

Power the Dark Lord knows not -600 CP

You have a deep and powerful well of magic superior to the greatest wizards in the world. This gives you an amazing innate magical power with your raw magic being stronger than the combined power of the canon Dumbledore, Voldemort and Grindelwald. Anyone who has a life debt towards you will find their affection towards you growing in proportion to the size of the debt until they feel love towards you. To complete this scenario your version of the Harry Potter Books must become more popular than the stories of the mundane world.

Additionally any truthful statements you give are believed regardless of if those who hear them want to believe it or not.

Rita Skeeter

A walking quill with a taste for scandal, Rita Skeeter is a magically-enhanced journalist whose bite is often worse than her bark—though both are formidable. With acid-green robes, sharp beetle-green eyes behind jewel-studded glasses, and perfectly coiffed blonde curls, and a body made for sin, she oozes theatrical flair and barely concealed malice. Rita is ambitious, clever, and relentlessly nosy, possessing an Animagus form (a beetle, unregistered of course) and a charmed Quick-Quotes Quill that turns any interview into front-page fiction. She'll travel with you not out of loyalty, but because you're a living headline— she can be useful for social manipulation, secrets, or sowing chaos in a rival's reputation. She'll do anything for a scoop... even if it means mixing business with pleasure. Keep her close, flatter her ego, and you might just get her ink working for you instead of against.

Political Purging

It's not a surprise that the current ministry is woefully incompetent. You need to purge corruption and make the Ministry an actually competent governing body. You also need to make sure that the Pureblood control over the ministry is weakened so that the Half-Blood and Muggleborn (or more progressive "New Blood") have a somewhat fair representation in this governing body (at least a third).

New Minister of Magic (Requires "Political Purging")

It seems as though you have an eye for the political world and an interest in becoming the Minister of Magic. While this may sound simple, especially if you're popular, don't be fooled it requires a lot of hard work and financial backing to successfully campaign for a ministerial bid. To legally start a ministerial bid you will need at least a decade of experience working within the ministry regardless of how beloved you are. To complete this scenario you must win the position of Minister legally and honestly.

Rewards:

For completing "New Minister of Magic" Scenario you will gain the Perk "Ministerial Requirements" and +200 CP.

You will know which policies you can enact to fulfill your goals, how to keep people happy and even how best to root out corruption and dissidence.

Mutant Obscurus (requires “Obscurial” and “Magic Soul”)

It seems your Obscurial issue has a light at the end of the tunnel as you are now able to consume Horcruxes and for each of Voldemort’s Horcruxes you overpower and consume the greater control you will gain over your magic and Obscurial. Once you have consumed all of Voldemort’s Horcruxes and his deceased soul you will complete this Scenario.

Rewards:

For completing “Mutant Obscurus” Scenario you will gain the Perk “Obscurus” and +300 CP.

Obscurus

Now in addition to having your Magic function as it should, your Obscurus now acts like a natural part of your body specifically your shadow. Your Obscurus is an instinctive part of your body allowing you to move it like you would your limbs. The black particles your Obscurus is made from is a type of raw magic meaning muggles are unable to see it as it can float and maneuver through the air in a smoke like state, an ethereal shadow or even a solid physical form as you express it in your mind. While your Obscurus is not normally dangerous to those you care for, if you are unconscious it will act using your instinctive response to protect you from anyone who attempts to harm you. Your Obscurus is able to fly, move through solid objects with great strength and release blasts of raw magic. You are also able to merge into your Obscurus allowing you to take an even greater level of control over it and with practice you will be able to wield magic as effectively as casting a spell.

To complete this scenario you must not only collect all the hallows but also must complete a Trial for each object in order to truly make it yours otherwise each item will subtly betray you over time. You may optionally include "The Veil of Death" as a Deathly Hallow, the bridge that defeated death but must complete its Trial to complete this Scenario.

- To complete the Trial of the Veil you must find and send 1000 of the non-living through the Bridge of Death. To do this you must summon the arch containing the Veil and force undead, unliving and non-beings through the veil. Inferi would be fairly easy to send through individually and dementors could be pushed through using the Expecto Patronum but ghosts and poltergeists would take some convincing to pass over.

With this 1-UP you will return to life upon death with your body fully restored to its optimal form with the 1-UP refreshing once per Jump or once every 10 years whichever is first. If you die and have already used your 1-UP you will become a wraith-like spirit but should you remain in this state at the end of the Jump it will count as a jump failure.

Legacy of Hogwarts (Requires “Ancient Magic”)

The events of this Scenario will start to take place shortly before the fifth year starts as you will come across an artifact hiding a Portkey that will teleport you to the Scottish Highlands. Within the Highlands, they find a ruin with a portal to Gringotts allowing Ranrok to instigate a goblin rebellion alongside Victor Rookwood, the leader of a group of Dark Wizards. This will set into motion the event of Hogwarts Legacy with the characters of that story changing to match the modern age such as students attending Hogwarts before this scenario starts so that they match their canon age when they reach 5th year and the teachers of Hogwarts Legacy becoming the assistant professors of their subjects often teaching the classes while the other professors are busy. To complete this scenario you must find the repository as well as defeat both Rookwood and Ranrok.

Lost Hogwarts Mystery

Hidden deep within the walls of Hogwarts are the Cursed Vaults are five legendary hidden rooms at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, the last bastions of an ancient and dark history. Though some alleged that the vaults housed priceless treasures such as gold, prophecies, and other powerful magical artefacts the truth is somewhat stranger. The Vaults, rather than being used for hoarding treasure, are a series of locks that act as an outlet for very old, very dark magic that could potentially destroy the wizarding world. Each Vault allows part of the dark magic to safely be expelled within specific dark curses which are isolated to prevent harm. Unfortunately without Jacob proving them to be real the Vaults have remained hidden and their darkness built up to a dangerous level that may soon be unleashed upon an unsuspecting world. To complete this scenario you must find and unlock each vault releasing their build up of dark magic and then relock them to prevent the release of this dark force. Each vault contains a different set of magical puzzles, dangerous creatures, impenetrable spells and enchanted traps that test magical knowledge, abilities, bravery and wit to succeed. Normally these Mysteries would have been discovered and resolved by a student named Jacob and their sibling however in this world those two never entered the gates of Hogwarts.

In this setting the students who normally entered the school in 1983 instead started in 1989. Patricia Rakepick will become the Defence Against the Dark Arts Teacher in the 1992 school year instead of Gilderoy Lockhart. Revenge Fantasy

For the duration of this Pre-Jump Scenario all of the memories you gained since shortly before you started your first jumpchain will be locked and you will perceive your existence as a regular Harry Potter isekai with you replacing the title character.

You will start this Pre-Jump Scenario as Harry Potter at midnight between the 30th and 31st of July 1991 moments before Rubeus Hagrid breaks open the door of the cold sea shack.

You will have access to “You're a Wizard Harry” and “Source of Magic” Perks with the “Horcrux” and “Prophecy” drawbacks.

Within 10 years of you starting this Pre-Jump Scenario you will be betrayed by everyone you trust resulting in your death. In this instance your death will count as you succeeding in this Pre-Jump Scenario.

In the Event that you have Bodymods that cannot be deactivated a copy of you from before you started your jumpchain will be created who will be put into this Scenario. Victory Lap

Post-Jump but before starting any new Jumps you can use this Perk to revisit any setting you have been to before as though it were the start of a new jump. New Game + (Requires “Revenge Fantasy”)

This second iteration of you will be sorted into the opposite Hogwarts house of which you were sorted into during the “Revenge Fantasy” Pre-Jump Scenario.

For this Pre-Jump Scenario “Gryffindor” is the opposite of “Slytherin” and “Ravenclaw” is the opposite of “Hufflepuff”. After 10 years have passed or you have completed/failed the Test Run Jump you will begin a second iteration of the Jump identical to the first but with all restrictions removed while you retain the memories of your test run.

The Full Set (Requires “New Game +”)

Instead of just going through the “Revenge Fantasy” and “New Game +” Pre-Jump Scenario experiencing the life of Harry Potter once or twice you will go through it four times. Each iteration of you will lack any of your memories from shortly before you started your first jump and each will be sorted into different houses in different continuities unaware of the others. It was known to be capable of human speech and had intelligence comparable to a Being, however, due to its extreme aggressiveness towards humans, it was considered a sentient beast. The Manticore's skin is known to repel all known charms, so it was extremely difficult to subdue a Manticore with magic. However, being invulnerable to spells was not the same as being durable; it was possible to take down a Manticore by dropping something large and heavy on top of it. Additionally, Manticores were easily mesmerised by bright lights, such as the light produced by the Wand-Lighting Charm.

The Monster Girl/Boy variant of the Manticore has bat-like wings on her back, a scorpion tail, and lion-like ears, hands and feet. She also has yellow eyes. They are highly intelligent, with a cunning and cruel disposition.

Basilisk -400 CP (Discounted for Slytherin)

The Basilisk is a giant snake that could grow up to fifty feet in length also known as the King of Serpents. The Basilisk is a phenomenally lethal creature with those who make direct eye contact with a Basilisk having an instantaneous death and even indirect eye contact would render the victim Petrified. As the Basilisk is a serpent, a Parselmouth could communicate with it and potentially place the creature under their influence. They also possessed rows of incredibly sharp fangs which produce venom poisonous enough that there is only one known antidote: phoenix tear.

If purchased with “Chamber of Secrets” you can choose for this Basilisk to be the fabled Basilisk in the chamber.

The Monster Girl/Boy variant of the Basilisk tends to wear masks to hide their eyes, they have the upper body of a human, with pointy ears and the tail of a snake that starts around the hips, they possess venomous fangs inside their mouths.

Lethifold -400 CP (Discounted for Ravenclaw)

The Lethifold, also known as the Living Shroud is a carnivorous and extremely dangerous magical beast. It was also considered a Dark creature because of its extremely aggressive and violent nature. The Lethifold resembles a black cloak roughly half an inch thick, and appeared slightly thicker if the creature had recently digested a victim. It attacks at night, when the target is asleep, by suffocating and then digesting them.

The Monster Girl/Boy variant of a Lethifold is able to take the form of clothing and can take the form of a half-transparent female clad in said clothing. While in the form of clothing the Lethifold can be worn by anyone with it changing to be optimally tailored to the one wearing them without making them feel constrained.

Nundu -400 CP (Discounted for Hufflepuff)

The Nundu are a large East African magical beast that resembles a leopard. Nundu are able to move silently, despite their "gigantic" size and are considered by some to be the most dangerous creature alive. The breath of the Nundu was toxic and filled with disease so potent that it could wipe out entire villages of people. The Nundu was extremely hard to subdue. It had never been defeated by fewer than around one hundred wizards working together.

The Monster Girl/Boy variant of a Nundu has cat ears, a tail, and paw-like hands and feet, with a bit of fur on her legs and arms. They have a flexible and strong body, and are talented when it comes to springing on an unsuspecting victim. They have extremely capricious personalities, oftentimes switching their attitude without warning.

Drawbacks:

You are able to select any of the following Drawbacks to gain additional CP to spend in this Jump-Doc.

When there are contradictions between Drawbacks and Perks the Drawbacks will supersede Perks.

Horcrux - Free/Mandatory (Requires “Lightning Bolt”)

Your scar now contains a fragment of Voldemort’s soul though contained within sacrificial magic. This gives you the Parseltongue ability and a form of mental protection that prevents anyone from diving deeper than your surface thoughts through legilimency. You can not complete this jump without destroying this Horcrux and when it is destroyed you will lose the benefits it gives you. If you have used “Well, Some Say He Died” to keep Voldemort dead in this jump, all of his Horcruxes including this drawback are destroyed removing this Drawback.

Prophecy - Free/Mandatory

You are now subject to the prophecy which both restricts you and acts as a form of plot armor. The following prophecy must be fulfilled by you through how is up to interpretation.

“The one with the power to vanquish the Dark Lord approaches... born to those who have thrice defied him, born as the seventh month dies... and the Dark Lord will mark him as his equal, but he will have power the Dark Lord knows not... and either must die at the hand of the other for neither can live while the other survives...”

Gender terms may change depending on the subjects i.e. “him” to “her”, “he” to “she”.

The Girl-Who-Lived - Free

By selecting this drawback you may choose to either invert the gender of anyone or everyone in the world or to make Harry Potter into a female equivalent such as Harriet Potter or make Voldemort’s real name being May Movolta Riddle instead of Tom Marvolo Riddle.

Supplement Mode - Free

By taking this Toggle, you can use this jump with any other Harry Potter jump merging both worlds in a single one with the traits of both. The single rule is that you must stay at least ten years in the resulting world even if your stay in the other jump would be shorter than a decade. If taken with “Crossover” you can choose to use this Jump as a supplement for a Jump in the selected crossover setting so long as it does not prevent you from being Harry Potter.

Crossover - Free

With this Drawback you can select other fictional settings that are compatible with the world of Harry Potter and make them take place in this Jump. You could have the MCU take place in this world though it will probably only add Captain America to the history books, you could have it take place in the Stargate Continuity with the forming of SG-1 taking place in your seventh year at hogwarts or you could add Jackie Chan Adventures and the events will start to take place nine years into the jump. This can not however be used to connect to a Jump setting independent of earth such as an Isekai, in a setting where the earth is unrecognisable such as Dragon Ball or One Piece or in a setting where the mechanics of magic is distinctly different such as Charmed or Sabrina the teenage witch.

If taken with “Supplement Mode” you can choose to use this Jump as a supplement for a Jump in the selected crossover setting so long as it does not prevent you from being Harry Potter.

Pixelated Tasks of Limited Coding - Free

With this drawback the additional details that occurred in the Harry Potter Games including the various Movie Games and their Sequels become integrated into the canon of this World. While these details may seem odd such as having coins and gems floating in Gringotts or a narrow corridor with gaps that are littered with Every Flavored Beans there are some interesting places for you to explore and find treasure around Hogwarts.

Exchange Week - Free

Three times per year Hogwarts has an exchange program with Ilvermorny Academy of Witchcraft & Wizardry where students from the various schools visit one another in order to have small competitions and social interactions.

Orphan - Free (Incompatible with “The Dursleys”)

By selecting this drawback, the history of the wizarding world changed the day that Harry Potter was left at 4 Privet Drive. On the 1st of November 1981, when Vernon and Petunia Dursley awoke, they found an infant in a basket with a note. After briefly reading the note the couple took him and placed him into local authorities care resulting in him being raised in a residential children's home.

Headstart - Free/+50/100/200 CP

You may wish to start the Jump earlier than the day Harry gets his Hogwarts Letter and with this Option you can. You will only gain the Perks, Items or Companions other than the Hogwarts Letter that were Free before discounts were applied. Any Items or Companions that are Free will be delivered to you when you ask for them. You will have minor plot armour to protect you until the jump starts and you will be unaffected by the negative effects of your Drawbacks until your Hogwarts Letter arrives. When your Hogwarts Letter does arrive you will gain all all your purchases from this document:

For Free you can start this Jump a year early on Harry's Tenth Birthday 31 July 1990.

For +50 CP you start this Jump three years early on Harry's Eighth Birthday 31 July 1988.

For +100 CP you start this Jump six years early on Harry's Fifth Birthday 31 July 1985.

For +200 CP you start this Jump eleven years early the date of Harry's Birth 31 July 1980.

If used with Hogwarts University you will still go to those dates and that point in time however you will be older than the stated ages, depending on what age you have Hogwarts begin accepting students.

Optician Required +50 CP

It seems your eyesight is highly restrictive as you can not see anything other than indistinct blurs without wearing glasses. Neither Magical or Muggle forms of healing can remove this drawback and any form of contact lens will feel incredibly itchy.

Extra Time +50 CP

With each purchase of this drawback your total time in this jump is extended by 5 years however you must be alive at the end of the jump time. This drawback can be taken a maximum of 20 times totaling a total time of 110 years and +1000 CP.

Neville Longbottom and the Philosopher's Stone +100 CP (Incompatible with "Narrative Drawbacks")

It seems that on the night of the 31st of October 1981 Voldemort made a different choice and Neville Longbottom became the Boy-Who-Lived. This drawback supersedes any other as you are no longer Harry Potter but instead Neville Longbottom. Any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter or any points in their life will be changed to be appropriate to Neville Longbottom and the Longbottom family.

Age Appropriate +100 CP

You're eleven Harry! With this drawback you and all characters are locked to their canon age preventing you from changing your own and other peoples ages for the duration of the jump.

Cursed Class +100 CP

It looks like Voldemort Cursed more classes than merely the Defence Against the Dark Arts Class as with this Drawback you must select one Uncursed class to suffer from the same issue. This means that the subject will get a new teacher each year with them at some point either intentionally or not attacking you. You may take this Drawback up to 4 times but may not choose Transfiguration, Herbology, Charms or Potions to suffer from this curse.

Half-Blood +100 CP

Despite being the famous Harry Potter the blood purest and most Pure-Bloods will go out of their way to discriminate against you. Most of the time this will just bring them acting entitled towards you and being generally rude towards you.

The Lesser Good +100 CP

The majority of Death Eaters are not the monsters that the most well known would make you think they are. Some are just magical people who hate that their traditions and beliefs are being demonised and outlawed by the pro-muggle faction led by Dumbledore with Voldemort being a figurehead for change. Some were forcefully conscripted after being told if they don't join the death eaters they would be imperio'd into torturing their family to death and handed over to corrupt Auror. You may find that most of the frontline infantry in a combat situation are just civilians who have been imperio'd into fighting. In a combat situation this may not matter but after the fact you may find you have a lot of innocent blood on your hands.

Higher Education +100 CP

By taking this Drawback you are unable to complete this jump until you have pursued and legitimately completed a mastery in one magical subject. You must either pursue this mastery as an apprentice for a master wizard or if one exists in this setting you may gain your mastery through a University of Magic. Normally receiving a mastery in any subject would require at least five years of study and training after completing Hogwarts.

Tear Filled Bite +100 CP

You're at some point had the misfortune of being bitten by a Basilisk however you have also been lucky enough to have a Phoenix cry into the wound. This has stopped the venom from killing you, it has not removed it. This means that every so often you will gain an unpleasant burning sensation that will slowly be healed by the Phoenix tears in your system.

Scarface +100 CP (Requires "Horcrux")

Normally your lightning bolt scar is small and even somewhat charming however with this drawback your scar is gruesome and blackened taking up half of your face.

Lewd Poker Face +100 CP

It will be obvious whenever you are having sexual thoughts to anyone who sees your face and they will easily tell if those thoughts are about them.

Hairy Twatter and the Philosopher's Moan +100 CP

It seems that someone has got a lump of your hair and used it in Polyjuice with aging potions to make a number of pornographic movies with your doppelganger as the central character.

Educator +100 CP

By taking this Drawback you are required to spend at least ten years total working as a teacher for a magical education institution such as Hogwarts or Durnstrum in order to complete this Jump.

Wand Lore +100 CP

By taking this Drawback you are required to craft at least 100 functional wands and effectively match them to at least 100 witches and wizards in order to complete this Jump.

Game Logic +100/200 CP (Requires: "Pixelated Tasks of Limited Coding")

For +100 CP to learn any Spells you must first use your wand to complete a rhythm based pointing game using your wand to learn the Spell you need to complete each stage Perfectly. For +200 CP you will also be sent to complete the objectives that the various video game Harry Potters did such as retrieving a sloth brain for Professor Snape.

Pre-Built House Loyalty +100/200/300 CP

It seems that in this Continuity the House Cup is far more important than merely a soft attempt at discipline, should you fail in this Drawbacks task you will be sent back in time and must repeat the year again with your house acting slightly more hostile towards you. If you fail repeatedly they will eventually become violent towards you without knowing why.

For +100 CP you must ensure that your house claims the House Cup at the end of the Year.

For +200 CP your personal capacity to personally earn House Points is removed making it impossible to earn points but you still can lose them.

For +300 CP not only must you also make your opposite house come in last place, "Gryffindor" is the opposite of "Slytherin" and "Ravenclaw" is the opposite of "Hufflepuff".

Magic Blocks +100/200/400/800/1600 CP

With this Drawback your magic will have restraints on it that weakens your magical abilities.

This restriction also blocks what Magic Perks you have access to by the total amount of CP the Perks you purchased from the Magic Perks section are worth before discounts were applied.

- For +100 CP you have a magic seal that leaves 10% of your magic blocked. This means you will only have 90% of your Raw Magic. Additionally for every 10 CP worth of Perks you have purchased in the Magic Perks section at least 1 CP worth of Magic Perks rounded up will be locked.
- For +200 CP you have two magic seals that leave 25% of your magic blocked. This means you will only have 75% of your Raw Magic. Additionally for every 4 CP worth of Perks you have purchased in the Magic Perks section at least 1 CP worth of Magic Perks rounded up will be locked.
- For +400 CP you have three magic seals that leave 50% of your magic blocked. This means you will only have 50% of your Raw Magic. Additionally for every 2 CP worth of Perks you have purchased in the Magic Perks section at least 1 CP worth of Magic Perks rounded up will be locked.
- For +800 CP you have four magic seals that leave 75% of your magic blocked. This means you will only have 25% of your Raw Magic. Additionally for every 4 CP worth of Perks you have purchased in the Magic Perks section at least 3 CP worth of Magic Perks rounded up will be locked.
- For +1600 CP you have five magic seals that leave 90% of your magic blocked. This means you will only have 10% of your Raw Magic. Additionally for every 10 CP worth of Perks you have purchased in the Magic Perks section at least 9 CP worth of Magic Perks rounded up will be locked.

You may select what Magic Perks are restricted in each rank so long as the CP amount reaches the total CP restriction. It will be possible for you to remove these Magical Seals in a few ways such as overloading your magic, however each seal's removal will be painful and you will only be able to remove 1 seal at a time. If you regain access to the "Power the Dark Lord knows not" it will have the percentage restriction applied to the total amount of Raw Magic available.

Disinteresting Student +100 CP (Doubled for Gryffindor)

You seem to emit an aura of monotony causing everyone who doesn't know you to think you are a boring stick in the mud that wouldn't know fun if it hit them.

Standoffish +100 CP (Doubled for Slytherin)

It seems that everyone considers you a threat, the other students will actively avoid you and make it difficult for you to get to know them.

Puzzling +100 CP (Doubled for Ravenclaw)

Others who don't know you well will find it very difficult to understand the intentions behind anything you say. A simple hello could be misconstrued to a threat or asking someone to pass a pen could be seen as a riddle.

Failure +100 CP (Doubled for Hufflepuff)

Anyone who doesn't know you well will automatically expect you to fail at whatever you are trying to do. This will cause those who mean well to push you to work harder and those who don't mean well to attempt to discredit you.

Potter Luck +200 CP

Every year you will find yourself being forcefully dragged into whatever shenanigans are happening that year and often blamed for it. You will always find yourself in the center of an event or its immediate aftermath making it so that you are the most likely suspect of a basilisk attack, a casting of the dark mark, in the center of a troll attack or the murder of a student. This will often result in you suffering from pain, injuries and blame while your actions to end the problems are virtually ignored.

The Only Family he has +200 CP (Requires "Wrong Boy-Who-Lived")

It seems that not only were the Dursley's horrible people but so were Lily and James. While they adore the fame they got from the child they kept, they see Harry as something disgusting and unworthy of their time.

Dreams of Failure +200 CP

Each night you will dream of the life of a version of Harry Potter who failed to fulfill their destiny. You will remember their life, their love, their hate, their defeat and their death, experiencing each one as though it were you and your failure.

Do or Do not +200 CP

A strange wrinkly green house-elf will start appearing at some point during the jump in order to cause you trouble under the intention of training you. Though this strange house-elf means well they keep eating your food, damaging your property, interrupting your activities and sacking threats on you that could potentially maim you, they are doing all of this in order to "help" you. If you genuinely try to learn what this house-elf is teaching you it could be beneficial but with their broken speech and penchant for showing up when you're busy, they will more often than not just be an inconvenience to you with their comical but painful antics.

Harry-Hunting +200 CP

It seems that you're a walking talking target for violence, as whenever someone nearby wants to start a fight or attack someone non-specific they seem to be almost drawn to you. These attacks could come at any time from random thugs or bullies with delusion of grandeur even if you have a reputation.

Blame it on Potter +200 CP

It doesn't matter whether you did something or not nobody in positions of authority will believe you. Whenever you are within Hogwarts anything that goes wrong which can be blamed on you will be blamed on you. When a teacher sees two students fighting while you're nearby then you will be punished and they are praised for 'defending themselves'. The teachers will be oblivious to their prejudice even when it's proven that they are wrong.

Problematic Prophecy +200 CP

It seems that a prophecy that was accidentally made public knowledge is actually about you. This prophecy will state problematic information about you including secrets and weaknesses. It's not obvious that the prophecy is about you but some people may be able to put the clues together.

Unpleasant Pleasure +200 CP

With this drawback something in your mind changes but only in the lustful sense. You must choose to gain either masochistic or sadistic sexual tendencies and will find yourself falling into that role during sexual activities regardless of if you want to or not.

Fan-block +200 CP

It seems that any attempt to get romantic or sensual interactions with others will be blocked by fans and stalkers like Romilda Vane. These people will go to unsettling depths to get in your way including potioning you, spreading rumors and just making up lies to get in your way.

Release Requirement +200 CP

It seems that you are far more horny than would be expected, this will require you to “release” at least once per day, though you may find “releasing” multiple times a day a more effective way to concentrate.

When My Father Hears Of This...! +200 CP

Whenever you have a personal argument or disagreement with a student at Hogwarts they will make sure to rope their family members into the conflict. Most reasonable parents will not get involved however death eaters and politically connected parents may take petty revenge against you.

Self Preservation +200 CP (Doubled for Gryffindor)

You seem to lack any, no matter the danger no matter the threat you seem to face it as though you are invulnerable. The greater the chances of you being crippled maimed or killed the more excited you become.

You're only Paranoid if You're Wrong! +200 CP (Doubled for Slytherin)

It seems you've not only taken a page out of mad-eyes book, you've written a sequel. You expect every word to be a thinly veiled threat, every offer to be a chance of preempt betrayal, every moment of weakness to be an opportunity to be attacked.

Hyper Focused +200 CP (Doubled for Ravenclaw)

It seems that whenever you are interested in something it becomes your whole world, any spell, any task, any topic of discussion could set you off into a spiral of research and testing that could take days away as you prioritize the topic over work, food, sleep and socialising.

Too Nice +200 CP (Doubled for Hufflepuff)

You tend to be overly accommodating for others, allowing them to dictate or make decisions for you. While most of the time this will be simple things such as what to eat or where to go if left unchecked you could find others determining your whole life for you.

Horny Magic +200/300 CP

When interacting with magic you will find yourself becoming sexually excited, making you slightly more horny. Though a small amount of magic interaction can be dealt with through masturbation prolonged interaction with magic will make reducing your arousal far more difficult, possibly requiring sexual assistance. Your arousal will grow exponentially meaning that the more aroused you are already the more aroused any further Spells will make you.

For +200 CP you will only be sexually affected whenever you cast spells or use magic.

For +300 CP you will be sexually affected by any usage of magic that you come into contact with rather than just your own.

Obscurial +200/400 CP (Requires “Horcrux” and either “The Dursleys” or “Wool's Orphanage”)

Unfortunately your suffering at the hands of your supposed care givers combined with the torment you have had from the Horcrux in your scar have had a horrific side effect, you are now an Obscurial, your magic has become parasitic in nature causing your magical force to become an Obscurus. From this you will be a ticking time bomb as should you lose control over your magic it will explosively lash out causing death and destruction. If you have taken the Magic Blocks Drawback you will only gain +200 CP from this drawback as the Magic Blocks will also weaken your Obscurus by the same percentage making it less dangerous.

Tom Riddle Returns +200/400 CP (Doubled if taken with “Tom and Tom Again”)

Perhaps they performed some dark magic, perhaps they gained a divination of what is to come or perhaps your Horcrux transmitted information you would have preferred it did not.

Regardless of the reason it seems that Voldemort now benefits from knowledge of the future.

For +200 CP Voldemort now knows the full events of the canon timeline, both the books and the movies, depending on the settings this may confuse the Dark Lord a great deal.

For +400 CP you don't recall taking this Drawback and Voldemort now knows of all of your skills, perks, items and abilities whilst being immune to any form of non-consensual mind manipulation abilities you possess.

If taken with “Tom and Tom Again” all of Tom Riddle's Horcruxes will benefit from this Drawback gaining the knowledge and protections that this perk would bestow the original.

Catnip for Magical Beast +200/400/600 CP

For +200 CP Magical Beasts seem slightly drawn to you, this should be a minor annoyance if you don't interact with them as they will simply find you interesting to smell or look at.

At +400 CP Magical Beasts will actively try to get to you and want to interact with you.

At +600 CP Magical Beasts will try to find you even in the muggle world and try to collect you.

Harry's Moving Castle +200/400/600 CP

For +200 CP Hogwarts will completely rearrange itself over the summer holidays, each year you will have to relearn the school layout and no one else will notice the changes.

For +400 CP instead of each year, every month the school will re-arrange itself.

For +600 CP the school rearranges itself every day and still no one else will notice.

The Twin-Who-Returned +200/400/600 CP (Requires "Wrong Boy-Who-Lived")

It seems that you are not the only one given another chance, your twin will return as they awake the day after the Hogwarts Sorting Ceremony. Your twin was raised in luxury becoming a selfish spoiled brat who was given fame and the love of the public for being the one who killed Voldemort. While they are an arrogant braggart more focused on what fame they have than what good they could do, they have returned from a future where they blame you for how everything went wrong. Their alternate timeline is similar to this Jump, however their Harry Potter rose up, defeating the various threats that attacked Hogwarts while the supposed Child-Who-Lived took no actions to help but still feebly tried to take the credit for the victory, something that filled your twin with humiliation every time they failed. With many seeing through the lies of your twin, they found their fame dwindling as they were constantly sidelined, unable to get in on the glory all the while Harry kept saving the day. Eventually your twin was revealed to be a fake as after Harry killed Voldemort, the prophecy's contents became public knowledge causing the house of cards to tumble down. When the truth of the true Boy-Who-Lived came out, your Twin and their family were publicly villainized and their social life destroyed because of their betrayal of the true Boy-Who-Lived. They are immune to any non-consensual Mind-Altering or Memory-Erasing Magics, Abilities or Perks.

For +200 CP your twin the potter given the position of the one who lived will return with all the knowledge and skills they developed in their own timeline.

For +400 CP you don't recall taking this Drawback and your twin is slightly unhinged, they now know all of your skills, perks, items and abilities. They will do everything in their power to become the true chosen one, taking back what they see as their Destiny, their Fame and cannot be convinced to change their mind.

For +600 CP you are now their White Whale and taking you down is their main goal for what they see as you taking away what they see as rightfully theirs. They are more psychotic, happily ending the lives of others for their own gain, they won't care if Voldemort kills their parents so long as it aids them. They are immune to all of your Perks, Powers and Abilities outside of physical and magical capabilities that the true Harry could have gained. If you kill them they will return back to the second day of the First Year with the new knowledge and experience while you will not recall a thing.

The Boy Who Died +200/300/600/800 CP

This drawback makes it so that you are not truly the Harry of this setting as he died the night Voldemort attacked. You will appear behind the leaky cauldron at the entrance wall to Diagon Alley with the memories and body of a Harry Potter from another setting.

For +200 CP there was never a Harry Potter in this setting and your existence is an anomaly.

For +300 CP after Harry died someone else killed Voldemort becoming the child who lived.

For +600 CP when Harry was killed by Voldemort it caused an explosion that killed the dark lord at the same time. This option is Incompatible with “Narrative Drawbacks”.

For +800 CP Voldemort never died, after he killed Harry Potter the Dark Lord went underground, his followers still attack muggles and are a threat but the blood war has become less public. This option is Incompatible with “Narrative Drawbacks”.

Fourth Champion +200/600 CP

For +200 CP the Triwizard Tournament is guaranteed to happen during your fourth year and your name is guaranteed to come out of the Goblet of Fire regardless of your actions. With this you will be bound by magic to compete in the competition.

For +600 CP all other Perks and items other than “You're a Wizard Harry”, “Source of Magic” and Bodymods are locked for the duration of each task.

Who is the Third - Free/+200 CP (Requires “Fourth Champion” and either “Wrong Boy-Who-Lived”, “Other Boy-Who-Lived” or “Red hair and a hand-me-down robe”)

With this Cedric Diggory's name will not be selected from the Goblet of Fire.

For Free you will be the representative of Hogwarts selected by the Goblet of Fire and everyone will think the Child-Who-Lived is the Fourth Champion who cheated their way in.

For +200 CP everyone will assume the Child-Who-Lived is the true champion of Hogwarts and you are the Fourth Champion who cheated their way in.

Wool's Orphanage +300 CP (Requires “Orphan”)

It seems that in this continuity the Orphanage system was not replaced by the Fostering System, so instead of the local authorities the Dursleys dumped Harry into a random Orphanage and they just so happened to pick the refurbished Wool's Orphanage. The same Orphanage that Tom Riddle Jr was dropped off at as in this continuity it was not demolished to make way for an office block. This Orphanage was cruel and violent to Harry far more than the canon Dursleys ever were and as they do not know his original name he has been given a different name as well as the derogatory nickname scarface. The Dursleys also moved houses to prevent anyone from the wizarding world from finding them. If and when Dumbledore finds out where Harry lives he will become very paranoid about it.

The Dursleys +300 CP

The family of Harry Potter are far worse than canon, actively abusing him in every way they can imagine and thanks to the blood wards getting away with it uncontested.

Chastity Belt +300 CP

With this drawback no one else is capable of seeing or touching your body in a “pleasurable” way. This means you are incapable of sex and when naked are vertically covered by censor bars as tricks of the eyes prevent people from seeing you.

Missing Property +300 CP

For the duration of this Jump all out of Jump Items and Warehouse options other than Bodymods are blocked. If this document is taken as a Supplement this drawback will not affect the items gained in the attached Jumpchain.

Nothing up my Sleeve +300 CP

For the duration of this Jump all out of Jump Perks, powers and abilities other than Bodymods will be blocked. If this document is taken as a Supplement this drawback will not affect the Perks gained in the attached Jumpchain.

Eldritch Fears +300 CP

Your Boggart will no longer be something you fear and instead take on a disturbing and unsettling form that will bring anyone else who sees it to panic and tears but will not affect you. Anyone who sees it will jump to conclusions of why you fear what the Boggart transformed into and will not believe you if you say you don't fear it. If taken with the “Lost In Another Land” Pre-Jump scenario it will somehow relate to things from that setting.

Jumper Who? +300 CP

You have no memories of your personal past or any adventures you have been on so far but you will retain your knowledge including whatever you know about the wizarding world of Harry Potter.

Harry Who? +300 CP

You don't seem to remember anything about the wizarding world of Harry Potter including this Jumpchain and what Perks you have gained from it.

The Boy-Who-Lived come to die +300 CP

This Drawback can be taken multiple times and for each time you take it you are guaranteed to Die at least once within the first 10 Years after you gain your Hogwarts Letter. This Drawback only guarantees that you will die, not that you will stay dead as a 1-UP will still revive you.

Lawful Employment +300 CP

By taking this Drawback you are required to spend at least ten years total working as an Auror for the Ministry of Magic to complete this Jump. As you are the Harry Potter you will probably become an important figure, and climb the career ladder of the Auror corps very fast. However as a celebrity you may expect to get dragged into all kinds of mysterious and dangerous events including: murder cases, kidnappings, serial killers, magical anomalies and far stranger things.

Prophecy Protection +300 CP (Requires "Prophecy")

It seems that Voldemort now benefits from the prophecy of the one destined to defeat him. This means that he can not be killed until the seven years after the Jump begins and only at the hands of Harry Potter. Should anyone else attempt to kill him, Voldemort will only become more powerful in order to survive.

Dark Prophecy +300 CP (Requires "Problematic Prophecy")

It seems that the prophecy implies that you will become a terrible dark lord who will bring great destruction upon the world. People obviously fear this prophecy so should you be found out they will try to end you for the greater good.

Unlucky Horcrux +300 CP (Doubled if taken with "Mutant Obscurus")

It seems that Voldemort did not target the Magical Number of 7 but instead the Magical number of 13 the number most often used for dark magic. This not only means that Harry Potter was his 12th Horcrux but there are 6 more Horcruxes that were not canon.

Tom and Tom Again +300 CP (Doubled if taken with "Unlucky Horcrux")

It is not just the Diary of Tom Riddle that contains a consciousness of its own but now all of Voldemort's Horcruxes have a will of their own and the memories that Dark Lord held when he created them. Each Horcrux will begin to take actions so that they can be unleashed and become the true Dark Lord. This should not affect the events of the Diary and the Horcrux within Harry Potter should only be able to whisper in his mind or force them to see nightmares.

Wrong Boy-Who-Lived +300 CP (Incompatible with “Narrative Drawbacks”)

On that terrible night the 31st of October 1981 there were not two choices for Voldemort but three, the Longbottom child or the Potter Twins. In this turn of events the Potter Parents survived the night yet still Voldemort died by the hands of Harry Potter, however due to the machinations of Dumbledore instead of Harry Potter becoming the Boy-Who-Lived it was their twin sibling. Dumbledore then convinced the Potters to reluctantly turn over Harry to the Dursleys while the famed Child-Who-Lived grew up in the laps of luxury as a spoiled celebrity. Some events in this world may be quite different from the canon stories with the third book being completely different.

Kneazle Got your Tongue +300 CP

You are now Mute and unable to speak verbally for the duration of this jump.

A Potential Dark Lord Returns +300/400 CP

With this drawback one of your Named Companions has returned from an alternate future into their younger body. In their future Harry Potter died before he could kill Voldemort, possibly from the basilisk bite, or at the Graveyard of little hangleton, perhaps at the Battle of the Ministry or even by Inferni at the seaside cave, regardless in their future without Harry Voldemort easily returned and took over the wizarding world.

For +300 CP you can choose which Named Companion returns.

For +400 CP which Named Companion is returned is random.

The Named Companion will have trauma, far more magical power than their canon self and specialized magical knowledge such as magitech, plague-craft, indoctrination magic, necromancy or even stranger magic. The Named Companion has the intention of taking over the world not only to kill Voldemort but also fulfill their own desires such as a deep hatred for Muggles, Wizard-kind and or purebloods. It will take great effort to turn them from this path, that is if you can even figure out what they have planned as you will forget that you have taken this drawback regardless of which version you choose.

Dumbledore the White +300/400/500 CP (Doubled if taken with “The Greater Good”)

Albus Percival Wulfric Brian Dumbledore is the self proclaimed Light Lord, the Ultimate Force of Good, and that's what he demands you become. Albus will be keeping a very close eye on you and making sure that you will never go 'Dark' by the definition of his delusional mind.

For +300 CP Dumbledore take whatever actions he deems necessary to return you to the Path of Light, though mostly it would be manipulations, gaslighting, Memory Charms and even at the most extreme using the Imperius all while patting himself on the back that its for the Greater Good.

For +400 CP Dumbledore is now immune to all of your Perks, Powers and Abilities outside of physical and magical capabilities that the true Harry could have.

For +500 CP Dumbledore is now legitimately insane as their delusional mind can no longer tell Good from Bad. They are convinced that you have to die at the hands of Voldemort for the Light to empower him and banish all Evil from the world, making Albus the true lord of light incapable of making any wrong decisions.

Unless taken with “The Greater Good” Dumbledore won't be evil, just mentally unstable meaning that you have the potential to talk them out of doing some truly evil things that they see as for the greater good. While he may do many terrible things he won't go so far as to actually kill anyone but there are a lot of things worse than death that a Wizard of his caliber can do.

Plot Wobbles +400 CP

Normally the plot of a jump would have some protection making it so that they generally follow the narrative of the original story. With this Drawback the canon events are no longer protected and every action you take will cause massive butterfly effects changing the plot.

PG +400 CP

It seems the sexual context of this Jump is now far more restricted as you are no longer able to use the Lewd Perks section and will not be able to interact with others in a sexual way until halfway through the jump.

The Luminous Ones +400 CP

It seems that you will not only have to deal with the manipulations of Voldemort and Dumbledore but also the plans of a secret order. This hidden order of ancient witches and wizards actively manipulated all facets of the wizarding world, they have each achieved their own forms of immortality or prolonged their lives having functions for hundreds or potentially thousands of years. This order is not necessarily evil, but the changes they've made from the shadows are ultra-conservative and long-lasting and have taken an active interest in the brewing second blood war as a new game for the members to manipulate for their own amusement.

The Greater Good +400 CP

It seems that Dumbledore is the true Dark Lord who created Gellert Grindelwald and Voldemort as puppet dark lords, manipulating them to spread his legend as the “Lord of Light”. He has arranged events so that Harry Potter will die at Voldemort’s hands fulfilling the prophecy and allow him to “avenge” Harry and reinforce his fame.

With this Drawback Dumbledore is powerful enough to defeat the in-universe version of Voldemort humiliating them in the process but depending on the drawbacks taken Voldemort may be powerful enough to turn the tables on Dumbledore.

Demonic Distinction +500 CP

It seems that the biblical is somewhat true as demons, devils and other dark monsters from hell truly exist, what's more fools have been summoning them for centuries. These creatures can be summoned by magical and muggle alike, they are far more vicious and cruel than even the darkest of magical beasts and should the veil between them and us be opened it will truly be hell on earth.

Half-Potter +500 CP

It seems that rather than just replacing Harry and gaining his advantages you have truly become one with them. This will make the resulting you a perfect and permanent fusion of you the Jumper and you the Harry Potter of this Jump setting with the soul, memories, essence and even your default Alt-Form fusing together. You will also gain an Alt-Form copy of your pre-fusion default Alt-Form and of the Harry Potter you Fuse with.

If you have already permanently fused with others or permanently fuse with others in the future each being that is part of the fusion will have a proportional representation of the fusion.

WARNING! THIS DRAWBACK IS PERMANENT!

May you live in interesting times +600 CP

It seems the power curve of this world is far larger than would otherwise be expected. The world is now a much more dangerous place as Magical Beasts are raised so that the Griffin native to this setting could easily beat a canon Common Welsh Green Dragon, the level of magical power that witches and wizards possess is equivocal to their canonical counterpart if they were wielding the Elder Wand and the style of education being far more combat focused.

Sensitivity Settings +600 CP

It seems your sense of touch has been made erratic. This makes it so that the intensity of your sense of touch, hot, cold, pleasure and pain change at least once a day to a random level making it so that while one day you are incapable of feeling pain the next you may find a simple cut to be a crippling pain.

Somehow Voldemort Returned +600 CP

With this drawback no matter what you do, a version of Voldemort will come back to life on the 24th of June 1995 and another on the 2nd of May 1998. If Voldemort is either already alive or in his wraith state at this point in time their body will be restored and they will gain a boost to their power making them a stronger threat. If you have destroyed all of the Horcruxes and erased Voldemort's soul from existence before the dates stated, a new copy of Voldemort will appear with an awareness of their counterparts actions.

Eldritch Horror +1000 CP (Incompatible with "Eldritch Mind")

It seems there is more to Tom Riddle's Madness than merely horcruxes or genetics, it seems he learned things that shouldn't be learned. He delved too deep into the abyss and something stared back. With this drawback the world is far more dangerous as things that mortal minds cannot correlate wonder the unseen spaces between space. Though these Eldritch horrors don't care about humans one way or the other the human cultists tainted by them do. The world is now riddled with secret cults worshipping these forgotten gods desperate to call their masters to the world and lesser Eldritch monsters roam freely, most of them more dangerous than anything the Wizarding World world normally offers. While Eldritch magic is powerful and can be learned it is incredibly dangerous to try. Maybe you, dear jumper, think you're above such risks. That you can handle it. Wield the unknowable. Bend it to your will? Better think twice and be extra careful.

Narrative Drawbacks:

The Drawbacks in this section alter the Narrative of the Harry Potter Universe preventing you from being the Boy-Who-Lived. You can only select one drawback in this section as these drawbacks are incompatible with one another. Each option may change named companions identities and histories to be appropriate for the setting such as swapping Susan Bones for Amelia Bones. With any of these Drawbacks you will no longer be able to take the “Horcrux” or “Prophecy” Drawbacks.

Not-A-Potta - Free/-200 CP

This drawback supersedes any others and goes against the spirit of this Jump. Instead of being Harry Potter you will be a Drop-In.

For Free any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter, his family or any points in his life can no longer be taken.

For -200 CP any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter can be changed to your pre-jump name.

I Am Lord Voldemort +200 CP

This drawback supersedes any other as you are no longer Harry Potter but instead Tom Riddle 53 years earlier in 1938. Any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter or any points in their life will be changed to be appropriate to Tom Riddle and his family.

Cursed Child +200 CP

This drawback supersedes any other as you are no longer Harry Potter but instead Albus Potter 26 years later in 2017. Any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter or any points in their life will be changed to be appropriate to Albus Potter and his family.

Hogwarts Marauder +300 CP

This drawback supersedes any other as you are no longer Harry Potter but instead James Potter 20 years earlier in 1971. Any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter or any points in their life will be changed to be appropriate to James Potter and his family.

Red hair and a hand-me-down robe +400 CP

This drawback supersedes any other as you are now Ronald Weasley. Any Perks, Items or Drawbacks that references the character Harry Potter or any points in their life will be changed to be appropriate to Ronald Weasley and the Weasley family.

Other Boy-Who-Lived +400 CP

It seems that on the night of the 31st of October 1981 Voldemort made a different choice and instead of Harry Potter becoming the Boy-Who-Lived it was another. With this drawback Neville Longbottom is the Boy-Who-Lived instead of you. However your parents still died that night at the hands of Barty Crouch Jr and the Lestrangle family resulting in similar events taking place with Sirius going to Azkaban and Harry being dropped off at the Dursleys

Correctly Bury the Fairy Wing Wand

A storm of chaos has been occurring within the forbidden forest sets the magical beasts within upon one another and the students unfortunate enough to cross their path. Promises have been left unfilled and duties abandoned, for the danger that threatens not only the forest but also Hogwarts itself has been caused by a grave that lacks a key piece. You must uncover the true history of the Fairy Wing Wand and correctly bury it.

Use the Stone Key to unlock its vault.

A new terror stalks the halls of Hogwarts attacking students deep in the dark of night leaving only a cursed wound, though no student has died thanks to Madam Pomfrey all lack their memories but are scarred with a permanent reminder of their attack. Though searches have been made the attacker seems unwilling to stop as it seeks the students that the key finds worthy. You must gain the stone key, find its Vault and use it to gain the treasures within.

Enter the Myst with the Pendant of Bone.

It seems a cloud of madness now roams the land around Hogwarts seeking those of strong will. Those who find themselves enveloped within the cloud leave in a state of pain and terror. You must uncover the mystery of this cloud, what connection it has with the centaur's it targets most fervently and prevent it from ever returning.

Open and enter the Casket of Thieves.

There is a tale of an ancient weapon hidden by the founders, a secret so dire and terrible that it should never be unsealed. Together the four founders forged a trap for fools who would seek this weapon, a cage to imprison anyone who makes it through, a maze so no one could ever escape, a casket of thieves who should have known better than to seek such terrible power. You will need to find this prison and enter the heart of it where the secrets lie and uncover the truth of what the terrible weapon truly is.

Release the Dragon's Tithe.

Long ago in the lands that Hogwarts now stands, a mighty and powerful dragon of great size slept. But like all things of power that do not show their strength, fools thought it weak. An army marched upon the lands to attack the dragon but found their weapons could not even wake the beast. The army took advantage of this slumber, taking the dragon's treasure until only what the dragon was grasping and sleeping on was left. Those who returned with greed in their hearts viewed the dragon as weak and harmless. They decided to move the dragon and take the last of its treasures. Their attempts to move it tickled the dragon causing it to wake and realise its treasure was gone. The dragon burst into a rage burning down the towns, villages and kingdoms for miles around killing thousands before it was eventually killed itself. Decades later the four founders arrived upon the land which was once the dragons domain, together they created Hogwarts school of witchcraft and wizardry. They gave the school the moto "Draco dormiens nunquam titillandus," four words that translate to "Never tickle a sleeping dragon". Now the burned remnants of the dragon's hidden home holds only the most precious of the Dragon's Tithe, something so important to the dragon that it would not let go of it even in the depth of sleep. You must find the Dragon's Tithe and release it.

Shatter the Hydra's Blade.

There are those who seek to end lives not for their own goals but because it is what has been deemed as necessary by ones beyond their understanding. Not all blades move in one direction, some split in several. Some poisons strike deep not at the body but at the society as a whole. And some wounds must be burned shut if you wish to survive.

Something is happening, people are acting in unexpected ways but not out of character voices are heard but never seen and lives are taken months after they die.

You must find the Hydra's Blade and shatter it before it can cut you down.

Find the Burning Portrait

There is a chamber within Hogwarts castle grounds while the black sky rained blood.

Meanwhile, in Hagrid's hut, where the personal effects of one of the founders placed their greatest shame hoping that no one would ever meetings, so the trio made their way to the castle roof door's landing. They almost ran in, but the guardian of their secret and old friend who was ripped his eyes out of his head, threw them into the Forbidden Forest, and told from this world in a way thought impossible for they were a powerful magical beast who was hungrier than he'd ever been. Meanwhile, moaning chandeliers filled the Great Hall and thought to be immortal. To hide their friend and their secret Helga cast a spell hoping their disgrace would never going to get rid of [them]'. The castle floor seemed to be a big magic pile, and be found by anyone. You must find the Portrait of what Looked Like a Large Pile of Ash.
