

CLASSROOM OF THE ELITE

v1

by PerfectlyNormalShard

Welcome! Jumper, to a rather normal and boring world, no extra-dimensional creatures, no fate of the world prophecy, its almost as boring as your old earth. Except...if you look at things and squint, you will notice weird things in recent Japanese history, that and a surprisingly low amount of empathy among the populace.

Take 1000 Choice Points, I feel like you will need them.

Starting Location

Here, you don't get a choice, you will wake up (fully clothed appropriate to your role a.k.a a suit, or a uniform) sitting on a bench near Tokyo Metropolitan Advanced Nurturing High School. A few hours before our main character, Ayanokoji Kiyotaka arrives

Age and Gender

You need to roll your age using a 20 + 1d8, if you are choosing the Staff origin, or 15(the same age as all students) if you pick drop-in or student.

By default, your gender is whatever you were previously. But it is free if you wish to change.

Origins

Drop-In

You are dropped in this new universe with no background, or memories, save for basic documentation(which is extremely flimsy to scrutiny), and a student id card.

Student

You are one of the many many humans that live in this world, save that by hook or by crook, you were accepted at this prestigious school, either because of ambition or parental guidance, you are one of the elites. PS: the only origin with the option of having memories/distant memory

Staff [200 CP]

You were selected from a large pool of candidate as of one of the faculty members of this prestigious institution, one who has passed a rigorous screening (HAHA!), you are expected to mingle with your fellow colleagues before the students arrive. PS: you have no actual skills for now, or actual past or memory just a jump-chan approved fake background.

Perks

Origins get their 100cp perks for free and the rest are discounted to 50%.

General [Undiscounted]

Polyglot [Free]

There is a very high chance that you do not know Japanese, the costumes, culture or history, here is a very basic education that literally all students learned, not enough to know everything, but just enough to keep up your cover.

quote [100 CP]

Everyday in the morning, you will hear/ remember a quote by some famous person, it is generally unrelated to the future or your situation in general, but it is a nice life upgrade.

Beauty is a skill [200 CP]

While most people are beautiful around here, yours is notable among them, whether it is the feminine beauty of the perfect school girl, or the beauty of a handsome school heartthrob. You are guaranteed to at least stand out from the crowd

Perfect human [400/600 CP]

Rather than a typical education, it seems that the way you have been trained is not too dissimilar to the way white room subjects are raised, this does not mean much by itself, but the latent limits found in humans is much higher than ordinary people. For 400cp your limits are twice that of a normal person, both in term of mental and physical prowess, this put your potential to that of the same level of all successful subjects. For 600 cp, your limits are the only theoretical limits of human biology, you are crowned as a "perfect human" to the point if well trained, you could easily beat a room of trained mercenaries with nothing but a staff.

Drop-in

Poker face [100 CP]

You mastered the poker face, jumper, that blank default look you can put on a dime is perfect to hide what you think as you observe

Unflinching resolve [200 CP]

Yet the true core of this perk is mental leverage, that when activated, turn off empathy and altruism, leveraging every ounce of your skill, academically, physically and socially to formulate the best plan to success, in this state you are always calm and in control, your heartbeat is steady.

White room Demon [600 CP]

The true potential of Ayanokoji isn't his nature, or his limits, but his mentality. If the true genius perk is the hardware, this is the software. The way your brain functions allows you to absorb knowledge, extrapolate and build upon previous knowledge, with no limits, mastering subjects exponentially as you practice with repetition, as your skills don't degrade, your mind stays sharp and your memory clear.

Student

Studious [100 CP]

Bookworm is thy name, you know how to cram like the best of them, and the best note taking ways.

Beautiful exterior [200 CP]

You know how to hide the ugliness of the self behind a façade, take a mask tailored to perfectly fool someone into loving you.

Latent Force [400 CP]

True Genius [600 CP]

You deserve the appellation, for your existence confirms the ligne between true and false genius. To be more precise, your mental faculties are boosted far beyond ordinary people, to the point your only peers would be on the level of Arisu Sakayanagi. Be it parallel calculation, visual calculus, strategy, your brain is the equivalent of a computer, boosting your iq to match hers.

Staff

Authority [100 CP]

Maybe it's the way you stand, or how you bark orders, but when you talk, everyone pay attention, and is inclined of submissively obeying

No morals left [200 CP]

Exactly what it said, when push come to shove, you know the levers of society. Or in a blunter way, you know how to smell opportunity and how to set up a blackmail/ threaten someone.

Clean out expert [400 CP]

You are an assassin, jumper. You know the tools of the thread, how to make someone disappear, and how to make it appear as an accident.

Future of the Nation [600 CP]

Politics, how hated is the word, still, with this perk, events conspire to having someone high placed have a positive impression, enough for a sponsoring perhaps. Still you know how to play with words and how to play the game, plus you know how to present yourself, either face to face, or with a CV.

Drawbacks

Plot is King [+0 CP Mandatory]

You thought that since this world is mostly peaceful, you'd think we'd let you quit? Becoming a Mac Donald employee in America will not save you, no matter where you go, even if you drop out of this school and go to another country, there is an equivalent school and white room project that will force you along a similar if different trial. If this is your first jump, you will be forbidden from quitting, running away or dropping out.

Also, if you possess supernatural powers, they are reduced to small parlor tricks, no better than a wizard's firebolt at best.

Self-Insert [+0]

So, you want to be one of the Named characters huh, well if you take the appropriate background, race and skills as closely as possible then you are free to go in as any character you would like.

Another Universe [+0 CP]

Unbearable [+100 CP]

In short, you kind of an unbearable asshole, jumper, I hope someone bash your face in for some character development.

Fool in love [+100 CP]

You thought you could have a safe healthy relation hear? HA!, sorry jumper, but if you pursue a relationship as equal with someone, you will somehow convey that you are the perfect cash cow or useful pawn, even the most empathic and kind person on earth will be tempted to use you then ditch you, even if you showed you were near almighty, they will dump you if someone better comes. keyword: equal, Chie is a good example of that. companions are excluded from that, still they will reject all romantic interest.

Interest [+200 CP]

You caught the eye of some powerful people, they aren't gunning for you, but you may seem like an attractive part for their plan.

Lockdown [+600]

You have no Out Of Context powers.

WH subject [+400/+600]

You appear to have suffered a similar fate as a white room equivalent student, except there is no therapy and it is not reenforced by fiat back mental health, for the next 8 years, you will follow the curriculum of the white room, which will impact you severely in the emotional spectrum, even if you are perfect in the social, mental and physical department, you have some nasty triggers or mental problem. For 600 cp you are born in the white room and while pass most of your stay there, killing you emotionally.

Fourth generation [+600]
