Virtues

What Virtue has sung you their harmonious lullaby?

Kindness: There is always a way to understand and have compassion for others. Whether or not they are other creatures, animals, or even the world you live within. From rescuing a pet from a tree or taking time out of your day to learn someone's language. This is the Virtue that gives friendships the capability to acknowledge each other's needs and desires.

Laughter: The universal language of happiness, from backgrounds far and wide. Anyone can experience the dreads of depression but can be lifted by optimistic outlooks. This is the Virtue that allows friendship to break the ice that has formed on anyone in troubling straits.

Generosity: Not everyone has the same starting point within life. Creatures have been born into wealth but have never felt the warmth of love and those who have loved never felt the freedom that wealth provides. This is the Virtue that allows friendship to share instead of separate.

Loyalty: Standing by someone's side when the times get tough and when everything seems to be easier if you abandon them. Devotion to the ideals and ideas which started it all. This is the Virtue that allows friendships to continue and strengthen through time.

Magic: The Spark that started it all, Magic. It's the feeling of contentment and comprehension of what has been gained. That true friends fill our lives, celebrate our victories, support one another when things are down. This is the Virtue that sees all the other Virtues and says,

"Thanks for being my friend."

This Harmony is formed by the union of these individual virtues into a greater whole, causing an exponential amplification of magic by the equidistance of the six Virtues. Studying magic within those bounds flawlessly slots within your mind and connects with previous knowledge like puzzle pieces in a greater picture.

With enough study and experience, you will be able to rewrite spell books in their understanding of the deeper mechanisms of Aether Magic, match wits with Archmages who have written entire fields of sorcery, and even create a Unified Theory of Aether and Destiny.

Items

Pet [100/200, 1 Free for Kindness]: You have an obedient, outrageously smart, loving pet that will go above and beyond to help you. Can be bought multiple times for more pets.

For 100 CP, this is a mundane pet like a dog, jackalope, rock, bear, and the equivalent.

For 200 CP, this is a mystical pet, possessing magical abilities like a phoenix, sandworm, cockatrice, and the equivalent.

Home [200/400/600]: A cozy and comfortable place to call your own. Whether you're looking for a small and simple home or a grand and luxurious mansion, this item has something for everyone.

For 200 CP, this can be a cozy and modest home that meets your basic needs. Could be a small cottage nestled in the rolling hills of Ponyville, a cozy apartment in the bustling city of Manehattan, a modest townhouse in the peaceful town of Appleloosa, and even a traveling wagon.

For 400 CP, this can be a property that offers a bit more space and luxury. Could be a grand estate overlooking the verdant forest of White Tail Woods, a stately manor nestled in the heart of Canterlot, a castle for your royal sensibilities, and even a sprawling farm with acres of fertile land, a spacious barn, and a comfortable farmhouse.

For 600 CP, this is an entire pocket dimension linked directly to your magic. Allowing it to enhance your innate magic, grow with your magic, and adapt to your every need. Could be a seemingly endless sky brimming with clouds for a Pegasus, a place that has an eldritch sense of normalcy for a Draconequus, and even a forest with trees that could be compared to mountains for an Earth Pony.

Weirdly enough, any messengers which do not mean you any harm will be able to find an entrance to this place but won't be able to disturb your peace.

Authentic Accessory [200, Discounted for Honesty]: An accessory that is high-quality and durable that fits perfectly with your sense of style. This carefully crafted piece can be anything from watches, bows, different types of hats, a nicely made scarf, quirky neon sunglasses, to a one-of-a-kind wizarding outfit. Interestingly enough, while people can try to mimic the accessory, it is really easy for people in the know to tell the real deal from the copycats.

Specialty Recipe [200, Discounted for Laughter]: They always say that the way to someone's heart is through their stomach. Well this is a recipe for a highly-unique and extremely tasty food that is comparable to a WMD in its ability of going into peoples bodies and impossible to be made by anyone other than yourself or those you allow to make. This could be a specific type of granola bar which is extremely nutritious, a sushi made with kraken which is incredibly delicious from even a rookie chef, or a type of rock candy that is made with rocks but can eaten by those who have never had hard food a day in their lives.

Chain Company [200, Discounted for Generosity]: A self-running company related to your Unique Talent that is ubiquitous and capable of generating enough wealth for you to be considered one of the one percent. This could come as a fashion company for a fashion Talent, a department chain for a business Talent, to a popular music label for a music Talent. Your effort within the company will always be more effective than leaving it to run itself.

Soulforged Tool [200, Discounted for Loyalty]: During your discovery of your Unique Talent, you had been carrying a tool that has bonded to your very soul. This tool cannot be broken until your soul is broken and is very conducive for channeling all of your innate magic and Unique Talent. This could come as an wonderful violin for violin Talent, a weapon for warrior Talent, a shovel for a hardworking Talent to a deck of cards for a luck Talent.

Journal of a Journey [200, Discounted for Magic]: A colored-leather bound journal that captures the essence of your personal journey, recording your experiences, and growth as a person. With every passing day, every new adventure, and every heartfelt moment, the pages of this journal will fill with the rich tapestry of your life. As you reflect on your past and look forward to the future, this book will be your faithful companion, chronicling your journey.

It will automatically update the writing to your skill in the written word.

Olden Relic [600, Discounted for Innate Magic]: An ancient and powerful relic of a creature's innate magic that induces the Innate Magic to become amplified and nurtured to greater strengths. In the vein of the Crystal Heart for Crystal Ponies, this can come in many forms and manifestations, each tailored to the unique qualities of the Magic. For instance, a Nature Magic Relic could be a primeval specimen of a tree that causes all shows of nature magic to flourish to grander heights or having all the closeby, a kingdoms distance, daily shows of the magic be used to continuously power a Ascendant-level spell like summoning a colossal guardian of the wild.

Can be bought multiple times for different Relics.

A Sliver of Shadow [600]: The Shadow of Harmony embodies the antithesis of the Magic of Friendship, an idea that one has to get through life requires dissension and evil. This is a small sliver of Shadow in the form of an extremely powerful object that exponentially amplifies your magical prowess, elevating even a novice sorcerer to the level of a formidable ascendant. With a catch, like the Inspiration Manifestation and the Alicorn Amulet, this object corrupts you more over the time you use it and how much you use it. Pushing you down the slippery slope, deeper into the depths of darkness. Madness glitters in your eyes like a bonfire of tragedy, a fallen star. Honesty that becomes lies, kindness that becomes malice, laughter that becomes mockery, generosity that becomes greed, loyalty that becomes betrayal, and even magic that becomes something not to be spoken of.

The more darkness harbors itself in your soul and heart, the longer you can last wielding this Sliver of Shadow without its madness overwhelming you. However, it will eventually catch up; it always does in the END. But when let go, the corruption will fade over time till it's entirely gone.

The Tree of Harmony [800, Discounted for Paragon of Magic]: Much like how trees resiliently weather storms, bask in the warmth of sunny days, and flourish under the love and care of those who nurture them, this crystalline seed holds the potential to sprout and evolve into a magnificent Tree of Harmony. A direct conduit to all the Harmony within the land, intricately woven with the harmony shared among the denizens of the land, your friends, and even your own inner harmony. Its magical and protective capabilities grow in tandem with the harmony it draws upon, shielding the land from both natural disasters and the encroachment of Shadow or bestowing gifts to those it sees as worthy of them. As it steadily matures, it becomes a vessel for the six Elements of Harmony and gains a soul that resembles whoever has imparted the most Friendship, that is Magic.

The six Elements of Harmony are extremely powerful catalysts of each of the Virtues. Where it can take a group of six great friends and allow them to wield their virtues to cause great miracles of magic. Restoring a land tainted by a great tragedy, reform someone lost to the grasp of the Shadow, and even banish evil to the very moon.

Companions

Friends [50/100/200]: Should you wish, you may import or create 1, 4, or 8 companions respectively. Each companion receives 800 cp to spend on perks and items.

Import Option [Free]: You can also import any amount of companions. However, they do not get any CP that you do not personally pay for.

Canon Companion [100]: Take any canon character. Twilight Sparkle, Pinkie Pie, Gilda, and even Celestia.

Whether that was from the good food, great company, of her genuine interest in their lives. The only thing that is missing from her life of contentment is others to become part of her own table. A table of friends, those who shared stories of their lives, reveled in their silliness, and once in a while complimented on her cooking. Even if they had to lie about her more weirder concoctions.

"Good food, Good company, that's enough to live for many. To thrive one must have a seat at that table."

That was until he discovered his true purpose in life when he stumbled upon an old and gruff Griffin, a visiting librarian who told him stories of adventurers that just needed a helping hand to see the light. He's now a librarian who silently helps guide those who seek. Knowledge or purpose. Nonfiction or fantasy. A pony who won't judge.

Drawbacks

Fanfiction [Toggle]: Instead of taking a part of the normal timeline, you are in a world of fanfiction or with fanfiction elements like events, changes of characters, headcanons, et cetera.

Sympathetic Virtue [Free]: You have taken the place of a canon character and their background. This requires you to have the same Virtue as them. Replacing Twilight Sparkle would require you to have the Virtue of Magic, Rockhoof with the Virtue of Honesty, and Princess Luna with Loyalty.

Long-Term Stay [+100]: Ordinarily, you would only have to stay for a decade, but now you will have for ten more years. There is a whole world to explore and experience, so it may not be so bad.

This can be taken multiple times, for a maximum of six times.

Early Foalhood [+200]: Growing up has always been when things are less limiting and the world doesn't smother you in its magnitude. At the start of the Jump, you are a foal, with the limitations of childhood applied. Bed-times, having to go to school, and having your more daring adventures getting you in trouble from your guardian(s).

Unmarked by Destiny [+200/+400]: What is your destiny, This is a question that runs rampant through your every thought. You start this Jump without your Unique Talent, or Cutie Mark if applicable, and you must grow more as a person on a greater journey than others to find your unique Starlight that sets you apart.

It will be possible to get your Unique Talent.

For an additional 200 CP, instead of having no Unique Talent, you have a Cursed Talent. Your Talent will only cause you misfortune in its domain. A Luck Talent would become a Talent that gives you really bad luck and awful circumstances like getting into trouble with the police, a Cooking Talent causes all of your culinary pursuits to end in improbable disaster, etc.

Disability [+200]: It seems like you don't work the same as all the other foals and creatures, you have a life-changing disability that sets you apart. While others may freely fly on wings that may even be shorter than yours, your journey is different. Whether that is not being able to fly because of a congenital wing defect, burn marks that make kids afraid of you, an attention span that is short because of ADHD, autism, faulty legs unable to walk without mobility devices, etc.

This can be taken multiple times.

Power Loss [+200]: You may only use powers and perks that you have acquired specifically within the confines of this Jump.

Item Loss [+200]: You don't have access to your warehouse or any items not from this Jump

Banished from Society [+200, Doubled for Honesty]: Standing tall when the forest falls, you have been banished from your starting Location and are ostracized for not conforming with society. Instead, you start out in an uncharted territory, far from the familiar comforts of civilization. This could have happened in several ways: a tragic event causes everyone to give up their voice and you decide not to give it up, a seismic shift in the political landscape results in your Creature type being exiled into obscurity, you were discovered trying to perform Dark Magic, and other examples.

Wild Atavism [+200, Doubled for Kindness]: One of the most fundamental forms of understanding is mimicry. However, you might have taken it passed osmosis during your developing years towards atavism. You have a severe form of a characteristic related to your Unique Talent. This could take its form as being highly skittish to social situations with other sapient, for an Animal Handling Talent, having your every movement be jittery and energetic for a Speed Talent, in a constant state of wanderlust for a Navigation Talent. While it can be managed with the right tools, a supportive community, and gained experience, its influence will persist throughout this Jump.

On the Brink [+200, Doubled for Laughter]: Peering into the abyss teeming with whimsical notions and talking inanimate companions. You're teetering on the edge of madness, where any wave of emotional turmoil is intensified by the ludicrous imagery of weird hallucinations casted upon your environment and your reputation is one of someone who is not all there. Enough to have any of your actions called eccentric and you just being you. All emotional turmoil related to your Unique Talent is especially likely to send you spiraling.

Ends in a Mess [+200, Doubled for Generosity]: In a world brimming with opportunities, the thrill of adventure is ever-present. Yet, wherever adventure treads, it's often chaos that leaves its mark. All your adventures and questing results in unforeseen messes and collateral damage. Whether it's your culinary exploits that transform the kitchen into a disaster zone or your quest to defeat a great monster that leaves entire neighborhoods in shambles. This messiness extends to all of your adventuring companions during their time adventuring with you.

Cultural Stereotype [+200, Doubled for Loyalty]: It seems that you have a mannerism that is stereotypical to your creature tribe. An Earth Pony would be stuck in their ways or very stoic - only something they are really passionate about can get any emotion getting across their face, a Zebra for their customary way of rhythmic speaking, a Unicorn for having an air of superiority. Most of the time, even towards your tribe, this will give a bad first impression onto others of your personality and you will have to work harder to get past that original barrier to get them to realize your true self.

Anon-a-Miss [+200, Doubled for Magic]: We all have flaws and have caused mistakes. Unfortunately for you, your rather eventful history, as either a villainous evildoer or a heroic individual, causes those aligned with your side of the Harmony-Shadow spectrum to perceive any hint of backsliding into past behaviors as a haunting reminder of past grievances against yourself. Quickly getting caught up in their emotions. Even if they logically know that you've changed.

The background of the page is a dark, starry night sky. On the left side, there is a large, bright, pinkish-white full moon. On the right side, there is a silhouette of a castle with multiple towers and spires, some of which are lit up with warm yellow and orange lights. The overall atmosphere is magical and mysterious.

Episodic Shenanigans [+400]: It feels like every week or month, you find yourself entangled in situations that could easily pass for plotlines from a TV show, whether it's encountering new villains or facing fresh challenges that test the bonds of your friendships.

Magic Vortex [400]: All of the flows of magic are overwhelming with their energies and attentions. You have a substantially harder time in keeping control of your magic, with any loss of control causing it to run wild and having your surroundings to change to the magic's whims of chance and nature. Be wary, for parent's being turned into potted plants, can be the least of your worries. As the more of your magic which surges, the more dangerous it can be for all in your vicinity.

Ancient Times [+600]: Instead of arriving in modern Equus, or Earth, you find yourself transported to a distant past. An era that is marked by the strife among all Tribes, the presence of countless monstrous threats that would be considered nightmarish in the present, acts of inhumanity, and mysteries lost to time.

The Reflection [+600]: Just as Harmony casts a Shadow, there exists within you a sentient manifestation of magic. An equal in magic and ability to yourself. That in moments of mental turmoil, this entity can slither free and unleash its antithetical purposes upon the world. If you align with Harmony, this takes the shape of a Tantabus, harnessing its magic towards destructive ends. Conversely, if you align more towards the Shadow, it manifests as a Somnium, channeling its magic towards beneficial deeds.

The End

Where will you go next?

Go Home: As the journey draws to a close, the cherished memories and magical moments you've shared with those you call friends will forever-light up your heart. However, it's time to venture back to the cozy comforts of home, holding the newfound wisdom and wonder which will forever be a part of you.

Stay Here: Where the skies are light blue and the grass is green, creatures are big and small, and so many marvels that were laden down by Destiny. You have found that Equus is your new home, and you are going to continue walking down the path of Harmony or Shadow.

Continue On: While this may be the conclusion of one rainbow, there are a myriad of rainbows to follow. Beyond Equus into realms filled with entirely new destinies and the road ahead is unknown, with challenges you'll face are yet to be revealed. But you carry with you the strength of magic whether that is of Friendship or Power.

"I hope you enjoyed this Jump and I wish you the best in your Jumpchain endeavors."

- TheGallantRobot
