

Saint Seiya Omega 0.1

By saiman010

Introduction:

Welcome, Jumper, to a parallel world akin to Earth, where love and peace have been diligently upheld by the Goddess Athena and her legendary Saints. It has been approximately 20 years since the illustrious Golden Pegasus Saint, Seiya, alongside his comrades, defended the Earth from the divine wrath of the gods Poseidon and Hades. The latter has persistently sought to subdue humanity since the age of myth.

However, Seiya, his fellow Saints, and Athena ultimately vanquished him in the fields of Elysium, bringing an end to the protracted feud between Athena and Hades. For the past two decades, Earth has enjoyed a prolonged era of peace. Unfortunately, this tranquility is now threatened anew, as there exist gods who seek to obliterate humanity and reshape the world according to their desires.

Thus, your journey begins here. You arrive in this world approximately two weeks before Koga, the new Pegasus Saint, embarks on his journey to Palaestra. It is now up to you, Jumper, to decide your path: will you defend the Earth or contribute to its destruction?

So, here's 1000 CP for you to navigate this disturbing yet unexpectedly meaningful world.

1. Palaestra

Tucked away within the embrace of a dense forest and shielded by the protective barrier of Athena lies Palaestra, a prestigious school in Greece where Bronze Saints hone their combat techniques and strive for mastery over their elemental powers. Beyond mere martial training, Palaestra serves as a haven for intellectual and philosophical pursuits, hosting conferences and discussions that delve into the deeper mysteries of existence.

2. Sanctuary

Nestled on the outskirts of Athens, the ancient city dedicated to the patron goddess Athena, lies the Sanctuary, a sacred haven that serves as both the residence of Athena herself and the headquarters of her devoted Saints. With its roots deeply entwined with the mythology of the region, the Sanctuary stands as a bastion of divine protection against the forces of darkness.

While some remnants of the Sanctuary's glory are accessible to the public, offering glimpses into its storied past, the heart of this holy ground remains veiled from mortal eyes. Hidden within the treacherous embrace of a rugged mountain range, impassable to all but the most determined and skilled, lie the sacred chambers and temples where Athena's power is most palpably felt.

3. Mars Castle

Located a mere stone's throw from the hallowed grounds of the Sanctuary in Greece stands a foreboding castle, its darkened spires looming ominously against the backdrop of the ancient landscape. Within its formidable walls, the family of Mars, the malevolent deity, and his loyal army have established their earthly stronghold.

4. Pallasbelda

Nestled at the foot of the treacherous Exile Mountains in Italy, on the western side where the jagged peaks cast long shadows over the land, lies the formidable stronghold of the Pallasites and the city where their ruler, Pallas, holds court. Once a flourishing metropolis, this city has since fallen under the dark shadow of the Pallasite regime, its streets now haunted by the frozen remnants of innocent lives whose time was cruelly halted by the sinister powers of the Pallasites

5. Jamir

Jamir is a remote location perched 7000 meters above sea level atop the Himalayas, straddling the border of India and China. To reach it, one must brave the world's highest mountains, where thin air makes breathing difficult. The path leads through the Graveyard of Saint Cloths, a perilous passage flanked by steep cliffs and stake-shaped rocks below, haunted by the spirits of fallen Saints who failed the crossing.

This taint acts as a deterrent, as any attempt to burn their Cosmo will only spread the darkness further, ultimately leading to their demise if left unchecked.

Palasite:Weapon Master [100 CP/ Saints pay 300CP]:

As Pallas despises the saints and their goddess Athena, she has decreed that all her followers must master at least one weapon, providing them with a superior edge over the saints, who are forbidden from wielding weapons in battle. You choose one weapon of choice, and under Pallas' directive, you have devoted yourself to mastering its use. Through rigorous training and unwavering dedication, you have honed your skills with the weapon to perfection, becoming a formidable combatant capable of wielding this weapon with unmatched precision and deadly efficiency.

Much like the beloved Goddess Pallas herself, you exude an irresistible charm and adorableness that endears you to others effortlessly. Your innate charisma and warmth make it effortless for you to garner affection and loyalty from those around you, drawing people towards you with ease. This charm extends beyond mere likability, granting you the ability to forge deep connections and recruit powerful allies to your cause.

Fighting Dirty [200 CP]:

Having long abandoned the shackles of pride, you have embraced the art of fighting with foul play as your modus operandi. Skilled at getting the drop on even the most seasoned warriors, you excel at destroying trust between allies by pressing the right buttons and exploiting vulnerabilities. Moreover, your proficiency in executing sneak attacks has made them more effective than frontal assaults, allowing you to strike swiftly and decisively without warning.

Alone and strong [400 CP]:

As a Palasite, you understand that your comrades are not allies but rather stepping stones on your path to ascension. The cutthroat nature of Palasite hierarchy demands self-sufficiency in battle, especially when facing the possibility of betrayal or backstabbing from fellow Palasites. You have honed your skills to excel in solo combat, capable of swiftly defeating opponents of equal strength in mere moments in one-on-one duels. Moreover, you have developed a sixth sense, intuitively sensing when someone intends to betray or deceive you, allowing you to preemptively defend yourself against such treachery.

Divine Gifts[400 CP]:

It appears that Pallas, or perhaps another god lurking in the shadows, has bestowed upon you their undivided attention. This newfound focus could herald both blessings and perils, but one thing is certain: divine beings within your faction will now shower you with unprecedented generosity and favor. From this moment onward, you will receive gifts and blessings beyond compare, far surpassing what any normal servant could hope to receive in their entire lifetime.

Time Destruction [600 CP]:

Despite the typical association of time-stealing abilities with the Chronotectors worn by Palasites, you have transcended the need for such equipment. Through your own mastery and strength, independent of any divine artifacts, you possess the ability to steal the time of individuals at will. As long as your targets are weaker than you or have been sufficiently weakened, you can effortlessly turn their bodies to stone and claim their remaining years as your own. This formidable power extends even to time-based abilities, granting you unparalleled control over the flow of time and the destiny of those who dare to oppose you. With this newfound power coursing through your veins, you are a force to be reckoned with on the battlefield, striking fear into the hearts of your enemies and commanding the respect of your allies.

Armor:

Before engaging in battle for your god or goddess, you will receive a divine blessing in the form of armor bestowed upon you by your faction. For Saints, it is known as Cloths, for Martians, Galaxy Armor, and for Palasites, Chronotectors. Each of these armors possesses the ability to amplify your Cosmo, enhancing the power of your attacks and granting you superhuman endurance. However, the key to unlocking these benefits lies in your ability to continuously burn your Cosmo. Without sufficient Cosmo or the will to do so, you will be unable to move while wearing the armor.

In the wake of the battle between Mars and Athena twenty years ago, significant changes have occurred within this world. Now, all armors are easily carried in small pendants, and warriors can summon and wear their armor on the battlefield at will by burning their Cosmo. While the ease of summoning may not be certain for Galaxy Armor or Chronotectors, all warriors receive the same benefits regardless of their armor's origins. This newfound convenience ensures that warriors are always ready for battle, empowered by the divine blessings of their chosen faction.

Also, choose one theme for your armor. It can be a constellation or animal for Saints and Martians, but for Palasites, it's usually themed by weapons.

Now that you know the basic abilities of your armor, let's take a look at the special abilities that all armor gained based on their allegiance.

Saints' Cloths : It possess the special ability of adaptation. This means that the Cloths can evolve and adapt to the user's fighting style and experiences, becoming more attuned to their Cosmo and granting them new techniques and powers over time.

Now, let's decide what level of armor you will gain from this jump, as there are several options available. enabling them to move at blinding speeds and allowing them to shrug off blows from anyone wielding anything short of the Seventh Sense at their full power. However, this has the highest requirement to be able to use effectively - the user must have unlocked their Seventh Sense to truly utilize such powerful armor.

Four heavenly Kings [400 CP]:

This is one, if not the most elite armor that exists for mortals to wear. However, they will require a Cosmo level equal to that of the Four Heavenly Kings of Mars to make this armor work.

God Cloth [600 CP]:

The God Cloth represents the ultimate form of armor worn by the gods in the world. As only the twelve Olympians in Greek mythology were allowed to wear such armor. It bestows immense power and protection, elevating mortals to god-like levels of strength and durability. Martian Sand is typically used to create armor, known as Galaxy Armour, worn by Mars' followers. The specific abilities and attributes granted by Martian Sand may vary depending on the individual wearing it and their level of mastery over its power.

Witches Components [400 CP]:

As a witch, having components to cast your spells is of utmost importance. Without them, you may not be able to cast your spells at all, and even if you could, the success rate would drop significantly. That's why you now own a workshop filled with components, magic circles, and other materials essential for spellcasting. Additionally, every material in this workshop will restock automatically and is compatible with all schools of magic from future worlds.

Medea Tome [600 CP]:

This tome contains the secrets of bending the will of all magical items, allowing you to grant the right to wield them to anyone you choose. Additionally, it holds deep knowledge on how to control and master the darkness element, considered one of the most dangerous elements. With this tome, you can train yourself and any other students in the dark arts. Moreover, it expands to contain any dark and forbidden magic from every world you've visited, making it a complete Grimoire of the dark arts.

Elemental Temples[600 CP each]:

You possess a small orb, and now you choose one element: fire, water, earth, lightning, wind, light, or darkness. This orb contains a temple dedicated to that element. When you find a land rich in the cosmo of your temple's element, you can smash the orb. In its place, a giant temple materializes, beginning to absorb the cosmo of the surrounding land. Be warned, this process will ultimately lead to the land's demise after a year of harvesting. However, in exchange, you gain the pure elemental cosmo of your chosen element in storage. This cosmo can be used to heal people from near-death experiences or enrich another land by terraforming it with the chosen element's cosmo. You can purchase this orb multiple times for each element, with only the first one being discounted. After a land is completely absorbed of the chosen element, a new orb will appear.

Ring of Teleportation [200 CP]:

At will, in any situation, this ring will activate and teleport you away from the battlefield. Additionally, it masks your cosmo and other detectable signs, making you undetectable to your enemies for a while.

Doll Of Pallas[200 CP]:

You now own a doll of your beloved goddess Pallas. This doll will inform you of the current health, mood, and growth of your goddess. It's a convenient way to ensure she is fine and healthy. Anti-Limit [400 CP]:

You possess a sinister red hourglass with a unique ability. By breaking it, you can merge permanently with a chosen target who possesses a similar level of power and items as you. A red mist emanates from the hourglass, enveloping both you and your target in a fusion that absorbs their cosmo, skills, equipment, and memories into yourself. Unlike typical fusions, this process does not induce insanity, and the other person becomes permanently integrated into your being. This item can be used again at the beginning of each new jump.

Floating Temple [600 CP]:

You now possess a remarkable spacecraft, akin to a floating temple, whose origins remain shrouded in mystery. Adorned with a magnificent frontal facade and a central pond, the grandeur of this vessel reflects the aesthetics of Roman culture. This blue sword resembles the Sword of Seven Branches, possessing the ability to manipulate gravity by either increasing or decreasing it, conjure thunder, lightning, and storms, create powerful gusts of wind, and even temporarily paralyze your opponents in time.

2. Sword of the God of Military Arts

This yellow longsword demonstrates remarkable cutting prowess, effortlessly slicing through gold armor and even the formidable Cape Sunion. Additionally, it has the ability to cut from a distance. Moreover, it can emit beams of light capable of absorbing enemy attacks, with these beams having the capacity to not only cut through but also disintegrate anything in their path. These attacks boast attack speeds surpassing natural light and match the cosmos level of the goddess Athena.

3. Sword of Destruction

This massive red Greatsword possesses the power to annihilate golden armor at the proton level within atoms, making it capable of dismantling structures at their most fundamental level. Additionally, it grants the Pallasite wielding it the "Enhanced Time Destruction" technique, an enhanced iteration of "Time Destruction." This advanced technique enables the user to siphon time even from adversaries at the level of Golden Saints. However, those possessing the seventh sense can only maintain their consciousness in the face of this formidable ability.

4. Sword of Theogenesis

This verdant sword demonstrates the ability to immobilize individuals with regular cosmos, including those who have unlocked the Seventh Sense. It possesses unparalleled cutting capabilities, able to slice through any earthly material with ease, including gold armor. Additionally, the sword repels enemy attacks by emitting a potent cosmos, akin to the defensive maneuvers employed by deities like Poseidon and Abel.

My New Team 100

Sometimes having friends would be nice. Buying this once will allow you to add any allies you've made here as companions. You may buy this multiple times.

Drawbacks:

You are limited to +1500 Cp from drawbacks.

Ugly Bastard [+100]:

Well, that's rather unexpected! It seems your appearance has taken a rather unconventional turn, perhaps resembling something only a monster could appreciate.

Side Character [+100]:

It seems you have a rather forgettable presence, as people tend to overlook you unless you're directly in front of them. This can make it challenging to make a lasting impression or to be noticed in social situations or interactions.

Shonen Character [+100]:

Embracing the power of shonen protagonist syndrome, you find yourself embodying the traits typical of protagonists in shonen manga: impulsive, quick to anger, and sometimes lacking in strategic thinking. In a world where opponents fight with honor and strategy, your approach may seem reckless and unpredictable.

My Honor [+200]:

Being a deeply honorable individual, you often find yourself extending mercy to your enemies, granting them a chance for redemption before delivering a final blow. This honorable stance sometimes leads you to let your guard down, making you more susceptible to deception by cunning adversaries who exploit your noble nature.

Pointless Sacrifice [+200]:

Your allies seem to have adopted a rather extreme perspective, believing that every enemy they face poses a dire threat requiring a sacrifice of their lives for victory. This perception persists even in situations where a simple solution or minimal effort could resolve the threat. Their skewed perception of danger and willingness to make unnecessary sacrifices can be frustrating and may even give you headaches as you navigate their overly cautious approach to combat.

Tragic life [+200]:

You're destined to experience a cycle of hope and despair throughout your time in this world. Despite forming close bonds with those around you and considering them family, tragedy will inevitably strike, leading to their gruesome demise either at the hands of the gods or due to your own negligence. Each loss will plunge you deeper into despair, creating a profound sense of misery and guilt for your perceived failures. This cycle of hope shattered by tragedy will repeat itself year after year, casting a shadow over your entire experience in this world.

Real allies? [+300]:

In this world of deceit and betrayal within your ranks, trust becomes a rare and precious commodity. It's often difficult to discern who your true allies are amidst the web of deception woven by those with their own ulterior motives. Being cautious and discerning in whom you place your trust is paramount, as misplaced trust could prove fatal in this treacherous environment. Be vigilant, for the wrong alliance could lead to dire consequences.

The Tainted of Darkness [+300]:

Being tainted by the dark cosmos originating from Abzu presents a dire predicament for you. The consumption of your body by darkness with each use of your cosmos threatens your very existence. To combat this imminent danger, you must don your armor for the entirety of the jump, as the corrosion inflicted by the darkness would otherwise prove fatal within a mere decade. This necessity ensures your continued ability to fight effectively and stave off the encroaching darkness that threatens to consume you.

True Loyalty [+300]:

Your unwavering loyalty to your faction's god mirrors that of a Saint's devotion to Athena. This allegiance compels you to go to great lengths to ensure the safety and well-being of your deity. However, this dedication comes at a cost, as the abilities of your fellow warriors have diminished significantly, placing a heavier burden on your shoulders. Should your faction's god fall, your chain of loyalty will be broken, leaving you vulnerable and bereft of the divine support you once relied upon.

The Cursed Twin [+400]:

You have been cursed with a twin sibling, much like the Gemini Gold Saints of legend. Sharing all your abilities within and beyond the jump, they are as formidable as you are. However, their intentions are malevolent—they seek to bring you endless misery by targeting your companions and undermining your interests with a malicious grin. With cunning and agility, they evade your strategies, always slipping away to fight another day. This torment will persist until the final year of your journey, a constant thorn in your side.

Only In Omega[+400]:

Unfortunately, you find yourself locked out of the abilities you acquired outside of this jump.

Uroboros Ring [+400]:

On your left arm, there is a snake-themed bracelet. Someone from the enemy faction has activated it, actively draining your cosmo and diminishing your strength greatly, while their own strength is increased. Besides enduring constant pain, you will be given one year to find and kill this individual, or else your jumpchain will end. And every time you kill the individual draining your power, a new one will emerge a week later to start the process anew.

Phoenix Ikki [+600]:

You'll face one of the legendary saints from a previous generation, adorned with the Phoenix Cloth, a garment not worn for centuries. Sensing your arrival as a threat to Athena, he'll engage you in repeated one-on-one duels to the death, fighting with unwavering determination.

No matter how many times he falls in battle, he'll return shortly after, driven by his duty to protect Athena and sensing your presence as a continuous threat. Each encounter will be fierce, as he fights with all his might to ensure the safety of his goddess and her domain.

A Puppet [+600]:

In this jump, your free will is constrained by the armor you wear. Every action you take, from combat techniques to daily routines, is dictated by the will of the armor. If you deviate from its commands, you'll experience immediate pain, and a constant struggle for control will persist until you comply. Only at the end of the jump will the armor fully accept you as its master.

Ten Years Later:

Go Home: What, you finished? Here? Well, we won't ask. Whatever it is you gained here, we hope you enjoy it. You return home with all that you have accrued over your chain, and time resumes in all the worlds you visited.

Stay Here: This world does have a certain... allure, hmm? Don't worry, we won't judge. Add 1000CP as a bonus Move On: Ah, but of course. The journey never ends, does it? Go forth and have fun. Make some new friends.
