

Out of Context: Copy

V1 By Arkum

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have a duplicate of another character.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be a copy of someone else and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In awakening from a machine in a cloud of smoke.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin:

Metal

Ah, a classic. You were made in a direct contrast to someone else to be the equalizer. You look the most mechanical off the bat compared to the rest of the choices but arguably the coolest looking if you ask me. Show them what you're made of.

Ultimate Lifeform

Hm. The others are mechanical. You're more of a biological marvel. Created by a more benevolent doc to help a dying family member, you were also spliced with a few... demonic alien genes. Why the hell that even happened is beyond me. Will you be black hearted evil or a brave hearted hero?

DWN_0

The number is a bit of a misnomer. You're the last of the Doctor Wily Numbers. Whether or not you belong to that doctor or not is yet to be seen. Will you be a heroic Reploid or a heartless Maverick?

Perks:

Note:

To get a Booster: Perk you will need to purchase the complimentary Perks as an example:

Reminder Of The Past -??? CP

Shard Of Power Booster: Something Unique

In order to get the Perk Something Unique, you need to take both the Reminder Of The Past Perk that it follows and the Shard Of Power Perk that is commented before the boosted Perk.

General Perks:

Power Type Origin - Free (Cannot be taken with "Not Drop In")

This is an Out of Context Origin Perk. At the start of a Jump you can use this Narrative Perk to set your entry into the Jump Setting as if you were using this Supplement.

Dynamic Entry - Free (Requires 3 "Out of Context Origin Perks" from other Supplements)

Using this narrative perk you can dynamically craft your method of Dropping into a Jump.

Make and Model -Free, 200, 400

You weren't made in the womb. You were made by the hands of a genius. For free, you have a body better than the average man. You can brush off small arms fire along with punching hard enough to kill a man with a single punch. 200 gives a massive increase, needing a massive railgun aiming directly at you to crack your skin. 400, though, makes you space age and beyond. Lasers and forces that can only be produced in the far future can even hurt you and you perform to those standards yourself as well.

Shard Of Power -400 CP

Ooh la la. A certain bat would find you quite the catch. You seem to have been implanted with a crystalline power source. This seamlessly integrates into any energy pool or generator you have and increases the output of them by fifty percent. You can also alter your size to become a giant if you so chose.

Reminder Of The Past -600 CP

Aren't you a beauty from a bygone age? The manner of your creation is from one of, if not the greatest minds of your world. Their Magnum Opus. You're naturally stronger, faster, more durable, and better than any other contemporary by leaps and bounds. As an example, this would make Metal Sonic capable of taking on the entire Eggman Empire as it is normally and come out on top.

Shard Of Power Booster: CHAOS

Forget what I said earlier about your new gem, it's now a Chaos Emerald or a stand in for one depending on the jump. This turns that minor amp from a river to an ocean of pure power. You also gain access to Chaos based powers, notably Chaos Control.

Metal Perk Tree:

Perfect Hero -100 CP (Free for Metal)

Do you consider yourself better than your original? Or do you consider yourself THE original? You're capable of emulating a single person per jump. What this means is that with time, you can understand and even copy their traits and identity. This speeds up whenever you're in direct conflict with the other.

His Empire-200 CP (Discounted for Metal)

Your master is only human. He can't do all the work. Sometimes, you have to give them a hand. You can stand in for any leader during a form of absence and keep their responsibilities operating at the status quo and only the status quo. This goes for any type of position as well, engineer, politician, restaurant manager, you can maintain an average in any sort of position.

Super -400 CP (Discounted for Metal)

One step beyond the average model, you have a talent for transformation and evolution. With a catalyst, you find any form of transformation comes to you in an instant. Find a nuclear generator? Become Nuke Jumper. Discover a way to funnel a star into yourself? Prepare for the Luminous Jumper. The main problem is figuring out a way to contain the power in yourself to enable this, though.

Shard Of Power Booster: NEO

Chaos is one hell of a drug. You're able to permanently ingrain these new transformations within your crystal power source, allowing the order of magnitude of change to your body and powers to become more pronounced. A Nuclear Jumper becomes ATOMIC JUMPER, a massive behemoth that is more in line with Godzilla than a simple super form.

The Answer -600 CP (Discounted for Metal)

You'd think that with all your bells and whistles that your creator would be satisfied, but apparently not. They weren't satisfied with giving you what they had.

They wanted you to have everyone else's stuff, you spoiled child.

You have the ability to copy others. If you saw someone run a certain way you could emulate it flawlessly. See someone fight with an unorthodox weapon? You could wield that weapon with the same efficiency. There are a few caveats though. You can't emulate any form of magic nor can you emulate something you flatly can't do naturally.

Reminder Of The Past Booster: Gizoid

Well hot damn, your master spared no expense with you huh? Scratch the previous two restrictions, you can copy basically anything and just fill in the blanks as you go using nanomachines or body manipulation. You also know how to utilize everything alongside each other, synergising and multiplying their abilities to unseen levels. The only ways to beat you is group efforts, sneak attacks, or crippling you through other ways.

His Empire Booster: Your Empire

Welp, nevermind about the status quo. You can now even copy any skill set you need and go past the quo. Best part is that the more positions you can adapt to, the more overall skilled you are. If you were to go up the pecking order from line cook to president, all those different jobs and experiences would synergise and make you basically a God King with approval ratings through the roof if you so chose.

Ultimate Lifeform Perk Tree:

Curing Blood -100 CP (Free for Ultimate Lifeform)

Seems you're a bit of a healer. A surprise to be sure. In your presence, illness seems to ebb away for a time. Even the most critical and damning illness doesn't really have any sway. This is unfortunately only remission. Your absence slowly brings the illness back. Leaving your blood behind will help prevent that.

Flow -200 CP (Discounted for Ultimate Lifeform)

Other bodies aren't built for conducting energy as well as yours is. If you were struck by lightning, you could flawlessly push it into your phone enough for a full charge without damaging it and store it for later use. This works for other powers too, though results may vary depending on the energy. The higher output stuff might still hurt you significantly so don't throw yourself into a thunderbolt or the like.

Restrict and Release -400 CP (Discounted for Ultimate Lifeform)

Scary. You can store your own pools of energy that you don't use for extended periods of time, allowing you to either sandbag yourself or prep for other turns of events. The moment you call on it, it floods out like a tsunami of pure napalm. Best be careful though, your body might tear itself under the stress of all that. May all those that try to stand in your way fall to your might.

Shard Of Power Booster: Inhibitors

You can now release these restrictions in small bursts, allowing you to avoid some of the drawbacks of going all out. It's tricky to master, but it's good in a pinch. Your might is infinite, but even you most know the benefit to precise power.

Ultimate Lifeform -600 CP (Discounted for Ultimate Lifeform)

You ain't no lizard, you ain't no hedgehog. You are... all of you. You have sense above anything found in the natural world in a long shot. Nothing can hide for you for long. You are also able to tap into Chaos powers, capable of some massively effective abilities such as Chaos Control and Chaos Spear. It should be clear to you all the benefits make you worthy of the ultimate lifeform

Reminder Of The Past Booster: BLACK ARMS

What kind of Ultimate Lifeform would you be if you couldn't perfect yourself as you went? Using a part of your genetic makeup, you can forcefully evolve new powers and forms for whatever threat you face. Wings for flight, sharp energy slashes for ranged attacks, another body for... surfing? These powers are stressful and drain your power the more powerful they are. Something approaching a super form would quickly bottom out your reserves.

Flow Booster: Flow of Chaos

If you can see and prepare your body for an attack, you can easily capture and store the energy. You can also set a single type of energy that this works on automatically, allowing you to not even prepare for the attack for it to not be a power. The only limits are the basic forces like gravity and kinetic energy. It's clever, but a little too powerful.

DWN_0 Perk Tree:

Heroism Beyond Ages -100 CP (Free for DWN_0)

Even when your chassis bends and breaks, even when your memory banks erode, the soul can't be stopped. No matter what happens, the gentle voice of your innermost self whispers to you, reminding you who you are at your core. It's the smallest things that never break.

Faerie Monarch -200 CP (Discounted for DWN_0)

Unseen to the eyes of the normal man, the Cyber Elves play. These programs project themselves into reality from cyberspace and have a variety of effects. You can create these elves and set them any sort of role you could choose. Imagine like a little helper in a video game. The only limit is that most of the quickly made ones cease to be after fulfilling their role. They don't mind too much though.

Cyber Swordsman -400 CP (Discounted for DWN_0)

The way you move, the way you strike, even the way you dodge betray what your original purpose is. You are a savant of mechanical combat against all manor of threats, especially machines. You can even rip out machinery out of your enemies and use it yourself. You're immensely creative as well, coming up with techniques on the fly.

Shard Of Power Booster: Messiah

You're more of a god of combat now, able to directly utilize your new energy source, you can bring any weapon you wield into a weapon capable of the same capabilities of your body. If you're strong enough to cut a mountain, even a rusty knife would be that strong in your hands. If you had a weapon more powerful, you can amp that weapon by the same level.

Jumper Virus -600 CP (Discounted for DWN_0)

You are a plague upon the world of machines, Jumper. You are the Subject Zero of one of the most dangerous viruses to ever exist. At will, you can unleash it upon all machines around you, turning them from their normal programming to becoming aggressive beasts under your control. It can even enhance their properties along with yours if you so wished. You can choose who this affects, but there are a few one of a kind machines you can't affect.

Reminder Of The Past Booster: Jumper Sigma

You thought that you should've stopped with just machines? You took some tips from across the multiverse and figured out how to spread your virus to even other life forms. Humans, gods, even eldritch beings can be corrupted by you. You also have more control over how it affects your victims. You can empower them without taking their minds or just bend their minds and memories to your needs.

Faerie Monarch Booster: Emperor of The Elves

You have become more in line with a Cyber Elf than a plain robot. Even more than that, you're a match for the Mother Elf. You can manipulate the "DNA" or "soul" of robots to cause massive augmentations to their physical bodies. Even turning a weak Reploid into a match for Zero. You also can mass produce stronger Cyber Elves along with being the perfect Anti Virus. A beautiful, but horrific emperor.

Items:

Any lost or stolen items will return to you after a week in the same condition as when you had it. Any damaged items could potentially be repaired and have the broken condition removed if worked on by a capable engineer.

Z Saber - 200

An elegant weapon for a more civilized age. This blade is fueled by your internal energy reserves and at base can cut through basically any substance. You can import any weapon into this and also gain the benefit of being able to shift into different forms, sword, shield, lance, whip, anything you could desire.

Companions:Shard of Another World- 200

You saw him falling out of a violent rift from another world. A damaged robot in the shape of a certain blue blur but black and yellow. He was a tad out of it when you found him, but his sass and annoying traits come back to him once he's back in one piece. He's loyal to you for saving him, but his loneliness comes through in the quiet moments. There's someone he needs to find. Someone he loves more than anyone else.

Biohazard The Lizard- 200

Aw, cute little bugger. While this guy might look like a standard Mobian, he actually didn't originate as one. He was once a humble little lizard who was experimented on by Gerald Robotnik. In this world, he got the results he wanted. Somewhat. Biohazard is a sweet fella, but he's prone to bouts of anger and fury due to the process. Please don't hold it against him. It's just how he's wired. He has all the perks from Ultimate Lifeform tree.

Ω- 200

An old droid you found on one of your journeys in a waterlogged lab. His memory is absolutely gone, but he resonated with the single symbol found on his chamber door. Omega. He's a quiet man, loyal to the first person he met. His only built in trait is a seeming sadism and lust for battle. This comes secondary to protecting the first person to ever show it kindness. His skill makes it almost seem like he's the legendary warrior of old. He has hair... He has all the perks in the DWN_0 origin,

Flesh Sonic- 100

Good God, what the fuck is that?! WHAT IS THAT?!

This... entity has taken bits and pieces of flesh and bone to fashion itself somewhat similar to the blue blur. It's a bad facsimile though. He's nowhere as fast, strong, or even witty as the original. Don't mistake him as malevolent though, his emulation comes from a genuine sense of admiration for Sonic. His means are... disgusting though. He'll happily join you for a chance to meet his idol and get his hedgehog's seal of approval. He'll even be of use to you, he can graft any flesh to his own as easily as he breathes(?).

SONIC.RUN- 100

She isn't a god, no. This is... another bizarro variant of another world. This creepy ass program stuck on a Genesis Cartridge also looks like Sonic, but her uncanniness comes from how she can at will look like a hyper realistic hedgehog. Not hyperrealistic Sonic, just a normal fucking hedgehog. When she isn't trying really hard to spook you, she is a sweetie who will help you once she's released from her prison. She can "haunt" any machine you can get her data into and cause mild manipulations that border on the supernatural.

She won't admit it... but she wants to meet Amy Rose. She actually doesn't like looking like Sonic and wants to base a new form off of Amy.

On the bright side, if someone has already given you a task which you are currently working on, people are less likely to give you new tasks.
